BEASTIALITY STORIES

Kelly just turned 16 yesterday but she had this recurring dream about black men. It started with a drawing she saw in one of all places the girls washroom at school. Not something you would expect to see in a high school bathroom. But it had her thinking about his "Thing" and if it was true what it said about being that big. Turning to her new computer, she googled the hotel she thought was near it on maps, then found the building where the alleyway was supposed to be where this man Booker was. It was warm that day so she wore a new sundress she had picked up along with her new phone and left the house and headed to the bus stop across the street from her house. She was going to meet her friend Ivy at the mall after she talked to this man about his huge black thing, if it was even true.

Kelly sat on the bus, not really paying much attention to the other people on the bus as she sat there with her hands in her lap, palms sweating wondering if she was doing the right thing. It was approaching downtown when she realized she was getting close to her stop and saw the hotel coming up ahead. Getting off the bus, she looked around and wasn't sure this was the right street, nothing seemed familiar but it was off google maps that she got her info from. Moving further away from the hotel she had saw, she could see a large fence that was torn up a bit then looking closer down the alley she could see a large garbage bin.

Walking further down the alley, as per the instructions she had read on the wall, she could see a door on her right and not getting too close, she yelled out Booker's name. Waiting a bit longer she again called him and was startled as a large black man came out of the door. "Hello sugar, you called me"? the man said. Kelly stepped back a bit. "I am looking for Booker, is he here"? Kelly asked him. Just then another black man walked out of the door and saw Kelly. "Well well, look what we got here, Bernie, go back inside while I talk to this little angel". Bernie walked back into the building and smiled as he watched the girl still standing there and hoped Booker could work his magic with her. Looking at the young girl standing in front of him he spoke to her, "You seem to know my name angel, what is yours?" he asked. Looking at her feet, she told him her name and looking at him asked how he seemed to know why she was here. Looking at the girl, Booker told her she must like to read bathroom walls, then smiled telling her that there could be trouble with them standing out in the alley and if she wanted to come inside to his apartment and have something cool to drink as it was so hot out. Kelly thought for a second then nodded her head, hoping he could answer her question. Kelly followed the large black man inside and up the stairs and hoping she was doing the right thing. As Booker walked in the door, Kelly could see the other man, Bernie she recalled, standing at the end of the hallway.

She saw Booker standing in the kitchen and walking in further, he asked her if she wanted a beer or water or a pop? "Oh please, just water as I am not old enough to drink", then realized how silly that sounds after having the thoughts she did about this man. Booker walked over to his couch and putting the bottle of water on the coffee table, tapped his hand on the couch for Kelly to sit beside him. "So Kelly, what brought you back here looking for me today" he asked her. "I had to see what you were talking about what was written on the wall and if it is true or not". Looking at the teen, Booker stood up and looked at her telling her there is one way to find out, he grabbed his waistband, pulling his pants down. Kelly gasped as his cock was out in the open. Shocked and not expecting him to do that, she looked at it and by not getting up and rushing out the door, realized part of it was true, she did love black cock. Looking at Kelly, Booker walked towards her a bit, then told her to take off her dress. Kelly looked at him and without thinking too much about it, stood up and pulled her dress off over her head, leaving her in just her panties. She watched as he walked towards her and grabbing a nipple, squeezed it between his finger, feeling it harden in his fingers. Booker reached towards her and grabbing her panty waist, pushing them down her legs. Standing there naked, Kelly watched his cock harden and reached out and put her hand around it. It was bigger than she expected, then felt him pushing her down by the shoulder and moving it towards her mouth. "I knew when I saw you it was in your dreams to worship black cock Kelly, any black cock gets you wet and you want it inside your body” as she mouthed as much as she could and felt him pushing more into her mouth.

Looking up,Booker saw Bernie looking into the room and pulling his cock out of her mouth,Booker asked Kelly if she wanted even more black cock.Turning her head and seeing Bernie behind her,looked at Booker and nodded her head.Bernie had his pants off in a flash and as Booker,lifted her up,and told them they would continue in the bedroom.Putting her onto the bed on her knees,Booker again stuck his cock in her mouth as Bernie got in behind her and Kelly pushed off Booker and told him she was a virgin. For Booker this changed things a bit as if she was virgin,it was his cock that was going to open her up.Booker told Bernie to switch places with him and getting between the teens legs,Booker lodged his large cock in her hole.Kelly yelped then grunted a bit as Booker wasn't too gentle filling her as he bottomed out inside the tight teen.Looking at Booker,Bernie had a big smile on his face as he pushed his cock into the girls mouth,grabbing her head to get better depth inside her.Kelly felt both men inside her and could almost imagining that their cocks were going to touch somewhere inside her stomach.They felt so good,maybe this was her destiny,they felt so right being inside her body.Booker felt his balls getting ready to empty inside her and holding her hips,made sure that every drop slid into the girls womb.Bernie was still pounding Kelly as Booker pulled out as Kelly's legs dropped onto the bed.Booker went in to the kitchen and grabbing a couple of beers for him and Bernie,saw the water Kelly had and smiling,thought that they were going to keep this chick for awhile,grabbed a couple pills and dropped them into the water.

Bernie continued inside Kelly,telling her how tight her throat was.Kelly heard him and smiled as she knew this was her destiny and watched as Booker walked back into the room.Bernie finally emptied himself down her throat,with Kelly feeling it squirt inside her stomach.Kelly dropped onto her side as she was handed the water bottle and the tip was put against her mouth.Booker tipped it up as the girl swallowed the cool water,not aware of the drugs inside it.”Thats a girl Kelly,this will help you feel better and make your dreams so much easier to achieve”.The two men sat around drinking their beer while playing with Kelly's body while Booker waited for the drugs to start to work.Leaning over the girl,he lifted her eyelid up and could see the girls retina shrinking with the light.”Kelly,how are you feeling angel,do you want some more black cock in you,you know you want more right”? Booker asked her.Not knowing what was happening to her,she mumbled “yes please,I want more”.Smiling at Bernie,he handed him a couple of viagra and told him they were going to use her all day and then reaching into the drawer,pulled out a bottle of lube,Booker knowing where he was going to shove his cock next.Pulling Kelly around until her ass was hanging off the bed,he watched as Bernie slid over and slipped his cock into her mouth.

Standing up,Booker hovered over Kelly as he spread the lube around his cock then squirted the bottle against her asshole,putting some inside her.Rubbing it around with his finger,he pushed the long digit inside her as Kelly groaned a bit.He worked two fingers in her then lodged the head of his cock against her starfish,then pushed into her,slowly letting her get used to the stretching.Kelly had never expected this,as out of it as she was,she knew her ass wasn't used to cock,never mind huge cocks like Bookers,so she held her breath as she felt it going deeper inside her.”Kelly honey,you are not going to shit for a week after I finish in your ass”,Booker told her.Then he felt his stomach against her ass,he had buried all of it inside the teen's stomach.Holding it there for a minute to let her get used to the stretching,laying behind her now,Booker reached around and rubbed her clit which was now enormous from what he was used to feeling on women,never mind girls.Moving his hips around while his cock shifted inside her,he finally started to pull out then shove it back into the girl.”How does that feel Kelly,I should be pretty much in your gut right now,that feeling good for you”,he asked.

It was hard for Kelly to answer with Bernie's cock shoved down her throat again but nodding her head yes,Booker knew she was okay.Watching Bernie pound the teen's throat,Booker asked Kelly if she wanted even more black cock and just then he could see her throat moving and knew that Bernie had dumped another load into her stomach. "Bernie, go down the hall and grab Rufus and George, I am sure Kelly will enjoy them as well," Booker told Bernie. "Are you sure you want George here as well?" asked Bernie. Grinding as far as he could into Kelly's round ass, he nodded that yes indeed he wanted George here as well. Bernie got off the bed and went down the hall to get Rufus and George and after Rufus answered the door, was told to come to Booker's, him and George. Rufus came into the room and had a big smile on his face seeing the naked white girl on the bed and Booker given her cock, he couldn't see if it was in her ass or cunt until he walked over and took a look, then undoing his pants, dropped them on the floor and slid onto the bed and tapped his cock on Kelly's lip until she opened her mouth for another black cock. George strutted into the room and Booker smiled knowing what was going to happen with Kelly next. George was one of the biggest and meanest looking Rottweilers around, and had a cock to match. His coat was the shiniest black and was the king of the block when it came to fucking bitches, four legged and two legged and Booker couldn't wait to see him overtop of Kelly.

George sat on the floor, watching the two men on the bed with another bitch, and knew his turn was coming soon. After Rufus and Booker had filled Kelly again with cum, Booker went and washed his cock off and came back in to see Kelly mounted again by Bernie as Rufus was unloading into her stomach. Booker went back on the bed and lifting Kelly up off the bed, had her mount him while he was on his back then slapping her ass, Rufus saw his opening and slid between their legs and wormed into Kelly's ass. "Might as well make her airtight", Bernie said then shoved his cock into the girl's mouth. They went at her for another 20 minutes until she was a sweaty mess between the three large black men. Leaving the teen on the bed the men went into the kitchen for another beer, and Rufus was given a viagra tablet as well. Grabbing the water bottle for Kelly, Booker saw George approaching the bed then shuffle his head between the girl's legs, eating what was dripping out of her stretched ass and cunt.

Kelly laid there with her arm over her eyes and felt the tongue licking her and opened her legs wider as it felt so good. Booker walked up to the girl telling her to drink some water as she was covered in sweat from being mauled by the three men. Kelly felt the cool water on her lips and taking a drink, didn't know it was still the bottle with that little something extra in it. "I have some more black cock for you Kelly, remember we talked about how you wanted more, well I have a real special black cock for you know, you still want it Kelly?" Booker asked her. Swallowing more water, she nodded her head and told him yes sir, more black cock please. Smiling at the girl, Booker grabbed George by the collar and pulled him over to the side of the bed, right beside Kelly's head. "Open your mouth Kelly, here is more black cock for you." Smiling, Kelly leaned over the edge of the bed and felt the cock on her lips as she opened her mouth and took some in. It was strange, it didn't feel like a normal cock and then looking harder at what was being put in her mouth, realized it wasn't a man's cock. "That is a dog's thing", Kelly yelped as she moved back. "No Kelly, this is more black cock for you, look at him, is he not black like you need?" It was foggy in her mind now, but she thought back to what she saw on her computer and how it made her wet.

Kelly looked at the dog in front of her, it was a very shiny black, maybe Booker was right about black cock hunger, maybe this was mine after all. She looked up at Booker and nodding her head, she leaned forward and slid the dog's cock in her mouth again. It was quite big and she felt someone hold the back of her head and push her into taking more of it in her mouth. Kelly took a breath and like a man's cock, she felt it slide down her throat until its knot bumped against her chin. She had a hold of this strange thing as she moved her throat up and down it until she could feel the warm cum slide down into her stomach. She never felt cum this warm before, it was like warm milk before bed and she stayed on it until the dog finally moved back from her. Bernie and Rufus had watched her sucking on the dog's cock and knew from experience what was happening next and brought in the bench where the teen would be strapped down to while George fucked her silly.

Booker watched the girl lay back down on the bed, and looking at Bernie, made a motion of a needle and watched Bernie go back into the kitchen then come back with a syringe in his hand, "Kelly, you are filling your hunger for black cock so well, but I think you are getting tired before your next black cock, I have something to make you aware of your next cock going inside you", said Booker. Taking the needle from Bernie, Booker opened Kelly's legs while Bernie held them down and rubbing her clit a bit, stuck the needle into it. Kelly yelped at first but then her eyes opened wide and sat up in the bed. "You seem ready for more cock, is that right Kelly"? Booker asked her. Looking at him, Kelly told him yes sir, then felt herself being lifted off the bed and placed on the bench. Rufus and Bernie then strapped her onto it, chest down and on her knees. "You are now going to reach your ultimate Kelly, this is what you will want everyday and will ask me to make it happen for you, do you understand Kelly"? Booker asked.

Kelly nodded her head and waited for the next black cock to enter her, then felt weight on her back as George climbed onto her and after adjusting himself and spraying her with his lube, found her hole and shoved himself inside his newest bitch. Kelly laid on the bench and saw the three men watching her getting fucked by the massive dog for fifteen minutes then watched as her mouth opened with a silent scream and her eyes popped open as George finally powered his knot into the 16 year old. Kelly never had anything this big inside her today and it was getting bigger still. The length had breached her cervix and the head of it's cock was settled inside her womb. It kept pulling her back onto it's cock as it finally released its seed into her and filled her womb to overflowing. George stayed knotted to the teen for almost 30 minutes waiting for its knot to go down, and the men feeling it was safe to finally use her mouth while they waited for George to shrink enough to fall out of her. Booker had many friends around and he made sure Kelly was well looked after with black cock, and George had a couple of furry friends that looked after the teen as well.

Kelly never did meet Ivy that afternoon and after Booker had removed the battery from her phone, it was a week later that Kelly was found on the street by a passing patrol car. Kelly had met her black cock destiny and it turned out to be not what she hoped for. Neither was that black bundle she had in her belly now.
