BEASTIALITY STORIES

My wife, Kim, is one sexy girl. She is a small girl, so many times, she is mistaken for an underage girl. One night, after we were married, Kim and I did laundry near a large mall in North Miami Beach. It was just off 163rd Street, fairly secluded yet near a large hub. Kim was wearing a little half tee shirt that came just under her small breast and a pair of low-rider shorts without any panties. She would sit as I would take care of the clothes and pull her shorts aside to expose her cunt to me. I would act like she was a little girl who had come into the laundry mat, and I was a dirty old man. Kim was only twenty, and I was thirty-seven at the time, so I guess I was a dirty old man in many respects.

We were in the back aisle where no one was around, and we were making out. "Excuse me," a voice spoke. There was a uniform to go along with the voice. About six feet of North Miami Beach Police. It seemed that some old busybody had seen us and called the police to tell them that a dirty older man was molesting a young girl. The police were dispatched as there had been a problem with pedophiles in the area. The cop looked at us funny. If you could see Kim, you too would think at first that she was an underaged girl. The cop was no different, and Kim and I watched as his looks changed to utter confusion. "Let me see," he coughed as he realized Kim was an adult..."Let me see you're...?"

Kim finished it for him, "I'm his wife...hi, I'm Kim, and introduced me. The cop turned red and apologized for making the mistake but said he had to investigate the complaint. He said he would tell the old woman to mind her own business in the future. The cop had riding pants on, and Kim asked him why. He explained that he was part of a mounted squad, and his horse was outside. Kim got excited and said that she would like to see the horse. The cop led us outside, where he had left his horse. He told us that we should go to a small park nearby and that Kim could get on the horse there but not in public. He didn't want anyone reporting us.

Kim and I went to the park with him. Kim talked to the horse and patted his rump. I leaped, noticing she kept glancing under the horse, where he had huge balls. Kim said, "Wow, look at the size of those. I bet you'd like a pair that large," she said.

The cop looked excited and said that he wouldn't mind having a set that large. Kim said a man had to have large ones to ride a creature with a large pair of balls like his. The cop grinned and looked at me with a knowing look. I saw that he was getting hard in his pants, and he looked like he had a pretty large one, too. "So, how big are yours?" Kim asked.

The cop and I let Kim flirt, and he boosted her on the horse's back. Kim laughed, saying she was on the wrong side and should be under him. The cop said that it would be something hard to do. When he helped her off, her tee shirt rode up and exposed her small tits. They might be small, but they were perfect little tits and suited her well. "Well, you have to admit that Kim looks like a little girl with those tits," he said to me. I told him that all you had to see was her cunt, and I pulled the leg aside on one side and showed him her bushy cunt.

"Feel it." I told him, "Stick your finger in it and see if it belongs to a little girl."

The cop looked around and then as Kim leaned against the horse's rump with her legs apart. I pulled the material completely open, and Kim's entire cunt was exposed. I opened up her cunt lips and exposed her hole. He looked around again and put his hand on Kim's cunt. She moaned as he shoved a long finger completely up her. Then Kim reached up, and they kissed. Kim loved to kiss strange men. While they were kissing, Kim was trying to open his pants. I did it for her, and the cop helped me since he had both hands on Kim's small breast while he kissed her. I noticed that Kim had one hand under the horse and was cupping his large testicles in her hand.

I had to reach down inside his pants to pull his cock out. He didn't seem to mind. He had one thicker and longer than mine by an inch or two. I pulled his balls out, and Kim reached and took his cock in her free hand and began to stroke him. I cupped his large balls and looked to see that the horse's cock was rapidly coming out of its sheath. There was already about six inches out. Kim moaned excitedly and turned away from the cop's face to place her head under the horse's belly.

His cock was growing out to a foot in length now and was still getting swollen. I pulled Kim's short completely down from over her beautiful butt. She looked back at me and then at the cop's cock and spread her legs wide. This opened up her cunt lips. I bent down and sucked the cop's cock in a few times. He began to moan also. I crept to Kim's ass and held his cock pointed right at her opening.

He flexed his hips, and his cock went home in my wife's cunt. Then I saw something that I couldn't believe. The stallion's cock had grown to over three feet long and was as round as a champagne bottle. I know how big they are because I fucked Kim with the smaller end after we drank it on our wedding night. She kept pushing more and more of it until it reached the widest part of the bottle. Kim tried to push it in her cunt but couldn't. We both came furiously then. Now Kim had her mouth open and licking up and down the stallion's black cock. She stuck her tongue down the horse's piss hole, which you could finger fuck. It was large; She lapped around the large, flat, mushroomed-shaped head. I reached under him to his large balls, and now I had the cop's balls in one stretched-out hand and the horse's balls in the other. I kept sliding my hand forward to stroke around the large, thick shaft where I could fit around it.

The young cop pushed his cock in Kim's cunt, and when he did, he drove her mouth over the flat horse cock head. It seemed to have springs in it as the edge bent back and allowed entrance to her wet mouth. Once inside her mouth, it sprung out and wedged in her cheeks. They bloated out with the shape of the cock head etched in her cheeks. The cop began to see in and out of Kim, and as he did, he pulled and pushed the cock head deeper into her mouth cavity. Kim couldn't speak. She was so filled. She began to stroke rapidly on the cock shaft. I began to stroke hard and fast on the part of the long shaft that I held. We had to make the horse cum so his cock would recede.

Then with loud whiney and grunting sounds, the horse cock seemed to become more rigid, and Kim seemed to be stuck to it as if on a spit. I then heard Kim gag and saw the outline of the head poke out in the flesh of her throat. Her neck bloated out several times as the horse's tremendous load pulsed out of his cock. I could feel it in my grasp as it surged several times. Kim was about to pass out from lack of air. She gasped loudly for breath. Kim pulled her head back, and slowly, the horse's cock began to come out. The cop chose that moment to shoot his load, and he plastered his crotch to Kim's ass. I still was holding his cock, and when it came, I felt the sperm soar through his cock tube.

Kim moaned like a crazed person as the cop's cock swelled way up and then seemed to spit the sperm into her depths. When he was finished, he draped himself over her butt, completely exhausted. He was breathing deeply and gasped for breath. He had just had about the best fuck he ever had. Kim pulled back hard, and the cock head popped out of her mouth. As it did, a deluge of sperm issued from her mouth like a creamy waterfall of horse cum. The young cop's cock went limp and fell popped from Kim's cunt.

I bent around and took it as it emerged from my wife. I sucked it clean a couple of times and then fastened my mouth on Kim's cunt just as the sperm he had blasted in her came out and into my mouth.

Kim was holding the limber, limp, but still huge, cock of the stallion. She lapped at the end as cum bubbled from the large hole. The horse's cock finally began to retreat in its sheath. What part Kim still held was limp as a dishrag. It was strange that such a weapon as it had been was now just a piece of useless meat. Kim still cooed and moaned as she went through the afterglow of total sexual satisfaction. The cop hitched up his pants and looked around as if uncertain now that the heat of the moment had passed.

He said that he would be off duty in a couple of hours. He would have just enough time to recover from the sudden fuck. Kim looked at me as if to ask if she could fuck him at home on our bed while she was completely naked. I nodded, thinking that I would get to suck more of his cum from her cunt to say nothing of having the chance to suck his large cock with my wife once more. We picked up our laundry and said goodbye for a while to the cop.

"Do you think that I can fuck a horse next time?" Kim asked.

The End
