BEASTIALITY STORIES

My boyfriend is a truck driver and sometimes I could go with him on runs. I would go in the summer because the weather was good and you could dress more comfortable. We were on the way back to San Diego on Hwy 99 south of Sacramento. There was a sign saying rest area ahead so we pulled in. We parked in the truck area, the truck all park next to each other in a line away from the cars. I was starting to like rest stops because you never know what adventure waits for you. I'm 31 years old 5'4 128lbs very tanned I had blonde highlights, that night I was wearing a black skirt very short with a red tank top.

We went to the bathroom and I noticed on the way back to the truck that there wasn't a lot of working girls tonight. On passed trips I had talked to some and they really were interesting to me. As we walked back to the truck my boyfriend noticed his old boss's truck parked across from us with the hood open and him working on it he wondered what was wrong with it.

We got to our truck and he was opening the passenger door to let me in when we heard a voice say hi. It was a woman in her 30s she was coming from the rear of the trailer she was wearing a green jump suit with a big zipper in front. She asked if she could use the C.B. radio with a big smile on her face. My boyfriend looks at me and I said ok, we both knew what she was but she seems harmless. I figured that when she saw me she knew my boyfriend didn't need a date.

He said I let you guys in then I'm gonna see if my old boss needs any help. I went up first but I forgot how short my dress was so they both got a good view of my legs and ass as I climbed in the truck. As I got in the truck I looked back at them and the woman had a even bigger smile on her face I knew she was enjoying the view. I sat on the drivers seat and she on the passenger seat. My boyfriend show her the radio and said he be back as soon as he can. This kind of truck is called a conventional truck with the long hood in front right behind the driver and passenger seats is the sleeper bed. So she sat sideways on the passenger seat looking out and talking to me.

She started talking on the radio asking if anyone needs a date. She would ask then wait for a reply. She said her name was Peanut. I found her interesting and started asking her questions about how long she she been doing this, how much she charge for different sex acts. She was very funny with her answers. I asked about the men she deals with she said you get used to it mostly lonely guys or guys that need a blowjob because their wife's won't. When she looked at me she started at my legs and worked her way up like men do to me.

But then she said sometimes the drivers have their wife or girlfriends with them. Now she was really looking at me to see my reaction. She said they like seeing their girlfriends get their pussy licked but the way she said it started to turn me on. Wow! I said does that happen often? how much does that cost? She said oh yes more than you think, how much I charge depends how she felt about the women. If she fat or ugly alot, but if she hot like you not so much. I said am just curious I don't have any money if she thought I was asking about me. She looks at me and said she gives the best head of anyone that works here but she explicitly like eating pussy! She was actually making me hot now the the way she was taking while looking at me! Then she said you're boyfriend working on that truck I can see him from here he won't be back for awhile. She looks at me and said you know its slow tonight I got time to give you a free sample!

I was now really intrigued. The thought of her eating me and the chance of getting caught by my boyfriend was quite the turn on! She put her hand on my knee. I stood and looked to see where my boyfriend was then moved in front of the bed and pulled off my panties and lay back with my legs up and opened. It had been awhile since a female had eaten me I was hoping she was telling the truth about giving the best head. She came over to the sleeper bed and got on her knees she pulled the zipper down and pulled her tits out and started rubbing her tits on my pussy. Her tits were banana shaped in they came to a point! I have never felt this before she was trying to fuck me with her tit! It felt awesome! The soft ticking feeling she rubbed her nipple on my chit my legs got weak I knew I was cuming and did! She laugh at that and said you're easy to cum so you'll really like this! Then started kissing licking her way down the inside of my leg she was really good at this licking and biting her way down my legs by the time she got to my pussy I was close again. She used her tongue like a penis in and out of my pussy but then she pushed my legs back with her hands behind my knees to get to my ass cheeks ticking my ass hole with her tongue. She licked circles around my ass hole then finally licking it hard! she lifted her head and said now you know why my name is Peanut I like licking your peanut!

A few more licks then she put her whole mouth on my vagaina and sucked it like a cock! I came moaning really loud this was awesome! I felt her getting on the bed then leaning over me she stuck her tit in my mouth and said clean them! I didn't expect this and I could taste my pussy a little on it but I sucked. She reach over and started fingerling me I was on her second tit when I came again! She put her finger that she had in me in my mouth she said suck it! She was humiliating me but I didn't care no one had ever treated me like this! She was turning me into her whore, her bitch! I was actually loving this I sucked her finger like a cock. She pulled her finger out and put her tit back in my mouth she rubbed my pussy reaching down putting her middle inbetween my ass cheeks touching my ass hole! She slowly inserted it pushing in and out I really was getting turned on again I was enjoying this! I made a fool out of myself sucking her tits! Just as I was going to say "let me eat you" someone called on the C.B. for her. She slowly pulled her finger out or my ass and said uh oh money calling!

She got up and pulled up her zipper got a wipe out of her purse and wipe her fingers and tits. I was catching my breath she said that the next time bring some money because I'll give you the best rim job you ever had with your great ass it would be a pressure! I asked how much money? She laughed and said for you oh 5 bucks can you handle it? I said sure I can! She picked up my panties and said something for me to remember you and put them in her purse.

She left I just lay there thinking she was right she does give great head! I wonder how she could control me so easily, it was scary but exciting at the same time. I fell asleep thinking if someone hadn't of called on the C.B. I would have eaten a lot lizard who no telling how many men she had sex with that night. This thought was getting my hot, I layed there thinking what had happened but fell asleep. My boyfriend came he said sorry he took so long. I said no problem I had a great nap!
