BEASTIALITY STORIES

My name is Estrellita, and I have a wonderful black Labrador who has grown into quite a large dog. He's so playful and loving that when he stands on his back legs, he towers over me! It's heartwarming to see how much he has grown and the bond we share.

This is my journey of how I realized that my beloved dog, Rambo, is so much more than just a playful companion. Since he came into my life as a birthday gift four years ago, he became a favorite member of our family. I spent countless joyful moments with him outdoors, playing and bonding. From the time he was a tiny puppy, I dedicated myself to training him. Now, he listens to all my commands like shaking my hand, sitting down, and fetching the ball I throw for him.

However, it was a life-changing event that occurred when I was 18 that truly opened my eyes to Rambo's incredible significance in my life.

It was a beautiful sunny day, and I was at home with my family. While everyone was inside, I took the opportunity to step outside and enjoy some fresh air with my beloved dog, Rambo. As I walked around in my beautiful new sundress, I noticed that his food and water bowls were empty, I worried knowing he must have been thirsty and hungry. I quickly filled them up, calling out, "Rambo, where are you?" I yelled.

Soon enough, I saw Rambo running around the corner, his tail wagging excitedly as he rushed towards me. He's such a beautiful black Labrador, and whenever he stood on his back legs and rested his front legs on my shoulders, he towered over me, which always made me smile. Playing and chasing each other was our favorite pastime, and in those moments, I felt a deep bond with him. It was these simple yet precious interactions that filled my heart with joy and love towards him.

"Rambo let's wrestle" I loved laying in the grass with him and play fighting even though he was stronger than me and sometimes he didn't let me get up. I stood up and started running away from Rambo hoping he would chase after me and he did but my clumsy ass tripped over the water hose. I fell on my hands and knees "why I'm so stupid" I laughed. I remember feeling Rambo's weight on my body he had his front legs wrapped around my waist "Rambo get off!!" I felt scared since he didn't let me move and I thought he might bite me.

Out of nowhere, I felt something stiff and wet rubbing my legs, I was wearing a sun dress so the stiff thing was rubbing right on my skin. What I saw next changed the way I looked at life. I turned around when I saw this really big red thing sticking out of my dog.

I lay in the grass not able to move since my dog was twice as big as me. I stayed there quiet, confused, and curious about what Rambo was doing to me. Rambo kept humping my leg I could just see his red thing growing bigger. It felt really weird and it tickled a little bit on my skin. Seconds later I felt something warm running down my leg it didn't look like pee but there was a stream running out of my dog's red thing and down my leg.

Rambo stopped humping me but once he got off he started humping the air he looked really funny "Rambo stop doing that you look silly" I laughed looking at him but I also felt this new feeling coming from my pussy it was a tingling feeling I had never felt before. I knew boys had a cock but I never imagined dogs had one so similar looking to one of a boy. I looked at his veiny and thick cock it was the first time I had seen one in person, it was a weird feeling I had never felt before. I was shocked and interested in what just happened to me but it felt really weird and wrong so I went inside.

I remember laying in my bed wondering about what my dog did to me and why he did that to me.

"Does Rambo like the way that feels?" I asked myself. I didn't know much about sex then but I had played with myself before with my hand and a highlighter. I was curious I remember how much I wanted to understand what had just happened to me.

I couldn't take the image of my dog's cock out of my mind and how good it felt while it rubbed all over my leg. I searched If it was safe to have sex with a dog and it didn't say yes or no I was still worried but then I wondered why I was searching this up and I put my iPod away.

While I was taking a shower, I suddenly felt veryyyy... horny The image of what my dog did came to mind again. I got out of the shower, locked the door, and went back in. Slowly rubbed my pussy while I pinched my nipples and then I sat on the floor and spread my legs slowly shoving my finger in my pussy after 10 minutes I had 3 fingers in my pussy and I was about to have an orgasm but I heard a knock on the door my dad called my name. He said "I'm back from work where's my little princess, hurry up and get ready for dinner your plate is ready" He had ruined my orgasm "Ughhh".

After dinner, I couldn't sleep, so I got up and locked my door around 11:30 PM. I never stood up this late; mostly, I was asleep by 10. I wanted to have some fun with myself while I was thinking about my dog's cock I knew it was wrong but that made me hornier.

It's making me feel a little wet, I got so horny I started sliding my pants down my legs, I threw them to the side and slowly slid my hand down to my pussy, softly rubbing my pussy, and I slipped a finger in, I could feel all the wetness. I've played with myself before, but it was different today, I'm super wet and horny. As I rub my pussy harder and faster, it feels sooo good now I'm soaking wet.

It was at that moment that I wished there was a boy in my room to shove his cock inside me. I looked around for a bigger object to replicate a boy's cock. There was a banana on my nightstand that caught my eye. My breakfast for school was a banana and granola bar but I had other plans for the banana.

Slowly, I shoved the banana into my tight pussy, feeling it stretch me out a little. There's a little pain, but the pleasure is better. I can't help but moan, I cover my mouth so my parents don't hear me. It feels like I'm loosening up and the banana's moving in and out easier and faster. I start arching my back to go In deeper. Almost all of the banana had now made its way inside me, which made me moan louder, but thankfully my mouth was covered. Moving it back and forth faster and faster, not trying to get caught, I'm moaning softly.

I didn't notice I was lying in a puddle of my juices.

I got my banana and began shoving the banana in and out I wanted to go bigger and bigger, but I wanted to try another object out I found a deodorant bottle I struggled to put it inside my pussy but once it was in it felt so good. It stretched me out a lot, I played with it for minutes when out of nowhere I heard the dog scratching the fence outside, I wanted to go outside with the dog but I was scared and I didn't know if it was safe to have sex with a dog. Also, I was scared someone would catch me playing with the dog differently.

(I used to think you could get pregnant by a dog lol.)

I looked outside and it was dark you couldn't see anything but Rambo lying down close to my window which was good. I was sitting there looking outside, I was way too horny my legs were literally shaking and I felt tickles in my pussy. I opened the window slowly I had hoped no one was up I was nude climbing out my window "What am I doing" I said.

Rambo was there shaking his tail, he started smelling and licking my body. He tries humping me again "No, Rambo follow me" I led him to the shed in our backyard.

I get on my knees and he starts licking my body. I lay down on the dirt, and the next thing I knew I felt his rough tongue run over my nude body, I was breathing heavily trying to catch my breath it felt so good he licked my body rapidly. I could feel my pussy juices dripping down my legs. I can't describe how good it feels..! I wondered if it's as good as a human or if this is better.

Rambo is enjoying every inch of my petite young body with every lick, the pleasure is great. I can't help but moan softly. I'd never imagine it felt this good. OOHHH!! I can feel myself really wet. I rub my pussy really fast while Rambo licks my inner thigh and pussy.

I could feel an orgasm coming while I rub my clit, before I know it I begin coming, again and again, fuck it felt so good! My legs were shaking and my whole body was shaking. I saw my pussy juices dripping out. All I can think of is sex. I was desperate for a cock I didn't care who it was. I remember how I wanted a stranger to just show up and fuck me.

While I was recovering from my orgasm laying on the floor Rambo starts humping my leg I could just see his cock growing with every stroke I push him off and he lay down on the ground licking his cock. I lay next to the dog I wanted a closer look at that cock it was bigger than my deodorant bottle. It was red and thick. I touched it slowly scared Rambo wouldn't like it, he didn't do anything so I got a whole grip with my hand it was really fat and heavy, the dog started humping my hand it moved really quickly and I saw lots of cum coming out of his cock it was all over my hand. I rubbed all his cum on my tits and belly, he was humping the air again idk why it seemed so funny just watching him do that. I wanted him to fuck me I was just too horny and I stopped caring about anything, Rambo kept trying to hump my leg but I was done with that I wanted him inside of my wet pussy.

I got on my knees and hands doggy style just like a bitch he licked my pussy juices off it felt so good how he licked me. I felt Rambo's fur on my naked body as he climbed on top of me, Rambo's front legs wrapped around my petite body, just under my small tits. I could feel his claws digging into my skin. Rambo's cock was slapping my pussy he was missing every time, but it felt good how his cock was rubbing my tight pussy, I was starting to think his huge cock wasn't going to fit inside of me, and out of nowhere I felt the tip of his wet cock slip inside my pussy, AAAH Ramboyy GET OFF!! I felt as if I was torn in half his cock was too big for my tight pussy, I tried getting up but Rambo was bigger and stronger than me I was crying in pain my pussy wasn't used to stuff this fast and big, I hoped my pussy would get used to it. Rambo was digging his nails into my skin so I wouldn't move one inch it hurt so much.

Moments later I felt his pre cum and my juices both dripping down my legs I was starting to love every stroke, my pussy was getting used to his cock size.

Rambo was pounding me hard he would move my whole body with every stroke. His cock was slapping in and out of me. I was loving it I yelled "FUCK ME Rambo! Yesss!" Rambo was fucking me really fast. "Yesss Rambo, fuck me, I'm Loving it!" I was screaming. I could just feel my Insides wrapping around his cock. I felt this really weird feeling inside my belly something swelling up inside as the dog's cock pushed in and out I think his cock was long enough to reach my belly. I felt my orgasm building up I reached between my legs and rubbed my pussy. The tip of his cock was working its way through my cervix and into my womb, just like it would in a girl dog, that's what felt weird deep in my belly but it hurt a bit. I rubbed my pussy faster and faster as he fucked me I was at the edge of my orgasm I felt my whole body trembling as it gripped his whole cock I let out a loud moan. "AHHHH Rambo!!!" I had reached my orgasm I was so happy it was the best orgasm I had in a while.

"Ahhh ouchhh, Rambo!" I cried as I felt something forced its way into my pussy. I felt this really big ball which was his knot just spread my pussy and legs apart this was the widest my pussy had ever been it hurt a lot, but the feeling of my dog starting to cum inside of me felt better I felt how he filled me up with his warm cum. I felt a knot in my belly as he filled me up I guess his cum made its way into my womb. I tried moving but we were stuck together, it pulled on my insides as he moved. Rambo panted hard, moving and throwing one of his legs over me it hurt so bad I cried really loud, he was now back to back with me, or ass-to-ass. I cried as Rambo pulled harder to get his knot free. "Rambo please stop moving" I cried out loud.

Tears rolled down my face as his knot yanked at the opening of my pussy. My pussy didn't let go of his knot even tho it was well-used and really wet we were still stuck together. My pussy stretched around the swollen knot, every time Rambo would move it would be so painful so I had to follow him everywhere he went on my hand and knees so he won't pull on my pussy.

Rambo slowly stopped cumming, his knot was holding all of his warm cum inside of me. We just lay there for half an hour on the ground. Rambo was gently panting and licking my body. My body was trembling in the pool of our juices from the orgasms I had and his cum. After a while, I felt his knot slowly start to shrink, and then I felt his cum start to slowly leak out of me. I heard a "pop" sound his knot came out of me. There was a puddle of cum. I tried getting up slowly, my legs were shaking after all that penetration and I felt more of his cum run down my leg it felt so good.

Rambo just laid there, his tongue out and his slowly shrinking cock between his legs. I laid next to him and I shoved his cock in my mouth just to taste his amazing cock I also helped him clean his cock I licked it till it was clean. I got up my knees and elbows were bruised up but It was worth it. I could barely walk I made my way to the hose to clean myself up I was soaking in cum. I took my little shower outside cleaning off all the cum that was on me, I look down at my pussy his cock left a gaping hole I could almost shove my whole fist in but I had really small hands. My pussy was so sore. I shove some fingers in and once I take them out they were covered in dog cum.

I licked it off with my tongue it didn't taste so bad. There was still cum dripping out of my pussy down my legs. I took a shaky walk back from the shed looking around to see if anyone saw me.

I dressed myself and climbed back into my bed sore and my knees all bruised up. I smiled remembering how good Rambo had fucked me I wanted more of his big red cock.

Get ready for more because this story is just the beginning! There are lots of other stories I kept doing this with Rambo for years to come!!! Be sure to like and comment if you want more stories with Rambo!

This story is written on real events, which happened to me when I was younger. I hope you love it as much as I love remembering all these memories and writing about them now that I'm 22. Sending all my love from Estrellita —muahhhh! ☺
