BEASTIALITY STORIES

My name is Marie, and I am a 42-year-old female who loves sex. I had learned to masturbate at an early age. I still do it a couple of times a day, even now. My husband satisfied me when he was around, but he died about three years ago. I have always loved to masturbate and seem to enjoy it so much.

I have a collection of sex toys and dildos, which I use often. I keep two small hand towels on the arm of my chair and couch as I am a squirter, and my pussy floods when I cum. I use them to put under me when I masturbate. I seldom wear panties, going around the house with just a housecoat. I love to be able to sit in my recliner chair and masturbate at a moment's notice.

I was alone and wanted a companion, so I started looking for a dog to keep me company, as well as a watchdog. I found one online that would suit me and give him a good home. Little did I know just how much company he would be to me. He is about three years old and huge, weighing about 175 pounds.

A lady owned him; she had to move across the country and could not take him. She told me that he would make me a great companion. I brought them home as he seemed happy and began to learn this was his new home.

One day I sat down and spread my thighs as I started to play with my pussy. Duke was lying at my feet as I was getting so excited, wanting to relieve myself. I began to tremble as my climax approached. I was rubbing my clit so fast as I felt my cum start to flow. I had a towel under me as I dipped a couple of fingers into my wet pussy as my juices coated my fingers.

I had cum so much as I eased my hand away from my dripping pussy. I lay my hand on my leg as I noticed Duke rising. He must have smelt my sex and cum as he began to lick my wet fingers. I saw his big, red cock as the tip had slipped from its sheath. He was licking my hand as I held it there.

"You like Mommy's cum? Does my baby like my pussy juices?" I asked him as his cock slipped out more.

I let him finish and saw him as he laid down and began to lick his big, red cock. I was amazed at how big and thick it was. I got up and went to wash off my pussy juices as I thought, "Maybe he might like to lick my cum from my pussy next time."

That night, I let him get on the bed with me, sleeping at the foot of my bed. I went to sleep that night and dreamed of Duke licking my wet pussy. I woke myself up with my fingers playing with my cunt. I was under the sheets as I had another excellent cum; Duke seemed to be watching me, knowing what I was doing. I slipped my hand out from under the sheets and held it down for him to lick. Again, he slowly licked my cum stained fingers.

The next day I was sitting there after slipping off my housecoat, completely naked, as I started to rub on my horny pussy. I was so hot as I saw Duke sitting up, watching me, his huge cock now good and hard. MY GOD! He had a huge cock! I was thinking of maybe seeing if he would fuck me as I eased down onto the floor. I lay over the edge of the couch with my ass in the air as I patted my ass and called the dog's name.

Duke must have done this before because he mounted me with his paws around my hips. I could feel his big cock as he searched for my opening. I reached back and spread my pussy lips as I took his cock and guided him to me. I was so wet, and his thick doggie cock sank right into me as I felt it spreading me so wide as he thrust forward. He slammed that huge cock so deep in me, all with one long stroke. I felt it filling me as he invaded my hungry pussy. He was in, his cock so hot in me as he began to fuck me.

I was full of that hot doggie cock as I tried to thrust back into his enormous cock, buried so deep in me. I loved this as he rammed that monster cock faster to me. My pussy was milking his dick as we fucked. I started to cum as I felt his knowledge growing inside me. Then I felt my pussy being filled even more as that knot swelled up at the base of his cock.

I just thought he had filled my pussy, and now I knew he had filled me as he held his cock to me, the swollen knot having spread my pussy to the maximum as I came over and over. He stayed in me, fucking me as I felt his hot doggie cum erupting into me. It was so HOT! His cum was a lot warmer than any man's cock and cum I had ever felt before.

He must have fucked me for a good 30 minutes, pounding that hot cock to me. I lost all time as he was fucking me better than I had ever been fucked. I was enjoying his cock, as it was a little painful at first. But I had grown accustomed to his huge cock in me and had settled back, enjoying it as I continued to cum once more.

Then I felt his now relaxing as it grew smaller, finally slipping from my dripping doggie-filled cum. His cum was so hot as it ran down my thighs. I had almost passed out from cumming so many times.

Duke finally got soft as his cock slipped out of my pussy, his doggie cum dripping all over the floor as he began to lick his cock, to clean our mixed cum from it. It took me a few minutes to recover from the hot fucking I had just received. I finally rose and took a towel to keep his cum from dripping out of me to the floor. I wiped up and went to the bathroom to wash my well, fucked pussy.

The next day I had left off my robe, going nude as I knew we would be fucking again. I was in the kitchen when Duke came up behind me, jumping up onto my back as he pushed me to the floor. The floor was hard on my knees. I was on my knees as he grabbed my hips, forcing his huge cock into my pussy. I was a little sore and dry this time as he began to attack my pussy. His hot doggie cock was filling my aching pussy as he began to thrust hard as it went all the way to my womb.

Duke knew that I was his bitch now and that he could have my pussy anytime he wanted it. I started to enjoy his thick cock as he just kept slamming it to me. I was cumming again as the dog fucked my wanting pussy. I wanted it so bad as he held me to his marvelous cock. He knotted with me once more, his huge cock and knot filling my cunt to the maximum as he fucked me for a good 30 minutes.

That night my pussy was so sore from the fucking I had gotten that I did not masturbate. Duke had scratched my hips a little with his paws as he held me to his beautiful doggie cock. The next day, I found several thick mittens to put on his paws.

The very next day, I was lying on the sofa as I started to rub my still-sore pussy. Duke must have smelled my pussy as he came up between my legs. He put his nose into my crotch as he moved my hand away from my wet pussy. His hot tongue found my dripping pussy as I saw his huge, red cock sticking out. I knew he wanted my pussy as I slipped onto the floor.

I slipped the mittens on his paws. Then I lay with my chest on the sofa, offering up my ass and pussy to him. He was ready as he mounted me, pulling my hips to him as he slammed that doggie cock to me once again. After all, I was his bitch, and he wanted my hot pussy.
