Note To Readers - If you ever want to get your wife or girlfriend to have unconventional sex, our advice is don't bring it up, don't talk about it, and whatever you do - Don't ASK! A woman either does it initially as an experiment when she is exceptionally horny for sexual release, or she could be encouraged by a very close friend or spouse or come across it on the Internet stimulating her imagination and curiosity.

As I am pulling into the driveway of our ranchette I look over at my gorgeous unconscious fiancé Becky and laughed, she had never been much of a drinker and tonight she definitely went overboard celebrating our long delayed engagement announcement with our close friends. I had to carry her to our truck from the nightclub, once in the truck she promptly passed out! At our house I opened her door and lifted her from the truck, slowly her head fell backwards limply and her small black mini dress bunched up around her upper thighs, she doesn't make a sound as I carry her towards the house.

Let me back up a little...

Becky and I met at Texas State University in our sophomore year. Coincidentally we both entered as second semester sophomores skipping our freshman year and the first sophomore semester due to the advanced placement classes we took in high school. Becky was one of the cheerleaders at the time and we met at a party. We quickly hit it off and within a few weeks we were exclusively dating, then, a few months later we were secretly engaged.

Becky's parents were dead set against us getting married before we graduated. Her parents were upset and never got over the fact how quickly we got serious with each other. Their daughter had only one previous serious boyfriend back in high school, nor the fact their blonde-haired, green-eyed surfer girl daughter from the big city had met and fell in love with a cowboy!

Hell they even threatened to cut off funding Becky's education if we did go ahead and get married before graduation or moved in with each other! My mother, a widower, couldn't have been happier. Once my mother learned of my future-in-law's threats she told me not to worry about it as she would pay for Becky's college education and graduate school if her parents did do something so drastic and petty! But Becky wanted to please her parents so we refrained from an official engagement announcement until graduation.

Appearances can be deceiving...

It was true I was a cowboy through and through. Dressed like a cowboy, worked as cowboy, and I was a member the Texas State Rodeo Team. Becky had warned me before I met her parents that her dad was a high-powered Houston attorney and her mother was actively involved in the high society circles of Houston and that they stayed in their own social circles so for me not to be too upset if they weren't exactly cordial. I in turn told Becky not to divulge my own family background. Her parents would accept me or not. I told Becky that regardless of their attitude I would always be courteous and respectful to her parents.

My late father was not only a successful rancher but a shrewd business man and my family was extremely well off. It was just mom and me, mom couldn't have any more children due to the delivery issues she had with me. Dad had made several strategic investments and had set up family trusts for my mother and I, and education trusts for me and my future kids and grandkids. Heck, Becky and I didn't ever have work if we chose that path but that was not who we were. In our spare time we worked with a few volunteer organizations in the area.

The 37,000 acre family ranch in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado which has been in the family since 1874 had also been set up in a perpetual trust that was fully funded and invested. The ranch was very profitable with its operations, a combination of agribusiness and year round guest ranch that more than fully paid the generous salaries of the three cowgirls who managed the ranch, the upkeep and the taxes.

Unfortunately my mother passed away just before Becky and I graduated. My future in-laws didn't even acknowledge my mother's passing...

It was understandable they wouldn't come up to Colorado for the funeral even though they could easily afford to and they made frequent trips to there for vacations. Regardless I was still remained courteous to them whenever I saw them.

The only good thing out of my mother's passing I was now able to access the funds to buy the small ranchette with ten acres outside of San Marcos toward Canyon Lake that we had our eyes on as our first starter home and as an investment property. The San Marcos area is growing rapidly and we were assured by the realtor and confirmed by the family's investment firm we would make an excellent return on the property when we sold it in just two years!

I/we purchased the property right before graduation that we would live in until we completed graduate school. After graduate school we were going to move to the family ranch in Colorado because it was so beautiful nestled deep in the Rockies and all the varied outdoor activities, plus we desired to get away from the urban nightmare and incredible traffic of the rapidly developing IH 35 corridor between Austin and San Antonio.

Back to the present...

Rocky our recently adopted rambunctious Rottweiler was bounding up and down by the doorway happy to see us back home as I walk inside with Becky in my arms, Rocky got even more excited seeing I was carrying Becky and kept nosing her as I carried Becky over to the couch. I carefully sit her unconscious body down on our sofa and I begin to head back outside to get the engagement presents out of the truck. I stopped to give our pet some loving before going back outside.

Rocky was a two year old huge Rotty at 165 pounds and 34 inches tall at the shoulder! We took him from our married best friends when they had an opportunity to move to Europe. Rocky is sweet as could be, very smart and well trained, he was also a stud due to his champion line and the breeder had a five year contract that we had to honor before we could have him neutered.

Therein lay the only problem with Rocky, he was intimately and embarrassingly persistent with Becky and her girlfriends when they came over, especially when it was at or near their monthly cycle. Becky had quickly learned to be careful when she was taking a shower or getting dressed or else she may get a cold nose in intimate places! Likewise when she and her girlfriends had changed into their skimpy string and thong bikinis when getting into our hot tub, or Becky got in or out of the hot tub nude when it was just her and I!

Our married best friends, Josh and Jessica, who previously had Rocky had warned us about his increasingly intimate behavior when Rocky got to be about eight months old when we had been over to their house. As Rocky matured and started being used as a stud his intimate behavior became worse despite Josh and Jessica trying to correct him. During Josh and Jessica's final tearful handover of Rocky to us Josh again cautioned us about Rocky's only bad behavior trait and warned Becky and I to have our bedroom door closed whenever we got intimate. When Josh cautioned us, offhand I noted Jessie started furiously blushing...

I walk back out to the truck to grab Becky's purse and the engagement presents. I tried carrying everything in at one time and managed to drop everything as I shut the truck door and I spent a few minutes gathering everything up, even having to get down on the ground and reaching under the truck to get a couple of presents that had tumbled under the truck. Finally back in the house I closed the front door behind me and walk back into the main living area to set the presents down and then get Becky to bed. Upon entering the main living area I suddenly stopped and stood frozen in disbelief!

Rocky had pushed his way between my passed out fiancé's spread open legs, his huge head lodged beneath her short black mini dress and he was licking noisily at her G-string covered crotch!

Despite being passed out Becky was squirming around and her slim hips slightly bucking!

I assumed it was a spontaneous automatic sexual reflex being orally sexually stimulated as Becky is easily aroused and gets especially horny when she had a few drinks!

"ROCKY, NO!" I shout out, he pulls quickly from beneath her dress looks at me perplexed and then walks away with a sheepish look at getting caught.

I couldn't believe what I had just seen! Rocky going to town at my drunk passed out fiancé's tight pussy! Becky squirming on the couch and humping her hips from Rocky's licking! I walked over to the couch to pick up Becky. It was then I noticed Rocky had actually managed to move Becky's skimpy G-string thong aside with his tongue and had full access to her nearly hairless pussy! Becky's labia was swollen and openly parted! Her clit swollen and fully exposed!

I picked Becky off of the sofa and carry her up the stairs to our bedroom still in shock. I lay her across the bed and begin to pull her clothes off of her, I lifted her mini-dress off over her head and she is laying in front of me in only her quarter cup lacy black bra and G-string panties, her dark tanned skin looking so sexy contrasted with the minimal untanned areas from the skimpy string bikini she wears. Her flat toned stomach rippling with her six-pack abs from her intense daily workouts. I reach back and unsnap the hooks to her bra freeing her firm double D breasts revealing her tiny diamond hard nipples and barely existent areolas. I reach down for her G-string panties, thoroughly wet from Rocky's slobbery tongue, and pull them over her slim hips, down her toned shapely legs and off her feet. Becky usually sleeps in the nude anyway and I wasn't about to let her keep wearing dog slobbered panties!

My 5'4, 120 pound fiancé was laying in front of me completely nude. I noted that her pussy lips still appeared to be swollen like when she was aroused and we had sex! Before I covered Becky in the sheet and blanket so she could sleep off her drunkenness, once again I happily admired her perfect centerfold figure for a moment, again considering myself one of the luckiest guys on the planet having this incredibly gorgeous surf goddess fall in love with this lanky cowboy and who consented to be married to him!

I take off the clothes I had worn out to the club, put on my robe and head back downstairs to watch some TV. After an hour of watching I finally got tired enough to go to bed, especially after the adrenaline burst seeing Rocky orally pleasuring my unconscious fiancé...

I headed up the stairs. As I entered our bedroom I did not see Becky in our bed, the bed sheet and blanket laying cluttered and pushed back toward the foot of our queen-sized bed. I then notice Rocky is sitting quietly by our bathroom door and I can see light coming from beneath it.

"She must have gotten sick" I thought. "Becky?" I said outside the door as I knock on the door, but there is no answer. "Becky?" I say again louder, still no answer. I slowly turn the knob and peek my head inside, there is my nude inebriated fiancé kneeling on the tile floor, her upper half spread across our toilet, head hanging off of the edge of the lid worshipping the porcelain god, her knees spread apart, firm naked cute ass pointed right at me, her two most intimate glorious areas exposed to view.

"Becky are you ok?" I say to her walking towards her. She didn't respond but I heard her emit a small snore making me chuckle. Becky refuses to believe she snores and quite a few times I have been tempted to record her with my cell phone to prove it to her!

I brushed the hair affectionately off of the side of her sweaty cheek and then I get a wet wash cloth to wipe her sweaty face and mouth in case she had thrown up and still this didn't wake her! I can't help but laugh again at the fact that she has passed out across our bathroom toilet and was snoring!

Rocky edged into my vision to see what was going on and as he moved behind Becky and before I knew it his big long tongue began swiping at Becky's naked backside!

"No Rocky, Bad Boy!" I stated in a harsh whisper shaking my finger at him not wanting to wake Becky. Rocky looks up at me for a minute and then backs away from her naked rear end and stands in the doorway. I can see that Becky was still sweating, beads of it reappearing on her face. I went over to the wash basin to rinse out the wash cloth before wiping Becky's face again, contemplating getting her into the shower as her whole body was sweating. I turn with the wash cloth and Rocky was just finishing mounting Becky's sexy cute backside! My fiancé's slim, athletic body nearly disappearing beneath his enormous canine body!

"DAMN IT ROCKY NO!" I screamed out this time heedlessly how loud I was but Rocky doesn't listen to me this time! I rushed towards him preparing to yank him off of my fiancé's back, pulling repeatedly at his collar, but his long forelegs were wrapped underneath her slim waist and at 165 pounds it wasn't easy to move him especially how strong and stout he was!

The realization of what I was watching then hit me!

Something I heard about at high school and college parties overhearing catty girls talking trash about other girls at the party, Becky and I occasionally coming across it on the internet when searching for a porn movie to watch as a bit of prelim and laughing about it, even daring a few times to watch a few brief clips of surprisingly attractive young women with large dogs and even a small pony! Both of us greatly surprised how vocal and enthusiastic the women were!

I stopped tugging on Rocky's collar and took a few steps back and began to stare, fascinated...

Rocky with his long forelegs encircling around Becky's slim waist as he began to hop back and forth on his rear legs humping, his growing penis had moved from its sheath and was jabbing at the air, looking to shove its way into an opening, any tight opening of Becky's!

He poked and prodded carelessly into the firm flesh of her backside, between the firm parted moons of Becky's rock hard cute ass, copious precum began blasting out in powerful squirts covering my fiancé's ass and shooting between her parted ass cheeks! Finally he lowered his haunches and after a couple more tentative humps rammed himself forward aggressively deep into her tight pussy! Becky letting out a loud unconscious grunt!

I heard the loud wet squishing of his hard doggy penis as it began rapidly sliding in and out of her small hot tight pussy with lightning speed!

Becky was repeatedly shoved forward violently against the toilet tank and even in her drunken sleep the force of the huge dog's thrust caused her to repeatedly grunt out loudly and an incoherent whimper fell from her mouth. I thought Rocky looked very trained at screwing a woman and a recent memory flashed into my mind of Josh and Jessica of the final handing of Rocky over to us telling us to keep our bedroom door shut when we have sex and how strange that Jessica had furiously blushed then!

Recalling how beautiful Jessica had furiously blushed and now seeing it in right in front of me with my gorgeous Becky, I had to believe that Jessica must have had one or more similar experiences with Rocky! Imagining Jessica and Rocky and watching Becky and Rocky excited me so much I opened my robe and began to rub my raging hard thick nineinch long cock!

Rocky continued to pound away at Becky's tight vagina powerfully with lightning speed! Our excited dog was vigorously fucking my unconscious fiancé making her grunt and moan aloud with each thrust! His hips banging against Becky's firm butt cheeks making loud sounding slapping noises that filled the entire bathroom, copious precum began making a puddle on the floor!

It was then I learned a woman could still climax despite being unconscious drunk off her ass! Astounded I watched as Becky orgasmed three times being doggy fucked!! Then I remembered Becky was easily multi-orgasmic and I got curious if she would climax anymore and how many more times...

Then with one final massive deep thrust forward Becky emitted a loud grunt then instantly climaxed hard then Rocky's humping slowed then stopped and he stood motionless above my fiancé's gorgeous body. Some slimy doggy drool ran from his big sloppy Rotty mouth and onto Becky's firm tanned back and into her long blonde hair, Becky herself had a small stream of drool coming from her intoxicated unconscious lips.

I look beneath their two bodies still jacking my hard cock and could see that Rocky had deeply wedged inside of Becky's gorgeous body, Rocky's balls were rhythmically contracting as he pumped his load into her. Then Becky's lithe gorgeous athletic body again tensed then trembled as she climaxed again!

A few minutes later Rocky began to hop on his hind legs then he lifted one of them up and over my fiancé's cute firm ass cheeks! He was now standing butt to butt with Becky, I could see a round ball of his flesh wedged inside her stretched hairless cunt. Rocky stayed stuck in her for nearly 10 minutes, panting but not moving very much, every so often Becky would groan loudly in her sleep as if she were having an intense dream and then I would see her orgasm again!

Rocky began to get antsy, he started to walk forward trying to pull himself free of Becky's spread out vagina, her limp body began to slide slowly off of the toilet bowl! With my free hand I grabbed a hold of her arm to stop her from falling onto the floor, it was a tug of war between Rocky and myself over my passed out fiancé!

Rocky was pulling strongly his member yanking on the pink walls of her expanded pussy, it seeming like it was not wanting to let go but then he yanked himself forward more violently than before and with a loud wet sounding plop his cock started pulling out of her...

Becky whimpered out loudly as her body tensed briefly as his still way too swollen knot finally came free from her tight pussy then a river of his runny watery cum came gushing out of her thoroughly ravished pussy like a flood!

For the first time I can see Rocky's canine penis in its entirety! Cum still spraying from his long, swollen, red member, surprised his cock appeared to be about just over eight inches in length - substantially longer than the average human penis! At the base of Rocky's penis was a swollen ball of flesh that appeared to be two inches across!

I couldn't believe or even understand how my gorgeous fiancé's incredibly tight pussy could have passed something still swollen that large! I guessed she was able to do it because of all the alcohol she had earlier, like a drunk driver who gets in a car crash and emerges without any or minimal injuries.

"Unreal..." I softly breathed out...

No wonder Becky had been loudly moaning and had multiple orgasms!

Suddenly, I was jealous! While Rocky's cock was not quite as long as my own nine inch cock and my cock still had a much thicker girth than his - that blasted huge knot rubbing her G-spot had caused Becky to have more than one orgasm after she had been knotted - and she was passed out!!! The thought of her ecstasy and multiple orgasms being the result of a huge dog using her for sexual gratification was more than a bit humbling!

Then I started to feel my own pending orgasm begin to erupt...

Briefly I thought to plunge my thick raging throbbing nine inch long into Becky's already receptive pussy or her marvelous incredibly tight ass but then I realized I wasn't going to make it in time before I blew my load I was so freaking aroused!

I grab the ceramic tank of the toilet and held it tightly to stop myself from falling over my beginning climax was so intense! I felt my balls tighten and a warm sensation shoot through my body as I felt an intense almost painful pressure rapidly entering my cock as it began spasming and twitching, then I came, hard! Painfully hard!

Blasting my cum in long stringy arcs as only young men in their prime years can do! Watching as it sprayed across Becky's back and into her messy long blonde hair.

Coming down off my climax I became aware that Rocky was licking at Becky's backside cleaning up the mess he had just made. I could hear his long powerful muscular tongue swiping back and forth across her firm rosy ass cheeks, then digging its way into her thoroughly ravished swollen vagina. I heard Becky softly moaning under her breath as his tongue repeatedly lavished her pussy and suddenly I was shocked to see Becky having another orgasm!!!!

Finally finished with his licking Rocky backed away and walked out of the bathroom. I grabbed the still damp wash cloth and began to clean off my fiancé, wiping my cum off of her back. I sat down behind her flushed butt cheeks and look at her reddened swollen vagina.

Drops of Rocky's watery cum was still continuing to ooze out of her ravished pussy, with the wash cloth I wiped at her swollen labia lips and pull Rocky's damp matted hair out of her crotch.

Looking at Becky's messy long blonde hair with my load of cum in it, dog hair still all over her sweaty back and she was still oozing doggy cum, I decided it was best to get her into our large walk-in shower and wash her hair and use the douche function attachment to the shower wand. I picked her up off of the toilet and carried her into the shower and sat her on the built-in bench. Moving her into the shower caused streams of Rocky's cum to suddenly come running out of her vagina and dribble onto the tile floor.

Turning on the warm water Becky became slightly aware badly slurring her words asking what I was doing. I told her she had been sick and I was cleaning her up. She mumbled okay and she was like a wet rag doll as I washed her hair and then gently douched her. I dried her off in the shower and towel dried her hair as best as I could then I got her out of the shower and sat her down on her makeup chair and dried her hair some with the hair dryer until it was just damp. Then I helped her stumble into our bedroom and put her to bed and covered her up where she instantly fell asleep.

I looked over at Rocky laying on his pallet in the corner of our bedroom and shook my finger at him and told him to stay, in response Rocky vigorously wagged his stubby tail at me. I went back into the bathroom and grabbed the wet bath towel to clean up all the evidence on the tile floor and then put all the towels and wash cloths in the washing machine and started washing them before I got in bed with Becky.

In the morning as I sat at the kitchen drinking my coffee and reading the news on my tablet, I watched as Becky gingerly walked down the steps wearing one of her short summer weight robes, a sun beam through the window shining through the robe was just enough to discern that my gorgeous fiancé was wearing nothing underneath her robe which wasn't unusual. She was walking very slowly and a bit bow legged, looking as if she had just got done riding one of horses at our ranch up in Colorado. Amusingly I watched as she tenderly sat in one of the kitchen chairs and let out a low whimper.

"You ok?" I ask her while looking at her facial remnants of the massive hangover she was suffering from.

"I am never drinking that much again, everything hurts, my head, my hips, and my butt and crotch are totally killing me." Becky replied.

"Well that's not surprising how drunk off your ass you were last night. You got pretty sick afterwards and you busted your ass pretty good falling down once. I had to get you in the shower and get you cleaned up."

"Yeah, I barely remember us being together in the shower last night and you drying my hair but not much else..." Becky softly replied. Rocky then went over and began nudging his near basketball-sized head under the short hem of Becky's robe, Becky absently patting his head for several moments. Then Rocky became a little more intimately persistent and she gently pushed him away telling him softly "no, behave..."

I called Rocky over to me then began fixing Becky some toast. "Rocky sure has some nice tricks" I say happily to myself as again curiosity overcame me as I couldn't help wondering if beautiful Jessica had taught him those tricks...

EPILOUGE

A month later just as we were fixing to have sex, as usual I went to shut the bedroom door to keep

Rocky out until we were done. Oddly, Becky said,

“Travis, go ahead and keep the door open and see if Rocky behaves himself. I don’t want to hear his continuous whining at the door until we’re done like he always does. You know how anxious he gets when he is not with one of us or can’t see us...”

Well I did and Rocky almost behaved himself. He sat there beside the bed the whole time looking at us distracting Becky and I enough that we started laughing!

Subsequently leaving the door open there were two times when we were in the midst of having sex and Becky was in the cowgirl position that Rocky suddenly leapt up on the bed and tried mounting her - one time successfully before she rolled off me preventing anything from happening just in the nick of time! Surprisingly she laughed both incidents off, the first time saying, “Crazy horny dog! The breeder needs to put you out to stud more often!”

Two months later we had settled into married life. Laying in bed one night Becky was using the remote searching for a porn movie to stream on our 85 inch 8K ultra-high definition television for some prelim before we got into it.

It was one of those surprising things I had learned about her during our courtship that Becky liked watching porn movies. The adult videos Becky prefers are definitely not the artsy, couple type category of porn movies! They are very explicit hard-core sex movies! She prefers movies that are science fiction, fantasy or medieval themed, including girl-on-girl. Hell! Becky even has a fondness for porn movies that has space creatures and aliens ravishing women, mythological creatures ravishing women, even horror sex movies with monsters and mutants ravishing women with huge, weird cocks that explode quarts of cum! Becky thinks they are hilariously corny - and very stimulating, based on her actions while we are watching the movies!!!

Becky also loves daring erotic lingerie! And with her stunning beauty and gorgeous lithe hard-rock sexy body she loves seeing my reactions! All this from a girl who confessed to me that she only had sex with one other guy before me and that was with her long-time high school boyfriend, and she said it couldn’t really count as sex as he had popped off in his condom just trying to get the head of his penis into her! He was so drunk he couldn’t get it up again, plus his penis was way less than five inches in length and pretty skinny! Before they tried having sex again Becky had broken up with him because he had started bagging to his close friends that he had fucked the hottest girl in school and of course his guy friends started talking to their girlfriends and it had quickly gotten back to Becky.

After their breakup Becky said she had resolved herself to never having sex with another guy until she had met the ‘Forever One’ and contented herself with watching porn movies and using her dildos until she had met me!

As Becky continued browsing web porn sites at one website she got automatically redirected to another website and one of those movie clips started automatically playing of a Rotty fucking a young beautiful blonde woman by the pool! Surprisingly Becky let it the whole movie clip play out which lasted about five minutes complete with knotting and then the knot pullout. Another doggy clip started automatically playing after the first one ended but Becky turned to me and said, “It’s weird but the past few months I been having this recurring dream of me being fucked by a dog!

Oddly in the dream it was a Rotty too like Rocky!

The dream is quite vivid with me having one tremendous orgasm after orgasm!

The only thing I can think of that accounts for this recurring dream is I guess the dream had been seeded by Josh and Jessica's caution to keep our bedroom door closed when we have sex, plus Rocky's intimate poking catching me unawares at times when I was naked as well as pestering my girlfriends, not to mention the couple of times he had mounted me when we were having sex and I had to roll off you before he got lucky! Then there are the several times we have come across it on the web when we have been searching for a porn movie to watch and we did watch some clips for laughs and we talked how prevalent it was on the web. And do you recall how embarrassed and red in the face Jessica got when they were warning us to keep our bedroom door closed when having sex? That was totally weird!"

I glanced over at Rocky, he was laying on his pallet being quite attentive to what was playing on the television as another best clip had automatically started playing as Becky was still on the same website. Becky and I watched the clip for a bit, another surprisingly attractive young woman getting her brains fucked out by a Labrador and loudly climaxing, Becky remarking that she was pretty sure she wasn't faking her orgasm...

After that clip finished Becky found a mythological fantasy porn movie to stream where fair young beautiful maidens were being ravished by satyrs and unicorns! Reaching down I was surprised by how hot and steamy she was already, then I noticed how wet the sheet was under her. I realized she had been wet and aroused long before the mythological movie began playing...

I think we only got about ten minutes into the movie before she climbed on top of me and rode me hard. Forty minutes later when I had a chance to recharge, a scene began playing where a maiden had gotten under a realistic looking unicorn on her hands and spread knees and the unicorn was railing her pussy with a very real looking equine cock! Becky told me to get behind her doggy style and fuck her hard and for me to "don't hold back!" as she faced the 85 inch television keeping her eyes on the action while I fucked her hard as she had requested!

When the unicorn started gushing what appeared to be pints of cum into the orgasmically screaming actress Becky herself climaxed with one of her biggest orgasms yet as I continued thrusting into her making her climax four more times before I couldn't hold back anymore!

A couple more months then passed with Rocky interrupting us a few more times, Becky laughing about it each time even when there was a one, way too close time when she was on her knees going down on me and Rocky had mounted her and she had actually felt the very tip of his cock barely penetrating her and squirting a dose of hot precum into her before she could roll off to the side, laughingly scolding him.

Then one day Becky was away from home attending class and I was studying at home that day. My old laptop had been acting up so I had purchased a new one and both were at the computer shop having everything transferred over to the new laptop. I had to get on a website and review a plan and couldn't do it on my cell phone or tablet due to the goofy university system I had to log into so I went over to our desk and started using Becky's laptop.

I noticed Becky's email was opened but minimized. I went to close it but saw an opened email from Jessica. I knew I shouldn't but I began reading it...

The email started off with Becky explaining that an "incident" occurred with Rocky and her when she was fixing to take a shower and she couldn't break his hold on her, and since she didn't have any clothes on and Rocky is so heavy and strong, well Rocky got lucky and had some fun...

Reading this my mind instantly started racing! My heart painfully thudding!

Did Becky actually remember part of what happened that night in the bathroom after we got home from the engagement party and she pretended she didn't remember because she was so embarrassed about it???

And had there been a second time with Rocky she had kept secret from me???

Reading further I became even more astounded reading Jessica's reply...

Jessica admitted the same thing had happened to her! After the first time and after the shock had worn off, there had then been several other willing occasions....!!!

Jessica went on writing that Josh knew all about it and there have been subsequent times that were quite pleasurable especially when having both Josh and Rocky doing her at the same time! That was why they had cautioned us to keep our bedroom door closed when we were going to have sex! Jessica further wrote that in hindsight it was quite pleasurable and it was a whole lot different intense sexual feeling than having sex with a man and besides, it was so prevalent on the web with all those videos, stories and comics that it can't be that uncommon so they had no guilt about as it really couldn't be considered cheating as it wasn't with another man, however Josh had made her promise to only do it when he was present...

I sat back in the chair, stunned in shock and awe! My musings about beautiful Jessica and Rocky were true!!! I couldn't help the fantasy that suddenly popped in my head of Rocky fucking and knotting beautiful Jessica!

After all I had seen Jessica in our hot tub wearing a miniscule G-string bikini that barely covered her labia with anequally miniscule bikini top that just barely covered her nipples on her moderately large firm breasts! Jessica had been in bikini contests during Spring Breaks and had been offered modeling jobs, as had Becky but she wasn't interested, plus her parents would have had a conniption fit!

This then got me really curious and I began searching Becky's laptop...

I noticed she had more than one web browser installed. I checked the history, bookmarks and favorites on two of the browsers without finding anything curious. The third browser was Firefox. In her Firefox favorites there was an unnamed folder that got my attention. I opened the unnamed folder and there were several bookmarks for websites for bestiality videos with dogs, ponies and miniature horses, a few websites for bestiality stories and a few for bestiality comics!!! Then there was one sex toy website that was bookmarked that offered toys in the shapes of canine cocks and small equine cocks - with squirting options!

Was this why Becky watched the full video clip of the Rotty fucking the beautiful blonde by the pool instead of immediately getting off the website then preceded to tell me about her recurring dream???

To verify my suspicions and Becky's suspected newly developed proclivities the beginnings of a plan and variations of the plan began to form in my mind the next time Becky rode me cowgirl style and if Rocky mounted her...

Pretending I was too distracted when Rocky mounted her, my large hands holding her thighs tightly so she couldn't roll off in time...

Or her kneeling in front of me going down on me, holding her head firmly in place with my cock in her mouth, Rocky suddenly mounting her and she can't move because she has half my nine inch long cock in her mouth and my hands keeping her head from rising up...

Or! Or! She and I in the 69 position, she kneeling above me and Rocky suddenly mounting her while my hands are wrapped over her back holding her!!!

Totally distracted by what I have discovered I returned Becky's laptop to its original configuration as I had found it and forgot about studying for the rest of the day, anxiously waiting for Becky to get home and prepare to ravish her later that night!

Interesting times lay ahead along with some interesting discussions to tease out of my stunningly gorgeous sexy bride...
