BEASTIALITY STORIES

This is part 2 of a post that I wrote a while ago, "Cumming for Rex", and I think I should call this part Cumming in Party for Rex. Just to give you an idea of what it was about, here's some info about me. First, when given a chance, I love to suck cock and swallow; also, I enjoy being fucked in the ass & pumped full of cum. Now on to the story.

Surprise at the bar...

I met John on one of the sex sites, and we chatted a few times; we hit it off and seemed to enjoy the same thing. He then invited me to stop by a local private bar that he went to. This is where we start in the first story. When I was there the first time, I cared for the guys in the bar. The second time, I serviced 16 guys that time. After that I had to take a break for a while, haven't been there in 9 months. But I left very puzzled by what had happened this time, confused.

John called me at the cabin I go to on weekends to fish or ski. We chatted for a while, and he asked me to stop by; he told me that Sunday evenings are quiet. I said I could drive by on my way home and check and see. Just before I left, I decided to play it safe like a good fuck and put my anal plug in for the ride down, just in case. When I arrived, two cars were in the lot, so I took out the plug and went in.

Two guys were at the bar when I walked in, and the bartender said HI to them. Knew them all from other times. John was sitting at a table, so I went and sat with him. We sat and chatted; the bartender sent me a beer, and a little later, he sent over another beer & a shot of Jack. While we were chatting, John would rub his couch, and after the beers & shot, it affected me. I was horny anyway, so I went down on my knee, unzipped his pants, and got his cock in my mouth. Buried his cock in my mouth and throat, and it felt good to have a cock in my mouth.

Just then, one of the guys from the bar rubbed my ass and told me that he and the other guy would love to fuck my ass. Never wanting to pass you a hard cock in my ass, I stood up and took off my jeans. Knelt back down and let him take my ass.

Had a cock in my mouth and a nice piece of man meat in my ass. I was in heaven. The two guys worked on putting their loads in my ass, and John filled my mouth with a load. John got up and said he had to go & the two guys thanked me and left with John; the bartender came over, unzipped his pant, and gave me another cock to take care of, yum.

As I was sucking the Tom, the bartender, someone walked in. I went to get up. Tom told me not to worry. It was Bill, the guy who took care of the place when it closed. He laughed and said Bill would be happy because he had not been here since I was the last 2 times. Out of the corner of my eye, I see him walk to the back, and just then is when Tom started cumming hard in my mouth. I just went back to joying & swallowing the load being pumped in my mouth.

Tom got up & zipped up, but Bill was right there and dropped his pants. He sat down in the chair, and when I saw his cock my mouth started to water. He had a nice size cock, but the head was large & beautiful. Couldn't wait to suck on that head and have it in my throat. When right to work sucking on that head, I also had to suck on his balls. Wanted to have him remember this blow job. I was working on his cock and trying to get that head in my throat. Bill grabbed my head and started to help me to swallow more. This is where it gets a little crazy.

I was bent over with my ass in the air, trying to get more of Bill in my throat. Suddenly, I felt something rough across my ass. At the same time, Bill started pumping his load in my mouth, and I didn't want to miss a is cock, but I felt fur, and then a pair of legs grabbed my waist. His cock started poking me 4 or 5 times; the next time, about 5 inches of cock got buried in my ass. Pull my mouth off Bill's cock and tried to see what happened. Turn my head and was greeted with teeth and a tongue. Just then, Bill opened his eyes; he jumped up and grabbed for the dog that was burying his cock in me. "Rex, get off," the dog growled and snapped at him. Rex was a Shepherd-mix and was big, not just his cock, which I was soon to find out how big. Rex went back to bury his cock into me. With each time he rammed his cock into me, it felt like it was growing thicker & longer. Just then, I remembered about the knot, and I thought, Holy shit!! I was not prepared for something like that; I started to tighten my ass, hoping that he couldn't get it in. I was greeted with a nasty growl & more teeth. I relaxed, and Rex went back to fucking my ass. Then I knew that Rex was determined to get his knot in me, bred & make me his bitch. Felt like I had 9-10 inches in me, and I didn't have the knot; just then, I felt the knot hit my asshole. Felt like it was the size of a baseball, so I tried to relax. I think Rex knew he was close, so he tightened his grip on my waist and started to ram me. After pushing into me 3-4 times, I felt about half of the knot going in my ass. It hurt like hell, just half!!! I felt him pull back and push hard, I felt a pop, and my asshole burned like hell. When he had it in me, he kept pushing it further; the burn stopped, and I felt stuffed. He kept pushing it in; the more he pushed, the better it felt.

After he pushed it in 3-4 times, he locked against my ass; I felt him start to pump his hot cum in my ass, and at the same time, my cock started to pump out an amazing cum. I came so hard that when the orgasm stopped, my face was on the floor & I loved the feel of the hot cum that Rex was still pumping in my ass. My cock was twitching with each shot of hot cum in my ass. The way I just came so hard, I couldn't lift my head off the floor. Rex was panting in my ear & was drooling on my face and mouth. I didn't care!! I was panting & drooling too. He started to lick my face & mouth; I had to laugh at myself because all I thought about was that at least he kissed me, and I knew his name. I started to get my face off the floor when he pushed me and started to spin around. Once he was around, he started to pull the knot, and pulling the knot started me cumming again, OMFG!!! Amazing feeling!! My face was back on the floor, more drooling & panting.

He started to pull the knot again. Luckily, I was by a support pole, or he would have dragged me around the bar floor. And again, I wouldn't have cared because of the orgasm that I was having from Rex's knot in my ass. I was cumming again, never have I cum that much & that soon the second time.

We were tied for about 10 minutes, but I tried to keep it in longer. Rex gave a quick pull, and it popped. That did hurt a lot and I felt empty. Then I knew I wasn't empty when Rex's cum came running down my ass & legs. I lay there with my face resting on the floor till I came down for the orgasms that I had from Rex. Finally, I got up and put on my jeans, not caring about the dog cum dripping out of my ass. Bill apologized that he had put Rex in the bathroom and was trying to help me. I left the bar, got into my truck's back seat, and slept.

Bill called often to apologize and left messages to call him. I just couldn't. I knew that if I did, I would be begging him to let Rex fuck me again or, even a better idea, give him to me for a weekend at my cabin. And so, I digress into my fantasy.
