BEASTIALITY STORIES

Back to 1st Part

Becky fell asleep with the taste of dog cum in her mouth, not that it was the first time for it. Finally waking up she looked over at her sister who was still sleeping. Madison's color wasn't very good she thought but from where she was, she couldn't be certain. Seeing movement out of the corner of her eye, she noticed one of the men coming into the room and walking over to Madison's bed. Lifting up the covers, he reached under and started to fondle the girl. First her small breasts then sliding down her stomach to reach between her legs. Pushing her legs further apart, she could see him molest her sister and from what she could see he was doing, he was trying to push more fingers inside her.

Trying to speak with the tube still in her mouth, she mumbled as loud as she could until the man looked at her while still rooting between her sister's legs. Moving to the side of the bed, the man reached into a drawer and pulled out a bag of some kind and then another. Seeing a bulb on the bottom Becky figured it would inflate somehow and watched as he fed it inside her sister's vagina. She watched as he continued to squeeze the bulb until she noticed her sister's stomach start to rise a bit. Checking the size of it the man smiled while giving it a tug then brought the other over to Becky's bed. "Seeing as you are awake, spread your legs open please" he asked, then waited for Becky to open them. "I am not going to ask again" putting his hand on her leg, then watched as she spread them apart. "Keep going, need them wider than that" then waited till she was spread eagled across the bed. "Very good Becky, now lay still while I get this inside you", then felt him push it up inside her. She watched as he once again squeezed the bulb and felt it enlarge in size. In a very short time it started to feel really uncomfortable and she started to groan and try to move around on the bed. "Relax Becky, been awhile but I heard you had lots bigger than this thing inside you" as he continued to pump it.

Seeing her own stomach start to swell, she knew how big the one inside her sister must have been. "Why are you doing this to us" Becky asked. "Really, you are asking me that after what you have done, you are making movies fucking animals Becky, and now your sister too" he replied. Checking on how big the device was, he left the room. Becky laid there wondering what they were going to do to them next and started to cry thinking what was going to happen to her sister. She wasn't sure she would be able to take much more, certainly not after the ape and the dogs went at her. Both girls looked like they were 5 months pregnant with the way their stomachs were bulged, then watched as Ramone reached between her legs and unhooked the pump attached to the balloon inside her. "I was advised these were going to be inside you both overnight so you were both opened up, not sure yet what you two will be fucking next" then he turned and walked away. Then stopping at the door, he turned and advised that whatever it was, they would be side by side this time, and continued out the door.

Madison laid in the bed, thinking about what had happened at her house and to her Mom upstairs with those men and that dog. She realized what the dog was doing to her Mom and from what she had just gone through with so many of them, wondered if she was okay with that man going upstairs with the bat in his hand. Was he going to hit their Mom with it or what? She shuddered to think that after watching that dog on top of her, if that man was going to try putting that bat inside her somehow. Thinking of their Dad brought something she couldn't really decide on, rage, hurt so many things that she never ever expected him to do with his two daughters and what he has put us through because of his gambling, not to mention to his wife. Not knowing what was in store for her and her sister tonight, that bat would be small in comparison what would be inside them both.
