Back to 1st Part

Becky held her sister and wiped off her chin where Jeff had leaked onto after Madison sucked his cock. "Why do they keep doing this stuff to us"? Madison asked her sister. "Because they can Madison, they know we can't stop them and don't have anyone who will" and hugged her sister a bit tighter. Knowing what was going to happen to them in a few hours, Becky asked her sister if she was hungry, and nodding her head she was, Becky got out of the bed and walked to the open door. Looking around for someone, she saw one of the nurses walk out of a room. "Hi, could we get something to eat please,"? Becky asked. Walking towards her, the nurse saw that Becky was naked and seeing her sister in the bed still, guessed that she was as well. "How would you like to go down to the cafeteria to stretch your legs a bit and eat there for a change", "let me ask Jeff if that's okay and I will get something for you both to wear", then she turned and walked towards Jeff's office.

Reaching his office, Janice knocked on his door, then was told to come in. Inside, she saw Jeff as well as Dr Paul there and asked their opinion about the girls going to the cafeteria for something to eat. Looking at Paul, Jeff asked him what he thought and not hearing anything to the negative, said "sure, let them go down for awhile, but make sure Ramone knows, just to keep an eye on things." Grabbing a couple of track suits out of the closet, Janice went back to the girl's room and told them that these should fit okay and when dressed come out to the hall and she would show them where to get some food.

After the door closed, Jeff asked if they did the right thing? "I don't see any harm and I did tell Becky what was happening at 5PM tonight, other than the Tapir and kangaroo, so maybe they deserve some quiet time before they are mounted again". "Also Becky can take a look around and try to guess what 30 guys will be fucking her and her sister most of the night", he laughed. Hearing his phone ring, Jeff grabbed it and was told by Ramone the girls were in the cafeteria and were there any special instructions? "No, Jeff replied, let them relax for a while but make sure they are back in the room by 4PM so they can get their shots", then hung up the phone.

Becky knew that for sure they were both going to be swallowing a lot of cum very soon and didn't want either of them to eat too much to try and not have their stomachs upset later. "Let's have some pancakes, Becky suggested, and maybe just have a cup of tea with some honey in it", trying to make sure they didn't have any milk that would curdle for sure under all the cum. Madison nodded her head in agreement, still not knowing what would be happening tonight. Walking up to the little window to the kitchen, Becky waited for someone to ask what they would like to eat, then went and sat back with her sister till it was ready. Becky saw quite a few men looking at them as they sat there and wondered if any of these men would be there tonight, a lot of them were very big and thought those would be the ones showing up.

Ramone sat at a table and over a cup of coffee watched the girls as they waited for their breakfast, and smiled at Madison as she swung her feet underneath the table. She really acts like a little girl he thought and when he saw the food put on the kitchen ledge, walked over and picked up the trays and took them over to the girls. "Hello ladies, I hope you enjoy your breakfast", and would it be okay if I sat and joined you while I finished my coffee? Looking at each other they nodded it was okay, then after putting down the trays walked back to his table for his coffee cup.

Madison looked over at him a couple times, then to Becky while eating her pancakes. "Is everything okay Madison?", Ramone asked. Turning her head and looking at him, Madison started to tear up and Becky reached over and held her hand. "Madison, there is nothing to cry about" said Ramone, "just enjoy your breakfast and after your are through, would you like to go for a walk and see the dolphins"? Becky had already seen the dolphins but after being told what would be happening tonight, knew that Ramone didn't mean for Madison to have to do anything with them, yet anyway. Looking at Becky, she saw her big sister nod her head yes and told Ramone she would like that very much please.

Standing up Ramone told the 2 girls to finish their breakfast and he would be right back for them shortly, then left to walk over to the aquarium to set things up for the girls. Knowing the dolphins were trained for other than just fucking girls, Ramone told the trainer there feeding them to have them do a small show for half an hour or so. Asking if anyone would be joining the dolphins in the water, Ramone told him not tonight, just a usual show they would see at a water show somewhere. Giving a couple of blasts on his whistle, he brought the dolphins closer to finish feeding them and to set a few things in his mind for the dolphins to do.

Watching her sister finishing her breakfast Becky didn't know when to tell her what would be happening later but decided that now wasn't the time, let her enjoy the dolphin show, especially that it wasn't going to be like the one she had been in. Looking at her empty plate, Madison asked her sister if she could have some more but Becky told her to let that settle and maybe after the show they could get something else to eat. Then Ramone showed up with a big bag of popcorn and a big soft drink for the girls to share, "Can't watch a water show without popcorn can you" then Madison had a big smile as she took the popcorn and told Becky to get up and come on, let's watch the show, and the girl caught up to Ramone and looking up at him and smiling, told him thank you. Looking down at the girl, Ramone smiled and told her she was welcome, then told her that maybe later tonight, he would see them again. Then before Madison could ask why later, they were walking to the door to the aquarium and walked inside to watch the show. It was a good break for the two girls and the dolphins were well trained to do tricks and jumps rather than what they had done to Becky. As they sat there Becky saw the diver and camera man walk towards them and stood beside the girls. "Hi Becky, who is this lovely girl"? the diver asked. Turning her head Madison smiled and told them her name then focused back on the dolphins. "Is she going to be playing in the water with them too"? he asked. Ramone looked at him and told him that "maybe down the road Madison would play with them like Becky did, but right now they were enjoying watching them jumping around" then with a jerk of his head, basically told the men to get lost.

The show lasted almost an hour and coming up to 3PM, Madison asked if they could see anything else. "Not really right now Madison, how about you go back to Becky's room and watch something on t.v., then later on we can probably do something together again". "Okay, that sounds good too, and thank you for taking us to the dolphin show" then reached around giving Ramone a hug. When they got back to the room Madison kept on about the dolphins and when did Becky swim with them and was it fun and when do you think she could swim with them too? Becky looked at her smiling sister and decided that now was the time to tell her what was happening tonight, and why they were having sex with the animals.

Madison, come sit down hun, I need to talk to you about some stuff, and waited for her sister to sit beside her. "Madison, do you know why they are making us do sex stuff with these animals, the ape and the dogs"? Madison shook her head no. "The reason is because our Dad was very very stupid and owed some bad people lots of money and he let them take us to help pay them back with us making dirty movies for them to sell". "That's what happened when they took me to the farm earlier and now what they are doing to both of us now". Madison looked at her sister and wondered why the man asked if she was going to be swimming with the dolphins too, then realized that Becky must have had to do stuff with them in the water before. "I am so sorry that Dad got us involved with these men but when Ramone told you he would probably see you later and do more stuff, they are going to have a bunch of men do sex stuff with us, probably for a long time tonight". "And I am sure that that man Jeff and Dr Paul will be there too doing stuff with us, that's why they had those balloon things inside us to make us bigger down there, and will probably give us a needle as well soon, so big things going in us won't hurt as bad".

Madison told Becky what she saw them doing to their Mom with the dog and those men and how their Dad looked so scared.

Just then Ramone, walked back in with a couple of syringes in his hand and Madison knew what her sister said was true. They watched as Ramone took Becky's arm and put the needle in then as he reached for her arm Madison drew it away from him. "I thought you liked us Ramone, why are you doing this to us?" Madison cried. Ramone gave Becky a very dirty look then told her to make sure Madison did as she was told, NOW. Becky told her sister to give him her arm and Ramone held it as he gave her the shot to loosen her insides to avoid any damage. "I guess your sister told you what would be happening tonight Madison from your change of attitude towards me, so I will not mince words. Did you see some of those big men in the cafeteria he asked?" Nodding her head she did, Ramone told her that there were going to be at least 30 men like that to play some games with her and her sister, and that himself and Jeff and Dr Paul were sure to join in too. "And at the end you both will have a big finish to the evening" but didn't tell her what would be happening. "Both of you have a shower now and get all freshened up, then you will find what you are wearing tonight in the closet, now get going."

After their shower, while toweling off the girls looked into the closet to find what they were to wear but not what they expected. On two little hangers Becky saw what they were to wear, the smallest lingerie she ever saw, one set in pink and one in white. Looking at them Madison said "I guess I get the white ones eh" then reached in and grabbed the hanger they were on. Grabbing the pink ones, Becky held them up to the light and might as well as had nothing, they were completely see through. Turning her head she noticed that Madison had already put hers on and could see everything the girl had to offer, nothing was left to the imagination. Putting hers on as well the girls looked into the mirror and said nothing, they were speechless. The door behind them opened and Ramone was standing there, "let's go ladies, the party starts soon" and waved them out the door. Looking at the girls, he noticed how see through the outfits were he got them and marvelled how cute their asses looked. "Go out the door in front of you Becky, then turn left when you get outside" then followed behind the girls. They walked for a couple of minutes and Becky saw they were heading towards what looked like a barn, and shuddered that they lied and they were going to be doing it with more animals again. But coming up to the barn and going inside, Ramone told them to turn left and walked into a big room with 2 big mattresses on the floor and bright lights shining onto them. "Becky, you are the oldest so you pick what mattress you want", then looking at him, she thought that was quite the choice to give her, what bed do you want to get fucked all night on. She took Madison's hand and walked between the two, guiding Madison to the one on the right, taking the left for herself. Standing there, not sure what to do, they waited for Ramone to say something. Then they could hear some laughing and yelling coming from another door where some really big men started to come into the room. They cat called and waved their beer bottles and glasses of whatever in the air. The men all walked towards them then started to line up in front of the mattresses.

Jeff and Paul walked in the room and then told the guys to settle down a bit and would tell them how things were going to go down tonight. "Dr Paul and I will be going first with the girls tonight and Ramone will join in after that. When we are done, you can go in ones, twos or threes on the girls until you all can go no more." Now ladies, let's take off those cute panties and bend over pointing to the gentlemen to see what they will be dipping into tonight, and I mean now. "Madison looked at Becky and watched as she nodded her head, knowing they were going to have to do it. Watching Becky as she turned towards the men and spreading her legs, bent over showing herself to the men. Madison, sniffled a bit but like her sister turned and bent over as well to hoots and hollers from the men.

Paul looked at Jeff and started to take off their clothes and throwing them on a small table, Paul walked over behind Madison while Jeff walked over behind Becky. Reaching forward Paul ran his finger between Madison's legs, knowing that this was her first experience with a man inside her cunt. He could see her legs shaking as she bent over then kneeling down behind her, grabbing her hips he drove his tongue in her pussy, licking from bottom to top. Madison never felt anything like that before, no pain making her hurt, just a surprise that felt good. She relaxed while Paul held her hips and pulled her further onto his tongue. Jeff also reached toward Becky but instead of running his finger in her slit he shoved two fingers inside her, making her grunt and pull forward a bit. "Come on Becky, you have had much bigger in there, let's try again" and then he put three fingers together and shoved them inside her. She still grunted but didn't move forward that time. Jeff slid them inside her further until his palm was flat on her cunt. Pulling them out of her he watched Paul with his tongue in Madison while moving in front of Becky. Lifting her head by the hair Jeff pulled Becky up until she was even with his cock, then opened her mouth as he fed it into her. "Madison, watch what your sister can do" then waiting till Madison turned her head grabbing Becky harder, fed his cock down her throat till his balls were mashed against her chin. Holding himself there while Becky gargled around it trying to get some air to breathe. "Dr Paul is going to see if you can do that to after he finishes getting you nice and wet" then pulled out while Becky gasped for a breath.

Leaning back Paul left Madison's crotch a soaking mess while he walked in front of her and pulled her head up. "okay girly, let's get those lips around my cock and see how much you can take", then proceeded to slice in and out of her mouth. She was doing well, and gagged a couple times when Paul pushed in to far. "Okay Madison, it's nice and wet, now relax your throat and when it gets close start to swallow, then it should go right down", "okay, here it comes and holding her head fed his cock without stopping down her throat. Panicking with the size of it, rather than swallow, Madison's breakfast came up and through her nose and whatever room was left in her mouth that Paul was not filling. Jumping back, Paul was covered from cock to knees in vomit and Madison fell on her hands and knees crying her eyes out. Thinking Paul was going to be really mad at her and hit her, he was surprised when she felt a hand on her head then a cloth being wiped on her face cleaning her up. "I'm sorry Dr Paul, I really tried, don't be mad at me please". "Don't be silly Madison, you took my cock all the way down your throat so we know you can do it, and after all these men are through with you, I am sure you will have a lot of cum going down your throat and in your tummy".

"Okay then, let's get you onto your back with your legs in the air Madison, Dr Paul is going to be your first human cock in your sweet cunt" then climbing on top of her, pushed his cock in her, feeling that she had tightened up nicely after her animal fucks. "How does it feel with a man's cock in there Madison", he asked? "It feels okay, it doesn't hurt really", as he fed it to her a little harder. "I am ready to cum now so I don't want to hog you too much with all the men waiting so I am going to be your first belly full of man cum inside you, who knows, maybe after tonight you might become a Mommy and mine will be in there first". And with that he shot rope after rope of cum against her cervix. Laying on top of her for a minute, he finally pulled out and watched as her cunt leaked cum and slid down to her ass. "Okay gent's, let the fucking begin" and stepped away from Madison as the men came towards her for her first triple fuck of her young life.

Becky watched as the men went for her sister, just as Jeff unloaded down her throat for her first feeding of the night. Pulling back from her, he wiped his cock in her hair then told the men to join in and keep up with the other mattress, but Dr Paul walked over to Becky and told her to make him proud and slipped his cock in her mouth for a few seconds, as she watched her sister being covered by the men. It was going to be a long and wet night for the two young girls, and were not aware of what their last two cocks would be.
