BEASTIALITY STORIES

I saw the mansion as I pulled up, thankful that it wasn't too late to appear regardless of the fact that it was one AM. I thought it was huge but beautifully designed and lots of room but it's so far away from everything out here in the country. Well, I pulled up to the door a parking attendant took my keys to my car as I stepped out of the car walked up to the door and was directed to where the party was not that I wouldn't have found it on my own since the music could be heard almost a quarter of a mile away. I walked in and the first face I recognized was Tony. I walked up to him to start a dialogue we started to talk about school and welcomed the fact that we were starting our spring break. How are grades our doing and what professor's we liked when he asked me if I had wanted a drink and Gina walked up. Another familiar face she was too pretty she always was the center of attention she obviously was on the prowl for Tony not that I thought I had a chance and I said my casual hellos not trying to prolong this conversation. I wondered If I should find another familiar face so I could lose her or wait for Tony to come back When I caught David standing alone I excused my self explaining to Gina that I just had to talk to Dave. I quickly retreated in Dave's direction and picked up a conversation with him and after a few minutes with him. Gina tracked me down offering the extra drink that she was carrying stating that Tony was called away. I graciously accepted the drink sipping it now and again. Gina intently watched me drink it not really saying much but with a wicked smile on her face. I finished my drink when Dave asked me to dance. I was grateful for the fact that I would be excused again from Gina's company. When I started to feel good maybe even a little gitty. I guess the alcohol was starting to catch up with me or something. When the song had finished, I was getting quite thirsty went to find a place to sit Tony walked up apologizing for having to be pulled away. I consoled him saying that it was no problem. We started to talk when people were starting to get a little wild. People were falling or being pushed into the pool. While other people were making some serious time. I was really starting to feel good. When Gina reappeared, carrying an extra drink and again offering it to me. I thought it funny that she went out of her way for me.

But I didn't mind because I was feeling so good even goofy and surprisingly horny. I don't now why but, I just kissed Tony for no reason I looked back at Dave and he was apparently miffed at my action. Because the next thing I knew, he was out of his seat and heading away. I then glanced back at Tony which I caught shaking his head in agreement with Gina in a suspicious manner. But I didn't care because I was feeling good. The more I drink the better I felt. When it dawned on me in a semi aware state that Gina had slipped me a mickey. One that I knew could not fight as I too far gone to be shocked about it when.

Tony asked me if I wanted to go for a walk I thought it was because he wanted to be alone with me and that was something I was hoping for we got up and started in a direction away from the house and the party But Gina was with us. I didn't care because I was on Tony's shoulder not Gina when Tony stopped in front of the guard dogs kennels and kissed me long and hard on the mouth. Then I felt something, it was his hands that I felt as they wonder over my body but then it dawned on me that it couldn't be his hands in that position I realized that it was Gina's hands running up my dress following my thighs felling my thighs up to my buttocks and pussy wandering over my belly and Tony's hands roaming over my breast I didn't try to resist it felt to good Gina's hands gripped that waist band of my panty hose seductively pulling them down off of me final slipping my feet out of my shoes and panty hose Gina's hands didn't return to my body instead as horny as I was I dropped to my knee's opened his zipper and drew his penis out when I heard a clink and the dogs barking behind me but I was so engrossed in what I had in my hands that I didn't care what was happening behind me I took my tongue and touched the tip of his half inflated penis he moaned gutturally as I allowed it to gently sink between my lips into my mouth sucking it in as far as I could playing with it with my tongue. Started pumping his dick now unable to wait for him to explode in my mouth. I wanted him to come in my mouth I wanted to taste it and swallow it. I couldn't believe it I never felt this hungry before I was so hot and horny then his balls started to tighten he started to jerk when it started to fill my mouth his dick jerking like crazy with his come oozing in my mouth. The taste wasn't that great but the idea was awesome I sucked on it until it was dry he put his dick away and zipped up when a pair of hands reached from behind me grasping my tits I loved it as they slowly helped me up I got to my feet when I saw it was Gina helping me up she leaned me against a mesh fence which was the kennels she asked me If I wanted to see some really cute doggies and the way I was still feeling I would have said yes to anything well Gina opened the fence door one of about ten and lead me in on my hands and knees there was this huge German shepherd in there and he was friendly when disappeared behind me then I felt her hand searching my under my dress playing with my crotch a little this time grasping my panties pulling my panties down I lifted one knee then the other to allow her to totally remove them she took one of her hands and once again felt it searching under my dress for my crotch this time playing with my clit and inserting her fingers in me I heard Gina call king and with her other hand pushed my dress up onto my back totally exposing my violated pussy to this animal I wondered what Gina was doing when put her hand under Kings belly then I saw what she was reaching for she was reaching for this long red shinny thing it looked like it was about six inches long and one inch thick. Then I realized what it was his penis and she started to play with it just like she was playing with me. I said to her that she shouldn't do that you might get the cute doggie all excited not to mention the fact that Gina made me feel really sexy the way she touched me gliding her fingers down between my legs over my belly sliding over my vulva gently inserting her middle finger in me with a gentle twisting when I heard her soft voice asking me to remove my dress I did as she said without even so much as a second thought. She didn't have to ask me to remove my bras because I wasn't wearing one to begin with. Then the thought of were I was and now on my hands and knees and what Gina was doing to me and doing to that cute doggie at the same time. It occurred to me that she might have gotten the idea that she would try to get the big dog to copulate with me. I thought no but why else would we be here.

Then I asked her if she was going to have the dog screw me. She gently smiled at this point I thought that all this was just a dream. Until she commanded the dog to mount and it complied. I felt the dog's belly come to rest on my rear end, his front legs wrapped around my waist and his hind legs between mine. I soon realized that this was no dream that the dog was going to put it in me. But I didn't care the empty ache in my belly needed to be filled I watched as Gina reached from beside me grabbed the dogs penis again and guided it to my lips allowing it to gently touch then slide slowly forward. I started to tremble with excitement and anticipation as it gentle parted my lips inserting itself in me slowly in it entered me filling me this unspeakable thing was happening and it felt right even natural just like it belonged there mating with me then Gina released the dog allowing him to do to me what was natural to him he started to piston his penis in and out of me it was wild and unbelievable that this was happening this was the second time I had sex and I was doing it with a dog and believe me the dog was better then I felt a bulge in the base of his penis not to mention the heat that was generated from our copulation and super human speed in which he pistoned it in me. Moans of elation filled my throat and escaped my lips as the bulge slide up his shaft exponentially multiplying the erotic intoxicating sensations mating with me sexually exploring my depths when he exploded in me with his hot sperm in my belly the dog froze with his penis in me it jerked in me spewing this hot goo in me I felt him going soft sliding out of me I looked up to see Gina she held the leash to a huge doberman pincher and talking about hung he had to be about ten inches long and two inches wide. The ache in my belly still needed to be satisfied. Gina said as she stood there "Well dogs mans best friend but Hispanic women are dogs best friend, Bitch". Ordinarily That would make me burn but instead I licked my lips in anticipation allowing Gina and the dog to pass behind me she again ordered the dog to mount me this time I reached under and felt for his penis huge and slippery I couldn't wait to get it in me I like Gina lead it to my lip allowing him to slowly insert it in me. It started to fill me as much as King but this dogs penis was almost twice as large and kept filling me I was starting to worry thinking that it was going to be too much I tried to stop him from putting any more in me I squirmed and tried to hold him back but he just overpowered me with a thrust of his hips I felt a pop and was astonished at the fact that the tip had poked into my uterus and as he started pumping I was at his mercy the tip poking in my uterus many times a second or so I thought I was helpless to stop this he's physically overpowering. It was all I could do to stay on my knees he completely filled me it was incredible this beastly union probing in me into the depths of my femininity I luxuriate this lewd, perverse obscenity that I was a victim of. My mind now in a turmoil of ecstasy. I never thought it could be like this my lips surrounding it and my vagina clasping even sucking on every inch of it as he explored the depths of my womanhood. He panted as he drooled all over my back his saliva following the contours of my breast dripping off my nipples. All I could do was squirm under his body. When a familiar sensation struck me it was the knot at the base of his penis it was developing growing on the verge of entering me it had to be the size of a baseball. I moaned my god groans and whimpers of ecstasy pain and passion fled my lips then it was in me moving up his shaft. I myself now panting as he mated with me. Then with one final stroke drove home deeper in me than anything's ever been his penis jerking in me finally releasing his sperm in me. His sperm was so hot and it was filling me more and more came it started to seem like an endless stream. I believed he was actually filling my uterus like a balloon. Those moments seeming to be like an eternity however not nearly long enough as his penis stopped jerking becoming soft and finally slipping out of me. I was so thirsty and tired when Gina came to me offering another drink probably with more of what ever she spiked my drink with before yet so thirsty I didn't care. She helped me up leading me out of the cage my cloths gone. Apparently taking during my intimate endeavors she quizzically asked me how was it with a learning grin. I asked her about my cloths and she said they were where we are going I quickly asked where that was at and she said in the guest house hesitating for a moment and said near the stables smiling wickedly. I finished the drink in seconds and followed Gina to the guest house it seemed far far away coming to a building Gina said that this was there stables she invited me to look at her horse I was more intent on getting my cloths first walking around totally nude. Then she stated that it was quicker to the guest house not to mention the cover the building could afford me. I approved following her we stepped in the stables. Gina introduced me to a number of these horses when she walked up to one and stated this is Sampson walking up to him she invited me to pet him he was a magnificent animal when she reached under the animal gripping the sheath of his penis she said he was supposed to be mated to day but other horse was sick she said you know we were supposed to make a hundred thousand dollars from this already for this but I'm sure he's quite frustrated now his dick starting to slide out she said here touch it her hand taking mine and stroking my hand up and down the shaft of his penis it was about three inches round and still sliding out I was transfixed on it I didn't say a word then she bent over licking her lips then taking the penis in her mouth. It did something to me something snapped. Gina withdrew and said would you like a hundred thousand dollar fuck free of charge. I was like oh my god she thought that I might do it with that I still didn't say anything she said "don't worry come here and for some unknown reason I was compelled to follow her directions as she bent me over placing me under this great beast. "I'll just place it between your thighs" which allowing it slide against my belly. In my mind I new I couldn't put it in me it simply was too large. However the fire burning in my belly again erupted again. and it was quite obvious my body wanted it when Gina put a nylon harness simple a cross the center of which was placed between my breast and over my shoulders and waist she said it would simply help hold me up. She stated "I'm sure your legs are very tired". Gina now whispered in my ear now doesn't that feel good that huge warm masculine slippery piece of meat sliding over your vulva between your thighs. Wouldn't your pussy lips like to just touch it I looked at her not responding then she kissed me whispering "I'll help" she pushed me forward took his penis and touched my pussy lips with it. Apparently ejaculate was spewing forth from this beast saturating my crotch making it incredibly slippery. It felt phenomenally wondrous the only reason it didn't just slide in me was because of its sheer size. It no matter what would be a tight squeeze she reached up and somehow tightened the harness. His penis suspended against my lips incapable of retreating from having no escape. I felt it pressing into me I squirmed against the harness to try to desperately trying to escape its inevitable penetration. I tried to push forward with my legs finding that it only aided its insertion, wedging it tighter against me almost in the twinges of pain and pleasure mixed started then the realization that he was going to fuck me unless I got help I looked at Gina and pleaded for her help she simply replied "relax and enjoy. It's out of your hands now!" She bent over and kissed me again passionately. She also said get use to it because we are going to send you down to Mexico. You know white slavery and all that where men, women, dogs, horses, mules and other sorts of beast screw you routinely.

My mind was racing from her statement, the horse started prancing wiggling it in me. The pain was stabbing into me I couldn't believe it was actually entering me. I went limp the harness suspended me against the penetrating dick. Sliding inch after pain staking inch into me I felt like I was being split in two it penetrated deeply into me yet couldn't go any further. But then the horse whinnied rearing to its hind legs. I found myself suspended in mid air with nothing to hold me up but the dick that was deeply penetrating me.

And with all my weight suspended in me I felt a mind splintering pain my eyes saw sparks of light flashing before me and with that pop I slowly started to slide down the shaft of this creature fully taking it in me. It was incomprehensible almost like losing my virginity again like tearing my hymen in two. But something different started to happen unlike my first time. I felt full and complete. The smell of sex filled the air and I felt the strongest flashes of ecstasy that I've ever felt before in my life. I started to come repeatedly almost continuously the horse flicking his hind quarters repeatedly pushing his penis in me to the hilt once again I felt the now familiar sensations of my partner's climax. My mind on the verge of ecstasy his hind quarters flick forward one last time squeezing the last of that mammoth dick ohh so deep into me he started to come and come my belly filling with his come it just kept flowing into me coming more and more. I looked down and watched my belly swell as I felt it fill up with the never ending flow of this beast's come filling my belly up like a balloon come now spewing out of me around the dick still planted so deep in me and my own earth shattering orgasm gripping me in explosions of light My body the ecstasy being more than I can handle I became limp from exhaustion as it had taken me and my mind slipping me into oblivion as the indomitable force still in my belly feeling reassuringly secure I woke up finding my body sore and my neck stiff in unfamiliar surroundings it was a stucco building I looked around all I had on was my panties and a tee shirt in an empty room with a bunk that I was on and some food and water I found myself famished almost jumping for the food recalling the night before I couldn't believe that it really happened it had to be a dream but what would explain this place in what I wanted to believe to be a dream I recall a threat of making me a boarder town whore in Mexico but Mexico was hundreds of miles away or so I thought I heard a woman's voice say something that I couldn't make out then I saw the owner of the voice It was a Mexican woman she came in studying me and said with a bad accent we were worried about you. You have been asleep for four days I couldn't believe what she was saying I finished my meal and fell back to sleep.

Waking up again I wandered out into the hall leading me into a larger room I saw three men and a woman in it and a bar a couple of tables one of the men got up saying something in Mexican and then said to me in English well its about time we couldn't wait to much longer for you as he walked right up to me saying so what's your name senorita. I felt awkward wearing almost nothing but my panties and a tee shirt I timidly responded Cindy. He said "You look very pretty you know. Do you know this" He started to come closer and closer I started to back away. I pleaded with the man to leave me alone my back coming in contact with a wall unable to retreat any further his hand lurched forward finding my crotch protected by the thin fabric of my panties I pushed him away from me and found my resistance returned with a backhand then once again planting his hand in my crotch defended by the nothing more than the thin fabric as he continued to attempt to probe me. I turned my head away and he responded "take the shirt off". I stood there shaking his hand still exploring the exterior of my panties. I didn't respond to his command and once again as he took the initiative. His hand left my crotch reaching for the collar of my shirt gripping it and with one swift movement the tee shirt was gone leaving my breast visibly trembling. I tried to cover myself and again he slapped me turned to the bartender and barked something at him in Mexican. Then he turned back to me and said "So I am not good enough for you we then I here you like doggies. " and all at once it all came back to me what was said to me in my drugged out stupor realizing what they expected of me the bar tender disappearing out a door behind the counter while the man in front of me reengaged his hand in my crotch and the other on my breast. I just stood there in shock and realization then he took me by the hand and lead me to one end of the bar to a cruddy stage that was gaudily decorated near the back he stopped indicating to me similar wishes when he disappeared behind me I felt his hands between my legs again his forefinger gliding over the satiny material right in the crevice that was the entrance when I saw the bar tender returning with a dog a large German shepherd. I felt a minor wave of relief flow over me that it was only a German shepherd. Nonetheless I was starting to get wet with the Mexican's finger sliding over my pussy lips regardless of music that was playing feeling the dampness in my crotch he disengaged his finger and I felt his hands on my hips gripping my panties slowly pulling my panties down exposing my pussy down my thighs over my knees and then I finally stepped out of them once again the finger was once again between my legs sliding over my lips this time his finger dipping in me slightly as the dog stood there he was obviously used to this because he knew what was coming. He started to get excited now. And the finger that glided over my lips now gone again and a hand lead me to a home made chair one that would make you sit in a reclined position and supported your legs independent of each other forcing you to separate your legs if you wanted your legs supported the hand guided me between the leg supports and guided me to sit at first I hesitated then heard a wine I looked over my shoulder saw the dog looking at me almost pleading with me and then sat down lifting my legs up onto their supports position me in the mercenary style position. Then the bar tender released the great German shepherd he came over to me stopping just in front of me eyeing me. My pussy fully exposed he sniffed at the air then started to come closer coming between the supports that held my legs he inhaled the fragrance of my sex just like I was any other bitch.

I waited for him in expectation yes it was expectation I found in the dark recesses of my mind I wanted this to happen. I wanted this dog to copulate with me. My tits now swollen and erect stood up as well as my clitoris throbbing in anticipation and this time I would not have the excuse of being drugged or really even the possible threats that could be made and carried out by that Mexican man really concerned me. I just waited in anticipation to be serviced by this dog just like any other bitch. I watched in anticipation when his tongue his long red tongue lashed out at my pussy I tried to jump back in unexpected anticipation as its tip momentarily contacted my lips it felt like the first time again but this time I could watch it and even actively participate. Yes even aid in his mission to inseminate me. His tongue now flailing out again this time firmly touching my crotch He was licking even consuming the juices that were now flowing from deep within my belly. His tongue flagellating my lips my breath sporadic as his tongue fluttered over my vulvaAAAAAHH. Oh my it slipped between my lips. It slipped into me his tongue found the opening and went in me again it found its way in his tongue impatient for the juices that flowed from in me his tongue now searchingly scoping the juices out of me. My fingers now sinking into the foam rubber arms of the chair as his tongue repeatedly delved into me. My head flung back with my eyes closed as I endured the rapture of his tongue with a steady flow of moans whimpers and groans escaped my lips when he stopped I quickly look down for what was wrong. And I found the dog licking his snout I noticed his belly and that long red penis of his and I knew what to do next. I reached down for the dog's collar and said to him up urging him to put his fore-paws where apparently I found that they had been before. Due to obvious scratch marks made by him before he eagerly acknowledged my plea. Now standing above me I could see his penis better it was longer than I had thought thin but long almost seven inches or more just above my lips I watched as he started to flick his hind quarters forward in a fucking motion when I realized that he was going to need help if he was actually going to copulate with me now my dilemma was clear my body was not just to be defiled, But my conscience was to be corrupted too. Knowing this did me no good my mind was lost in my bodies lust. I watched my hands slowly fall down to his belly gently touching his penis. I withdrew my hand and found a filament extend from his penis to my fingers it was obviously a pre-ejaculant, some sort of lubricant. My mind lost in the fervor of lust a perverse curiosity came to mind. I needed to satiate the curious thought of what that fluid must taste like. I brought my fingers to my mouth. I could smell the aroma. An aroma that I inhaled deeply as I parted my lips, extending my tongue to my fingers the tip of my tongue tasting the fluid my tongue withdrawing back into my mouth with my fingers following in the taste was slightly salting but none the less wonderful. The dog now whined in obvious anticipation I withdrew my fingers from my sucking mouth to pet him soothingly as I said "now now you will have me but not so fast". While my other hand reached down between his legs gently wrapping my fingers over then around his penis finding that its smooth and slippery but firmly spongy red penis was sooo long and hot. When I clasped it the dog froze and then his hind quarters started to flick forward once then again and again in a humping motion as if he was unwilling to wait for me his penis still extending from its sheath and now had to be about seven inches long maybe even longer and still growing as it stroked threw my hand. He allowed me to lowered it to my belly. My hand thoroughly lubricated by the pre-ejaculate which now also covered my pubic hair leaving it matted down and glistening with his fluid I thought it looked as beautiful as it felt, his penis now sliding up and down my belly threw my pubic hair I still guided him lower and lower until it was just above my lips I gripped it a little more forcefully stopping his humping action. I continued to lower his tool down between my legs into position the moment of truth was now here as I felt it touch my lips. and with that contact on top of my fevered anticipation I again involuntarily sucked air deeply into my lungs causing my chest to heave. When I notice he was shaking. Apparently distressed from the pent-up anxiety that any second was about to be unleashed into me. I slowly released my grip expecting him to shove forward planting it deeply into me at any second but I anticipated this and put my other hand gripping his thigh preventing him to just thrust it in me my hand that I released his penis I repositioned it on the opposing thigh he was pushing with all his weight and to no avail. NOW I slowly released the pressure that I was exerting allowing him to push forward pushing his penis into me gaining centimeter by centimeter slowly sinking into me the sensation is unlike anything I've ever felt as it pushed into me separating my lips I could feel the heat of his penis sinking into me it disappeared centimeter by centimeter. I found that I lost almost all control of my body for now I heard myself involuntarily whimpering elating long moans of passion and deep sounding groans. My breath also sporadic in sharp sudden and frequent gasps. Also my body writhing occasionally trembling violently. I almost lost the energy to stop him from pushing it into me all at once.

This is my first posting I realize that there are grammatical errors. Please be patient. If I get the response I hope for. I will continue writing more stories. I will not respond to ANY negative responses that are not considered constructive criticisms. My posting of this story is not wholly unselfish I am trying to do three things

1. Looking for positive acknowledgments. In particular from females as I am also female
2. Would like to communicate with DRAGON FLY
3. Would like stories with similar plots e-mailed to me. Similar meaning Resistant, Than Submissive, Than Enjoy. The subject matter preferred is bestiality, aliens, other unusual characters. Though this type of plot in reality rarely happens one may fantasize.
