BEASTIALITY STORIES

As the storm rolled in you were home alone, lonely and scared. Hoping I would have made it home before the severe thunderstorms. It was pouring and the wind was howling. You worried how I was doing. Knowing the roads when it stormed you figured it was gonna be a while now. You decided to let Bo in to make yourself feel safer. He came in and layed on the bed with you. He squirmed his way up against you and looked up all innocent looking. He then wiggled around pushing against you and sniffing all over your body. Suddenly he found something interesting. He got up and started nosing at your crotch. You rolled away to make him stop but he wouldn't. You pushed him away but he wasn't having that either. You rolled over on your stomach and put your legs together. He started tugging at your sweat pants but they weren't budging as you pushed yourself down against the bed. He let go and layed down but self control wasn't a strong point for him. After a couple minutes he got back up and got a better grip.

This time tugging harder. Intrigued by his persistence you raise up on my knees and with three quick jerks your sweats slipped half off your ass. He quickly started licking your ass then worked his way towards your pussy. Trying to wiggle his head into the back of your pants but his tongue was still shy of his target. You wiggled and wiggled your ass trying to get them to slip down. You weren't sure why beyond just curiosity to see how far he would take this. He had never acted like this before. He wasn't tugging at them now but he was trying to work his snout into your underwear and lick the crack of your ass. Your sweats still weren't moving. Probably because you had the string tied tight and being across your ass now it kept them pretty tight. He did manage to get his head halfway into your panties and was trying to get his tongue to your butthole. Growing more curious and a little turned on you decided to quit playing hard to get and take them off. You looked at him to see his reaction as you got him untangled from your panties and pushed him away. He looked at you with disappointment in his eyes.

When you had pushed him away you had rolled over on your back. Now as he watched you untied the string in your sweats and lifted your ass up off the bed. Slowly sliding them down your legs you kept watching him as he was watching you. Once you had them bunched up at your ankles you sat up and started pulling them off. Now he seemed more interested as he tilted his head to the side and stared at your pussy. When you got them off you tossed them to the floor and laid back with your knees up. He still looked interested but he didn't make a move. Now your curiosity had really grown but not enough that you weren't still going to wait for him to make the first move. Figuring enticing him a little wouldn't hurt you moved your knees apart giving him a good view of your pussy. He crawled forwards a little bit so now he had his head laying between your feet but that's as far as he went. He just laid there like he was fascinated but maybe unsure of what he should do. So far you had rejected his advances so maybe he was waiting on you.

By now you were really wanting this to happen but you still wasn't ready to admit that. You wanted him to do this on his own. You watched as he kept switching back and forth from looking at your pussy to looking up at you for some kind of sign. It seemed like a stalemate. Neither of you wanted to initiate anything. Finally you had an idea. Maybe if you just put your hand down there he would come to investigate. It wouldn't be your fault if he did that. Now you were making excuses. As you slowly reached your hand down he followed it with his eyes until your fingers touched your clit. He scooted up some but still stopped short and watched. you slowly rubbed your clit just a little bit. Just to see if movement would help. Of course it didn't. You reach down and run your finger up between your pussy lips and realize you're wet. Still nothing out of Bo though so you just lay back staring at the ceiling. Thinking why would he do anything like that? Why would you want him to anyways? It was kind of gross wasn't it? Letting a dog lick your pussy. But it was just licking you. It wasn't hurting anybody and you wanted to see how it would feel.

Why did he start this but then act uninterested? Maybe he was into ass but not pussy. You wasn't even sure why this had become a mission for you. Maybe the curiosity was more about the taboo of it. All you knew was this was consuming you now. Maybe give him another chance at your ass. You rolled over on your stomach being careful not to hit him with your leg but to keep him in between them. He hadn't moved so you slide your legs apart as far as you could and waited and hoped. He wouldn't disappoint you this time as you felt the bed moving as he inched his way up. Suddenly you could feel his breath on you. He was sniffing at you ass.

He had now made the first move as far as you were concerned. Reaching back you spread your ass cheeks apart and felt his nose in between them. Then it happened his tongue ran across your butthole. Then again and again. He was licking you. You felt it as he moved his head and licked across it at a different angle. Then you felt him lick down closer to pussy and up your ass. Now you were just processing what was happening. How his tongue felt as it slide across you butthole and beyond. Without even thinking about it or purposely doing it you found yourself going up on your knees a little to get your pussy up off the bed in hopes he'd find it. You laid there anticipating his tongue to dip into your pussy. Thinking how it might feel.

About that time the bedroom door swings open and I walk in. You jumped as you tried to elaluate the situation to see if I know what was going on or not and if I did to decided just what say or do. I ask whats going on here? You trying something new? Now you're scared, embarrassed and fumble to find your words. Trying to piece something together without it looking quite like what it was. Really theres no words thats gonna do it. Here you are in bed naked with our dog up between your legs. Maybe you could act like you were asleep. But why would you be asleep naked from the waist down with your legs spread? I say baby its ok. You experimenting or is this something you've done before? Something you do when I'm not around?

Feeling relieved that it seems like I'm not mad or disappointed you decided to tell the truth about what happened. I asked how far did it go? How far did you want it to go? You laugh and say it didn't go anywhere really. I wondered what it would feel like for him to lick my pussy but he only licked my butt crack a few times and no I've never done this before. Never even thought about doing it. I come over to the bed to sit next to you. You scooch over to make room and as you get situated hes already back on the bed and putting his nose close to your pussy. Still nervous your a little hesitant so you just sit there unsure of your next move. I pull your legs apart and your pussy opens up. He moves closer but he hesitates too. I reach down and sink two fingers inside you. I didn't say anything but you're really wet. I move my fingers towards him and he reaches forward and starts licking them.

I pull my hand back towards your pussy but he stops a little short. I poked them back inside you then move them back to him. This time as soon as he starts to lick them I bring my hand back to your pussy. He follows it all the way and as he's licking my fingers clean I push them down against her pussy. After a few more licks I move my hand and he stays with your pussy and starts to lick it. I put my hands on your knees and keep you wide open. He licks deeper and harder trying to get to your wetness deep inside.

You wiggle as it feels good but not getting into it too much because you're still unsure of what I'll think. He licks you for a few minutes, long enough for you to really start enjoying it and then he stops and doesn't act interested anymore. You say I don't get it is it just something he doesn't like to do or am I not doing something right? I said I don't know, I don't know what you could be doing wrong.

You ask can we watch some videos? Of course I'm not going to say no to something that helps get you even more wet. We watch videos on our tablet often but to bring it up at this time I'm thinking there's a reason. Something in particular you're looking for. You know what you want to watch but quickly say you don't know when I ask.

I say well I have to type something in for the search. Asking again. What do you want to watch? It almost feels like the words are coming from someone else's mouth as you say. One like what I'm doing....dog eating girls pussy? I ask. You say yeah. I want to see what other girls do and what the dogs do. Maybe I can figure out a way to get him more interested. Mmmmm as I type it in and hit search. Several videos pop up and I hand you the tablet.

You click one and we watch as a girl let's her dog eat her pussy. Then we watch a couple more. They're mostly the dog already licking her or the dog just goes right up and starts. Not really anything that's helping you. You scroll through a bunch of thumbnails of videos until you get to one that makes you stop. It's a thumbnail so small but it's clearly a young girl on her hands and knees and a dog on top of her. You ask is that dog fucking her? I said it sure looks like it. Click it if you want to see. You click on the video and it starts with the girl walking around and her dog following her. Then yeah she ends up getting naked and getting on her hands and knees. Her dog comes right up and starts licking her pussy for a minute and then mounts her and starts fucking her. It's a good view from behind and low enough that you can see it's dick slamming into her.

He fucks her faster and faster as she moans with pleasure. Slowing down you can see he has his knot inside her and it pulls against her pussy from the inside. She then holds still and stays that way as he holds onto her but doesn't move. That's all it shows for the next couple minutes so we fast forward till we get to where he pulls out and cum pours from her pussy. You're so excited, you're surprised your pussy isn't leaking your juices out of it. I asked are you ready to try to get him to lick your pussy now? You said yeah and laid the tablet down. You lay on the bed holding your legs apart. This time when he sees what you're doing he gets right up between your legs and starts running his tongue from your ass to your clit over and over. Again he licks you for several minutes. About time you got your eyes closed and starting to really get into it he stops and then hops off the bed. You sit up to see what happened and he is just standing at the foot of the bed looking at you.

You wiggle down to get your pussy to the edge so he can have access to you. He steps back as you resituate and as you look you can see he is a bit hard and part of his pink dick is poking out. As you stare at it you realize you've never really paid much attention to him in this way. I catch your stares and ask what are you thinking of? Of course you say oh nothing and look away from him. I ask are you thinking about his dick and what it might feel like? Stumbling to find your words you say maybe. Not wanting to quite admit just how much you wish he did know what to do or just how much this has you excited. I know you better then you give me credit for and want to see you excited as often and as much as possible.

I push two fingers against your pussy and they quickly slip inside and I can feel a gush of wetness inside you. Mmm god you're wet. And I love how open you've become about what you like. I ask again what are you thinking about. You try not to grin and try to look away but suddenly glance back towards his dick. It's still partially hard and he walks back close to you. I grab your hand and slide it to him as I say go ahead feel it and see what it feels like. As you get your hand close to him I say hold on a second and I pull your shirt up and off of you so your naked now and I can see your cute titties. I see the excitement in your eyes as you gently grasp his dick and start stroking it. After about the fourth stroke he startles you as he starts humping into you hand. Taken totally by surprise you're unsure what to do next. Before you even get an idea it's too late. You don't have to do anything but decide to hold on or let go.

The excitement is overwhelming and of course you hold on. He is humping furiously now and tries to mount your arm. Wrapping his legs around your arm and pulling you down towards his dick which is flying back and forth and it is all you can do to keep a hold of him. You can feel he is all the way out and the knot is swelling. It feels big and he feels powerful as he fucks your hand. You hold on tight behind the knot and slip to the floor before he pulls you off the bed. You're setting on your butt now with your legs under him and his legs still clutching your arm as best as he can and his dick still flying back and forth.

You can watch now as he fucks your hand. His dick has really grown in size and has turned from hot pink to red and purple as it is flooded with blood making it bigger and bigger. It's hard to take your eyes off of it as you feel something hit your stomach and then again on your boobs and then your side. As you look down you can see he is squirting cum and it is splashing against you and running down your breasts and stomach. You look back at his dick and watch as he cums. Squirt after squirt after squirt it spills from him and splashes onto you.

He is doing something. He is cumming and cumming all over me I think, you say. Neither of us had ever seen a dog cum before. It's not thick and white like mine. It's clear and watery. At first it was hard to see but once you realize it it's fascinating to watch. You lean back and try to slide more under him. Now you're in position that he is cumming onto your tits and you point him so it hits your nipples.

He slows down and quits humping but is still swollen and still spraying cum. You look as your boobs glistens with his cum. Stream after stream hitting your hard nipples. It pours down to your pussy and starts collecting in puddles on your stomach and on the hardwood floor. I see you trying to reposition again sliding down and pointing his dick more down wards. I see what you're wanting and grab his front legs and pull him around and over your leg as I pull his back leg over your arm. Now you're on your butt leaned back a little with him facing away from you and your hand still clenching him. His dick is pulled out behind him and aimed right at your pussy.

You're so wet now that you're leaking a puddle and your lips are swollen and puffy and just parted enough to see your clit swollen and poking out between your lips. We're having the same thought as I part your pussy open and you guide him to shoot his cum right onto your clit. He is only a couple inches away so it hits your clit with enough force to splash off of it and down your pussy. Your clit is getting soaked with his cum. It must feel as hot as it looks as I see you squirm a little and bite your lip as the first moans are released. Your pussy invites his cum to run down and mix with yours then drip to the floor. Now it's beginning to be quite a puddle.

It's amazing how much he has come and his knot still looks as swollen as it started. I tell you to lift up as I fold a pillow and slip it under your ass. Your pussy is now raised up off the floor and you look at me like now what? I tell you to slide forward and you do but still looking confused. I reached out taking his dick from you and tell you spread your pussy open so I can have him cum in your hole. You pull your lips apart and as your pussy gaps open I aim him so he's squirting cum right into your open pussy. Now you're really moaning and you lay your head back closing your eyes and not holding back. You're really getting turned on and start thrusting your hips like you're getting fucked. That makes it hard for me to stay on target so I keep pointing him at you and as long as he's squirting in your hole, up your slit or on your clit we're both happy. The more you moan the more you wiggle. I try to get his dick closer to you so I can hit all the right spots with this cum. As you arch your back even more you get closer. I push him back towards you and the tip of his dick finds your pussy. You let out a loud long moan so I slip it up then back down your pussy.

Your mind races now. it's one thing to let your dog lick your pussy but now here you are with him having a hard on and his dick touching your pussy. You wonder if you let things go too far. This is getting extreme you think to yourself but the decision seems to have been made because as soon as it slips to your opening and finds the spot I push forward hard and he slips into you. His dick isn't quite as rigid as mine so it takes a little work to try to get him deeper inside of you. One more shove and I've got more of his dick in you then out. You moan out loud this time not trying to hide it and you reach down taking his dick in your own hand. Pulling him into you and pushing hard you get to his knot.

He's too swollen to get it in you but it does slide in just enough to gape your lips wide open. I can see his knot quiver every time it squirts and your pussy seems to respond each time trying to pull him inside. His knot is big and the red and purple blends nicely with the pink of your pussy lips hugging at it. You start rapidly rubbing your throbbing clit as you fuck your pussy with our dog's cock. You can't decide whether to sit up and try to watch his cock pleasure your pussy or lean back and enjoy the feeling of your pussy getting hotter and hotter as he fills you with warm cum and your pussy heats up with ecstasy. Before you can decide you suddenly feel a wave of pleasure pour through you and your pussy explodes into one of the biggest orgasms you've ever had. You pussy spasms and you can feel the sensations rush through out your body. It ends back at your pussy as you can feel it quiver and contract over and over.

You look up a bit embarrassed as you know I know you just came all over our dog's dick. It felt dirty and wrong. Which also made it feel dirty and wrong in an incredibly erotic way. I smile at you and you smile back as you start pumping his dick in and out of your pussy. You increase the speed and let his knot slam hard against your soaked pussy. From the incredible orgasm you had your pussy is sensitive now. You take in all the sensations of him going in and out of you. The feeling of his cock inside you. The feel of his knot in your hand and when it slaps against your pussy and makes your lips part and quake. The warm feeling of a pussy full of cum and the sounds his dick is making as it splashes deep into it. The sight of cum squirting out every time his knot slams against you. Just as you really start to take it all in you feel him getting smaller and softer. Your pussy is too good. It has drained him.

You sigh as you say I think I might of been able to cum again if I'd had a few more minutes. It's not to late we still have hours. Curious to how it was, I ask. You say it was good. Just good I ask? Seeming like something is wrong. I worry if youre having regrets or what. I ask whats wrong? You look as if something is wrong. Are you ok? You reply ya I'm ok, it was fun. I tell you I'm worried. You sheepish look up and say I really wanted to feel him fuck me. Fucking me like that girl in the video. I lean over and hug you. Its ok baby we can get him to do that if thats what you want. Quickly you ask if it would be ok with me? I lean back and you see me hard as fuck as my dick looks as if its gonna bust through my jeans. Ya I am more then ok with us trying that.

I unbutton my pants and let them drop to the floor. As you pull my underwear down it's apparent how ok I am with this all. The front is soaked with precum. You move back as I get my clothes the rest of the way off and slip onto the bed and lay back. You kneel down in front of me taking the end of my dick in your mouth. You stop as soon as the head slips past your lips. Squeezing your mouth tight around it you then let your tongue dance against and around and around. I feels so fucking hot you have me squirming. I already want to fill your mouth with my cum but I also want this to last forever.

Slowly you take more in still using your tongue to tickle every part. You're amazing with your mouth. Then you start using your hand, mouth and tongue all at the same time. So many sensations all at once and all working perfectly together feels so great. You start increasing the depth and speed as you stroke me and start bobbing up and down. I can feel my dick hitting your throat and every time it does your mouth grips it and pulls. Your mouth works like your pussy. Pulling and squeezing, tugging and releasing. Sending shock waves down my dick and deep inside me.

As I lay back and enjoy your skills I feel you jump and moan a little. I notice Bo has gotten behind you and is licking your pussy again. I can feel you wiggle as you enjoy the attention. His approach is different. Nothing fancy, just licking up and down you but his tongue feels different to you. A little rougher and a little longer. His strokes go from your clit up your pussy and across your ass then repeats over and over. It's amazing to you just how much ground he covers so quickly and how it finds every fold.

I can tell how good it feels to you because the distraction has you struggling to maintain what you were doing to my dick. It's a bit of a relief because you were about to make me cum way too quickly. I slip my dick from your mouth. And as I slide from beneath you I pull your arms forward so you're now leaning on your forearms with your face on the bed. This brings your ass up and in a better position for him to probe you deeper. I watch as you close your eyes and slowly moan. I grab your ass and spread you open so he can work his tongue deeper into you. The deeper he gets the more of your juices he finds and the harder he licks. I can see his excitement building as he starts wiggling around and I can see he is getting hard again.

I don't want him to lose his excitement nor keep you waiting for what you really want. I pull him forward and try to encourage him to mount you. He is really starting to dance around now so I put him on top of you and he quickly started humping wildly. Ramming his dick at you. I watch as it grows and smacks against your ass leaving a wet spot every time it does. After the fifth or sixth jab it found its spot and quickly slammed into you. Pushing inside you. He hunched forward as far as he could and started slamming against my ass. Pounding as hard and as fast as he could. You squeal and moan as you push back into him. It was amazing how he would lunge into you and pull you back into him at the same time.

Watching you push back wanting to make sure he got all the way in so he could knot you. His dick got harder and bigger. You could feel it expanding inside your pussy. You could feel his knot growing larger and larger. Filling you up and starting to warm your insides up as his hot cum spurted over and over. He pounded and pounded at you and into you. You moaned loudly not even meaning to. It was obvious you were getting a real fucking and you couldn't hide it or hold back. You let it all go. Moaning and moaning as he fucked your throbbing pussy. He soon slowed down and you could feel the pressure as he pulled back and his knot was stuck.

You moaned more with pleasure and started rubbing your clit as hard as you could. The total taboo of it all swirled through your mind. The naughtiness was such a turn on. The primal feeling of him fucking you made you light headed. Thinking of how naughty you were being and how incredible it felt with a dog's cock shoved deep inside you and the thoughts and feelings of him splashing all his cum inside had you weak in the knees and dizzy. Your pussy was filled with cum and his dick felt like it was swimming inside you. Everything came together at once and made you cum. Your pussy quivered and quivered as it clutched tight around him. It felt like his knot was pounding as it throbbed every time he squirted another jet of cum. You layed your head down as you took it all in. He came and came.

Resting on your back and feeling his weight on you. You thought about how powerful he had fucked you. How in control he was. How all he wanted was to breed you and fill you with cum. He really seemed to be enjoying your pussy. Finally he pulled to one side and you could feel his knot tugging at the entrance of your pussy. You were so worked up and sopping wet that you could feel your lips spreading open and his knot slowly slipping out. Stretching your pussy open but as it pulled outwards your pussy was grasping and tugging trying to get it back inside. Then it popped out and your pussy felt so empty. Now you realize just how full you had been. His cum mixed with yours gushed out. You put your hand down there and pushed more out. It flooded all over your hand. Filling your hand and pouring to the bed. You rubbed it on your clit and pussy.

Spinning around you sat cross legged in front of me and gave me a big hug and kiss while whispering thank you for that. I said your welcome as my eyes lowered and I looked between your legs. Your pussy was puffy, swollen and darker pink then usual. It was still gaped open and I could still see cum leaking from inside. As I stared at the wet spot and at your pussy I thought to myself. That may very well be the most properly fucked her pussy has ever looked. It was making me harder and I wanted to fuck you so bad. As I looked back up and into your eyes.

You gave me a big smile. I then asked if it was all you thought it would be? You said yes, omfg yes. I was so glad to see how much fun you had had and so happy for you to have had this new experience. A dog slut was born.....
