A COUPLE'S CURIOSITY

My wife, Stephanie, Steph for short, and I met entering the university in our sophomore year. We both took ACP classes in high school so we both were able to skip our freshman year. The first time I met Steph I knew I could do no better! In fact I thought there was no way this incredible gorgeous and oh so sexy coed with the centerfold body and amazingly firm double D breasts would even be interested in me!

But that first night we met, when she came into a local brew pub with her friends where I was solo playing my guitar and singing, she intently watched listening to me playing two sets of songs. When I took a break she came up and started talking to me! Within a few months we were already engaged but her parents wanted us to wait until we graduated.

The first time I took Steph to the family's historical ranch in the Rocky Mountains, which had been in the family since the 1870s, I really surprised her! I previously had told her it was a ranching operation that has been in the family for generations, and we also offered some limited year round outdoor activities for a few guests and local recreational outfits providing trail rides, camping, and in winter renting snowmobiles and cross-country skiing.

Steph was certainly not prepared to drive onto a ranch that encompassed 37,000 acres that abutted both a national forest and a national wilderness area! Nor the three large modern guest cottages each with a spacious hot tub, the large bunkhouse that could house up to six staff, and especially not the modern custom timber frame and stone 8,400 square foot family lodge, with six bedrooms, eight bathrooms, free form horizon pool and 12 person hot tub!

Steph was also surprised at our three employees mom and dad had hired from the local area in my senior year of high school - three cowgirls, Katy, Jenny and Josie!

Mom, dad and I had discussed what to do when I went off to the university. Our ranching operations and especially the tourism business was growing fast and becoming too much for just the three of us, let alone mom and dad when I left to go off to the university in another state, so that is how Katy, Jenny and Josie came to be at the ranch. All three were just a few years older than me and were nearing their university degree completions. Katy and Josie in ranch management and agricultural operations and Jenny in hospitality. Mom and dad provided tuition assistance as part of their benefit package.

I knew of Katy, Jenny and Josie back from high school, but didn't know them. They were seniors when I was entering high school and senior girls don't socialize with sophomore boys! What I did know of them back then was they seemed to be best friends, always paling around together at school or away from school, seeing them together at the county fairs and local rodeos and roping events. Katy had been elected Miss Rodeo in her high school senior year for the county rodeo. I later learned that Josie, in her university sophomore year, had been selected as Miss Rodeo for the state fair and rodeo! All three attended the same university and had been dormmates.

In the short time Katy, Jenny and Josie had been at the ranch all three were considered indispensable in running the ranch and the recreational activities which were in such big demand as we had bookings months in advance. They greatly relieved the workload on mom and dad, especially with me away at the university, and we soon considered all three part of the family since I was an only child.

One more thing that had surprised Steph was how attractive Katy, Jenny and Josie were...

And Steph grew perturbed with how flirtatious they were with me...

I told Steph it was all in fun, that I considered Katy, Jenny and Josie my slightly older big sisters.

With subsequent frequent visits to the ranch Steph got to know them better and became good friends with them. After the third visit Steph asked if it was okay for Katy, Jenny and Josie to join us in the lodge's hot tub whenever we were there. I said sure, I knew they used it anyway whenever they wanted too because the guest cottages and the hot tubs were always booked with guests and we considered Katy, Jenny and Josie as family.

Imagine my surprise the first time Katy, Jenny and Josie joined us in the hot tub wearing very skimpy string bikinis that magnificently showed off their great toned bodies! It was the first time I had seen them in such skimpy bikinis and boy were they ever revealing causing me great chagrin and discomfort which made Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie laugh at my discomfiture, all four mercilessly teasing and flirting with me! In just over a year of Steph meeting Katy, Jenny and Josie they were all best friends! In fact they wound up being three of the five bridesmaids in our wedding!

I have a best friend, Travis, from high school, who also entered as a sophomore at same university as I attended and he was my roommate in the off-campus two bedroom two en-suite bath condo we shared. As long as I knew Travis he was a big gamer and started developing game software even back in high school. He was always the first one to break the codes whenever a new game came out, even rewriting the coding to make the games better! At the university he was earning a degree in game development. By the end of our junior Fall semester Travis had already been headhunted by a world-ranked game development company. By the end of his university junior year Travis was already earning just over $100K!

Now Travis is an exceptionally good looking guy, extremely fit, six feet four inches in height, with a great personality, and as you have already deduced, an extremely smart guy! Through our three years at the university it was a constant stream of great looking short-term girlfriends for Travis.

With his looks, personality and being an actual real-life chick magnet, and especially with him making the kind of money he did while still in his last year of college, Travis always had a bevy of great looking girls that he sacked! It was not surprising to come home to the condo and there would be two girls in bed with him! A couple of times he even invited me to join them!

While tempted I was fully devoted to my gorgeous fiancé! I knew I had found someone extremely special and wasn't about to screw that up!

In the beginning of our junior year Travis adopted a year old dog from a friend of his, a dog named Cronus.

As if Travis needed a pickup aid with girls!

But girls seemed to flock to single guys with dogs which only increased Travis entourage of girlfriends constantly coming and going!

Now Cronus is an unneutered male Daniff, a cross between a Great Dane and a mastiff and absolutely huge! Cronus stood 34 inches at the shoulder and weighed 180 pounds! Being a young goofy dog he is quite rambunctious and due to his size quite a strong beast.

Cronus is also the most nosey dog I have ever seen! Let me rephrase that. Cronus is the most persistent intimately nosey dog I have ever seen!

When Travis first adopted Cronus from another college couple, he already had a nickname from his previous owner, PD, crude for Pussy Dog, because of Cronus's persistent intimacy with girls. When Steph came over or one of Travis's many girlfriends and they were wearing a skirt you can bet that Cronus would stick his nose under their skirts!

Girls sitting down in skirts fared worse because Cronus would shove his huge head between their legs forcing them apart until he got his nose right up into their crotches and Cronus is so huge and strong there was no way for the girl to stop him! There had been several times girls sitting on the couch would get extremely embarrassed and turn red in the face with Cronus rooting around in their crotches until Travis or I pulled Cronus away or the girl climbed up on the couch to get away!

I admit it was pretty funny whenever Travis brought a new girlfriend to the condo and she asked what PD stood for then seeing their reaction to his nickname! Especially their reactions when Travis teased she had to be careful as PD was known to get lucky at times and no one yet has objected because he was so well hung much bigger than most men except him of course! Then later on catching the girlfriend surreptitiously checking out Cronus's package!

Of course Travis only stated this when they were good and drunk and/or high, his slightly veiled warning making the girls laugh! It even made for several hilarious times when Travis's girlfriends had spent the night and came out of the bedroom the next day wearing next to nothing or just a robe with nothing on under the robe and Cronus, well at times his cold nose and long tongue briefly got in to some pretty intimate female places!

Steph even got use to Cronus's intimate, often times too intimate behavior and had learned to wear panties under her robe when she spent the night as she slept in the buff with me, especially after one way too intimate experience as she was stepping in my bedroom en-suite shower, she learned to keep bedroom door closed when showering!

Steph finally had taken to swatting Cronus on the nose and sternly telling him NO whenever she noticed his intentions, but while Cronus learned at least to cut back nosing Steph he was a sneak master taking advantage of an opportunity if he saw one! More than once I told Travis he should get Cronus neutered but Travis said no because he was an inside dog and we had a large yard with a tall fence so there was no need.

One time a quite funny memorable event occurred when Steph and I went out with Travis and two of his girlfriend's one evening and partied it up and then we all went back to our condo to get in our hot tub, all of us quite wasted especially the girls...

I suspected the girls had taken a hit of Ecstasy at the night club the way they were cutting up with each other and dirty dancing with each other. Even Steph had been encouraged to take a hit of Ecstasy which she extremely rarely did unless she was with me, having previously stated she had a bad experience back in high school and later learned about the synergistic effect of alcohol and Ecstasy and how it was a popular date-rape drug.

That the combination really reduced or even completely eliminated inhibitions and good judgement if too much was involved, in addition to making a girl really horny.

Back at the condo Travis's two girlfriends immediately started shedding their clothes in the main room until they were topless and just wearing skimpy G-string panties!! Steph started heading to my room to change into a bikini she kept at our condo however Travis's two girlfriends would have none of that! Stating if they were going to get in with just panties on Steph had too as well!

Well Steph may have been quite drunk and flying high on Ecstasy but she wasn't that out of it still retaining most of her modesty! I knew my fiancé wasn't about to ever expose herself like that in front of Travis! He has already made way too many comments to Steph and I how extremely gorgeous and fun she is. However the two quite drunk, flying high beautiful coeds started chasing my shrieking laughing fiancé around the room trying to pull her clothes off which they partially succeeded in getting her top off leaving my gorgeous, brunette goddess fiancé in her lacy demi quarter-cup bra!

Of course Travis's dog Cronus got even more excitable than he already was with all the commotion! Chasing two crazy drunk high almost-naked coeds and my almost topless fiancé around the condo! This only stopped when one of the coeds ran into the corner of the couch, tripped and fell onto her hands and knees. Well 180 pound Cronus seized an opportunity! Suddenly mounting her and started dry humping the coed against her skimpy G-string panty!

The coed being as crazy drunk as she was and flying high on Ecstasy started laughing as we all did too with Cronus intimate antics! Then the coed began hysterically laughing each time she felt, and we saw, Cronus's pointy cock thrust in-between her cute butt cheeks! Each time Cronus jabbed forward her laughing hysterical shrieks grew louder as did our own laughter!

Several thrusts later the coed's laughing shrieks suddenly became a loud scream as she lurched forward then slid out from her knees and laid flat on her belly as she started laughing even harder than ever as we did too! Cronus had an impressive amount of canine cock showing and we surely knew that he, somehow, had managed to get his pointy dick past her skimpy G-string and briefly penetrated his target!

Before the two coeds could recover Steph grabbed my hand and pulled me to my bedroom, locked the door and proceeded to ravish me!

For a girl who had very limited sexual experience prior to me Steph is a sexual wildcat in bed! She loves buying sexy lingerie and seeing how I react to it, she likes watching porn movies with sci-fi themes of aliens and other creatures ravishing women, mythological fantasy movies with satyrs, unicorns and goblins ravishing women with ridiculously outsized cocks pumping pints of cum into them, and she has an impressive collection of a variety of dildos and vibrators, and she even likes anal sex which few girls do!

What I mean by Steph's very limited sexual experience before me and what accounts for her dildo and vibrator collection is because back in her senior year of high school, her long-time boyfriend got Steph quite drunk at the senior prom after-party held at a hotel. He had booked an adjoining room with a door that connected to the executive suite the party was being held in.

Her boyfriend had been pressuring Steph to have sex with him since the beginning of their senior year but she would never go that far! Why? Because Steph was not really in love with him. She kept harboring doubts because of his vacuous attitude about their relationship, believing he was only dating her because of her attractiveness and wanted to get into her pants but she would never let him get past second base, plus he planned to go to a different university in another state after graduation so that proved to her that he was not interested in a serious relationship. But otherwise when he was not being a horny jerk he was a fun guy to be with and they did a lot of fun stuff together.

Steph had already decided to break up with her boyfriend after their prom, they both were going to be very busy with graduation then getting ready to go off to their universities. At the prom after party, her boyfriend and his friends kept plying their dates with alcohol. Steph told me she was pretty sure that maybe some drug had been slipped into their drinks because the party got so raucous and wildly out of control. She noticed that couples would go into one of the executive suite's three bedrooms then come out some time afterwards looking disheveled, some of the girls looking sheepish or embarrassed.

At some point her boyfriend lead her into the adjoining room he had booked and they started making out. Steph stated she had never been that drunk before and she was sure something had been slipped into one of her drinks because she could only weakly resist when her boyfriend started pulling her dress off even though she had told him NO multiple times, and then before she realized it he had her panties off and was climbing on top of her, ignoring her repeated No's while trying to push him off. Never before had she felt so drunk and nearly completely out of it plus she seemed to have hardly any strength.

It was then she found out he had a stubby skinny pencil dick not even anywhere near five inches and he had immediately popped off in his condom just trying to get the head of his cock into her!

Luckily he was so drunk and embarrassed popping off so quick with just the head of his cock barely initially penetrating her he couldn't get it up again and then a couple of minutes later he passed out leaving her pissed off realizing he had just tried to rape her! Had raped her even though just part of the head of his puny dick had barely gone in her!

Steph collected herself, got her clothes back on, found her cell phone and called an Uber to take her home. She made sure she left the connecting door of the room to the adjoining executive suite open and left the hotel. Anyone passing by the door or going in to the adjoining room to use the bedroom or bathroom would have seen her unconscious, passed out naked boyfriend and his puny dick.

On the way home Steph finally realized that all the time they were dating it all was just a ploy to eventually get into her panties. After refusing him countless times to allow him to get past second base that he had actually planned to get into her panties whether she wanted to or not! He got her extremely drunk and had drugged her as well too, as evidently had been done to some of the other girls at the after party. And even though she had told him NO when he started forcibly pulling her dress off he still kept taking her clothes off, and he kept ignoring her further repeated No's....

The next week her decision was reaffirmed when one of her close girlfriends came up to her and stated her ex-boyfriend was going around bragging to his buddies that he had fucked the hottest girl in school! After that Steph decided she wasn't going to have sex with another guy until she was sure he was Mr. Right, and more importantly - the permanent Mr. Right!

Steph explained it this way:

"I'm not slut and that is why I resisted having sex with my high school boyfriend all year until on our prom night and he got me really drunk more than I have ever been and I suspect drugged as well! I'm not about to go out trolling for a one-night stand just to temporarily satisfy my horniness! Hence my collection of dildos and vibrators! My 'toys' negates the uncomfortable questions every girl faces with a future boyfriend or husband when they inevitable ask,

'How many guys have you had before me? How were they compared to me? Were any of them bigger? How did it feel? Did he make you cum? How many times?'"

Three months after her high school prom and our start of entering the university Steph and I met when she came into a local brew pub with some of friends and she saw me up on the stage playing the guitar and singing to a large very attentive audience!

Tragically just before our university graduation and just before Steph and I got married, I lost my parents in a plane crash...

Our wedding right after graduation was a subdued affair at the family ranch even though we tried to make the best of it, especially with 250 guests! As I mentioned before, Steph had become best friends with Katy, Jenny and Josie, our three ranch hands that managed the ranch for us who I now completely relied upon. They served as three of Steph's five bridesmaid. We decided to delay our honeymoon for a year or so due to my parent's passing.

After the wedding and before we left the ranch to go back to the university, Katy, Jenny and Josie again tearfully repeated what they told Steph and I at my parent's funeral, the five of us had all become family and they had no intention of ever leaving!

True, the ranch paid Katy, Jenny and Josie an exceptionally generous salary that was way more than most ranch and resort managers made. Additionally they received biannual bonuses that were tied to the ranch profits that were a strong incentive to excel, plus we also provided full benefits of free room and board, health insurance and retirement. But we knew Katy, Jenny and Josie's words came from the heart and each have become an indispensable part of managing the ranch and the guests and recreational activities, especially now with mom and dad gone.

Upon leaving the ranch to go back to the university Katy, Jenny and Josie took us to the small airport where our chartered plane awaited. All four girls burst into tears as we all hugged each other tightly, telling us not to worry about anything and to hurry back to the ranch as often as possible. Then Jenny said a funny thing to lighten the mood - for Steph and I to consider the three of them 'sister wives' and again reassured us they were going nowhere! We are all family! We all laughed heartily as we kissed each other goodbye.

Between the life insurance policies and the out of court settlements with the airline company and its subcontracted maintenance company, Steph and I were well able to afford paying cash for a seven acre ranchette with a deer fence all around the property to live in while we completed our graduate degrees. The former owners were big gardeners and there is an overabundance of deer in our area.

The ranchette has a 3,800 square foot modern farm house with a pool and hot tub.

Before buying the property we checked with the investment firm my parents had been using to handle their investments, which I kept using, as well as two other local realty companies. The three companies agreed that the property would be a great investment and we could sell it for more than double what we paid for it in less than three years due to the rapid growth in the area.

Steph and I were already planning to move to the family ranch in the Rocky Mountains immediately after we earned our graduate degrees. We decided when we got our degrees we would either lease the house for a year or two to maximize the profit then sell or immediately sell after we got our degrees and still make a hefty profit on the house and property.

Steph and I usually went back to the ranch every five weeks or so using a chartered private jet service to fly into the small local airport about 45 minutes from the ranch whenever we could manage at least a three day weekend. A few months after Steph and I got married, I began noticing a strange attitude change with Katy, Jenny and Josie, they began to be a whole lot more casual when it was just the five of us together, as in what they wore, or rather didn't...

First, I noticed was the lack of bras under their shirts when they were having dinner with us up at the lodge or going braless wearing tissue thin deeply unbuttoned shirts when just the five of us went horseback riding - and Steph too! Their shirts so thin I could clearly see the outline of their breasts! And they all were heedless that I could clearly see the shadows of their areolas and their pokey nipples! All four had moderate to generous breasts in addition to all three were just as attractive as my gorgeous wife! Getting up the courage one time when the five of us were having dinner together like we always did when Steph and I were at the ranch, I asked them what the deal was going braless around me. All four started laughing at my question increasing my already acute embarrassment. Katy replied,

"Cody, you have to be a girl to understand, especially a girl that has been blessed with the tits we have! It's tiresome and very uncomfortable to wear a bra all day! Every woman can't wait to get home and yank it off to get comfortable! Besides, like we told you and Steph more than once, we are all sister wives now so you might as well get used to it because you will probably going to see a lot more skin when it is just the five of us here at the ranch or alone in the pool or the hot tub!"

Boy did I ever get beet red and flustered hearing the answer! Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie laughingly heartily at my reaction which flustered me even more!

Second, their flirting became more frequent, Steph even egging it on to my consternation and their amusement!

Third, they started making intimate jokes more often making fun of me wearing tight blue jeans which showed the outline of my larger than average cock!

Since Katy, Jenny and Josie started at the ranch they would occasionally kid me about my tight jeans but now it was with the intimate details of the outline of my cock showing or the anaconda in my pants! Even joking one time that I could give our ranch Arabian stallion competition! Heck you can't ride horses wearing loose or baggy jeans or else you will get rubbed all wrong, and I have always worn jeans, boots and a cowboy hat or cap.

Fourth, as the months passed by Katy, Jenny and Josie's swimwear became ever more abbreviated! It all started when Steph hugely surprised me one evening at the ranch shedding her robe to get into the lodge's hot tub wearing an amazing micro bikini that barely covered her nipples and her pussy and left her cute firm ass completely bare except for the string that went between her firm butt cheeks! On our next visit to the ranch Katy, Jenny and Josie joined us like they usually do - but all four wearing micro bikinis too! Hardly leaving nothing to the imagination! Damn! Katy, Jenny and Josie had rocking hard bodies just like Steph has due to all the physical activities at the ranch.

And I swear I couldn't stop what happened next! Not with all four of them wearing almost nonexistent micro bikinis! I had yet to get in the hot tub, I had walked out onto the lower veranda wearing a robe over my board shorts carrying a tray of glasses and a pitcher of mojitos, the robe because it is very cool to cold at night up in the mountains. The girls had just taking off their own robes and were fixing to get in the hot tub and I stumbled seeing what all four of them were barely wearing almost dropping the tray!

Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie all started laughing uproariously at my stunned reaction! They all stood there laughing their cute asses off at my expense while I stood there. I couldn't help noticing how hard their nipples had gotten in the cool air poking against the very, very thin material of their micro bikinis. Then I felt it... My damn cock started getting hard! An involuntary reaction seeing four beautiful women almost practically nude! My board shorts began tenting with my almost eight inch long erection then my robe began tenting! Damn it all to hell all four of them started whistling at me then Jenny saying "Come on and get in with us big boy! Steph has regaled us of how long and thick you are and your prowess at wielding such a huge sword!"

Well Steph was just laughing just as hard as Katy, Jenny and Josie but I noticed my wife turning a slight shade of red having been outed by Jenny that Steph had told the three of them some very intimate details about me...

The girls climbed into the hot tub and I set the tray down by the edge, but I poured myself a mojito and downed it then refilled the glass because I had yet to shed my robe. There they all sat, my bride Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie, all staring up at me attentively, waiting for the show to begin, for me to shed my robe and reveal my still hard-on tenting my board shorts...

Hah! I fooled them! I turned around, dropped my robe, then got in the hot tub backwards! All four women began giving me catcalls and jeers! I slid in next to Steph and tried to relax. Couple of minutes passed and I felt Steph begin groping me under the water! Startled I jerked her hand away my whole body violently jerking in alarm making waves in the hot tub, my eyes shot open, the girls all started laughing their asses off!

I glared at my laughing grinning wife who was holding her hand up then she pointed to the other side of me and it was then I noticed Katy had slid into the seat next to me while my eyes had been closed and she was holding her hand up too! I think my face and body radiated so much heat from acute embarrassment I'm sure I must have raised the temperature of the hot tub by a couple of degrees!

Fifth, on our next visit back, as usual we all got in the hot tub for a good soak. It had been a long day with a lot of strenuous physical activity working our Wagyu cattle and getting them ready for sale via tele auction. We had already received some pretty nice prebids so we were in a celebratory mood. The five of us had dinner in town that was 45 minutes from the ranch, let's just say Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie got pretty liquored up and were in a real party mood and were still wanting to party when we got back to the ranch.

Katy, Jenny and Josie had started keeping a set of their bikinis up at the lodge so they wouldn't have to go back to the bunkhouse to change then come back up to the lodge. I changed into my boardshorts while the four girls changed and I went to the kitchen to open a couple of bottles of Champagne while Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie got in the hot tub wearing their very risqué and very revealing micro bikinis... Those four quickly demolished the two bottles and with their urging I got out to go open another bottle then rejoined them, already having decided they will again have to spend their drunk asses sleeping in the lodge's guest bedrooms and having to fix a very special breakfast for them in the morning to deal with their hangovers.

They had gone through half of the third bottle when Steph gave me a silly flirtatious grin, reached behind her and undid her tiny triangle bikini top and threw it at me then shook her marvelous tits at me! My jaw dropped seeing my beautiful wife's gorgeous double D breasts free and proudly bared with Katy, Jenny and Josie with us and Steph's very audacious behavior! While my attention was diverted by my wife's boldly outrageous flirtatious actions I was suddenly hit with three other sets of micro bikini tops!

At this point I fail to find the words to write to describe being in a hot tub with four very drunk, extremely attractive topless young women who then started getting rambunctious with each other rough housing with bare bountiful hard nipple breasts flouncing everywhere, their baying laughter seeing my reaction, and my outright acute embarrassment when all four suddenly began pressing their breasts against my face while trying to grope me with my wife being the main instigator egging them on!

I couldn't take it anymore! I leaped up out of the hot tub while multiple pairs of hands tried to drag me back in succeeding in pulling my board shorts halfway down my ass! I left their drunk ass's there and went into our bedroom and took a shower and got ready for bed. When I came back out there was my gorgeous, horny drunk wife laying nude on top of the bed waiting for me, one finger playing with her clit. I walked over to the bedroom door and locked it. Steph started giggling then said,

"What's the matter honey? Afraid we might have company join us?"

"EXACTLY!" I replied. "As drunk and as crazy as the four of y'all got tonight I wouldn't be surprised. Hell, the three of them are getting more and more intimate with me especially after we had gotten married - with YOU egging it on!" I added.

"Oh honey they are just being good sister wives! It's all in good fun teasing you! We love seeing you get all flustered and stirred up! It's so funny seeing your reactions! We thought you would have gotten use to our teasing by now but you haven't so they makes us try that much harder to get you all riled up! Now come and FUCK me Big Boy with that marvelous huge thick cock of yours!

And sixth, NO, it didn't end there...

To my continuing consternation in the following months on our visits to the ranch Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie would often go topless in the lodge's hot tub or our heated pool with Steph and I even when they haven't been drinking!

With Steph, yeah that was certainly okay, but with Katy, Jenny and Josie too! I swear I think those three seeked, schemed and developed ways to brush their topless tits against me whenever the opportunity presented its self! And worse I couldn't help staring at their nubile gorgeous athletic bodies in their micro bikinis whenever I thought they wouldn't catch me looking but catch me they occasionally did! Giving me a sexy grin, couple times shaking their bare firm tits at me! I just couldn't understand their outrageous flirting with me, as well as with Steph, and Steph flirting back with them with intimate touches with my wife encouraging their flirting with me!

Hell the micro bikinis all four wore barely provided any coverage in the front and was just a piece of dental floss in the back between their butt cheeks baring all their cute firm ass's! And when they bent over, who boy!

Immediately after earning our undergraduate degrees Travis started earning well over six figures. Nine months after graduation Travis still partied like it was never ending and he still had a seemingly never ending stream of short term girlfriends like he had all during our university years. We all lived near each other and we all frequently went out and took a couple of vacations together with Travis and one or the other of his short-term girlfriends.

Then Travis accepted a job in Europe to work at a prestigious game software development company that was paying him near the mid-six figure range for game development!!! With my best friend Travis moving to Europe and Steph and I nearing our final time attending graduate school and then moving to the ranch afterwards, our soon to be parting seemed to be fortuitous in a somewhat sad way even though we all knew ahead of time that Steph and I would be moving to the ranch.

And this brings us back to Cronus...

With Travis moving to Europe, the country he was moving to did not allow imported pets...

Travis was tremendously upset not being able to take his goofy, rambunctious yet loveable Daniff with him. That giant dog went everywhere with him and Cronus seemed to attract plenty of single girls when out and about with Travis, which lead to many of Travis's short-term girlfriends.

Travis implored us to take Cronus, Travis unable to bear giving him up to a no-kill shelter or adoption agency believing it would traumatize him being given to strangers and staying there confined until who knew how long until he was adopted, and this would be the second time Cronus would have been put up for adoption during his four years.

The three years Travis has had Cronus, Steph and I had also grown very fond of Cronus despite his intimate nousey behavior, which still persisted despite being disciplined each time he did it or worse, attempted something even more intimate like he did with one of Travis's girlfriends that night! Steph had learned to check her surroundings when she had to kneel or bend over to get something or else risk being mounted!

Plus Cronus and Travis was over at our ranchette so often Cronus felt like it was his home too, plus we doggy sat Cronus multiple times when Travis had to go out of town. Steph had even gotten him a pallet to lay on and toys to play with at our house, plus we did have the seven acres totally surrounded with a high deer fence for him to roam. So it really did not take much discussion to agree to take Cronus in. Travis even broke out in tears with our acceptance he loved that dog so!

To make things easier on Travis and Cronus we took Cronus in a few weeks before Travis left for Europe and his new job to make the transition better for both of them. This way Cronus and Travis both could gradually spend time farther and farther apart before final separation

One evening Steph and I went out with some of our friends at a local country dance hall, the girls had gotten carried away getting pretty tipsy. The way Steph got carried away cutting up with our friends, dirty dancing with me and the other girls with us, I could tell and anticipated it was going to be one of those nights went we got back home!

Sure enough on the drive back home Steph starting caressing me then groping me while flashing me her gorgeous amazingly firm double D breasts and playing with her tiny nipples! At one point she wanted me to pull off into a picnic area so we could get it on but I knew the deputies patrolled the area frequently and didn't want to chance getting caught!

After we got home Steph went into our en-suite master bath and several minutes later emerged wearing some new lacy crotchless panties and a short diaphanous rope which showed a gauzy view of her fabulous ripped athletic body!

I then went into our bathroom to get ready and when I came back out Steph was laying across our bed on her stomach using her tablet to search for a porn movie to stream to our bedroom 100 inch 8K ultra-high definition flat panel television, she also had one of her dildos out beside her, the one with the graduated beaded anal tail along with a bottle of lube and her high frequency pinpoint vibrator!

Well I then knew it would be at least two to three hours before we got to sleep! The self-thrusting dildo would keep her going after the first time I serviced her giving me a chance to recharge and I probably would have to service her at least three times before she was satiated!

Hell I might even get lucky and tap that cute exquisitely tight ass of hers!

Steph then asked me to go get the bottle of Champagne from the refrigerator that was still half-full from earlier, I thought she was still pretty inebriated as it was but I would indulge my amazingly gorgeous wife if she wanted to deal with a hangover in the morning!

I returned with the Champagne and two glasses and as I entered the doorway I saw Cronus had wandered in and was very attentively looking at Steph, who was facing away from him still laying on her stomach near the edge of the bed, her legs spread apart and her upraised feet swinging back and forth as she continued cruising the web. With Steph having her legs spread her beautiful hairless pussy was clearly visible due to her crotchless panties, I noticed her labia was also slightly swollen I assumed from her arousal and looking at porn on her tablet.

To this day, for some unknown reason, I stayed at the doorway, watching...

Cronus was being extremely attentive staring between Steph's spread legs, his nose slightly in the air. Then he began inching forwards...

Okay this will be amusing I silently thought to myself...

I believed Cronus, aka PD, was fixing to really intimately startle Steph when he shoves his massively broad head between Steph's spread thighs! His cold nose goosing her directly against her bare pussy! Steph had let her guard down once again and Cronus already had done the same thing multiple times since we took him in while Steph was either getting dressed or getting in or out of the shower. Especially with Steph going to and coming from our hot tub with just a towel wrapped around her, Steph trotting or running thru our large house with Cronus right behind her repeatedly intimately nosing her ignoring her commands of NO and swats on his nose! It seemed his intimate nosey behavior with Steph had increased since we got Cronus or maybe it was just because it seemed more frequent than before since he was now living with us full time.

Then it happened...

Cronus leaped partially upped on the bed slapping his forelegs on top of back of Steph's thighs, his back legs still on the floor, then shoves his broad head between Stephs spread upper thighs making Steph yelp! Then amusingly stunned I watched as he immediately starting intimately licking Steph!

His first tongue swiped directly against Steph's bare pussy making her gasp loudly and lurching slightly on her stomach. Steph tried to roll aside but his forelegs held her down preventing her from rolling away!

Again and again Cronus's long powerful tongue swiped up Steph's pussy and between her cute parted muscular ass checks over and over and over, Steph squirming like a worm under his oral ministrations repeatedly telling Cronus 'Bad Boy STOP! which Cronus totally ignored.

Then amazingly I watched in stunned fascination as with each swipe of Cronus's rapacious tongue Steph's cute ass began tilting upwards a bit which allowed his powerful long tongue to lavishly plow through her pussy!

I let this go on for about 30 seconds or so and then I pretended I was just walking into the room...

I slowly walked into the room and said, "that's enough Cronus, you have to leave something for me!" I jokingly stated making Steph turned red. I took my time setting the Champagne and glasses down on the night stand all the while Cronus continued licking my squirming wife!

"Cody! I, I can't get him to stop and I can't get away he has me pinned!" Steph gasped out slurring her words somewhat.

"Well you certainly look like you are enjoying it! PD is certainly living up to his name! Damn, he looks like he is even better at giving oral than I am! I laughingly stated.

"Come On Cody make him stop! Get him away from me!" Steph exasperatedly and breathlessly stated.

I grabbed hold of Cronus collar and began pulling while telling him to get down but Cronus was having none of that as he seemed to root in Stephs pussy all that much harder!

"Hurry Cody I can't take much more! He's, he's going to make me cum if you don't hurry up and get him away from meeee!"

I pulled harder on Cronus and yet he still kept on persistently lapping away at Steph! Yet I noticed my wife's cute ass was now tilted fully up into his lascivious tonguing, then Steph started moaning, her cute little firm ass began going up and down in response to Cronus's licking!

DAMN! The dog was actually getting her off! I thought in amazed disbelief!

Part of me was warring if I should let it go on out of curiosity or face the wrath of my firecracker wife...

I pulled harder with still no effect on pulling 180 pound Cronus away. I set my feet and my six foot three inch frame and began pulling on Cronus's collar even harder, his head started to rise up away from Steph's pussy but Cronus made a sudden desperate lean forward furiously licking away making Steph moan even louder and louder then,

"OH OH OH SHIT! He's... He's Making Me CUMMMMM!" Steph breathlessly gasped!

I yanked on Cronus collar hard jerking his head away pulling him away from the bed but it was too late as clearly Steph had loudly climaxed!

Steph laid there breathing hard as I pulled Conus over to his pallet in the corner of the bedroom, hardheaded persistent Cronus resisting all the way, sternly I told him to 'STAY'. I stood there a few moments glaring at him to make sure he did stay on his pallet, we well knew that goofy dog had a mind to do things if it got it into his head to do it.

I turned to look at Steph, her head buried in her arms, still breathing hard. I went over to caress her.

Feeling my touch she looked up at me asking,

"Cody why did you wait so long to get him away from me?"

A Dog Made Me Cum!" Steph stammered out, slightly slurring her words.

"Steph, it was pretty funny watching you trying to get away then I realized his licking was getting you aroused!

I saw you tilting that fantastic cute hard ass of yours upwards so he could lick you better!

You can't deny that you did - and you did climax from it!"

"Yes, but it was from a Dog not You!" Steph softly replied.

"Oh Steph, don't be mad or embarrassed about it! It didn't bother me! And like I said and saw, you can't deny that after several seconds you started getting into it!

I admit I got horny watching you getting aroused then getting off by it! It's no different than me getting horny watching you getting yourself off using one of your dildos except it was Cronus's tongue - there's no emotional attachment! It's not as if it was another guy getting you off which we both would never allow!

Steph, you and I are not naïve about this type of thing, hell nobody is in this day and age...

When cruising the web looking for porn movies to watch, multiple times we had come across or been automatically redirected to bestiality websites. We even dared to watch a couple of brief clips! You even joked that the women sure seemed to enjoy it! Plus you and I both have had heard stories and rumors at high school and college parties bandied about by catty girls trying to embarrass other girls pointing out some girl or girls that they had allowed their dog to lick them or even fuck them!"

"Well okay, as long as you're not upset by it, I guess I won't be either, crazy horny dog!" Steph replied.

Honestly I had been sweating bullets during this conversation!

Thankfully all evening while we have been out, Steph had been pretty lively - flirty and pretty rambunctious! And she was drunk too! And when Steph gets drunk she gets pretty damn amazingly horny as exemplified by the drive home with Steph flashing her tits at me and playing with her nipples and wanting me to pull into the roadside picnic area so we could get in the backseat and get it on! If Steph had been sober, this situation and the tone of this conversation would have been entirely different!

Steph was still laying on her stomach, her face and neck a bit red with a flustered look upon her beautiful features, a bit disheveled with what just happened, her amazing cute hard ass bare except for the skimpy crotchless panties she was barely wearing. My oh so gorgeous wife looked so amazingly sexy and well, she looked like she was incredibly horny as hell too!

I couldn't resist...

I leaned over and I began caressing that oh so fine cute hard ass of hers, I slid my finger down the open cleft of her butt cheeks eliciting a small gasp from Steph as my finger passed over her tight anus. She was oh so wet down there and I was amazed how my long finger easily began sliding in to her exquisitely tight pussy! Steph let out another gasp then a moan feeling my finger penetrating her, sliding deeper...

Not to be bragging but thanks to my tall stature, lean athletic body, great personality and my talent at playing a guitar and having a great singing voice along with having what I have been told is a very attractive appearance, I have had way more than my fair share of girls that I had bedded before meeting Steph! And having a nearly two inch thick cock that is nearly eight inches long, every girl I ever bedded had a very orgasmically great time!

I never cared to have a steady girlfriend since girls have been coming onto me since seventh grade so why bother with a steady one, that was until I met Steph who knocked me out with her stunning model figure and incredible beauty, and who had thoroughly enchanted me with her witty, fun personality and extreme intelligence!

As I slowly began pumping my finger in and out of my wife's exquisite pussy my gorgeous horny wife began moaning with desire, her moans increasing in frequency and loudness as I continued slowly finger pumping her wet but still oh so tight pussy, her ass tilting up so I could slide another finger under her to tease her already hard clit while my thumb caressed her tight anus, then just seconds later Steph started humping her tight pussy back onto my finger and thumb as my finger began speeding up thrusting in and out and as my other finger sped up rubbing her clit while my thumb began pressing harder against her tight anus...

I brought Steph to the verge of a climax and then I stopped...

Even as I very incrementally began slowly withdrawing my finger Steph still kept humping my finger faster and faster trying to throw herself over the edge of an burgeoning orgasm before my long finger completely withdrew!

Feeling my finger completely come out of her Steph let out a disappointed sigh then asked why I stopped as she was fixing to cum...

Again, I thought to myself....

"Well honey, I just wanted to prime you some so when you do climax you will have one or more of those epic multi-orgasms of yours." I replied.

"Well damn, you had me so close you tease!" Steph drunkenly huffed. "Now get the rest of your clothes off and get in bed so you can start give me my epic multi-orgasms with your wonderfully thick almost eight inch long cock!

"Why don't you go back to looking for a movie on your tablet to cast to our big screen. I forgot to brush my teeth." I told her.

I took my time brushing my teeth, then using mouthwash, then warming the water up to wash my face again, splashed a little cologne on, all the while looking in the bathroom mirror which reflected the porn movie websites Steph was cruising on the 100 inch flat panel television. I was surprised when she paused when one movie website automatically started playing a quick bestiality clip that lasted just about 30 seconds! Then Steph started going down the list of movies and images...

I recognized the website. We've used it before as it contained a wide variety of porn movies of all genres, including beast! The same website that contained the two short eight minute beast movies that Steph and I had watched one time on a lark that we joked about and she said it looked like the girls actually enjoyed it.

I got naked and joined Steph on top of the bed. She had gotten completely naked having taken off her sodden crotchless panties and tossed them on the floor for now. She continued cruising the web site but I noticed she kind of slightly paused each time a thumbnail image of a beast movie came on before she scrolled onto the next movie. I noticed she did this twice more until another beast movie came up of a thumbnail image of an absolutely gorgeous blonde with great tits with a huge labrador licking her.

"Huh, damn she is one fine looking girl, almost as gorgeous as you are!" I remarked to Steph.

Steph kept pausing looking at the image, then hesitantly, shyly she asked,

"Do you mind if we briefly watch this one? I want to see what other girls do and what the dogs do, you know, just to see if it is an anomaly the way I couldn't help reacting to Cronus's tongue and if other girls felt the same thing I did..."

Hell of course I'm not going to say no to Steph if something helps get her horny or more horny!

I told my wife to go ahead while I poured her a glass of Champagne and handed it to her.

Steph clicked on the link and we watched as the gorgeous blonde girl let her dog eat her pussy and have an incredible climax that clearly was not fake. Then we watched a couple more... They're mostly the dog already licking her or the dog just goes right up and starts, ending in climaxes for the women that also clearly were not fake.

Steph had quickly finished off her glass of Champagne and I refilled it and handed it and she quickly drank it half down. She scrolled through a bunch of thumbnails of videos until she got to one that made her stop. It's another thumbnail so small but it's clearly another gorgeous woman in her twenties on her hands and knees and a huge dog on top of her. Steph asked me, "Is that huge dog fucking her? Hell he's almost as big as Cronus!" I replied, "Sure looks like it. Go ahead and click on it if you want to watch it."

To my surprise Steph clicked on the video and it started with the nude girl walking around and her huge dog following her. Then she gets on her hands and knees. Her dog comes right up and starts licking her hairless pussy for a minute and then mounts her and starts fucking her. It's a good view from behind and low enough that you can see the dog's huge dick slamming into her.

The dog fucks her faster and faster as she loudly moans with pleasure and she has two huge climaxes! Then as she is knotted the girl climaxes again and we could see he has his knot inside her and it pulls against her pussy from the inside. She then holds still and stays that way as he holds onto her but doesn't move and the girl climaxes yet again! That's all it shows for the next couple minutes so we fast forward till we get to where he pulls out and cum pours from her pussy.

Steph exclaimed, "My gosh it looks like that dog's cock is almost as long as your own magnificent nearly eight inch long cock Cody! And that knot! WOW! It's still huge! I can't even imagine how big it must have swollen up inside her! That huge knot inside her must have really been pressing against her G-spot!" Steph slightly slurring her words as she blindly waved her empty flute at me while her eyes were glued to the screen.

While I refilled her glass Steph clicked on another beast movie, this one of a small miniature horse and a gorgeous statuesque woman who had laid on a blanket under the miniature horse with her pelvis elevated and her ass tilted up, legs spread widely apart providing an excellent arousing view. We watched as the woman applied a thick white creamy lube to the miniature horse's cock and started jacking it to get it hard, then she rubbed the head of his cock against her pussy then she started humping it into her.

Once the woman had humped about six inches into her the miniature horse started thrusting! Ramming his light pink cock into her pussy over and over again with its twelve inch long cock, the woman eventually taking in what looked like over nine inches of cock while the woman shouted encouragements, then she massively climaxed when the horse did! Steph gasp aloud seeing the flared cock head of the miniature horse coming out of the woman's pussy and the waterfall of copious horse semen pouring out.

"What happened to the head of his cock? It's mushroom shape! His cock looked just like a human cock before except for being vastly overly long but now the head is all weird looking!" Steph curiously asked.

Well Steph is a big city girl from a very upper class family, and while she has ridden horses with me many times at our family ranch in the Rocky Mountains, she was clueless about equine reproduction, so I explained to her...

"It's called a flare and is an equine evolution mechanism. When a stallion is fixing to ejaculate the head of the cock flares to three times its normal size for two reasons; one, it temporarily locks the head inside the vagina to prevent withdrawal and two, the mushroom shape the head momentarily assumes is to ensure that most of the semen is forced directly up into the uterus upon ejaculation. This was due to horses in the wild were always on the lookout for predators and that copulations were quick and inseminations had to be assured. Additionally regardless of equine size, whether a full size horse, a donkey or a miniature horse like you just watched, they all ejaculate about the same amount of semen and it is a prodigious amount - up to eight ounces of semen is ejaculated with tremendous force. An equine is capable of explosively propelling its ejaculate in an open environment up to a twelve-foot distance! Internally, a female will definitively feel it when it begins exploding into her completely filling her up! Especially with the flare that had expanded inside her!"

While I was explaining this to Steph she had finished her third glass of Champagne. I took the glass from her and refilled it, emptying the bottle. While I was doing this Steph had click on another beast movie and began playing it. This one had three attractive Nordic looking girls about college age with a Mastiff and a Great Dane. I looked at the length of the movie at the bottom of the screen. This one was about thirty minutes in length...

While the movie played I began caressing Steph, looking down I could see her labia was swollen with arousal, her clit swollen too and visibly protruding. Steph had her legs spread wide apart and her lower feet angled in, I could smell her sweet musky arousal. Steph finished her fourth flute of Champagne and set it aside. I reached over for Steph's dildo and rested the head against her wetly glistening pussy, then I began gently rubbing her swollen clit...

Couple of minutes later Steph started humping her pussy against the dildo. The base of the dildo was dug into the mattress a little keeping it aligned as Steph shifted and kept humping the head a little until she had it centered into the entrance of her pussy then she began slowly humping it into her...

This always is an incredibly turn on for me watching Steph thrusting a dildo into herself! Then she whispered for me to hold the dildo so she could work the beaded tail into her ass! Once she got both tips into her she really started humping the dildo! Gradually speeding up getting more and more of the six inch long dildo into her while I kept rubbing her clit until she had a massive orgasm! Her orgasmic contractions so strong it pushed her dildo out of her!

I couldn't figure out if this is round one or two for her but I knew she had yet to have one of her epic multi-orgasms, and from experience, I knew she would want to keep going until she did have at least one of her epic multi-orgasms! And of course I've had a raging hard-on for some time now aching for release!!!

As Steph came back to her senses from her massive climax she let out a gasp turning my attention away from watching my gorgeous wife. Cronus was standing right by the bed, Steph's crotchless panties in his mouth, looking at us, or rather Steph...

I can just imagine what must be going thru Cronus's mind. Hell if I can smell Steph's arousal it must be pure torture for poor Cronus! Then I wondered what might have crossed my wife's mind a moment ago...

"Steph, do you want him to lick you again?" I softly ask...

Ah, what? ummm, I'm, I'm not sure...

Until tonight I've never done this before and he had me pinned down so I couldn't escape his licking....

I've never even thought about doing it even though you and I had joked and kidded about it watching Cronus countless times going after Travis's girlfriends trying to lick them, and uh, umm, I have to admit since we've had him, he had gotten briefly lucky multiple times catching me unawares when I've been naked...

I, I don't know... I mean it's not natural or sociably acceptable, but, but it is so prevalent on the Internet with all the movies, the comics, and the story web sites. And all those attractive women in the movies we just watched! None of them skanks or prostitutes like I initially thought they would be, all in their twenties and thirties, so I guess, uhhh, it's more common than I thought, people just don't talk about it...

I reached down and started gently rubbing Steph's clit again. The moment my fingers touch her still swollen clit she moaned a little and spread her legs further apart. I was amazed how wet she was, she already had left a large wet spot on top of the covers. As I continued rubbing her swollen clit a little I took her dildo and started nudging the head against her pussy with it, rubbing it around and around in her tight entrance just barely pushing the head in a bit before pulling it out, teasing her all the while I nuzzled her neck kissing her. After a minute I started to feel Steph trying to get me to start thrusting the dildo into her again as she reached for me and slowly started jacking my admittedly raging throbbing hard-on, I hotly whispered into her ear...,

"How about trying just a little more licking, voluntarily this time, and if you get uncomfortable you can stop..., and you have told me more than a few times that you would try most anything at least once as long as it didn't involve another man..." I softly said.

"Oh! Ummm..., well I guess..., a little bit will probably be okay, that is, if you don't mind and you, you, want me too..." Steph whispered in reply with deepening arousal in her soft voice....

"Sweetheart, like I told you a while ago after the first time, I got incredible horny watching you getting aroused then getting off by it! It's no different than me getting horny watching you getting yourself off using one of your dildos except it was Cronus's tongue - and since it's not another man involved there's no emotional attachment!"

"Well, if you're sure..." Steph hesitantly replied in a soft alcohol slurred voice.

"Let's try with you sitting on the edge of the bed..." I whispered. In a soft slurred voice Steph responded "Okay..."

Steph slowly scooted over to the side of our bed to where Cronus was sitting. Steph gave me a hesitant look, then she started spreading her long legs. Cronus dropped her sodden crotchless panties from his mouth as he looked at interest at my wife's gorgeous pussy, hairless except for an inverted V pubic hair design on her mound from her permanent laser hair removal, the V seemingly pointing the way to her two most erogenous areas...

Steph and I could tell Cronus's interest was peaking, he began sniffing then began leaning his massive head in-between Steph's spread legs, his broad head pushing Steph's slightly resisting legs wide apart, then he began licking Steph again...

I watched as Steph stared down at Cronus as he licked her with his long powerful tongue, with each swipe up through her parted swollen labia and over her hard protruding clit I saw her wiggle but I could still see and sense her hesitancy about letting a dog orally please her, not getting into it too much because I'm sure she was still unsure of what I would think...

To encourage her I reached over and started caressing her leg to ease her hesitancy, telling how erotic it looks, I then suggested she lay on her back to be more comfortable and better access for Cronus to lick her.

Steph laid back upon the bed holding her legs apart behind her knees. This time when Cronus sees what Steph was doing he got right up between her legs and starts running his tongue repeatedly through the cleft of her ass up through her parted swollen labia folds then up and over Steph's hard protruding clit over and over. After a minute or so Steph's eyes closed starting to really get into it! As Cronus licked her he actually started to trying to get his long powerful tongue inside her tight pussy! Then Steph started moaning, her legs were now obscenely splayed wide in open invitation to this very taboo act! She looked at me and said, slightly slurring her words,

"Oh honey I can't help it! His tongue is so long and powerful and feels so damn good!"

Again I told her, "It's okay! I love seeing how turned on you get!"

Another minute or more passed with Steph repeatedly moaning, now deliriously with the oral pleasure she was receiving, her tiny nipples of her double D breasts were diamond hard and I noticed her respirations were increasing, then I saw her taut stomach muscles began fluttering...always a giveaway that she is fixing to climax! Then Cronus stopped licking!

With a disappointing lustful moan Steph let her legs down and then sat up to see what happened. Cronus was just standing at the foot of the bed looking at her. Without any further encouragement from me Steph wiggled down to get her pussy back to the edge so he can resume licking her!

As Steph repositioned herself on the edge of the bed again Cronus stepped back. I caught her glancing at his sheath as his dick was a bit hard and part of his pink dick was poking out. As I watched my wife staring at it I couldn't help asking my drunk and oh so horny gorgeous wife what she was thinking of?

Steph turned red with embarrassment as she looked away from Cronus. I jokingly asked, "are you thinking about his dick and what it might feel like? Those women we just watched sure seemed to enjoy it and as you said, none of them were faking their orgasms!"

My gorgeous and embarrassed wife stumbled through her reply,

"Ummm, uhhh, maybe..., but he is bigger than those other dogs in the movies we just watched so his dick must be longer too, maybe even longer than you and you are much bigger than most men! Then there is his knot..., but allowing Cronus to lick me is one thing but actually letting him fuck me that is entirely different, that is so, so...

I, I just don't know, that's maybe going too far..." Steph softly said.

I could tell my gorgeous wife's curiosity was stimulated as was her extreme horniness by Steph being even this open talking about it! I'm sure she didn't want to quite admit just how much Cronus did know what to do since he obviously did know what to do and do it well! Steph certainly has seen plenty of examples of Cronus's expertise sneaking in licks on Travis's multitude of girlfriends - and almost getting lucky with that one girl a few years back when he mounted her!

Caressing Steph's leg I gradually moved my fingers over to her still hard clit, the moment my fingers touched her clit Steph let out a desirous moan. I slipped a finger against her wet pussy and it slipped inside and I can feel a gush of wetness inside her as I again began finger-fucking her tight pussy.

"Mmmmm god you're wet. And I love how open you've become about what you like!" I whispered to my gorgeous horny wife. "What are you thinking about now as I do this to you?"

Steph tried not to grin and tried to look away but suddenly she glanced back towards Cronus's dick. It's still partially hard, then Cronus walked back close to Steph interested in the wet squishy sounds from me finger-fucking Steph's amazingly tight pussy. I took her hand and told her,

"go ahead and feel it and see what it feels like while I keep doing this. I'm sure he is pretty horny and you could at least give him a hand job, then he will leave us alone and I can devote my full attention on you!"

I could see excitement arise in my wife's eyes as she gently grasped his sheath and start stroking it. After about the forth stroke Cronus startled Steph as he started humping into her hand. Taken totally by surprise I could tell she was unsure what to do next.

I whispered her to loosely hold her hand around his cock so he can thrust into it so he can get off. I could see her excitement increasing as her breathing had increased, her tiny nipples diamond hard, and of course I kept slowly pumping my long finger into her wet, tightly grasping pussy!

Cronus started humping furiously and then suddenly tried to mount Steph's leg! Wrapping his legs around her long outstretched leg and pulling her hand forward towards his dick which was flying back and forth and it was all she could do to keep a hold of him! We both could see he was all the way out and his knot had begun swelling. I have to admit I felt a bit envious because his cock was just as long as my own almost eight inch long cock!

Steph was holding on tight behind the knot but Cronus's wild actions and his 180 pound weight slowly pulled Steph completely off the bed and she slipped to the floor still holding on to wildly flailing erection! Steph was setting on her cute ass with her legs under Cronus and his dick still flying back and forth as he kept on humping.

I noticed Steph was intently watch Cronus fucking her hand. His dick has really grown t and had turned from hot pink to red and purple as it is flooded with blood making it thicker and thicker. Then Steph gasped feeling something hit her stomach and then again her naked breasts. I saw her look down seeing Cronus beginning to squirt precum, his copious precum squirts splashing against her and running down her breasts and stomach, Steph kept staring at his swelling dick watching as he continued squirting precum. Squirt after squirt after squirt erupted from him splashing onto her, so much precum it began running past her stomach and over her pussy!

"He is doing something. He is cumming and cumming all over me I think..." Steph hotly whispered.

"No honey that's just precum so far. Dog's ejaculate a lot of precum before they actually cum, it acts as a lubricant." I told her.

I could tell my incredibly horny wife was enthralled when she leaned back and slid more under Cronus. Now in her new position he is directly squirting precum onto Steph's firm double D breasts, then I saw my horny wife point him so it began hitting her hard nipples!

Cronus began slowing down and then quit humping but is still swollen and still spraying precum. Steph's amazing firm breasts were heaving in aroused excitement, glistening with copious precum. Stream after stream jetting out hitting her tiny hard nipples, coursing down her flat ripped stomach and channeling down to her pussy and over it before running onto the hardwood floor! Amazed I watched my horny wife trying to reposition again sliding down and pointing his dick more downwards directly towards her highly aroused pussy!

I once again admired my gorgeous wife's athletic statuesque hard lithe body and how so lucky I was to be married to this very intelligent, fun incredibly beautiful and oh so sexy woman who is a sexual wildcat in the bedroom!

Steph was breathing fast, her amazingly firm double D breasts heaving with excitement, her labia lips swollen and puffy and openly parted, her clit swollen and poking out between her lips. I reached down and placed my hand under her cute firm ass and lifted her butt off the floor just enough to where his precum began jetting directly onto Steph's swollen clit! The tip of his eight plus inch long cock now only a couple inches away so it was hitting her exposed swollen clit with enough force to make her moan with desire, copious precum running down her openly part labia...

Steph's clit and pussy was getting soaked with doggy precum! It must feel as hot as it looked as Steph squirmed a little, biting her lip as another then another moan escaped her sensuous lips each time a jet of precum blasted her swollen clit!

I grabbed a pillow off the bed then I told Steph to lift up as I folded a pillow and slipped it under her ass so I didn't have to hold her up anymore, her pelvis now raised up off the floor, Steph then looked at me like 'now what?' I told her to slide forward a bit and she did but was still looking confused. I reached out taking his dick from her and I told her I will have him squirt directly against her vaginal entrance as I positioned the tip of his cock almost touching her pussy...

I aimed Cronus's tip so he's squirting hot precum right at Steph's tight vaginal entrance! Steph feeling the initial squirt blasting directly against her tight entryway she really began moaning and she laid her head back closing her eyes not holding back! She was really getting turned on and she start thrusting her hips like she was getting fucked! That made it hard for me to stay on target so I kept pointing his cock as best as I could. The more Steph moaned the more she wiggled and humped her hips up and down. I noticed Steph arching her back even more moving to get her pussy closer to the tip of his cock...

I got bolder and pulled Cronus closer by pulling on his leg, the tip of his precum squirting cock then incrementally touched Steph's pussy! Instantly Steph let out a loud long moan, then boldly I began slowly sliding the tip up and down the furrow of Steph's openly parted labia and over her clit as she began moaning more and more!

As Steph didn't say anything about his doggy cock now sliding against her pussy and she seemed to be getting hornier by the second I kept on keeping on firing up her arousal, intensely curious now how fired up she would get!

Then I accidentally slipped his cock too low and just the squirting tip briefly penetrated my horny wife! Instantly Steph moaned deeply as her hips instantly bucked up in spontaneous reaction allowing his squirting tip to go a bit deeper into her about an inch then she physically pulled herself backwards pulling the tip out, I watched as copious precum began dribbling out of her tight pussy. Huskily she said,

"Cody, I, I think that, that's going too far...

It's one thing to let him lick my pussy and maybe it's okay to let his cock slide against my pussy and clit to get me really horny but I'm, I'm not sure about going any further..." Steph softly said in a husky voice.

"Okay honey. Tell you what why don't you just let him hump his cock against you or you hump your pussy against his cock so it slides against your pussy and clit to get you really, really horny then I will take over and fuck you silly!" I told her.

"Well, ummm, I guess that will be okay since it's not actually fucking although I'm more than ready for you now! I, I guess what we've been doing is so prevalent all over the Internet it must be more common than we thought, people just don't talk about it..." Steph softly replied repeating herself from earlier...

I pushed Cronus away and helped Steph up and told her to lay back on the bed with her feet on the floor. Then I got Cronus between my wife's spread legs and lifted his forelegs up on the bed straddling either side of my wife's body. Cronus now in a doggy missionary position above my incredibly beautiful and oh so horny wife!

I grasped his sheath and started jacking Cronus a few times making more of his substantial cock reemerge to where I could resume rubbing the tip his cock against my wife's swollen protruding clit...

Upon initial contact of his hot animal hardness against her clit, Steph again briefly tensed up. But as I rubbed the tip of his cock against her swollen protruding clit, in just a few seconds, Steph relaxed again as the inhumanely hot cock tip resumed stimulating her hard protruding clit...

About half a minute later of rubbing the tip of Cronus's cock against her swollen clit, Steph started little pelvic gyrations, evident that she was getting into it again and becoming even further aroused!

Then about another half minute later Steph actually started slightly humping the tip of his cock a bit!

Humping it just so as to keep the tip in the upper half of her pussy but keeping the bottom half of her incredibly tight vaginal opening safely away.

Steph's eyes were closed and she began softly moaning more, then I saw her raise a hand and started tweaking one of her tiny hard nipples in increasing arousal, amazed as I watched as her pelvic humping started actively increasing a bit more yet...

I started jacking Cronus's cock sheath to get him to start squirting precum again. Cronus stood still while I manipulated his cock sheath as more and more of his cock started showing from his sheath and noticeably swelling in size again. Several seconds later he again started explosively blasting out precum directly impacting Steph's hard protruding clit!

Feeling the jetting hot wetness blasting her swollen protruding clit Steph instantly let out a loud moan feeling it!

Squirt after powerful jetting squirt and precum was once again flowing down the valley of her openly flowered swollen labia then coursing over her tight anus before dripping onto our hardwood floor!

Astounded, I watched mesmerized as slowly, Steph tilted her pelvis upwards a bit more! Began humping her pelvis more earnestly! In doing so she inadvertently slid the tip of Cronus's cock a bit closer downwards toward her tight vaginal opening! Each time she felt a blast of hot precum against her gorgeous hairless pussy she moaned, a bit louder then louder with each successive blast...

Steph began getting ever more vigorous humping her pussy against Cronus's swelling cock as she became ever more stimulated in her alcohol reduced inhibitions! Actually now fully sliding her pussy up and down his protruding shaft! Then, the tip of Cronus's precum squirting cock again came down to where just the tip was against her tight vaginal entrance..., hot precum again blasting directly against her entrance! In an instant response Steph moaned loudly than before and she began humping her pelvis even more!

In stunned incredible horny amazement I watched as my horny wife humped her pussy against the slippery squirting tip!

Watched as her ever more vigorous humping began easing maybe just a quarter inch of the tip inside her!

Suddenly Steph let out an even louder moan when an explosive blast of precum was directly injected just inside her amazingly tight vaginal entrance!

In Steph's incredible arousal my gorgeous wife kept humping the tip of his cock easing a bit more into her! Another precum blast, a louder moan, now about an inch of hot precum squirting canine cock was again inside her humping pussy!

My wife's incredible gorgeous body began trembling, her flat, muscular ripped stomach rapidly began fluttering, a precursor of the beginnings of an orgasm...

I gently touched her hard clit, began gently rubbing it...

Instantly Steph moaned and humped her pelvis harder upwards!

Humping another inch of doggy cock into her tightness!

My incredible wife, in her drunk acute arousal, was heedless that she was now humping two inches of ever swelling precum squirting canine cock in and out of her wonderfully exquisite tight pussy!

I could tell she was near peaking..., I began rubbing her swollen clit a bit more, watching my incredible wife humping more and more of doggy cock into her heedless of her previous indecision to go all the way, evidently her horny body and alcohol reduced inhibitions making the decision for her!

With all the precum that had been squirted inside her, I watched as Steph was now easily humping four inches of squirting canine cock into her tightly clasping pussy!

Steph humped her pelvis again and then she had more cock in her then out! She was moaning out loud not trying to hide it then I was astounded to see her reach down taking his dick in her own hand pulling him into her while pushing up hard get to his knot!

Instantly Steph suddenly erupted with a massive orgasm!

I noticed that Cronus's knot had already swollen - to the size of a misshapen tennis ball!

He's too swollen to get it in but it was sliding in just enough to gape her swollen labia lips wide open. I can see his knot quiver every time he squirted and Steph's pussy seemed to respond each time trying to pull him further inside!

His garishly ugly tennis ball sized knot was red and purple contrasting with the pink of Steph's pussy lips hugging it. With her other hand Steph started rapidly rubbing her throbbing clit as she fucked her pussy with Cronus's cock, precum and her own copious lubrications dribbling from her pussy and puddling onto the hardwood floor.

Suddenly I watched as my wife climaxed again as she exploded with one of the biggest orgasms I have ever seen have! I watched as her pussy repeatedly spasmed and contracted around the thick deeply embedded canine cock as I watched her lithe gorgeous stunning body quiver over and over!

Steph looked at me a bit embarrassed as she knew I saw her climaxing twice on Cronus's huge doggy cock! I smiled at her and told her how fantastically erotic she looked, Steph smiled back at me then a bit hesitantly at first, then more sure as I caressed her, she resumed pumping his cock in and out of her pussy...

I was kind of curious why Cronus hadn't started humping Steph, I guessed it was because he wasn't in a natural position for him.

I watched as my incredibly horny and incredibly gorgeous wife increased the speed of humping his swollen cock letting his knot slam hard against her soaked pussy with her rapid humping motions, the knot slapping against her pussy making her labia lips part and quake as she endeavored to promote another orgasm. Doggy cum squirted out every time his knot slammed against her splayed open pussy!

Just as Steph really start to take it all in I saw his knot again begin to get smaller and softer until it was just down to the size of a ping pong ball and I was again amazed as Steph began humping his knot in and out of her making her desirously moan as she fought to have a third climax but then his knot completely away! Leaving her hanging then his shrunken cock slipped out of her thoroughly wet, dribbling pussy.

Steph let out a disappointed sigh and then softly said with slurred words, "I think I might of been able to cum again if I'd had another couple minutes I was so on the verge of having another one!"

Curious to how it was, I ask her, "You say it was good. Just good?"

I thought she was feeling something is wrong, worrying if she was having regrets or she thinking what I may have been thinking, and I began to wonder what the morning would hold for me when she has sobered up and realized the debauched socially unacceptable sex act she had engaged in, sudden consternation struck me well knowing how my firecracker wife can suddenly explode in anger!

"Honey, are you okay? You look as if something is wrong." I hesitantly asked.

"Yeah I'm ok, it felt pretty great and I got off twice but I would much prefer you plowing into me with your marvelous outsized cock instead of me humping Cronus's cock and doing all the work." Steph replied, then she sheepishly looked up and added,

"You know how incredibly horny I get when I have been drinking, and I had just enough to relax my inhibitions..."

I remembered all the times we laughed watching Cronus go after Travis's girlfriends and actually mounting that one girl and managing to briefly penetrate her! Even Cronus getting some licks on me when I wasn't being careful! I have to admit that after he licked me this evening making me climax and then we had watched those beastly vids, I couldn't help getting unnaturally horny and hell, I was already drunk and horny! I thought, like I said earlier, it is so prevalent all over the Internet it must not be all that uncommon, and watching those vids, it got me too curious and horny that I couldn't resist just this one time to do this crazy kinky thing...

And, and, I think that I really wanted to feel him..., fuck me....

Fucking me like that girl in the video.... How he had knotted her making her scream and the amazing multiple orgasms she had after she had been knotted..."

For a moment I sat there stunned at my wife's revelation! Then I remembered Cronus never did start humping because I guess the position was not right for him so maybe he could be enticed while Steph was still maybe willing if she hadn't started developing regrets yet...

I leaned over and hugged my wife as I caressed her, my hand easing over to her pussy still finding her clit hard, Steph moaned as I began playing her clit and nuzzling her neck. Softly I whispered into her ear,

"It's ok sweetheart, maybe we can get him to do that if that's what you still want..."

I was surprised how quickly Steph asked me if it would be ok with me! I leaned back and she then noticed my thick nearly eight inch long raging hard throbbing cock as it visibly jerked with each beat of my heart

My amazing wife then gave me a drunken grin and said,

"Well it seems you are more than okay with us trying that!"

Steph then pushed me flat on the bed and knelt down in front of me taking the end of my cock in her mouth. She stop as soon as the head slipped past her lips. Squeezing her mouth tight around it you then let your tongue dance against and around and around teasing me exciting me so much she had me squirming. I already want to fill her mouth with my cum or fuck her amazing pussy or fuck that incredibly tight ass but I also want this to last forever.

Slowly Steph took more in still using her tongue to tickle every part. It's amazing how expert she is with her mouth having never done this before she had met me!

Steph started using her hand, mouth and tongue all at the same time. So many sensations all at once and all working perfectly together making it feel so amazing with her expert manipulations. Then she started increasing the depth and speed as she stroked me and start bobbing up and down. I could feel my cock hitting the back of her throat and every time it did her sensuous lips grips my shaft and pulls, her mouth working almost like her amazingly incredibly tight pussy! Pulling and squeezing, tugging and releasing. Sending shock waves down my nearly eight inch long thick shaft then deep inside me stirring up and stimulating an impending climax!

As I laid back and enjoyed my wife's skills I felt her suddenly jump a little then moan around my cock. I noticed Cronus had eased up on the bed and had gotten behind her and was licking her pussy again! I can feel Steph wiggling and then spreading her knees widely apart as she knelt above my legs as she enjoyed the attention. I watched as his huge head lavished my wife's pussy and the open cleft of her cute firm ass, his long powerful tongue stroking from her clit up her pussy and then up the open cleft of her firm ass cheeks, his tongue caressing her tight anus then repeating over and over making Steph moan with increasing desire around my cock with each swipe.

I can tell how good it felt to her because the distraction had her struggling to maintain what she was doing to my cock! Actually I thought it was a bit of a relief because she was about to make me cum way too quickly!

I slipped my cock from her sensuous lovely sucking mouth. As I slid from beneath her I pulled her arms forward so Steph was leaning on her forearms with her face on the bed. This brought her cute pert ass up and in a better position for Cronus to probe her deeper with his tongue. As Cronus tongued her pussy and ass I watched as Steph closed eyes and slowly moaned in ecstasy over and over. Cronus endeavored futile to work his work his tongue deeper into Steph's pussy but despite how wet and horny she was her tight pussy would only allow the very tip of his tongue in. Cronus started licking harder occasionally going after Steph's tight anus making her loudly moan before he switched back to her highly aroused pussy. I can see his excitement building as he starts wiggling around as his cock was generously peeking out from his sheath.

I didn't want Cronus to lose his excitement again nor keep Steph waiting before she changed her mind with what she was doing!

I began jacking his sheath and got him to start humping and then 180 pound Cronus mounted my wife pushing her into the mattress and forcing her to tilt her cute ass further up!

"OH! WHAT? CODY! I'm, I'm not sure I want to go that far...." Steph hesitantly stuttered out.

Cronus forelegs were around my wife's slim waist and quickly he started humping wildly! There was no changing her mind at the last second the way Cronus had her locked in and I doubted I could pull him off before he nailed her if Steph started yelling at me to pull him off!

Yet just after my wife's initial hesitancy, she didn't say anything further....

So I stood there and watched...

Cronus was ramming his wildly flailing cock at my wife! Smacking it against her cute firm ass leaving a wet spot every time it did. With each unsuccessful thrust more and more of his cock was emerging from his sheath and swelling in diameter. After the fifth or sixth jab his heat seeking red rocket found the target and quickly slammed into Steph making my wife violently lurch forward screaming out! He hunched forward as far as he could and started slamming against Steph's ass fully embedding his nearly eight inch long cock into her! With lightning fast strokes he rapidly began brutally pounding Steph as hard and as fast as he could making my wife squeal and moan as she began pushing back into him!

While I had fucked my wife hard and fast and she greatly enjoys it having multiple climaxes from it I had never fucked her as violently hard as this huge 180 pound Daniff was fucking her! He was lunging into her tight pussy with his nearly eight inch long swelling cock at the same time he was pulling her back into him at the same time with his powerful forelegs!

Amazed I watched my incredibly horny drunk wife rock back against his thrusts! Wanting to make sure he got all the way in so he could knot her! I watched as his cock swelled bigger and bigger till it was almost the same girth as my own nearly two inch thick cock! His knot, now the size of a ping pong ball, was rapidly going in and out of my wife's frothy, precum dripping pussy but clearly Cronus was having increasing difficulty each time he shoved his growing knot into Steph's tight pussy before yanking it out again then thrusting it back into her. And it was quite abundantly clear Steph was greatly enjoying the sensations of his swelling the knot going in and out because she started yelling out,

"FUCK ME FUCK ME! COME ON FUCK ME AND KNOT ME!"

Several thrusts later I was beginning to think Cronus's was not going to be able to knot my wife's tight pussy before his knot grew too large but then to dispel this thought Steph suddenly screamed as he knotted her and it didn't come back out!

I could only vividly imagine what my wife was feeling as his knot continued expanding inside her from ping pong ball size to the size of a tennis ball size!

Steph feeling his knot growing larger and larger inside her filling her up! The swelling pressure of his increasing knot size intensifying as it inexorably rubbed against her G-spot provoking her massive orgasm! Starting to feel a spreading warmth inside her as his copious hot doggy cum spurted over and over as Cronus still continued pounding and pounding into Steph bodily jerking her back and forth! Steph still loudly moaning with sexual desire as she was getting a brutal bestial fucking with a cock nearly as big as mine! Oh No! She couldn't hide it or hold back! She let it all go as she repeatedly epically climaxed on his thick, long canine cock as he still fucked her throbbing swollen pussy!

Finally Cronus slowed down and stopped. Hell I thought dogs were wham, bam and it was over, except for waiting for the knot to go down in size until the pullout, but Cronus seemed to have royally fucked my gorgeous wife for an inordinate amount of time! Admittedly, for a moment I felt a pang of jealousy watching Steph's vulva visibly pulsating around the thickly swollen shaft that was buried in it! Her vaginal sheath muscles instinctively milking the ugly canine invader!

Finally Cronus began pulling to one side and I could see his knot tugging at the entrance of Steph's pussy. This went on for a couple of more minutes with Cronus occasionally tugging testing to see if his knot had gone down enough to come out of my wife's tight pussy, Steph moaning aloud each time he tugged on her. Then Cronus started leaning forward... and kept leaning with 180 pound weight!

Flabbergasted I watched as his still too swollen knot began spreading Steph's labia lips open and his knot began incrementally slipping out stretching my wife's tight pussy open - Steph letting out loud, long, drawn out painful gasps as her vaginal entrance was being unnaturally forced to spread open! Steph loudly began Lamaze breathing to try to ease the increasing pain of the still too large knot that was breaching her entrance!

I was astounded seeing his still too swollen bulge stretching Steph's pussy lips open trying to pull free - it was still so fucking huge! I couldn't understand how she could even pass something that big thru her extraordinarily tight vaginal opening!

"UGHNNMMM!!!" Steph groaned and squirmed. Cronus pulling hard! Steph's swollen labia rising outward between her widely spread thighs as it was being pushed and spread apart from inside her body! The sight of his hugely still too swollen knot pushing and stretching her tight, narrow vaginal entrance seeking release took on the kinky appearance of the birthing of his obscene penis as his still swollen bulge began crowning at her opening...

Suddenly semen and pre-cum gushed, sprayed and bubbled around the still huge orb with a loud slurping noise as Steph's tight vagina finally began releasing his knot! Steph grimacing and gasping with pain as I heard a loud, slurping, sucking plop watching as Cronus's knot began incrementally slipping from her tight vaginal entrance, Steph crying out with one last scream as the entirety of his still too hugely swollen knot finally came out!

Steph's tight pussy clung to the remainder of his immensely swollen prick as it slowly, sinuously emerged with a loud slurping noise, followed by another insane deluge of cum exploding out of Steph's thoroughly ravished pussy...

Momentarily stunned, I stared at what had fucked my beautiful wife!

His damn cock, while not as thick, was just as long as my own nearly eight inch cock!

The massive vein-ridged bloated redness that dangled garishly beneath him...

The still swollen knot, now down to the size of a large lemon, seemed to punctuate its sexual power...

I couldn't even begin to understand how it was possible for Steph to even pass something the size of a large lemon thru her tight vaginal opening! Incredibility slamming me knowing that his knot had swollen to even larger proportions inside her! That he'd managed to pull it from her exquisitely tight pussy without tearing her! I couldn't help but let out a sharp intake of breath...

"Unreal..." I softly breathed...

No wonder Steph had been loudly moaning and had multiple epic climaxes!

Suddenly, I was jealous!

While his cock was about as long as my own and my cock still had a much thicker girth than his - that blasted huge knot inside her had been inexorably rubbing her G-spot caused my wife to erupt in one of the biggest orgasms I had ever seen her have! The thought of her ecstasy being the result of a dog using her for sexual gratification was more than a bit humbling!

Yet despite my instant jealousy I still had a raging hard-on! I needed relief! I felt an unreasonably need to reclaim my wife! NOW! Steph was still kneeling on the bed with her head down breathing hard, her cute sexy ass still up in the air. Headless of the sodden bed cover I quickly got behind my wife before she changed positions. I paused just long enough to take in the incredibly beautiful view...

My incredibly gorgeous wife still kneeling with her head down, her knees still spread widely apart, a full view of her barely discernable tight little anus and pussy, her red swollen labia openly parted like a flower in full bloom, a trickle of doggy cum still oozing out, the large puddle of cum and precum directly underneath her on the top bed cover. Briefly I thought I will have to change the bed linens before we go to sleep...

Steph felt me move in and with sudden alarm in her voice said,

"No Not My Pussy! I'm Too Sore! Do My Ass Instead!

I started sliding my painfully throbbing nearly two inch thick almost eight inch long cock between Steph's firm parted ass cheeks then down in-between her swollen labia, the head of my cock sliding against her amazingly still hard protruding clit! I did this several times, feeling Steph respond, I started concentrating just on sliding the head of my cock up and down between the open cleft of her parted firm ass cheeks, teasing her anus until Steph, in her own sexual aroused impatience, started centering her tight anus against my cock head and started pushing back on it...

As always when we are having anal sex, due to my thickness I let Steph set the pace while I remained motionless; letting her push ever harder and harder against my cock head until very, very slowly, very incrementally, it started breaching her tight sphincter...

Steph let out a sudden gasp!

My fantastic gorgeous wife slowly began working the head of my cock in past the very narrow, tight muscular rings of her sphincters, Steph letting out a low throaty groan that got deeper and longer and louder in volume as her sphincters began to be breached as her sphincters began stretching and gradually opening to allow the broad tip of my fat nearly two inch wide cock to enter! Both of us suddenly gasping simultaneously as the head of my cock finally eased fully past and her sphincters instantly snapped tight just behind the corona!

I groaned with delight feeling the intense tightness of my wife's sphincters squeezing so delightfully and the incredible tightness on my shaft just behind my cock head! Playfully, Steph kept repeatedly contracting her anal muscles!

Damn! She almost made me pop off then!!

With just the head past her sphincter Steph momentarily paused getting accustomed to my thickness, then she started gently rocking back and forth...

Rocking her amazing cute firm ass allowing about an inch in then an inch out, Steph again started moaning, but not in pain but pleasure! Steph then began rocking a bit further, easing two inches in and two inches out, her lustful moans growing ever deeper and more drawn out as she incrementally increased burying my thick, long throbbing cock ever deeper into her glorious tight cute ass!

Ever slower, ever deeper, Steph rocked back onto my throbbing raging cock until she had nearly all of my fat almost eight inch cock firmly packed into her beautiful, irresistibly cute, exquisitely tight ass!!!

Then Steph started slowly leaning forward..., sliding my cock almost all the way out until she felt the rings of her tight sphincters catch my cock head, then she slowly began pushing back, sliding my painfully throbbing cock all the way back in her! Several times she did this, then, as Steph began picking up the pace..., she reached one hand under her and started furiously rubbing her hard clit...

I could no longer resist! I started meeting her ever forceful backward rocking thrusts! Moments later Steph had a screaming orgasm!

We both slowly resumed the pace which quickly grew with me holding her slim waist as we began slamming onto each other! Looking in the dresser mirror I watched mesmerized as my wife's incredibly firm, double D breasts jolted in short arcs as I pounded into her sharply backside! Shortly, Steph came again with other screaming orgasm!

As my amazing wife climaxed long and hard I could acutely feel her wonderfully tight ass convulsing! Her muscular rectum and colon clamping down and spasmodically squeezing my cock with repeated contractions in her drawn out orgasm! Again I almost lost it the way her exquisitely tight rectum and colon was tightly squeezing my cock with rippling contractions along its entire length but I barely managed to hold back and still fucked her exquisite ass for several more minutes...

Two more orgasms from Steph with her tight ass squeezing and rhythmically contracting around my swollen cock with her climaxes I could no longer hold back! I exploded a huge load up her clenching, squeezing wonderfully tight ass! My climax so powerful it was initially painful!

Steph feeling me blowing my load deep up inside her ass and my loud exuberance when I did so made my incredible wife climax yet again!

It was pure ultimate bliss! Feeling her anal muscles repeatedly clenching squeezing my cock as she climaxed milking my cock for all it's worth!

We both stayed in this position for a few minutes, letting my depleted cock slowly recede on its own, but do to my length I had to pull the last several inches out. Again, it was heavenly bliss trying to pull the broad head of my cock past Steph's tight sphincters! With the effort it took to pull my cock completely out I could almost swear I felt the beginnings of another erection! Steph sure wasn't helping! I could feel her bearing down trying to keep the head of my cock in her!

When my cock final pulled free Steph collapsed on top of the bed heedless of the sodden bed cover. I knelt behind her caressing her statuesque athletic body for a few minutes, then I helped Steph up and held her tightly as she drunkenly swayed on her feet...

I looked at Steph and my heart swelled! Here is this amazing woman, this incredibly beautiful and oh so sexy woman, my wife! Who got fucked and knotted by a huge dog with a huge cock, then she let me fuck her tight ass!

One of the most beautiful and sexiest women in the entire world - and how fortunate I was she is my wife!

"Cody, help me into our bathroom and into the shower, I need to flush my pussy out." Steph said to me in a low voice...

I helped Steph into our walk-in shower and she sat down on the bench. I handed her the bidet attachment as I began adjusting the temperature and flow until she told me I had it right. Inserting the bidet tip she slouched on the bench and closed her eyes and relaxed as the warm water began flowing out of her pussy flushing tonight's remnants out of her.

THE NEXT DAY...

I'm an early riser. I was in the kitchen fixing the best breakfast I knew how when Steph quietly walked in and sat down without me knowing she was there. I turned away from the stove and I was startled seeing her silently looking at me. Before I could say anything Steph softly said:

"You must think I am a slut..."

"WHAT! NO!!! OF COURSE NOT! I KNOW YOU'RE NOT!!!

Why would I ever think that?" I loudly replied, not knowing what else to say...

"You know what I'm talking about..." Steph softly replied.

"I am so mixed up," she said, "so confused..."

I'm disgusted with myself because, because... not only did I let a dog go down on me, I, I let a dog FUCK me...

And while I was drunk, I wasn't that drunk..."

"Steph, I should be apologizing to you for not stopping Cronus from licking you!

We both know when you been drinking how wild and crazy horny you get!

We're both not naïve about what happened. We've come across it countless times while cruising the web for adult movies, we've even seen there are companies that make animal dildos! it is so prevalent on the web with actual movies, pictures, stories and cartoons. And after we watched some of those beastly vids last night, like you said last night it has to be a lot more common than most people think! And it has been on-going for centuries!

And hell, we both have to admit we got curious...

Besides, it's not as if it was another guy fucking you... which I would not ever, ever tolerate...

And at the time, you greatly enjoyed it - multiple times! Hell! I wish I had the ability to knot you to make you climax like you did!" I replied, all the while fervently hoping this conversation wouldn't turn into a disaster...

"It, it didn't bother you?" My gorgeous wife softly asked.

"Sweetheart, the only thing that bothered me, I'm jealous that I don't have the ability fuck you as fast as Cronus did, to knot you myself, or having the ability to ejaculate as much precum and cum as Cronus did or the force of it!" I replied truthfully, startled that I again felt some jealousy.

"Well yes, all that is true..., I couldn't help myself repeatedly climaxing feeling all that...

I've have never been FUCKED like that before! Nor have I ever realized it was possible to be FUCKED like that!" Steph softly replied, then she said,

"I, I don't know if it was the sexy naughtiness of it influenced by the vids we watched last night of those attractive women getting fucked by those dogs and the miniature horse that got me so freaking horny, or the feeling of the absolute primal bestial fucking that Cronus gave to me that made me climax so many times - especially after being knotted with his huge knot rubbing against my G-spot, it all felt so raw and visceral..."

Then to my shock Steph said,

"Cody I have to admit, since Cronus has come to live with us, he almost got lucky catching me unawares, and I don't mean getting a lick in when I'm naked sneaking up on me..."

Twice Cronus was able to catch me unaware and mounted me, and he actually managed to briefly thrust his cock a few times partially into me before I could get away like he did to Travis's girlfriend that night..."

Then Steph added,

"A few days after my high school boyfriend got me drunk and drugged me at the prom after party then tried to rape me, I went to a rape counselor. She taught me that female sexual arousal and orgasms are uncontrollable physical responses that can happen independently of cognitive agreement.

In other words, the body and the mind don't have to cooperate with each other in order for the body to instinctively react or respond to physical sexual stimulus. Quite simply, a woman's body autonomously responds to sex. Our bodies instinctively react! They do so uniquely and often entirely without our conscious permission or intention.

A woman's orgasm is not only an example of an expression of pleasure, but also an example of an involuntary automatic physical response to sexual stimulation whether it is wanted or not! A physiological response to the stimulation of a female's erogenous zones regardless of whether the mind's on board or not. Our female organs and erogenous areas are simply involuntarily reacting to sexual stimulation the way they were physically designed to respond - purely biological behaviors. A woman's control over sexual arousal is no better than our control over the dilation of our pupils or how much we sweat. If alcohol or party drugs are involved, then a woman is even more susceptible to sexual arousal and sexual stimulation.

So yes, like I said, while I was drunk I wasn't that drunk, just enough to relax my inhibitions somewhat, plus I'm at that time of the month when I'm easily aroused and at my horniest! So last night being unable to escape Cronus licking me and making me orgasm because he was holding me down and unable to get away, and then watching those beastly vids I admit got me aroused again, then remembering Cronus's antics trying to lick Travis's many girlfriends and mounting that one girl and actually managing to briefly poke his dick inside her, then acutely remembering the couple of times he had managed to actually get his dick in me and thrust away a few times before I could get away! The combination of all this had me curious, that's why I didn't resist too much..."

I went over to hug my incredible wife long and tight! I said to her,

"Steph, I have to admit, watching Cronus licking then fucking you and the multiple intense orgasms you had - it was out of this world incredibly sexy and erotic as hell! One of the world's most beautiful and sexiest women that I'm incredibly fortunate to be married to - getting her brains fucked out by huge canine cock!"

My incredibly beautiful loving and oh so sexy wife looked at me for a very long moment, then responded by saying,

"Sex with you, my love, is always absolutely fantastic!

I'm extremely fortunate to be married to a very handsome, very intelligent, very gifted, sweet, and considerate man who has been extremely gifted with a huge cock who knows how to expertly wield it!

And after I thought and thought and thought and worried about what happened, what you may have thought about it, I have to admit, it was pretty great, but all I ever wanted was just you, and it will only be just you...

But Don't You Ever Hold Back FUCKING Me!

I will be the one to decide if you are getting too forceful - and I haven't stopped you yet!

I like hard sex! It makes my climaxes even stronger! More passionate!

It spurs me on even more which benefits both YOU and ME!"

What could I say? I again told my amazing wife that I loved her with all my heart forever and ever! That I wouldn't ever do anything to or with her that she wasn't comfortable with, that never would anything happen that might jeopardize what we have together!

THE FOLLOWING MONTHS...

Afterwards, Steph's desire didn't arise to allow Bruno to get lucky again...

In fact she got more stern with him whenever he got intimately nosy! Giving him firm slaps on the muzzle and loudly telling him 'NO' when he did try instead of the light taps she had been given him, yet hard-headed Cronus still persisted! Seemingly more persistent than ever...

Every month we flew to the ranch on a small chartered plane to avoid the fifteen plus hour drive and we always took Cronus with us so he could become acclimated to the ranch and the girls. Katy, Jenny and Josie quickly learned that it was inherently dangerous wearing their micro bikinis when Cronus was around!

Steph and I couldn't help laughing our asses off watching Cronus catching Katy, Jenny and Josie off guard! A couple of times Cronus actually managed to mount them while they were wearing their micro bikini's and humped away! There certainly wasn't much material to prevent Cronus from scoring! Steph and I rolling with laughter so much we couldn't help it!

I think both of us were hoping Cronus would get lucky and we could get to watch! Thankfully the girls all thought it was hilarious too, they even began making a game of it trying to entice Cronus to do something naughty when one of the girls weren't being careful!

It only took Steph and I one year to earn our graduate degrees thanks to our study ethics and not having to worry about working as we were well set financially more than most people thanks to my parents wise investments, the ranch operations, and unfortunately, from the lawsuit settlements and insurance policies due to my parent's tragic untimely deaths.

During our four years of university undergraduate and graduate schooling, Steph and I couldn't believe the county growth that had occurred in just a few years. The newspapers reported the county population had grown thirty-five percent in just one year! This growth was posing a tremendous strain on housing, school capacities, and public infrastructure from police, sheriff deputies, water and wastewater services and treatment capacity, not to mention escalating rents and house prices.

During this time a multitude of developers had begun razing hilltops of all vegetation and building dense cookie cutter housing developments along with the accompanying surge in increased traffic which impacted Steph and I living near a narrow, winding two lane state highway that we had to use to get to town and the university. Plus we heard constant road noise even in the house. And oh the freaking crowds and traffic in town! It got to the point where we even didn't want to get on the road. The quiet historical family ranch located in a remote area of the Rocky Mountains was looking more attractive by the month and we couldn't wait for our permanent move back!

Our realtor kept checking in with us every couple of months to see if we were ready to sell. She had stated with all the rapid growth a severe housing shortage has developed and real estate prices in both housing and land has risen so exponentially that our initial three year investment in our ranchette had already been met in less than one year and we would make a very hefty profit!

We received monthly statements from our investment company which also kept the accounting for the ranch. The ranch statements consistently showed a very hefty profit from the cattle and other agricultural and recreational sales after maintenance, equipment expenses, salaries and benefit packages were accounted for. The profits were then rolled into our investment portfolios with half the ranch profits going into an irrevocable trust for the preservation of the family's historical ranch in perpetuity which paid for all maintenance and taxes. The ranch trust had been generously established by my parents long before their untimely deaths one and half years ago, and the awards from the wrongful death lawsuits and their life insurance policies had greatly increased the portfolios.

We met with the president and vice-president of our investment company to discuss our situation and our plans. They told us that with the ranch profits and the strong investments that my parents had previously made that we could go ahead and move to the ranch at any time, in fact we could have actually been able to have moved to the ranch immediately after our university graduation even if my parents had remained alive because the ranch was so profitable, and with the other investments neither Steph nor I ever had to work or worry about the future.

Then they said the investments funds were doing so well that we should go ahead and establish trusts for our future children and grandchildren for the additional tax breaks we needed. The next day we met again and had six additional trusts established and fully funded, and then Steph and I contacted our realtor and told her to put the ranchette up for sale!

Steph and I also discussed with our investment company that we were thinking of expanding the recreational activities at the ranch but in order to do so we needed to build additional guest cottages. For years the ranch had been conducting some limited outdoor recreational activities with horseback rides and camping during the warmer months and in winter renting snowmobiles and leading tours with back country skiing, along with four cottages for guests. For several years we have been constantly pestered by the county and local Chamber of Commerce's and area recreational organizations to expand what the ranch has to offer due to the high demand for recreation, and our 37,000 acre ranch abutted a national forest and national preserve that provided access to hundreds of thousands of acres of recreational opportunities.

We certainly weren't going to move to the ranch and do nothing! Our investment company advised us that even with six trusts fully funded we could easily pay cash for the construction of twelve additional cottages with no negligible effects on our portfolios! Heck the president of the investment company inquired if he could invest in part in the ranch's operation! We politely declined stating we intended to keep it strictly a family owned operation with no outside investors, plus the family law firm had stated outside investors weren't allowed due to the structure of the ranch's perpetual trust.

Steph and I then had a business meeting with Katy, Jenny and Josie, we all easily agreed to expanding the ranch's recreational activities. The five of us agreed to adding twelve guest cabins and cottages but no more than twenty to be manageable. Within a week of our ranchette going on the market we received multiple offers which led to a bidding war. We were astounded the final cash offer was almost four times more than what we originally purchased the ranchette and seven acres for just a year ago!

We closed in thirty days so during that time it was a mad rush to decide what items to keep, what to sell, and what to get rid of. One day I was going through some remaining boxes of college junk from the condo Travis and I had lived in. When Travis was packing up to move to Europe he had dumped a few boxes off stating for me to keep anything I wanted and throw away or donate the rest. Going thru Travis's boxes inside one box I found an old computer carrying case. I went thru the case to make sure it was empty and found a two terabyte USB drive. I set it aside as I could use it. I would up discarding the rest of the college junk.

Couple of days later I was on my laptop and decided to see if anything was on the USB drive I had found and then reformat it for future use. When I opened the USB directory I saw it had multiple video files on it. I clicked on the first file and I was shocked! I recognized one of Travis's multiple short-term gorgeous girlfriends - NUDE!

Cronus FUCKING her!

Geez! She was screaming, yelling and having multiple orgasms all the while Cronus was pounding away at her!

Then I clicked on the other video files - there were almost two dozen vids of Travis's girlfriends getting their brains fucked out by Cronus's huge cock and being knotted!

The majority of girls seemed pretty drunk or flying high but several were clearly sober!

However one thing that stood out in common is that they all seemed to have immensely enjoyed it because each girl in the vids had climaxed repeatedly!

My mind flashed back to Travis's joking statement to the girls who came over to the condo we shared back at college...

"Be careful as PD is known to get lucky at times and no one yet has objected because he is so well hung! Much bigger than most men except him of course!"

Seemed Travis's joke was not a joke at all...

I told Steph I found something of Travis's that would initially shock then amuse her. Steph was intrigued and I told her she would have to wait until later that night when we went to bed. That night I inserted the flash drive into the USB port on our 100 inch 8K television. Let's just say Steph was truly initially shocked seeing the first video. Then she was speechless when I told her there were nearly two dozen vids on the USB drive, all of Cronus fucking Travis's girlfriends...

We watched a few more videos then to my great surprise Steph wanted Cronus to fuck her again! And this time she wasn't drunk!

Afterwards Steph told me not to expect this to be something regular, just maybe on very infrequent rare occasions when she wanted it real hard and fast - if it ever happens again at all, as she still had some reservations about it, that she much preferred the foreplay and buildup and the emotional attachment that we have together...

We wound up donating all the furniture, dishware and cookware and the televisions as the lodge already was fully furnished. We just kept personal mementos that amounted to just a few small boxes and our clothing. Then off to the ranch to live!

A few months later the construction was completed on the twelve new guest cottages and cabins for a total of sixteen with the four preexisting cottages, the twelve new additions were instantly booked a full year ahead and we still had to turn down reservations! Then Steph had an idea...

Steph threw out the suggestion that Katy, Jenny and Josie move into the lodge with us since we had plenty of spare bedrooms and it was lonely at times with 8,400 square feet, then we could turn the six bedroom bunkhouse into additional quarters for large groups which we constantly had to turn away. The plan was workable because we were not planning on having kids – two!, until several more years, and Katy, Jenny and Josie spent most of their free time up at the lodge anyway with us. We all had our lunch and evening meals together and they often spent the night with us instead of driving the mile back down to the bunkhouse. Without hesitation Katy, Jenny and Josie gleefully accepted the new living arrangement!

Couple of weeks after Katy, Jenny and Josie moved in with us, one evening all four girls wanted to get into the hot tub. Steph came out to the veranda wearing a robe, like they all do due to the cool mountain air. Then I was shocked when Steph shed her robe – she was completely nude!

Katy, Jenny and Josie grinned and whistled as all three openly admired my wife's nude athletic hard-ripped body that is way better than any centerfold or swimsuit model I had ever seen! Katy, Jenny and Josie also shed their robes revealing their own gorgeous fit bodies wearing their miniscule micro bikinis, then everyone climbed in the spacious hot tub and relaxed. A little while later I saw a tiny bikini top floating on the water, quickly joined by two other tops! Then I was shocked to see a tiny micro bikini bottom float to the surface then it was joined by two others! I looked at Steph who was giving me a silly sexy grin, then I dared to look at Katy, Jenny and Josie...

All three were giving me sexy yet silly grins, yet somehow I thought their grins held a malicious undercurrent to the expectant looks upon their faces...

All at once I was suddenly swarmed by four incredibly beautiful nude women! Before I knew it they had yanked my board shorts off!

With their accomplishment, Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie gleefully sat back in their seats, snickering with amusement at me...

Just then I once again began wondering just how serious and how far our proclaimed 'sister wives' were planning to take things...!

In the nearly six years Katy, Jenny and Josie been at the ranch now, all three were still single despite how attractive, smart and personable they were, and I have never seen any of them with a boyfriend, or go out on a date with a guy, and when we all went dancing they just danced with each other, Steph or I and turned down any guy that asked them to dance! It seemed all they wanted to do was spend their free time with Steph and I...

I guess it was Steph getting in the hot tub nude that set the stage for future times in the hot tub because subsequently all four girls did too to my increasing consternation especially when they got intimately close to me or when they have been drinking they frequently began roughhousing with each other – and me! Still I wore my board shorts in the spa with them or at least I tried to because when they started rough housing eventually it would become a game for them to yank my shorts off! And I have to admit, there was no way for me to keep from getting an erection with four beautiful nude women in the spa!

Their rough housing games became ever more boisterous with all four making a game of catching me unawares with my eyes closed then one of the four gliding over and settling into my lap and begin intimately wiggling around and/or pushing a firm generous tittie in my face! Occasionally Cronus, being the expert sneak, did get lucky with his long powerful tongue! Catching either Steph, Katy, Jenny or Josie when they were nude getting in or out of the hot tub or the pool, or when they were wearing their short robes in the lodge with no panties on. Katy, Jenny, Josie laughing when he did surprise them and lightly scolding him, Steph and I giving each other a knowing smile and a wink, well knowing that is how it all started...

And they way Katy, Jenny and Josie occasionally liked to cut loose, Steph and I both believed that it was just a matter of time before he caught one of them in a compromising position they could not get away from and then Cronus would really get lucky!

It wasn't long after all four girls started getting in the hot tub nude with me or were nude in/around the pool that that I found out Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie were actually serious about 'sister wives'...

One evening Steph, Katy, Jenny, Josie and I all had gone out to dinner to a steak house. When we got back to the ranch the girls wanted to get in the hot tub. It had been a long work day in cold weather and even I admit I was feeling stiff. The girls got in the hot tube, nude!, unusually all four were quiet and serious as we sat there soaking in the warmth and letting the jets massage us. It was then Katy, Jenny and Josie finally explained why they all were still single, somewhat..., they were already committed to each other! In fact Jenny and Josie were legally married!

They all have been best friends since elementary school. When they were able to date, each guy they went out with, all they wanted was to get into their pants as soon as possible, even a few times on the first date! This happened all through high school and college. Back when they first entered high school they began to be physically attracted to each other and with each succeeding unsuccessful date with a guy their physical and then emotional attraction to each other strengthened. During their high school senior year they started having group sex with each other, always the three of them together, never just two out of three. Then while at the university they all went to a party, and as what happened to Steph, they got roofied and nearly been raped in a gang-bang. After the near gang-bang rape incident and follow-on counseling, they decided they could be as physically and emotionally satisfied with each other just as well as being with a man!

Katy, Jenny and Josie then admitted they couldn't help being attracted to me during my high school senior year when they had started at the ranch seeing how much I had grown and matured and got along with them and how well I treated them, albeit as older sisters! However neither of them were about to jeopardize their employment by trying to have a relationship with me as they had become extremely close to mom and dad as well as me, and I knew mom and dad considered them part of the family for the missing children they never could have after I was born. And frankly the ranch positions they held with the employment benefits, salaries and biannual bonuses they were receiving were a dream come true. All during this discussion I kept glancing at my wife Steph, who kept smiling and nodded back at me each time I looked at her.

The girls continued explaining that when I started to bring Steph to the ranch and got to know her and they all became great friends they had also become attracted to Steph too, and their attraction to me also grew as well seeing how I treated Steph and how much in love we were with each other! And before long they realized they were in love with Steph and I as well as having been in love with each other for several years now since they started having sex back in high school!

By this time I was looking at Steph every few seconds who still kept smiling at me and squeezing my hand in reassurance and confirmation. The Steph told me the four of them had talked this over multiple of times and she felt the same way about Katy, Jenny and Josie, that they all believed with all their hearts they could make this all work out - if I would be willing and only if I was willing...

I looked at the four them, my incredibly beautiful wife, hell all four were beautiful! And I had to admit to myself, I had become very close to the girls during our many conversations working together at the ranch, having our meals together, doing free-time activities off the ranch when we all could get away, the casual attire and attitudes that gradually increased even more when we all were enjoying the hot tub, their casualness increasing drastically after the three of them moved into the lodge with Steph and me. Seeing Katy, Jenny and Josie in their increasingly relaxed attire when it was just the five of us, then seeing them wearing their micro bikinis and then not bothering at all being topless or nude in the spa or pool. A few times I had even idly wondered if I hadn't met Steph, would I have started a relationship with one of them? And which one? Truthfully admitting to myself I know I would have tried...

I too felt as if we had become one family, the five of us, forged together and brought closer to each other by the untimely deaths of my parents that greatly affected us all. I knew my parents had loved Katy, Jenny and Josie and treated them like the daughters they never had as they did with Steph. My parents deep feelings for Katy, Jenny and Josie expressed in their generous employment terms and benefits that are practically unheard of for a ranch or resort operation unless it was for immediate family members. I couldn't even conceive the thought of any one of them ever wanting leaving the ranch and how distraught I would be if someone did...

Before I knew it I felt resignation suffuse through my mind of acceptance, not ever wanting to hurt any of them, realizing that I too had developed an unspoken love for Katy, Jenny and Josie that was more than just brotherly love for three very slightly older sisters...

However before I consented, all four had to promise this was a permanent arrangement! All four had to acknowledge that Steph would always come first, and we would somehow find a way to make this legal. We already knew it was illegal in the USA. Doing some quick research we learned in the USA a man who is part of a plural marriage is only legally married to one of his multiple wives and is in a committed "spiritual unions" with the others resulting in no legal recognition for non-official "spouses". Despite this there were tens of thousands of people involved in multiple marriages in the USA. Then we found there were a number of countries that still allowed plural marriages to some extent to full legal status.

Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie all assured me that Steph will always be 'first wife' as Katy, Jenny and Josie had already establish a permanent commitment to each other, bound in love after their near-gangbang rape experience, and as I already mentioned Jenny and Josie were already legally married. They even had exchanged rings with each other that finally explained another mystery about them I had wondered about seeing a plain gold band on their wedded fingers! I always thought they just wore them to deter guys from hitting on them! They even explained that at some point in the future they had planned to go to a sperm bank when they decided to have kids but now that was no longer necessary!

A few weeks later the five of us jetted off to the Solomon Islands where plural marriage was fully legalized. We had a group wedding and then a one week honeymoon before we had to rush back to the ranch and our demanding livestock and guests.

After researching beds and mattresses the largest bed we could find was called an Alaskan King Bed, which was nine foot by nine foot, which wasn't going to cut it, especially after it was revealed to me that Katy, Jenny and Josie had been sleeping in the same bed for years!

The three of them had previously just maintained separate bedrooms in the bunkhouse for appearances. We finally found a custom furniture maker that would make us a custom bed that measured twelve feet wide by nine feet in length, and a custom mattress maker that would make a mattress that size. Then we had to have five sets of linens custom made to fit! Luckily the master bedroom was quite expansive even with the vastly oversized bed in it, as was the ensuite master bath!

During the next couple of years we Facetimed with Travis every week or so, and Steph and I went over to visit him twice. About once a year Travis would come for an infrequent visit for a few days. Each time Cronus enthusiastically greeted Travis staying by his side the entire time as Travis showered him with long held pent-up affection he still loved that goofy dog so! When Travis came for a visit Katy, Jenny and Josie would go into separate bedrooms for the nights for the duration of his stay until they got to know him better and we could come up with a plausible explanation!

Three years after Steph and I had permanently moved to the ranch Travis paid us a surprise visit, and he brought his gorgeous Nordic fiancé which was surprising news to us! Of course Cronus, as always, was ecstatic whenever he saw Travis, and Cronus just as enthusiastically greeted his fiancé Lena by forcibly shoving his nose into her crotch almost bowling her over!

Lena giggled and stated, “He’s as bad as Rolf!”

I asked Travis who Rolf was. Travis pulled out his cell phone and opened a picture up and he then said, “This is Rolf!”

It was another Daniff! Just as huge as Cronus!

Travis’s fiancé Lena! Then Travis swiped to another picture, this one of a custom dog collar with the name ‘Rolf’ on it, the name followed by a dash, then the initials PDII! Travis started snickering, I couldn’t help snickering too...

It was during this visit that Travis and Lena found out about our unique living arrangements as the girls had no forewarning to stage the guest bedrooms to look like they were sleeping in them, nor the huge bed in the master suite when we took Lena on a tour of the lodge! After several drinks that evening we sprung it on them...

Travis and Lena took it surprisingly well, a bit astonished, Travis, well I thought I detected a bit of envy! Heck, he was the one who for years who had lead a playboy lifestyle with a constant rotating stable of short-term gorgeous girlfriends, but I was the one who wound up being married not to just one stunningly gorgeous wife but four stunningly gorgeous wives!

Leaving the ranch to go back to Europe, Travis took me aside and said,

“By the way, I accidently left a computer bag in one of the boxes I gave you when I moved to Europe and it had a couple of high capacity USB drives in it that had some files I still need. Did you come across it?"

I decided to have a bit of fun with my best friend... I replied,

"No, but Steph did, especially the one with all the videos...

Steph, Katy, Jenny and Josie got a big kick out of watching them!"

I sure enjoyed seeing Travis dropping his jaw in absolute astonishment!

After Travis regained his composure, he turned the tables on me by saying,

Well Rolf didn't get his nickname PDII too just because of sentimentality, Lena quite enjoys all of Rolf's attention...!

Jenny is a pretty exceptional photographer and took some outdoor boudoir photos of the girls to surprise me with that were hung on our bedroom wall! Unfortunately due to image search capabilities I have had to occlude some facial features and backgrounds to prevent accurate identifications as I did with Lena's photo.

'First Wife' Steph!

JENNY!

KATY!

END NOTES

Okay readers, time to dissect this story. The following is a brief summary of information from research articles and from medical, mental health and drug websites. Any medical, mental, social, alcohol or drug effects mentioned in the story are based on scientific research.

CONSCIOUS and SUBCONCIOUS LARGE PENIS ATTRACTION - Numerous research studies over the years show women have a conscious and subconscious attraction to large penises. Researchers theorize that this is a natural effect of human instincts, emotions, evolution and survival, and that this trait is engrained into the female psyche. To prove this hypothesis some research studies have used computer generated images of nude men of various heights, builds, and penis sizes but not in other qualities like facial attractiveness and hair to make the subject as asexual as possible to gauge women's responses. Other studies have women reading or listening to literature with characters with, small, average and large penises and gauging their physiological responses.

These studies concluded penis size along with body shape is influential in determining attraction. Women's apparent interest in penis size explains why human males have penises that are larger in proportion to body size than the penises of other animals.

The hypothesis is that since penises would have been readily visible for much of human evolution, prehistoric women would have selected for larger penises through sizing in addition to being associated with more orgasms, and this trait is still engrained by evolution into today's female psyche subconsciousness. Everyday examples of this evolutionary remnant:

being at the beach or at the swimming pool and observing women surreptitiously checking out a guy's 'package', or women checking a male model advertising close-fitting underwear. It is naturally instinctive for women to do this upon seeing an attractive man, or a man with a much larger than normal bulge in his swimwear or underwear.

This evolutionary large penis size preference and associated primal sexual excitation trait, along with sexual inclinations, proclivities, thoughts, urges and impulses are part of our female heritage and genes, deeply embedded within our brainstem and limbic brain, often termed our "reptilian brain."

Both these brain structures are the oldest and most primitive parts of our brains and are largely unchanged by evolution – and they control our most base primal urges, including sexual arousal. Since early humans didn't wear much clothing, male penises were obvious to women. Women chose their mates based on their physical size and the size of their genitalia. Thus sexual competition was and still is a key evolutionary driver via natural selection. These evolutionary decisions influenced the promulgation of bigger penises in the human species via natural selection. Longer penises evolved to deposit semen in the deepest parts of the vagina to promote more effective sperm retention.

Other studies indicated that evolutionary preference for a larger penis might arise because penis size is associated with higher rates of orgasms, thereby creating deeper bonds and enhancing reproductive success.

When compared to other primates and other species not of the primate family, humans by far have the longest penises relative to body size. A wide penis puts more pressure on the vestibular bulbs situated on either side of the vaginal opening, which gives a pleasurable feeling of fullness at the vaginal opening. A wide penis also creates more tension on the labia, which, in turn, causes more tugging and movement at the hood covering the clitoris. This adds stimulation to the clitoris in addition to the surrounding tissues.

Women who use or on occasion use psychoactive sex enhancing drugs, these drugs synergistically enhance sexual arousal as well as their drug-altered perceptions of an over-sized penis. Women are even more affected when these penises began achieving erections, women then are substantially greatly affected feeling these oversized erect penises touching and rubbing against their bodies while dancing, evoking primal sensations of extreme masculinity and power – a natural autonomic sexual reaction still ingrained within the female body from their earlier primitive selves. Subconsciously their thoughts are attaching themselves to the supersized penis a man possesses and therefore its inherent ability to give pleasure which stimulates their primal overt base sexual urges and raw sexual desires. This sexual reaction is called a 'supernormal stimulus' which is defined as 'an exaggerated response to a stimulus to which there is an existing response tendency, or any stimulus that elicits a response more strongly than the stimulus for which it evolved'.

PORN MOVIE INDUSTRY EXAGGERATES ACTOR'S PENIS SIZES - Research has determined that the average size of a male porn star is seven inches in length and close to five and a half up to six inches in girth (two inches in width). It is the rare actor that has a penis length greater than seven inches. Those profiled having much larger penises were mostly revealed to having fake prosthesis attached, to appear thicker or longer or both.

The average erection measures 5.15 to 5.3 inches, more toward the lower end of this range. The average circumference, or girth, of a resting penis is 3.7 inches (9.31 cm); for an erect penis, it's 4.6 inches (11.66 cm). A further breakdown is: Around 6% of men (or 5 out of 100 men) have a penis measuring between 6.25' and 7", 2.27% of men have a penis between 7.25" and 8", 0.7% of men have a penis measuring 9", 0.1% of men have a penis larger than 9".

AUTONOMOUS SEXUAL RESPONSE - In neurophysiological terms, bodily functions such as sexual responses are involuntary reflex events in response to a stimulus, the same reflex-driven system that underlies heart rate, digestion, and perspiration. Sexual arousal is housed in the autonomic nervous system. Sexual organs are designed to react to stimulation in particular ways - and that stimulation is meant to induce pleasure. The individual organs are not designed to differentiate between types of touch and the response is an automatic reflex. With alcohol intoxication or an alcohol/drug combination, this greatly enhances the sexual stimulation and sexual sensitivities a woman feels, provoking her body's autonomic sexual reflex to actively participate having sex.

If a woman is extremely intoxicated and/or under the influence of drugs like Ecstasy or LSD, in most cases she will not be able to prevent an orgasm from occurring due to the drugs greatly heightening arousal and the sexual and sensual effects the drugs also greatly increase, usually with a woman experiencing several intense orgasms.

Alcohol intoxication and over-indulgence of psychoactive sex enhancing drugs causes a woman's higher brain functions to be repressed, which allows their raw primal sexual urges and impulses to be fully unleashed - subsequently dominating their actions. If a woman has a naturally high libido, her sexually responses will be drastically escalated.

The majority of women in their prime sexual years, when subjected to intense physical sexual stimulation are unable to suppress instinctive arousal, nor able to suppress the subsequent autonomous orgasm that usually occurs, even if the cause of the sexual stimulation is by force. Unwanted arousal and orgasms during rape are examples of an involuntary physical response due to the autonomous sexual response. A survey of available research indicates over a quarter of rape victims are induced into climaxing and this percentage is believed to be actually higher. In rape counseling sessions, this is usually the most devastating subject to address with the victim, rape trauma syndrome, to convince her it was an involuntary physiological response in which she had absolutely no mental or bodily control over.

FEMALE BISEXUALITY - Humans have had to adapt to a wide variety of ecological niches and we have done so with remarkable success. This is in part due to women's sexual plasticity, which allows women to calibrate their sexual behavior to fit their environment. Same-sex and bisexual desire in women are two very visible products of our innate variability. Extensive research over several decades has well documented that female bi-sexuality is definitively considered by the scientific and medical community as the norm.

Female bisexuality is as natural a sexual expression in women as is heterosexual behavior. Dominant bisexual genetic traits start emerging in the teenage years, coinciding with the beginning surge of our sexual hormones. Bisexual tendencies are compounded and enhanced by several factors: societal, lifestyle, biological, and environment.

In regard to female sexuality, women are more fluid in their relationships with other women as we crave friendship, affection, and beauty. They are more open with each other, more comfortable with their nude bodies around each other, as well as being nurturing creatures. This makes women easier to approach to each other, and for women, it is more socially acceptable to be openly bisexual.

Research has shown that for most women possessing a high sex drive, there is an association with increased sexual attraction to women. Women have the capacity to fall in love with each other, which certainly removes obstacles that may stand in the way of letting bisexual feelings developing.

In human evolutionary history, female bisexuality has been positively selected or given preference over heterosexuality. It is so common because it serves a function – the fact that men love it is a clue.

To apply a modern analogy, most men are massively aroused by girl-girl sex as are most women, as the enormous popularity of lesbian porn attests, as does marketing surveys as to what type of porn women buy.

Bisexual women are more orgasmic, fantasize more about sex, and are more open to sexual experimentation. Usually bisexual women tend to be Type A/B personalities, more energetic and have high metabolisms. Compared to their heterosexual counterparts, bisexual wives have more stable, robust marriages, with marital sex that is more adventuresome and imaginative. This is because male infidelity is less of an issue because of the wild imaginative sex that a bisexual wife brings into the marriage!

THE EFFECT OF ALCOHOL UPON WOMEN'S AROUSAL – Under moderate intoxication (0.8%) women can control their arousal. However, while women who are moderately intoxicated are able to successfully control their arousal levels as effectively as sober women, women that are highly intoxicated (10%) cannot do so. With this increase of blood alcohol content, unlike men, there is no alcohol-induced diminution in genital arousal; women do not possess an effective capability to control their arousal response at higher blood alcohol levels.

For women, alcohol makes a woman feel more relaxed and in turn, be more sexual. Alcohol is a social and sexual “disinhibitor” because it increases sexual arousal and desire due to alcohol greatly stimulating the production of testosterone and estradiol. Testosterone controls in part the strength of libido in women and this causes an increased interest in sex.

Moreover, alcohol lowers sexual inhibitions, and with enough alcohol consumption, lowers it to the point that very little or no discretion is used when approaching or choosing sexual partners. Extreme alcohol intoxication reduces and can completely eliminate a woman's self-awareness – an alcohol blackout. With extreme alcohol intoxication or an alcohol/drug combination, most women the next day cannot recall their rape, nor recollect the events that happened during the last few hours leading up to their rape.

The effects of alcohol and drugs reacting with each other is termed “synergistic”, an enhancing effect. Most commonly used in the clubbing/dance scene are drugs like Mephedrone, Ecstasy, LSD, or the Flunitrazepam class of drugs – otherwise known as roofies. Along with alcohol, these drugs are commonly known and used as date rape drugs.

ECSTASY - Known as: E or MDMA (or in America and Australia as X or XTC). Ecstasy is usually sold in the form of a tablet, or powder in a capsule, and can be obtained in a liquid form. It is a psychoactive/psychotropic disinhibitor drug that has both stimulant and hallucinogenic properties. Imparts an altered state of consciousness and while under the influence changes the way a person feels and thinks. Ecstasy causes the brain to release its 'feel good' chemicals dopamine and serotonin. It eliminates anxiety and causes extreme relaxation. It also increases a person's susceptibility to peer influence.

Sound and lights are enhanced along with the stimulation of a high energy level and euphoria, the reason for E's popularity with clubbers, along with a person's enjoyment of being touched while under the influence of Ecstasy because the experience is magnified.

Ecstasy greatly increases female arousal and libido with an increased sensitivity of touch, greatly reduces one's inhibitions, and prolongs sexual endurance. In women it reduces resistance, promotes sexual disinhibition and enhances receptivity to being sexual and enhances the sensual aspects of sex.

Ecstasy profoundly increases female lubrication, desire, satisfaction and orgasms are greatly intensified and prolonged.

Because Ecstasy is a disinhibitor it has been linked to causing people to act against their considered rational judgment by engaging in regrettable sexual encounters and also to rapes in which drugs are used as weapons.

Oddly while Ecstasy has a profound sexual arousal and enhanced libido effects upon women, women experiencing more and stronger hallucinations and a more intense euphoric drug high than men, with the majority of men it has the opposite effect and tends to inhibit erections.

PARANORMAL ROMANCE IN NOVELS AND MOVIES - One of the interesting things that sex researchers around the world have noted, as indeed fans of romance fiction and women's erotica literature have realized, during the last few decades, romance fiction has evolved as much as other genres.

Normative heroes and heroines and the accompanying sex between them, have been joined by sexual relations with gods, goddesses, werewolves, vampires, shape shifters, unicorns, centaurs, satyrs, dragons and aliens to name but a few. Although these new protagonists function under the same laws as more normative characters, it is plainly obvious that this additional trait seems to belong dominantly to paranormal romance fiction - the bestiality genre.

In folklore and literature, bestiality is often romanticized seduction and coitus by a large, virile beast of an ultimately not unwilling human female! The animal may represent the power of free unrestrained and totally intense sexuality being imparted to the woman and the woman being set free in her own unrestrained sexuality to revel in the ultra-taboo, bestial wildness of raw primal sex! All these different protagonists symbolically represent powerful hyper-potent male creatures having extremely intense passionate ravenous sex with human females!

By drawing attention to women having consensual, or initially not so consensual, sexual relations with another species, it is seen by sociologists as an empowering mode of modern sexuality for female literary characters as well as the female reader! To a lesser extent, newer science fiction genre during the last thirty-five years has contributed as well with aliens, creatures, and monsters ravishing women in novels, graphic comics, and movies.

Hence, romance fantasy and women's erotica novels have long been creating another in-road for bestiality by planting the seeds of curiosity, fantasy, and desire in female readers, and it is becoming a mainstream social norm as exhibited by the rapidly increasing sexual fantasy genre geared toward women readers involving various creatures and animals.

For years, romance fiction and women's erotica literature by far has made up the largest share of genre fiction on the market, allowing women to freely explore their hidden sexual desires and fantasies without risk of physical harm or social rejection, allowing them to be more creative in their own sexual lives. Fantasies are an essential part of our sexual repertoire and is associated with a healthy, happy sex life.

The ability to fantasize, to daydream, to explore internal worlds of imagination is a valuable, even critical component of the human mind. It reflects our ability to manipulate thoughts, ideas, perceptions and reality, all within the private confines of our own minds. Sexual fantasies are inherent extensions of our capacity for creativity, the very imaginal creativity that is present in the worlds of artists, painters and composers.

Sexual fantasizing can be healthy, particularly for a reasonably healthy couple that are open to each other's fantasies and even fetishes who use their increased excitement to move toward rather than away from the partner.

The content of these fiction books, movies and adult comics influence the thoughts and perceptions of millions of readers and viewers around the world, making it into a very powerful social medium, therefore influencing the perceptions that readers and viewers have about social constructs and relationship standards and expectations. It has been well researched and documented that explicit sexual writing in this genre of books including graphic comics and movies which include bestial or other-worldly creature content, subconsciously lead women to lose their own sexual inhibitions and be willing to explore new possibilities in their sex life!

A woman's innate character is to seek what is forbidden and challenging. Movies and novels with fantasy themes including fantasy sexual themes stimulate the creation of fantasy thoughts, which is further compounded in this already formed female mindset.

MODERN TECHNOLOGY AND SOCIETY - Modern current technology and societal changes has contributed to a dramatic societal change during the past century. Women are liberated and more accepting of sexual open-mindedness, sense of sexual adventure, sexual confidence, and sexual variation among many others.

Since the advent of the Internet it has provided an additional and significantly larger environment for individuals to discuss all sorts of activities, including sexual behaviors. The Internet accommodates a huge and wide assortment of pornographic materials oriented toward an individual's sexual needs. In this regard, the Internet has made a fundamental contribution by connecting people who share certain ways of understanding these practices, structured around a new expression of identity, precisely at a time when sexuality has become one of the core defining elements in individual identity. And it is not constrained to just the Internet as exemplified in the rise in furry fandom costumes, furry conventions, comics and videos. Furries agree that they share an interest in fictional anthropomorphic animal characters that have human characteristics and personalities and/or mythological or imaginary creatures that possess human and/or superhuman capabilities. Corroborating this, studies have documented that women gain sexual gratification from inserting different styles of dildos. This may explain the large worldwide market for replica dog and other anthropomorphic dildos.

WOMEN'S AROUSAL WATCHING PORNOGRAPHY - While social constructs, stereotypes and pressures have certainly played a role in keeping women from being comfortable with porn in the past, the impact of those factors are diminishing over time. This is consistent with recent polls of women which showed millennials watched the most porn: 57 percent of respondents who enjoyed porn solo were aged 18-24. Among younger women, there's less and less concern for such constructs, and more openness to erotic material and who are more comfortable with their own sexuality.

For the past four decades, numerous studies have been conducted on women's arousal watching pornography. It was determined women tend to have more erotic plasticity than men — that is, they're turned on by a wider variety of things.

For example, while men tend to show physiological arousal only in response to erotic films depicting their stated sexual orientation, studies utilizing thermographs and plethysmographs—a device that sits inside the vagina and measures genital blood flow, revealed that straight women show similar physiological arousal patterns when watching clips from gay-male, lesbian, and straight pornography – including watching animal mating.

The great majority of women who have participated in sex surveys reported watching porn as a “fantasy escape” and it has helped them relieve stress. For many women, same-sex porn provides an opportunity to imagine what it would be like to be with another woman, even if they consider themselves strictly heterosexual.

PSYCHICAL BESTIALITY – is the practice which yields erotic gratification or sexual stimulation as a result of behavior in which animals figure, but in which there is no direct physical sexual contact between the human and the beast. This would include, for example, sexual stimulation, sometimes to orgasm, as a result of watching animals copulate with one another – a practice to which has been given the formidable nomenclature “mixoscopic zoophilia”. Sexual stimulation is derived by watching exhibitions of bestiality, masturbation fantasies of animal-human or animal-animal sex relations, day-dreaming to orgasm, or excitation with bestiality fantasies. Bestiality themes in books, comics, art works, photographs or videos provide an erotic stimulus. Erotic dreams with bestiality being the subject of the dream and dreams of humans being raped by beasts induce erotic stimulation and nocturnal emissions.

WOMEN'S AROUSAL VIEWING SEXUAL IMAGES AND READING LITERATURE DEPICTING BESTIALITY

As noted in the section above, numerous studies show women exhibit physiological arousal watching or reading pornography. Inherent biological impulses spontaneously bubble up despite the sexual subject they may be viewing or reading.

What turns women on is different to what women wish turned them on or how they politically or socially feel about it; women have a natural arousal response built-in despite the sexual subject.

Sex studies and surveys have repeatedly confirmed one unusual fact – bestiality is the most common uncommon turn-on. It is believed that innately recognized sexual features such as an erect penis, even out of their usual human context, stimulate women.

Erotic imagination, sexual curiosity, and sexual arousal commonly overrides the natural disgust response, and researchers have found that this allows women to willingly engage in behaviors that they might normally find repugnant.

One-half of a couple may induce the other to watch or read pornography depicting women having sex with an animal. The female half of the couple may acquiesce due to curiosity or be drawn into it by the other partner who encourages it as an entertaining novelty. This in part may interest a woman to satisfy that curiosity.

Repeatedly watching videos or reading stories of this nature may desensitize the woman of this particular sexual act or they may become more tolerant of the act. Eventually it may raise her tolerance to the activities depicted so she may engage in them, either willingly to some extent or with some degree of coercion to bend or break what amounts to a misbegotten social taboo.

Again, part of this may be a curiosity factor to find out for herself the pleasure a woman exhibits in this sexual act in videos and stories is actually factual. Some researchers attribute it to the embodiment of that primal animal urge to be fucked so thoroughly by such raw animalistic power that it unleashes a woman's own deep-seated primal sexual desires and responses that gets them aroused. It's the nature of the human psyche to find the taboo thrilling, even erotic.

This outdated socially taboo erotic act may influence the wild, erotic nature that is innate to most women's subconsciousness and consciousness. A woman's wild erotic nature may emerge in animal fantasies, which enables a woman to revel in the ultra-taboo, bestial wildness of the fully unrestrained primal sexual act itself.

BESTIALITY - Existed as a rather widespread practice in all the nations of antiquity of which we have adequate records. Where it is not specifically mentioned, it may be legitimately inferred on the basis of the over-all archeological evidence. In ancient Egypt, the animal aspects of the gods insured that bestiality would be practiced both for religious and magical purposes. The representation of the Egyptian gods as beings of part-human forms was linked - a further impetus to bestiality - to the belief that living animals partook of the divinity of the gods and goddesses whose forms they shared.

This leads us to the realm of Greek and Roman mythology which is considered by scholars to provide the best evidence for the thesis that the incidence of bestiality among the ancient Greeks and Romans was high, and that the attitude toward this form of sexual expression was of wide-spread acceptance. Greek and Roman myths contain many stories of gods who assumed the shape of animals in order to mate with mortals.

The satyr, a mythical being, half-goat, half-man, was noted for his virility and lasciviousness, and who exercised it freely with humans, nymphs, and other creatures. Bestial intercourse related by the historians and mythologists: among them, the mating of Semiramis, legendary foundress of Babylon, with a stallion. From the union of Pasiphae and the bull was born the Minotaur, and the mythologists credited other bestial unions with bringing them into the world. Satyrs, Centaurs, and other strange and monstrous creatures. Author Robert Burton (Anatomy of Melancholy) adds to the list, saying that "women are inflamed with mad passions for beasts, hence Minotaur's, Centaurs, Unicorns, Silvanuses, Sphynxes, etc.

Of the three great ancient civilizations here dealt with, the Romans were the most lavish and factual in its recording of both public and private bestiality. In the case of the Sybarites, the Greek city of Sybaris, a whole population was given to it, noted for their sodomies and copulations with canines (as were the Moors in later times). On other occasions, bestiality was a spectator sport, as in the case of the exhibitions staged at the Roman Games; sometimes it was the voluptuous indulgence of noble Roman ladies; and sometimes even emperors were involved. The Roman emperor Nero, disguised as a wild beast, once invaded the arena at the Games to assault members of both sexes, a performance he concluded by casting off his costume and publicly falling into the embrace of Doryphores, his male lover.

For the Roman Games, male animals of all sorts were trained from the earliest possible age to copulate with and even forcibly rape girls and women. Bulls, giraffes, leopards, cheetahs, wild boars, zebras, stallions, donkeys, huge dogs, various kinds of apes, and other animals were taught to perform these functions. Some of the more trainable and enthusiastic ones were further tutored to commit sodomy on human males and females. Especially popular at the Games were representations of scenes from the sexual lives of the gods, a particular favorite being Pasiphae and the Bull.

From the ancient world up through our own time, in all countries – though more frequently in some than in others – bestiality was practiced, thought about, dreamed of, and emerged as myth, fairy tales, folklore, literature, painting, and sculpture. In modern times, the practice of bestiality has been reported with a greater thoroughness than was the case in the ancient world, and this despite the fact that in the West at least the practitioners have grown considerably more furtive.

Certainly, the past two hundred years have nothing to compare with the spectacular bestiality events of the ancient Roman Games, a phenomenon unique in all of history. In more recent times, fiction and folklore have provided most of the imaginary accounts of bestial intercourse, again reflecting the “real world” cravings and behavior of mankind. It is, of course, true that mythology fiction and folklore have provided most of the imaginary accounts of bestial intercourse, again reflecting the “real world” cravings and behavior of mankind.

This then leads us to a summation of the most recent studies of zoophilia since 1985. This summation indicates reported sexual fantasies having sex with animals (76 % males and 45% females) and watching other humans have sex with animals (35% males and 40% females).

The summation of studies conducted since 1985 found that in any general demographic population, overall rates of persons engaging in bestiality range up to 55 percent, with 37 percent of women in any general population having engaged in bestiality. What this means is 1 in 8 women have interacted sexually with an animal. So the gossip or outlandish rumor overheard at a party or amongst friends has a great chance of being true, more so, unknowingly, one or more of your friends may have engaged in sex with an animal!

Having fantasies about things we would never endorse or choose to do in reality, are not necessarily signs of psychological disturbance. As far as people being considered deviant having sexual relations with an animal, recent research indicates the majority of people engaging in sex with animals do not suffer from a clinically psychological significant extent, and their social and occupational life etc. is not necessarily impaired. The majority of men (67%) and women (82%) placed themselves on a satisfaction scale anywhere from “extremely happy” to at least “generally satisfied/pleased”.

Additionally, studies have found that people who participate in bestiality, almost 50% were college graduates or above, 16% work in computer-related fields, 11% are artists, about 27% are students and about 7% work in animal-related fields, 9% work in animal-related fields and 18 % in the medical field. Bestiality is a sexual activity practiced by all sorts of demographic groups.

Still, there is a strong influence of old religious and outdated moral values/codes, condemning any kind of sexual contact with animals. Therefore mentioning bestiality frequently evokes rather emotional and extreme reactions. Even when scholarly research in this area is published, authors are faced, depending on the results, with criticism, and not just from their peers.

With the zoophilia or bestiality rate increasing in today’s modern digitally connected age, researchers argue that zoophilia could be considered as an alternative sexual orientation. Zoo sexuality needs to be understood within the context of recognizing new emerging sexual identities that are no longer restricted by a patriarchal system centered on reproduction.

MINIATURE HORSES, MINIATURE DONKEYS, AND ARABIAN HORSES

Falabella Miniature Horses are the smallest of the miniature horse breeds having an erect penis length on average of twelve inches in length with a penile girth of five to six inches (Approx. 1.5 inches wide to 2.0 inches wide)

Miniature Donkeys on average have an erect penis length of fourteen to sixteen inches with penile girths of five to seven inches (approx. 2.0 inches wide to 2.25 inches wide).

Arabian Horses are the smallest of the large breeds of horses with an erect penis length of fourteen to eighteen inches with penile girths of five to seven inches (approx. 2.0 inches wide to 2.25 inches wide), so a woman can accept insertion but has to be mindful controlling the thrusting and how much is going in.
