BEASTIALITY STORIES

Back to 1st Part

Madison lay on her back as the three men walked towards her and let out a little shriek as she was picked up by one of the large men. Lifting her up and wrapping her legs around his waist, he started to bend her backwards while he feasted on her tits, sucking one of them whole into his mouth. The other two men started to feel all over her body, rubbing her ass and digging underneath her to get a finger then two inside her cunt. Lifting her away from his stomach, the man grabbed his cock and moved it around her opening, trying to nudge the other man's fingers out of the girl. Finally getting the hint, the man took hold of the cock and placed it at the girl's opening where he let the other man know she was ready, then watched as she was lowered onto her second human cock, but quite a bit bigger than Dr Paul's. Feeling a pinch while it was going in her, she moved her hips a bit to help it enter her, almost a foot of thick human cock took a minute to adjust to. Then as she slowly slid down it, she gave a little grunt as he bottomed out with a good four inches still outside her. "Don't worry baby, I am going to make sure you get every inch of this in your belly before we are through", then pulled down on her shoulders a bit to try and seat some more inside her. Getting another inch or so inside, he knelt down, then laying on his back, spread her asscheeks, letting the other man know he was ready for him. Feeling someone spit on her ass then push a finger inside her, knew what the men were going to do, then they laid there as the man above her, lined up his cock on her rosebud and slowly pushed it in her ass. Gasping while the men tried getting two very large cocks in her body, she felt her head being lifted by the hair and then she was staring at another huge cock that was pointing at her face. "Let's get this in your mouth sweetie, then you can concentrate on it till they both get inside you" then felt him push against her closed mouth then sliding over her tongue. Never having three men inside her at the same time it took a bit of time before they started to feed their cocks with any type of plan. While holding her head the man kept his cock going in and out of her mouth while the other two got into a rhythm of one going in as the other came out of her. She truly was stretched by the three men, and grunted each time one of them pushed too far inside her.

The first man in her cunt still had not got all of his cock in her and telling the men to change things up while the man in her ass laid down with her on his stomach, giving the man in her cunt, some more room to move. "Okay girly, I told you that all of this was going in you so get ready", then grabbing her by the shoulders, pulled Madison down on his cock as hard as he could as the teen cried out in pain until the man breached her uterus and felt his groin against her belly. "I told you it was all going in, then felt the man below him as well shove himself up into the girl as both had filled her holes to the max. The third man had waited till the two others drove into her then told her he was going to make her airtight, then feeding his cock in her mouth, kept pushing as he slid down her throat with 10 inches of cock. She obviously learnt quick what to do after throwing up on Paul's cock, and felt her neck stretching as the man stayed deep in her throat. Madison stared straight ahead and could only see his curly pubes in front of her, she swallowed a bit, then again. She banged on his legs and tried to push him back as she was getting dizzy from no air when he finally pulled out of her throat. Gasping for a breath he let her get a couple more than again, shoved himself down her throat. The other two men were really pounding at her now and could feel herself getting a bit sore, but knew that no one would care and she was going to be used for quite a long time tonight.

Paul and Jeff, watched the 3 men pound Madison silly, "Don't forget guys yell when you are going to cum so the next guy can get in there without any breaks, this fuckfest is ongoing till Ramone says to stop" and then saw Ramone come in with another couple of girls as naked as Becky and Madison. Pulling them in front of the two men and pushing them onto their knees, he told the girls to start eating cock and that they were going to be fluffers to keep the men in line ready to go". "Great idea Ramone as Jeff fed his cock into the girl's mouth".

Becky herself had taken all three men inside her a little easier than her sister did seeing as she had been taken more often than her sister. She could hear her little grunt each time one of the men went deep in her and hoped that she could endure what they were going to do to them, especially not having any rest between men. Then heard the man in her mouth yell that he was going to cum and prepared herself for her first mouthful which after swallowing, felt him pull out and another cock take its place. Then heard a man inside her sister yell that he was cumming and knew that she was taking her first load in her from the line of men.

It was shortly after midnight when the men had taken the girls, a couple of times each or maybe a couple more. They were both lying in a pool of cum when Ramone had yelled that this part of the party was over and seeing most of the men with their cocks now limp and having a beer, he waved at one of the employees in the back room to get the girls ready for the finale. Two men carried in small benches and put them in between the mattresses side by side. Then lifting the slippery girls onto them with their asses hanging off the ends, but head to toe so they could see each other's behinds. Then a big cheer went up as the two men brought in the tapir and kangaroo that were going to end the evening's fuckfest. Both the tapir and kangaroo were almost erect from the drugs they were given as they were led up to the girls when another man wiped a cloth scented with a female tapir and kangaroo urine between the girls' legs.

Becky's eyes were closed when she heard her sisters scream as the kangaroo mounted Madison, then looked for the reason, then seeing it mounting her sister while it was shoving a giant looking cock inside the girl. Becky had time to scream "NOOOO" before she felt something climb on top of her, then opening her cunt as almost two feet of tapir cock slowly entered her. She could hear all the men hooting and hollering while they laid there and felt their insides being moved around. Watching the animal rape, Paul and Jeff watched the two girls, "Who do you think takes more cock", Jeff asked Paul. Looking at the size of the cocks of the beasts, Paul said his money was on Becky after seeing her take on a pony at his farm before. All the men moved in closer to see the girls taking the huge cocks where most of them had been during the night, and joked between them of the difference in their cunt sizes to the animals. They all watched as the thick cocks continued pushing inside the girls, with Madison taking more of it than her sister, but only by a couple of inches. But after 15 minutes both girls had taken all their mates had as their groins pushed against the girls' asses. As soon as they were both inside both beasts bellowed as they started to cum inside the girls, and the men watched as drops of yellowish gunk pooled on the floor between the girls' legs. Then watched as their cocks dropped out of the girls and were led away by a couple of men.

Neither girl moved other than a small groan out of Madison while Paul and Jeff walked over to the girls to inspect if there had been any damage to them. Looking at Madison, Paul saw no tears or bleeding other than her lips had indeed swollen up after a night of fucking. Then moving around to Becky, saw basically the same result. "Let's get them cleaned up and put into the room Becky had so they can rest together, I am sure they are going to be quite emotional when they wake up and feel what they went through". Walking away, Jeff chuckled a bit then told Paul "he couldn't believe that they both took all that cock inside them" and agreeing Paul said "he still can't understand how, but glad there was no damage to them that he could see anyway". Two men hosed down the girls and carried them to the bedroom and placed them in the bed, as neither woke up after their ordeal. They would have to replace the mattress in the morning as the men's and animal's cum drained from their bodies as they slept.
