BEASTIALITY STORIES

I was lying on my couch wearing nothing but my bra and panties and watching one of my favorite television shows on Netflix when I heard a dog bark outside. I paused and got up and looked outside the window, a dog was right next to my door. I looked around for its owner who was nowhere to be seen. I considered letting the dog in but then decided against and went back on the couch.

Almost after an hour, I got up after finishing the episode to check if the dog was still there. I wondered if I should've let the dog in, maybe I should've, and I might have to face punishment for not letting it in. I grabbed a robe, wrapped it around myself, and opened the door to see that the dog was still there, something was strange; I let the dog in and decided to feed it. I offered the animal some cereals not that I had dog food with me and went back to lie on the couch. After some time the dog moved and walked over to me and started sniffing me.

I got into sitting position, started playing with his fur as he continued to sniff around me, and started sniffing around my crotch, disturbed from that I got up and moved away from the couch, but the dog pounced at me and took me down. My robe started to entangle as I tried to free myself, in the process I saw his dick, hard and aimed at me, it was about 7 inches in length. I got scared and made frantic efforts to get free, but his weight was too much, by this time my robe was almost completely removed.

I made efforts and twisted my body trying to crawl away when I felt his tongue licking my thighs in full length. He then got hold of my panties with his teeth and ripped them off, and started frantically licking my pussy. His tongue was big and strong. He would take my asshole and pussy in one sweep and penetrate them a bit too. In a few minutes, my holes were filled with his doggy saliva, I was also really wet, and that's when he stopped. A part of me wanted him to continue, but the other one didn't wanna be dog's bitch.

I gathered my strength in trying to fight him off, but the dog immediately jumped on me pinning me down effectively. His wet dick hung out in front of my pussy, it was 8.5 inches in length now. In one sudden motion, he shoved half the length inside my pussy, I screamed. I realized that the neighbors might have heard and I should stay quiet, I struggled while I felt his tongue around my neck. That dog fucked me like a machine, absolutely ruining my pussy; he was too fast and strong for me. He kept fucking me at a frantic pace until I had an orgasm, I screamed loudly for which I bet the neighbors must've heard, my legs went numb my entire body collapsed beneath him. I suppose the smell of his doggy pre-cum, pussy juice, and my orgasm aroused him further.

The dog started pounding me harder than ever before, he went deep in me almost all of his 9 inches. I screamed loudly, and orgasmed again, he continued to fuck me for 10 more minutes until he finally came, he ejaculated a huge load inside my womb painting me white from inside. I felt filled with burning hot liquid as he took his dick out and finally released me. My gaping pussy leaked floods of cum, my body was absolutely thrashed he moved away from me as I continued to leak and I felt belly getting lighter from the bucket of jizz. He walked around me in circles watching what he did to my body and then stood in front of my face as if I was his bitch, and maybe I even was.

That's when I realized what he was asking. I gathered my strength and moved toward his cock, which was covered in doggy cum and pussy juice, and took in my mouth. I took it deep in my throat and choked on his big cock and licked it off clean with his doggy cum and the taste of my own pussy juice filling my mouth and throat. I took his now clean cock out of my mouth and kisses its tip, I then got up sat in front him in complete submission as I was now his bitch, he circled around my body again and then looked at me and moved his tail.

I took that as a sign that I'm free to go. "Y-Yes, sir..." I said to the dog as I got up.

My panties were torn my entire body was covered in doggy cum and pussy juice, I went on to have a bath then and clean myself off. I accepted my role as the dog's bitch and that he can fuck me whenever and however he liked.

The End
