BEASTIALITY STORIES

I've been happily married for 10 years to my wife, Andie. We have three small children and I always thought our marriage was fine. Andie is a 32-year-old large-breasted Italian girl with a small waist and a nice round butt.

Her lips are pouty and full. Her olive skin is soft as a baby's butt. She's probably 20 pounds heavier than the average girl, but many men drool over her slutty body wherever we go. Shortly after our 10th anniversary,

I received the shock of a lifetime. I discovered while snooping through her emails that she had been having an affair with a Middle Eastern Indian guy at the mall where she works. When I discovered the emails, he had already left the country. I replied to one of his emails to my wife and told him I knew he had been doing my wife, and if I ever saw him in person, I would break his legs!

I confronted my wife, and she denied it at first, then she finally came clean and admitted she had been intimate with the salesman across the hall from the store where she worked.

Aron, the guy at the mall, was from Sri Lanka and had dark skin and hair. He looked like most men from the Middle East, except he didn't have a towel on his head. I was shocked that she would be interested in a guy most American women can't stand! He was a typical towel-head-looking guy, but he dressed like an American.

She said she was sorry and would do anything to keep us together. I insisted that she would have to tell me about the affair and what she did with him. She claimed that she saw him about once a week, and they would go to his apartment after work and have a drink or two, then have sex for an hour or so before she would have to head home. This all seemed reasonable, except I know of a few nights when she didn't come home for a few hours after work. She explained those times off as she had gone to the store before she came home.

We worked on our marriage for a few months, and things went OK when I received the package. It was postmarked from Los Angeles! I opened it and found two unmarked DVDs inside, along with a handwritten note that said, 'Your wife was my favorite whore. Enjoy.' I knew Aron had sent it!

The DVDs were marked one and two, so I took them to work to watch them on my computer, away from my wife and kids. The first DVD showed Andie and Aron kissing by the pool table in his apartment.

Within a few minutes, she dropped to her knees and pulled his zipper down, and fished out his cock!

It was as black as coal and looked about 7 inches, maybe longer. She ran her tongue up and down his shaft and licked his hairy balls. She continued to worship his cock for about 15 minutes. Whoever was videotaping had great equipment and a perfect view setup. It was obvious he had a camera hidden somewhere in the room.

She was uninhibited and unaware that she was being recorded. The camera had a good angle of the pool table, and since there was no music or background noise, I could hear everything they said.

He asked her if she liked his black Indian cock, and she moaned that she did. He asked her if she was his white, married, American slut, and she looked up at him with his cock still in her mouth and then pulled his cock out of her mouth long enough to say, "Uh huh"!

She then proceeded to lick his balls again while stroking his cock with her free hand. He looked up towards the camera and smiled. The bastard was secretly videotaping my wife, acting like a two-bit whore! He whispered to her that he had a special surprise for her tonight!

She asked what it was, and he said she would have to wait and see. He roughly pulled her blouse off, then practically ripped her skirt off. She wasn't wearing any panties! He then lifted her naked body onto the pool table. She still had her heels on and then he went to the kitchen and came back with some clothesline rope and tied her hands to the corner pockets of the pool table. Her bare legs were free, and she bent her knees as he buried his face in her crotch and started eating her.

She wrapped her legs around the back of his head as he licked her for a good 10 minutes. I could see the sweat on her forehead, and her nipples were hard as rocks, and her boobs were jiggling. She had her back arched as she squirmed around. Andie was begging Aron to hurry up and fuck her. Aron laughed and kept his face buried in her pussy. Her moans grew louder as she pleaded with him to give her his cock.

Aron's tone had changed when he told her that she would get all the cock she could handle tonight. Andie looked up at him with pleading eyes as he quickly dropped his pants and shoved his hard cock into her soaked pussy in one thrust! Andie was soon in the throes of an orgasm as he pounded her like he was possessed!

As she thrashed around and screamed that she was coming, four young Indian guys came through the front door, and Andie's expression was one of total shock and disbelief.

The look on Aron's face told me he was not surprised, and I quickly realized it was all planned.

I could hear Andie's panic as she asked Aron who these guys were and why they were there.

Aron calmly told her that she was his married whore, his property, and he was going to share her married cunthole with all his friends and relatives from his homeland! He also told her that she would do anything he told her to, or he would send a few of the videos he has of her begging for his cock, to her unsuspecting husband. He then pointed to a few places around the room. He told her that all their previous escapes had been recorded, and her gang bang party tonight was going to be recorded to send to the relatives back home so they could see what whores, married American women are.

We will also record some close-up action tonight as my comrades have brought high-definition video cameras!

Aron looked directly into the guy's handheld camera. He said that he and his fellow countrymen love to fuck married American whores and deposit their superior cum in their worthless pussies.

Their American husbands are worthless and inferior to Sri Lankan men.

The camera guy briefly pointed the camera at Andie lying naked and tied to the pool table, then turned the camera back to Aron. Andie's color had completely drained from her face as she lay there naked on the pool table, practically in tears.

Aron then stated to the camera, "Our chosen whore for tonight was Andie, who is a 32-year-old married, white American whore, with three small children. Since I've been fucking her, she has realized and admitted that my big dark cock is much more satisfying than her pathetic American husband's little white dick! Tonight she will be a whore for many dark cocks, and will beg to be filled with our superior cum!

"We have invited many friends and relatives to sample our married whore! Our American whore will have to stick her tongue deep into each man's asshole until he is extremely hard, then each man will fuck her wet cunthole until he deposits his load of superior sperm into her married pussy. During this party, we will collect all the sperm that runs out of her well fucked cunthole, and for the evening's finale, she will drink all the used sperm from her whore cunthole.

"Tonight's guest of honor is the great Dr. Solomon, and he will have the honor of impregnating the whore so that she may become pregnant with a dark-skinned child. This will make it truly clear to her stupid babydick American husband that she is a fat white whore for large dark cocks!"

I am aware that Andie is not on birth control, so when Dr. Solomon arrives, he will be the first to deposit his sperm into her cunthole, and every man after him will do the same. As soon as he was done talking, the doorbell rang. Aron went and opened the door, and six very dark-skinned older men walked in, two had towels (turbans) on their heads.

I sucked in my breath as I realized she was going to be impregnated by a bunch of fat, ugly ragheads! The doctor had already started removing his clothes, and when he was completely naked, you could see he was very fat and extremely hirsute. He looked more like a gorilla than a man. His limp cock dangling between his legs was extremely long and fat and uncircumcised. Aron motioned for the cameraman to point the camera at the doctor's cock and said that Doctor Solomon was one of the larger cocks that Andie would experience tonight. She should be well broken in for the other men who will have her. The ugly doctor climbed up on the pool table and lowered his fat hairy ass onto Andie's face. His cock lay between her tits like a giant summer sausage.

Andie tried to beg and plead with Aron, but she could barely be heard as his fat hairy ass smothered her face. As the doctor planted his fat ass on her face, she would quickly turn her head from side to side. Aron went over to Andie with a pair of pliers in his hands and closed the pliers around her left nipple. Andie let out a blood-curdling scream! Aron calmly told her to start eating his ass, or he would pinch harder! I saw the doctor relax and lower his ass onto her face. I couldn't see her face, but the doctor let out a groan, so I knew she must have complied and was tonguing his disgusting hairy ass!

Aron let off on the pliers and told her next time. He would twist her nipple off if she didn't do it right the first time.

I could hear Andie crying as she relinquished herself to her tormentors. The other men were already undressing, knowing they would soon have their turn on my wife. The doctor sat on Andie's face for a good 10 minutes while stroking his dark fat cock. His cock was menacing looking, it was long and thick as a giant cucumber, and it was even blacker than the rest of him! He lifted his hairy ass off of my wife's face & then climbed off the table, and proceeded to line up his massive brown cock with her pussy.

Andie groaned in shame as the fat, hairy ugly doctor leaned over her and slobbered on her face, forcing his tongue into her mouth while he plunged his uncircumcised cock into my wife. He pushed all the weight in with one thrust. Andie cried out loud as he began to pump her hard and fast, his fat belly slapping her legs. He would maul her tits, occasionally twisting her nipple until she screamed in pain. The one guy with the camera was getting close-ups of the pain and anguish on her face. While the doctor was humping away, Aron came over and placed a plastic plate underneath her pussy and ass.

This was what they were going to use to collect all the cum that ran out of her abused pussy. The fat, ugly doctor was grunting and calling Andie a white married whore, a fat horny cumslut, and a few other names. Then, he made some comments in his native language, and the other men all laughed. Andie was now crying profusely as the ugly doctor began smiling and grunting while pumping his seed into her unprotected pussy. As soon as he pulled out his cock, it made a plop sound, and he commented to Aron how much he liked his married white cum whore.

Aron laughed and said next! A young, thin guy quickly climbed up on the table and lowered his dark skinny ass onto my wife's face. A couple of the other guys started playing with her tits while he rubbed his ass back and forth across her face. She didn't have to be told what to do. Since his ass didn't smother her face, I could see her tongue darting in and out as she was reaming out his asshole. He lifted his ass slightly and told her to lick his balls like a good whore.

She ran her tongue all over his balls as he slapped her chin with his now-hardening cock. He warned her not to lick his cock, because she was not worthy of that. Within minutes, he got between her legs and plunged his cock in, the doorbell rang, and another large group of men filtered in. I lost count at thirteen. They just kept pouring in till the room was packed. They all seemed mildly intrigued by the lewd sight in front of them. A few pointed at the distressed look on Andie's face and laughed.

Many were talking in their native tongue, so I couldn't understand anything they were saying. I finally realized they were deciding what the fucking order was. For the next couple of hours, I watched in disbelief as twenty-plus towel heads abused my wife and called her dirty names. Most were old, very fat, and unattractive.

Several had beards and looked like they never took a shower.

The video quality suddenly changed, and I realized I was seeing what the handheld camera was filming.

He had a close-up of my wife's face, and I could see she had a lot of light brownish stains around her mouth and nose. I figured out that many of the men did not have clean asses, and their crusty dried shit was the cause of the stains on her face! Someone eventually went and got a towel and wiped her face clean. Many of them laughed at her, and a few spit on her face while calling her dirty cow whore. Some of the men slapped her tits, pinched her thighs, and stuck their tongues in her mouth. She was forced to French kiss them like they were lovers. Considering she had licked everyone's ass, I was amazed that anyone would want to kiss her, but I guess they were pigs themselves and liked degrading her in every way possible.

Several of the men had extremely large cocks, and they fucked her raw! She cried and begged them to stop. It was obvious she was not enjoying being raped by everyone Aron knew, but I could also tell that some of the brutal fucking by a couple of the larger cocks had made her cum! The plate under my wife's ass kept filling up with the cum that ran out of her pussy. Aron would pull the plate out and dump the cum into a bowl. Then he put the plate back under her ass. I got a glimpse of her pussy between fucks, and it was red and swollen and dripping cum.

I have never seen a more degrading or abusive video. My wife looked like a limp, fucked out rag doll by the time twenty-plus guys had deposited their sperm in her. Aron dumped another plate of cum into the bowl, and the men gathered around and made lewd comments about how the married cum whore was going to drink all their cum! They then untied her and flipped her over, face down on the table, and poured more oil down her ass crack!

The men then formed a line, and one after another, they fucked her ass as she cried in pain. When each man was ready to cum they would pull out and finished themselves off in the cum bowl. The bowl looked like it had about a quart of cum in it. The ass fucking continued for a good hour or so, then Aron told two guys to untie Andie and bring her to the center of the living room. Aron made her kneel before him and all the men watching intently. He held the bowl of cum out to her and told her it was time to show her appreciation and drink the cum of the superior Sri Lanka men who were gracious enough to fuck her worthless married cunthole!

If she chose not to, there would be severe punishment in store for her, and then she would have wished she had drank the cum. Andie was crying and trying to cover her naked body while all the leering men waited to see what she would do. It seemed like she was going to oblige them until she said there was no way she could drink the cum in the bowl. She told Aron to go ahead and punish her, but she could never, ever drink the sperm of twenty-plus men that ran out of her pussy! Aron smiled as if he was incredibly pleased with her decision. Aron motioned to one of the oldest & ugliest guys there to bring the funnel.

He left and returned with a clear oil funnel. Aron snapped his fingers, and four young guys quickly grabbed Andie and held her arms and legs taut so she could not move. Aron had another guy hold her mouth open while the ugly guy put the funnel in her mouth. Aron then told Andie, "You will gladly drink our sperm now, cow whore, and if you spill a single drop, Dr. Solomon will use his scalpel to cut your nipples off"! I could see her tits were already bruised and scratched from the gang rape. I knew the threat of cutting her nipples off was not idle talk, and she was not willing to take that chance.

Aron smiled deviously as he gently poured the slimy mixture into the funnel. The cameraman came in close to Andie's face and the funnel, and you could see the slime sliding down the funnel and into her mouth.

She was crying like a baby now as she swallowed her first mouthful of Sri Lanka sperm. The men were cheering loudly. They were calling her a worthless cow slut, a cum drinking whore, a white whore sperm bank, as well as a bunch of names in their language that I couldn't understand but could only imagine! Tears continued rolling down Andie's face as more gooey slime was slowly poured into the funnel. She kept swallowing as it slid down the funnel, but I could tell she was trying to block the grossness of it out of her mind. Once the bowl was completely drained of the vile sperm mixture, they let go of her arms and legs. She collapsed on the floor and held her stomach.

Many of the men were getting dressed and were starting to leave. They thanked Aron for the party and asked for a copy of the finished party video. After several minutes, about a dozen men had left, but I could see there were still a dozen or more hanging out for whatever happened next. Aron told two younger guys to clean her up and bring her back. A few minutes later, they returned with Andie wearing a black bustier that pushed her tits up and out and made her big round butt look obscene. Her makeup was redone, and they had her hair in a ponytail.

Aron told the two men to tie her face down to the coffee table and secure her arms and legs to the coffee table legs.

The men did as they were told and tied her face down to the low coffee table.

She had no will left in her to try to fight them. Once tied, her tits were smashed into the table, and her big butt stuck up in the air. An old guy with a beard came out of the kitchen with some vegetable oil and squirted it on her ass.

They all watched as it ran down her ass crack and dripped on the carpet. The guy with the video camera set his position on a tripod about a foot from her face and gave Aron a thumbs-up sign. One of the young guys must have won the draw because he knelt behind her, grabbed her ponytail and pulled her head back, and tried to kiss her while he tried to line his cock up with her tight hole. Once he got the head of his cock in her rectum, he rammed her ass with a single brutal thrust! The video became a split screen. One side had a close-up of her face as she grimaced in pain, and the other showed a close-up of her virgin asshole being reamed from behind, with a dark hard cock sliding in and out of it.

Aron announced that everyone present would have the pleasure of fucking the married cow whore in her big fat virgin ass. The men cheered at his remark. He then told the horny crowd, "You guys have the option of shooting your sperm in the married whores ass, or she may have the privilege of drinking your sperm directly from your cock. Just shove it in the whores mouth, and she will gladly swallow your sperm."

"And to make sure nobody has to go home with their cock smelling like the married whores ass, she will gladly offer clean-up service with her slutty mouth and tongue!"

They all laughed and high-fived each other after his comment.

It only took the young guy who was buried in her ass about five minutes to cum. He pulled out and went around to her face, and again grabbed her hair by the ponytail and pushed his cock, which was coated with her ass, into her mouth. She opened wide as he shoved half his cock down her throat. He asked her how she liked the taste of her ass, Andie could only groan. As he was doing this, another older guy, who was grossly fat and had a short fat cock to match, was attempting to get his cock into her ass. His cock was almost the thickness of a beer can, and he pulled her asscheeks apart as wide as he could.

One of the guys shot some oil on her ass, and he pushed forward. Andie cried and screamed as his thick cock pushed through her tight anal ring. Once he had the head in her kept pushing until he was buried to the balls. He then proceeded to fuck her ass hard for about ten minutes, sweating like a pig the whole time. When he pulled out, he quickly went around to her face and started jerking his cock until it spewed cum on her face.

Several shots hit her in the eyes and forehead, then dribbled down her face. He pushed his fat dark cock between her lips for clean up, and the camera showed how her mouth was stretched obscenely wide to accommodate his fat log! The new guy had already started fucking her ass again, and it went on and on for another hour or so. By the time the last guy shot a load up her ass, her asshole was gaping open. Aron stuck his hard cock in Andie's face and made her blow him for a good ten minutes until he was ready to cum. He then jerked his cock off in her face, spewing his load on her eyes and forehead. Just as he dribbled the last drop of cum off his cock the doorbell rang, and a tall thin older man came in dressed in a dark suit with a large, tan-colored dog on a leash.

It looked like a Great Dane, but I'm not a dog expert. The dog was one of the biggest dogs I've ever seen! The man immediately led him over to Andie, still tied down to the table, and the dog started sniffing her ass. Andie started to scream, but an old guy with a turban stuffed a rag in her mouth and put duct tape over it. The men all sat down around the room, knowing this would be the show of all shows. Another man brought out a large full-length mirror and placed it a couple of feet in front of Andie's face so she could see the dog behind her that was going to be fucking her. The look of panic on her face was extreme.

The dog's cock started hanging down, and it was long and red and wet looking! The suited man knelt, pulled out a can of some cream, and smeared it up and down her asscrack.

Then he grabbed the dog's cock and lined it up with Andie's battered asshole. The dog was excited and panting as he pushed the tip of his red cock into my wife's ass! Aron stated, "She will now be our willing slave for anything, and everything we ever want to do to her, or else her friends and family would be sent a clip of her new movie, fucking a dog."

Andie cried and screamed through the gag as the dog continued to push his massive cock into her reamed-out ass.

The men were all laughing and commenting in their native language. I could only imagine what they were saying.

I didn't have to wait long, as several of them started making comments in English, probably for the benefit of the video. They called her a worthless white whore who came hard when she was fucked by a dog cock. A married cum slut that needed a big red dog cock to satisfy her. A stupid American whore who was not worthy of any Sri Lanka man.

The dog pounded her ass for a good ten minutes. Then they decided that the dog should cum in her mouth!

Aron stated that even though she probably gave great blowjobs, she was not worthy enough to suck their Sri Lanka cocks, but they would allow the American her to suck the dog's cock! Her mouth would be the best place to deposit the dog's cum! The suited man reached down and pulled the dog off her enough for its cock to plop out of her ass. He then brought the dog around and lined the dog's cock up with her mouth. He grabbed her hair, twisted her face up, and told her to wrap her lips around the dog's cock and make him cum in her whore mouth.

The dog stood completely still as she reluctantly opened her mouth, and the dog's red cock started to disappear into her mouth! The camera had an extreme close-up of her face as the dog's cock was buried halfway down her throat.

She sucked on the dog's cock for several minutes before the doggy cum started pouring out of the sides of her mouth! The dog handler slapped her ass hard and demanded she swallow his cum! I watched as she gulped mouthful after mouthful of dog cum! I realized my wife was now the lowest slut on the planet as she swallowed what must have been a pint of dog cum!

Aron asked her how she liked drinking doggy cum, and if she would be the main entertainment at the next party?

She could only moan in despair as Aron laughed and assured her she would be at the next party or else.

I would have to wait to see the next tape...

The End
