2 days ago

Holly Willoughby was letting Bruno rest while she went out to the shops. Holly and her Rottweiler had been up all night having amazing sex and Bruno was feeling a bit tired.

Holly was looking about town for a few special treats for her beloved dog's birthday. Bruno had continually brought her so much sexual pleasure over the past few weeks and she wanted him to feel extra special.

Holly had bought some new lingerie and new designer high heels pumps already, but was now looking for some perfume for the evening. She walked into the shop and to her surprise she was greeted by a familiar voice.

"May I help you young lady?" croaked the elderly woman.

"It's you!" Holly whispered excitedly. "You got me the greatest sex I've ever had!"

The old woman gave a knowing smile. "And what can I help you with today?"

Holly paused. "I need a perfume for a special birthday, something that Bruno won't forget." Holly wanted it to be incredible, but she found it hard to know how the sex could be better. It always seems incredibly hot.

"Hmmm," the older woman thought for a second before looking through a drawer. "A special birthday you say?"

"Ah ha!" she continued, eventually picking out a bright green potion in a small glass vial. Holly looked at it excitedly.

"I call this 'Party Time,' and it'll be perfect for a birthday treat." She handed it to Holly who was buzzing with excitement.

"Thank you so much, it'll be perfect," Holly beamed, moving over to the till area.

Holly's eyes never left the concoction, barely registering the shop assistant speaking to her.

"Next please!" demanded the shop assistant for the third time, but to Holly it was the first. Holly handed over the vial.

"Eh Miss, this isn't something we sell here." The shop assistant looked incredulous as if she thought Holly was pranking her. It was serious enough to snap Holly out of her semi trance state.

Holly spun round to see where she has just come from. The old lady was gone again and Holly had no idea how.

Blushing, Holly grabbed the vial and muttering apologies, backed out of the shop.

Yesterday

"And there's a private balcony," Holly said to Bruno " Which I'm sure will be fun." Holly stepped back into the room and sit the door.

"I hope you like it?" Holly asked, desperate for approval. "I just want your birthday to be special."

Holly had booked the most luxurious hotel she could find for Bruno's birthday. She wanted to treat him to a little break with plenty of luxury but also privacy.

Bruno gave a happy bark.

To be fair, Holly knew that Bruno would be happy as long as she was there and there was plenty of sex planned.

"I'm so pleased," Holly affirmed, as her mind moved on to more exciting matters.

"Where would you like to fuck? The bed? The hot tub?" Holly asked.

Bruno jumped on the bed and stood looking at Holly.

"Looks perfect!" Holly agreed and took her tight white t-shirt over head completely revealing the pink bra that had been half visible through the material.

Holly then pushed down her short denim mini skirt revealing lacy pink pants that matched her bra. After kicking off her white trainers she was ready to go.

"Come here boy, my pussy is so wet just now." She climbed on the bed and crawled seductively over to Bruno. "You're my special fuck buddy," she said.

As she said the words something reminded her about her meeting with the strange old lady. She thought of the vial and its contents. She was definitely curious to know what the Party Time potion did.

Bruno moved to give Holly's lips a kiss however jumped off the bed, rummaging in her suitcase.

"Sorry boy, we'll get back to it in a second."

"Got it!" Holly held up the vial. "I was saving it for tomorrow but I just can't wait to spoil you!"

Bruno looked at it and barked.

"I got it from the old lady again. It's called Party Time and I have no idea what it does... but it's probably something fun."

Bruno barked again as Holly opened the top. The amazing smell of birthday cake filled the room momentarily, giving a wonderful shiver through the bodies of human and dog alike.

"Mmm," Holly grinned. She then took a few drops onto her hands and rubbed it in.

"Here we go..."

Holly moved over to the bed as Bruno greeted her this time. Holly ran her hands over Bruno's coat as they embraced before Bruno dragged a giggling Holly on to the bed so she could fuck her...

The next morning

The sun streamed into the bedroom as Holly woke up next to the still sleeping Bruno. She smiled at him, loving how peaceful he looked. But she felt even happier remembering it was his birthday and she knew just how to wake him up.

Holly was naked after she and Bruno had fucked a few times. She thought of how good it was but she had expected it to be different. Holly couldn't think of any way the potion had changed what had happened.

However, now was not the time to think about what went wrong with the potion. Holly wanted to wake Bruno up right.

Holly got onto all fours carefully and bent over her Rottweiler's body. She looked at the big cock she knew so well and smiled. It was semi erect. Even as Bruno lay sleeping, she could tell he was dreaming about her.

Gently, Holly leaned over and placed her tongue on to the shaft, running it up to the tip. She then gave it a little kiss before carefully taking it in her mouth and sucking on the head.

Holly was very soft with her actions, playing a game with herself where she'd try to get him as hard as possible before he woke up. With each little bob of her head, she looked up at Bruno, checking he was still asleep.

But as she continued, she was getting more and more excited. She loved the taste of Bruno's cock and the thought of his hot cum drove her on, despite herself.

Holly's head bobbed up and down the now fully erect shaft steadily. Holly gave a bit of a twirl to change the sensation Bruno would receive, hoping he'd really pleased.

It was then Holly noticed Bruno stirring. He shuffled in the bed a little before looking round at Holly.

"Happy birthday!" Holly said enthusiastically as she took a second off to say her best wishes.

Bruno stirred a bit more.

"Oh no! You don't move. You get woken up extra nicely today," Holly beamed before resuming her skillful work.

Holly was able to be more vigorous now, really pushing the big cock hard into her small throat, holding it for a few seconds before letting go.

"Mmm," Holly cooed as she serviced the whole shaft, enjoying every second of it.

A few more strokes and Bruno exploded. Cum flew out of his cock and straight into Holly's hungry mouth. Not wanting to waste a drop, Holly gently sucked the tip, hoovering up every ounce of the hot sticky semen.

Holly played with Bruno's with her mouth for a few moments, before sitting up and the swallowing the cum. A little dribbled from her mouth as she smiled at the happy dog in front of her.

"What a nice way to wake up on you birthday, my mouth on your big cock." Holly was proud of her work. "Well there'll be plenty of more special treats for you today."

Holly then remembered last night's treat hadn't been what she thought and offered an apology. "Speaking of treats, sorry about the potion last night. Don't know what it was meant to do."

Bruno looked unconcerned but Holly thought he deserved more. "I promise the rest of your birthday will be perfect!"

Later that morning

Holly and Bruno happily walked side by side down the beautiful river that ran through the hotel grounds. It was a lovely summer day with a strong heat beating down.

The pair were walking in air as already they'd fucked twice, had a delicious breakfast and were now having a romantic walk. Despite all the sex, both were looking for a quiet spot on the river where they could fuck some more.

Holly had chosen a lovely floral summer dress and sandals. It was short and showed off her amazing legs which looked immaculate. She loved the feel of Bruno brushing against her skin, turning her on with each touch.

"Stop it boy, it's too busy here!" Holly laughed as Bruno pushed his case.

"It'll be quieter soon I think," Holly tried to calm herself and Bruno down.

"Yeah it's much quieter about 10 minutes down the path," a voice from behind the pair said.

Holly spun round, anxious who had heard what she said.

It was a beautiful brunette woman who was smiling kindly with her pretty face and eyes. She had a tight yellow t-shirt which showed a slim, toned body. She wore denim shorts and canvas trainers. She had long legs too, which she was showing off too. It was Emma Watson.

"Oh hi Emma!" Holly blurted out, still not sure what the woman knew.

"Hey guys," Emma said, including Bruno, despite not knowing his name. "Beautiful day for a walk isn't it?"

Holly smiled politely back. "Oh yes, yes it is." Holly still sounded nervous however. "We're out for a long walk for Bruno's birthday."

Emma looked down at the dog, who looked back up at her. "It's your birthday?" Emma leaned down. "Happy birthday boy!" she shouted at Bruno as she began to stroke his coat.

As soon as she touched Bruno's soft coat Emma immediately felt more relaxed. Indeed, she felt good or even better.

"I hope Holly is being good to you?" Emma said, continuing to rub Bruno all over.

"Oh yes, very good," Holly replied nervously, not knowing what, if anything, Emma was implying.

A moment lingered as Emma just continued rubbing the fur. Catching herself, Emma gave herself a slight shiver before standing up abruptly.

"Well I guess I should leave you to your walk," Emma said, almost leaving as quickly as she appeared. However, just before she left a stunned Holly and Bruno alone she turned round.

"Sorry I didn't get you a present Bruno," Emma apologised, before heading back towards the hotel.

Later

Bruno sat panting on the balcony table. He knew what was coming, but was super excited all the same. He sat looking at the door, waiting for his lover to appear through it.

"Happy birthday!" Holly whispered seductively as she stepped out onto the balcony, slowly revealing the lingerie she had chosen for the occasion.

Holly's body looked stunning in a black lacy bra and panties set. It was made even more stunning by a black garter and stockings. She wore her favourite designer high heels pumps which added four or five inches to her height.

Of course, her makeup and hair were perfect, highlighting how pretty her smiling face was. Just now, Holly couldn't have felt sexier and it showed in the way she carried herself, every little moment was perfectly choreographed to attract attention on her body.

"What do you think?" Holly asked rhetorically.

Bruno barked.

"I thought so," Holly replied, "And it's all for you." Holly ran her hand over body, particularly slowing at her tits.

KNOCK KNOCK

"Let's just leave it," Holly said exasperated at the interruption, trying to keep her seduction going.

A moment passed before...

KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK

It was louder and faster this time. Holly sighed, realising it wouldn't go away with intervention.

"Huhh," she exhaled. "Just a minute."

Holly made her way to the door, her high heels clacking loudly on the marble floor of the suite.

KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK

Another impatient banging. Holly unbolted the door but before she could pull it open, it pushed her back out of the way.

Holly hadn't any idea what had happened as the door was quickly slammed shut.

Holly stared at the stunning vision in front of her. It was Emma Watson, holding two glasses and a champagne bottle. She was wearing nothing but a lacy black bra and panties with high heels pumps showing her immaculately pedicured toenails.

Emma had a slightly apologetic look on her face as she stood showing off her body.

"I'm so sorry," Emma said in her cute English accent. "I just really needed to give Bruno a birthday present."

Holly's bewildered face turned into a naughty smile. "Come with me."

The sound of high heels tottering through the suite reverberated again, this time sounding more excited and chaotic. Then there was silence for a moment.

"Bruno, there's an extra special birthday present for you," Holly announced as she peaked her head through the door. She then appeared fully dragging the stunning Emma Watson behind her.

Emma stood for a second, arms out, letting her toned body and lingerie signal her intentions before saying "Happy birthday!" before she gave a knowing glance down at her body.

Bruno sat on the table, his tail wagging and his tongue hanging out. He watched intently as the two beautiful women came towards him.

"What a big cock you have," Emma happily noted as she walked up to the dog.

"It feels so good when it's deep inside you," Holly confirmed.

As the pair stood right in front of Bruno, letting their chests be right in his eye line before both kneeling on the ground. The women then went for a kiss but made sure to catch the stiff shaft in between.

As the pairs lips touch the shaft, Bruno let out a small yelp, clearly straining under the immense excitement.

The pair kissed again, hold it longer, their lips continually meeting round the cock, this time more intensely. The constantly changing touches made Bruno get rock hard very quickly as the pair continued their embrace.

"Mmm... he tastes... so good... too," Emma said between kisses, as the pair began to work up and down the shaft too.

"Wait... for his... cum..." Holly encouraged, speaking when she wasn't sucking cock.

Holly and Emma formed the perfect duo, working in perfect tandem to ensure Bruno got the blowjob of his life. As Holly moved down to tease the head of Bruno's cock, Emma worked her way to his balls, initially licking them but then taking them into her mouth.

Bruno gave a small bark again as the pleasure increased and the stars continued like cock hungry sluts.

Swapping round, Emma ran her tongue up the entire length of the shaft, experiencing every slight bump in the surface. Holly on the other hand, knew every inch already and just went to work on his balls.

Emma was having a great time and wanted Bruno to know it. After a few gentle bobs on the top, she gobbled as much of the cock into her pretty mouth as possible. She was delighted to feel Bruno thrust and twitch in her tight throat as she did this, knowing he must have been loving it.

It was the Emma felt her panties being pulled down to her high heels and then her bra being unclipped. Despite this, she focused on Bruno's cock, continuing to get as much of his cock into her mouth as possible.

"I think he wants to fuck you!" Holly said naughtily, encouraging Emma.

Emma let the cock out of her throat. "But... he's your..."

"And you are my present to him. I want to see him fuck that perfect body of yours."

Emma didn't waste a second, bending over from the waist as she leaned on the ornamental stone railings for the balcony.

Bruno jumped up, hitting his target instantly and bracing his paws on Emma's back. Bruno began to fuck her as a big happy smile appeared across Emma's face.

"Ohhh your big doggy cock feels so good in my pussy!" Emma moaned, her whole body feeling tremendous. She looked down, seeing the hotel grounds in front of her and wondered if anyone could see how good she felt.

"Ahhh fuck yes," Emma said, bouncing gently on the shaft as Bruno pounded her. "I need your doggy cum!"

"I can help with that," Holly smiled. She was watching a delighted Bruno fucking the gorgeous Emma Watson and she knew that this was a birthday party. Holly couldn't help but marvel at Emma's long sexy legs, balancing beautifully in the hot high heels pumps.

Holly got on her knees and settled underneath Emma. She watched for a moment as Bruno's big cock slid in and out of Emma's hot wet pussy. It was almost hypnotic, calling Holly to join in.

"Oh fuck yes..." Emma moaned again.

Holly didn't waste a further second, resuming her oral work on Bruno's long shaft. She used the tip of her tongue on the moving cock, adding to it's sensations.

Holly could taste Emma on Bruno's cock and also the idea to include her. A moment later, the cheeky blond ran her tongue to Emma's swollen clit and flicked it playfully.

"Fuck!" Emma screamed, having been caught unaware of Holly's plans. It caused her to orgasm there and then, magnitudes of happiness radiating through her body from her wet pussy. It felt so good, she was barely able to stand, her legs feeling like jelly under the immense pleasure.

"Mmm yes..."

Holly continue to play with Emma and Bruno, her tongue lapping up the taste of Emma's orgasm. She could sense Bruno was about to cum too, his cock twitching like a snake about to strike.

"Ohhh fuck," Emma screamed as a big load of hot sticky cum fired into her. Emma didn't care who heard or saw. The sensation of the hot fluid filling her up with the huge cock was tremendous.

Bruno continued to thrust at her, but now with determination rather than rhythm, hitting Emma deeply. Holly kept tonguing at Bruno and Emma, lapping at the cum coming out of Emma's pussy.

"Ahhh, fuck," Emma breathed as her body started to relax. She felt wonderful as all her muscles tingled all over. She was acutely aware of everything, Holly's skilled tongue, Bruno's paws, his soft coat and animal strength. She was aware of Bruno's hot cum dripping down her legs.

Emma was also aware of what she'd done. She couldn't stop thinking of how she'd had sex with a dog in her high heels, while another woman licked her clit, all while looking out from an exposed hotel balcony. It made her feel incredible and she knew she'd be doing it again in a moment.

As she got the strength to stand, Bruno's cock fell from her pussy as he dismounted. Emma looked at him with a smile.

"Happy birthday Bruno," she beamed in her English accent.

It was then Holly appeared from the ground, grinning too. "Happy birthday Bruno," Holly said, barely audible from the cum she held in her mouth.

Holly gave a quick glance at Bruno, the pair already starting again. Holly then looked at Emma lustfully, and leaned in to Emma so they could share a cum swapping kiss.

Out of the corner of their eyes, both women could see Bruno's cock get harder again as Emma savoured her first taste of dog cum.
