BEASTIALITY STORIES

The dog nudged my crotch as I stopped to catch my breath after walking up the steep hillside. I walked this every day for exercise. It made my endurance for basketball much better. The dog always came with me; today, he was a little unruly. Every time I stopped, he nosed my crotch to keep walking. I guess he was great motivation for me to keep my ass moving. I continued up the hillside till I reached the top. When I hit the meadow at the top, I flopped down on the tall grass and wildflowers that grew in clumps and patches. I stared at the white, fluffy clouds, trying to catch my breath. The dog flopped down beside me and put his face on my belly. I scratched his head as I lay there resting.

The dog moved his head over my pussy and began to nudge me, I tried to move his head away, but he would have none of it. He moved back to my crotch. His nose was stuck into my jeans, and he licked at my pussy. The roughness of his tongue was something that I could feel beneath my tight jeans. I wondered how it would feel to have his tongue on my pussy. I lay there thinking about how wrong it would be to do this. Worse, what if someone walked up behind me and caught me letting the dog lick my little sweet tight pussy. I had never been with anyone before; at 18, I was still a good girl.

I had a boyfriend or two last year, but I never let them do anything other than kiss me. The dog continued to lick my jeans. Sitting up, I shoved his head off my lap. I glanced around. There was no one up there in that meadow. There never was, except at hunting season. I stood up and unzipped and unbuttoned my jeans; sliding them down my legs, I wiggled my hips to get out of them. They were exceptionally tight, but the guys liked to look at my ass, and I knew it, so I wore them tight. No different than any other girl in 1983. I moved the jeans down; kicking off my shoes, I slipped them off and stood in the middle of a meadow in my blue bikini panties.

Laying back down, the dog was on me again; I shoved him off. I wanted to get myself situated before I let him have me. But he would have no part of it. I lay back on the grass; I pulled my panties down to expose my little blondish-red hairy-covered cunt. The dog moved into position; he began to lick at my pussy lips. I was surprised at how smooth and hot his tongue was. It felt very good as he continued to lick at the outside of my pussy. I bent my legs and spread them further apart; as I did this, my lips gapped open, and my little slick inner lips and my clit was exposed to his tongue. He sniffed and then began to slowly lap at my clit.

I had chills in my arms, and my back automatically arched as he licked at my hardening pink little clit. I raised my head so I could watch his long tongue roll out of his mouth and lap across my clit. I didn't know how long I could stand the licking; he stopped and licked his chops and nose. I put my fingers down to touch my pussy, I was soaking wet, and it was not just his slobbering it was my juices as well. I wanted him to continue, I spread my legs further, and his nose went to my little tight virgin pussy hole. I felt his tongue between my slick inner lips, his tongue snaking up into my hole. I moaned softly, moving my hand into my shirt. I began to massage my nipples as he licked.

I felt my thighs tighten as I became very excited. His breathing had sped up as well, and he stood up, towering over me as he licked at my lick and my hole. I could see around under him, and his cock hung down. It was big and red and hard, almost touching the ground. He moved up over me, and I could feel his cock touching my wet pussy. I pulled my legs up and apart; I felt him probing to get his dick into my pussy. I wanted it; I didn't care if I lost my virginity to the dog at this point. I just wanted badly to be fucked, and fucked right now.

I felt the head of his hard dick enter my tight little hole, he shoved, and there was a lot of resistance. I could feel a pain between my legs, and I breathed in sharply and held my breath as his cock broke through and he pumped me hard. I kept my legs pulled up and apart as he fucked me. His front end never moved, but his back end rammed my pussy hard and fast. The feeling deep inside my pussy was hot as he hit my cervix with every stroke. He continued to try to get all of his big hard cock into me, but I was too small to take it all. I could feel the fluid from his cock running out of my cunt down the crack of my ass. He continued to try to knot me as he fucked me harder.

I moved my hand down to my clit; I moved my fingers down a little so I could feel his cock slamming me harder and harder. I ran my fingers across my clit, moved my middle finger over to the left side of my clit, and began to rub as he continued to shove his cock deeper and deeper. At times the pain was intense, and I would yell out, but nothing stopped him as he fucked my little puss. I continued to rub my clit faster and harder, and then I came. My thighs twitched my ass clinched tight as my pussy grabbed his cock and sucked more of it in. I felt a pop and terrible pain; I realized I had taken that huge knot into my slit.

I looked down and could see that my pussy was stretched out huge. The inner lips were stretched out, and my clit stuck up because it was pulled so taunt. He continued to fuck me harder. I reached down and touched my clit where the middle was stuck up. It was insanely sensitive; as I rubbed it, I came almost immediately. I felt his hot cum filling the inside of my cunt. There was so much it ran out and down the crack of my ass. My dog had stopped moving as he waited for his knot to go down so he could pop it out of my pussy. His cock popped out, and he walked off a little from me.

I sat up and looked down between my legs to see the damage. There was blood on my inner thigh from the popping of my tight little hymen. My pussy hole was gapped open round and slick with cum that just in a continuous stream ran out. When I stood, cum plopped out all over my legs. I was sore but managed to squeeze myself back into my jeans. I was pretty cum soaked as I walked back down that hill toward the house to clean my pussy up. I had certainly had a good fuck in the meadow that afternoon, and I'm pretty sure my dog did too!
