BEASTIALITY STORIES

Have you ever wondered what your wife does at home when you're away at work every day?

I had never given it a lot of thought until I found a few pairs of absolutely cum drenched panties. I decided to bide my time and see if I could catch her in the act of something.

Besides, Carmel, our 110-lb Husky, would not let anybody intrude on our quaint, tiny home without a trip to the Emergency room.

Carmel was a rescue dog from a neglectful home, so he became very protective when he found his loving pack, Jodie and me. He was a beautiful snow-white except for the light brown patches on his head, chest, and hind legs. He stood tall and had a lean, robust build, even for a husky.

Jodie fell in love with him instantly because of his dual-colored eyes. The left one was a bright, dazzling amber color, while the other was as light and blue as the summer sky.

We took him home that day, and he's been with us for about seven months. He sleeps in our bed, eats supper, and vacations with us.

My name is Carter. Jodie and I were high school sweethearts who decided we were lifelong soul mates. We have been together for nearly 11 years now. I just recently turned 27, and she is 26.

She had larger than average tits that were a 36 triple D. To go with them was a beautiful pair of pink nipples perfect for sucking while she rode my cock, which she loved almost as much as I did. I loved sucking her tits while her amazing hazel/green eyes peered down at me, filled with lust, as I caressed her legs up and down with my calloused hands.

Her dirty blonde hair would wave back and forth in a hypnotizing manner. Her stomach wasn't perfectly flat like those models on TV, but I preferred her body so much more. Especially when paired with her thick thighs, perfectly plump ass, and long legs.

I'm pretty average myself, I'd say. At six foot two and 250lbs, I stand about a head taller than my little nympho wife. Im not quite fat, but I have a belly with a wisp of hair trailing down my chest. My short blonde hair trailed down to my reddish beard, which rested below my crazy dark brown eyes that dazzled in the sunlight. I wasn't hung by any means, but I guess I'm better off than many gents. I was only about two inches when I was soft, which could be a bit embarrassing until I got good and worked up, in which case I was a good fat six inches quickly. My cock has a gentle upward curve with a few large veins traveling down it, which Jodie said she loved and admired.

Anyways, onward to the story. It was like any other Wednesday, except we finished up a few hours early at work. I had grown curious about the panties I'd been finding at home, so I decided to surprise my wife and see what was going on while I was at work.

I quietly pulled into the drive at our home and entered the front door so quietly that I wouldn't alarm Carmel if he were near the door. It was mostly quiet aside from a faint tapping sound down the hall. So that's where I went, creeping slowly and silently.

I peered around the corner to see what was happening and was immediately shocked. She was on her hands and knees while this guy filled her pussy full of his humongous red cock. His paws gripped her waist while he hit every pleasure spot possible.

It was Carmel. Our good boy Carmel was giving it to my naughty wife as hard as possible. I was so surprised and so aroused to see this sight. She screamed out in pleasure, yelling, "Fuck my tight pussy, Carmel! Faster! Harder!" Then groaned in pleasure from the tennis ball-sized knot that had forced its way in, hitting her g spot.

Now, I decided it was time to surprise my wife. I slowly and quietly drop my work slacks to the ground, allowing my rigid cock to stand up, curving towards the ceiling, ready to fuck.

I approach from behind, saying, "So this is what my naughty nympho wife does all day when I'm at work. I found your panties the other day and knew it was something. I couldn't have imagined it would have been something sooo...hot." I said as her eyes showed surprise and caused her to rock backward, rubbing her g spot on his fat knot, causing another wave of uncontrollable pleasure.

She tries to speak, but it turns to a mighty moan as Carmel slowly rocks his member back and forth. I put my fat dick to her lips, which she instantly swallows as if she'd fantasized about this already. Her head bobbed back and forth on my cock as she rocked her pussy up and down on that massive cock of Carmel's and his knot.

I hear a slight pop, and the massive cock slides out, allowing all their juices to escape slowly. I blew my load down Jody's throat at that sight, causing her to moan and swallow.

"Now it's my turn to use your tight little cunt," I said as I withdrew my fat cock from her lips to approach her other lips. I lean over her back as I rub my cock on her clit, "Now you'll be filled up with all three of our cums." Then I push it into her, spreading her tight lips apart as I feel the cum combine on my cock.

I slid in with no resistance from the gushes of cum already left. Her pussy gripped my cock so tight even though Carmel's massive member had just been in her.

Carmel took this opportunity to get him again and walked to the other end of Jodie, and she already knew what he was demanding. She didn't dare hesitate as she nearly lunged forward to take his fat cock in her mouth, tasting his doggy cum. I fucked as hard, fast, and deep as I could and was rewarded with the warm gush of cum on my dick as she climaxed. Then Carmel drenched her face with the giant load he had left in reserve, and she licked his cock up and down, not missing a bit.

As hard as I tried, I couldn't hold myself back after seeing her getting cummed on by Carmel, and apparently, neither could she for this last, glorious orgasm. I grabbed her curvy hips and pulled her tight to me as I buried my fat dick as deep as it would go and blew probably the biggest load I'd ever had inside her beautiful pussy. Her lips clenched around me, and she orgasmed again, sending us both into pure bliss. And Carmel began cleaning our loads off of her face and tits.

Then, with one bright, gorgeous green eye peeking out from behind the cum covered face, she said to me, "Oh babe, you're home early," and licked the cum from around her mouth with her tongue.

The End
