BEASTIALITY STORIES

It all started with a little dare game, but my brother and cousin still watched in amazement, as I sucked the dog.

What is done here, somehow, and at some point, we end up paying for. If not the same coin, as they say, perhaps with the same irony. Like one of those jokes we tell about others, and suddenly the same thing happens to us.

A week had passed since our last visit to my grandfather's farm, and I was already missing our spot under the trees. After being caught by our cousin, resulting in a delicious combination of pleasure and new discoveries, my brother and I spent that week with our horniness at its peak. I don't think we've ever had sex so much. Even during the day, when the opportunity arose.

When my mother asked me if I wanted to go with her to the hairdresser, that was my chance, and after some excuse, I just waited for the sound of the car leaving the garage. And when she finally left, I was already taking off my clothes, on top of my brother.

— We could do things differently today! — I threw my shirt aside, putting my hand in his shorts in search of his cock. — And I think I know the perfect place!

After taking off all my clothes, and having done the same with my brother, he already had a hard-on. But that day I wanted to fuck in a special place. We had already done it on our father's office desk, and I think we ended up leaving evidence of our crime there, like a drop of cum. But my fantasy was a special place. And now that the opportunity arose, there was no way to waste it.

Already feeling the excitement that invaded me, I went out the door, and he came after me. Walking around the house naked was one of the pleasures of being alone with my brother, with the house to ourselves. But my destination that day was my parents' room. Having sex in their bed was what I had been planning for a long time, and I jumped up and lay down with my legs open, all ready.

— Oh, daddy! I'm all wet just for you! — I teased him, who looked at me with his dick pointing at me.

— Let me see if it really is! — he put his finger in my pussy, making me moan.

— Oh, daddy! I'm all wet just for you! — again I teased him, who looked at me with his dick — If you want to fuck me, you'll have to call me mommy! — I whispered in his ear, grabbing his cock.

— This is not fair! — he protested.

— C'mon!

— I can't believe you're all wet for your little boy, mom! — he got between my legs, licking his finger.

— Fuck me, daddy! — and I held onto him, felling his cock inside me. — I guess you always wanted to fuck me and lick me all over!

— I always wanted to put it in your ass, mom! — he sighed breathlessly. — And also give a little bite to your nipple, just to drive you crazy!

While he fucked me, my brother whispered all kinds of dirty things, as if he were really fucking our mother. And I was surprised to find that he actually seemed to be sincere, not just messing with me, getting into the spirit of the joke. In turn, I let all my pent-up desire to taste my father's big cock come out, which of course I never had the courage to say.

— Oh, daddy! You're making me cum! — I moaned louder, feeling my brother's cock all the way inside me.

— I'm almost cumming too, mom! — he kept thrusting.

—Cum in my mouth, daddy! — I made a little bitch voice, teasing him.

Until, in a quick gesture, he took his cock out of me and, on his knees in front of me, began to jerk off. And before I could even take it in my mouth, with a loud moan he released that jet of cum on my face, smearing me all over with his cum, which ran down my face, making me stretch my tongue around my mouth to lick what I could.

— Next time, I want it inside! Who knows, maybe I'll end up getting pregnant with you, dad! — and he smiled at me.

Afterwards, we went to the bathroom and under the shower, while I felt his cock rubbing against my ass, my brother kissed me with his hands all over my body. And it didn't take long for his cock get stiff and once again he was fucking me under the warm water that was falling. As he thrust into my ass, he held me against the tile, thrusting one after another, until he finally came inside me.

In the kitchen, while we were making a snack, sitting at the table facing each other, we looked more like a couple than like brothers in suits. More than fucking freely, being able to walk around the house completely naked was what made me horny. Sitting next to him, watching TV, at the same time that I already wanted his cock hard again, giving him a handjob, was an incredible feeling of freedom.

And as soon as his cock was pointing towards me again, I knelt down in front of him and fell on my face, sucking my brother like a bitch, wanting this time what I was missing. Then, surprised by the hot jet of his cum in my throat, I drank all of it, satisfying the desire to be able to suck him, as if there were two naked children there in the living room.

And finally, lying on my parents' expensive fur rug, I opened my legs and called him to come and put his face in me and this time penetrate me with his tongue, licking all the honey that dripped from me, making me moan deliciously while holding his head.

At that moment, the footsteps on the other side of the door, and the sound of keys were what woke us up with a fright, making us get up and run to the room. And as soon as the noise of the lock filled the house, as the doorknob was turned, there was my mother back, without even knowing what had happened there on her carpet a minute ago.

After that week, Saturday arrived and we woke up early to spend the weekend at our grandfather's farm, as always. The only difference was that my brother and I were no longer alone under the trees. My cousin soon came to join us, in a complicity that suddenly seemed already established between us. But this time I was in for a surprise.

Since the other week I had convinced the two of them to do my bidding, I couldn't escape their revenge when they both challenged me. And since I was a somewhat stubborn girl, I ended up accepting, perhaps more so as not to give in to either of them.

In addition to some animals he raised, my grandfather had a Labrador with orange fur on the farm called Spark.

Every now and then coming to stay with us under the trees, Spark suddenly seemed to have his senses aroused, since I had taken off my panties. And while my brother fucked me with his finger, I jerked him off. But Ben came and made that challenge, running his hand through the puppy's fur.

— I wanted to see if you have the courage to suck the dog! — he smiled with that sparkle in his eyes.

Beside us, as if sniffing the smell of sex, whether it was on my brother's dick or my exposed pussy, Spark wagged his tail at us. And, to my surprise, my brother seemed to have the same expectation; as if watching your sister suck a dog was something more exciting than being sucked himself.

And of course I still wanted to say no, but the temptation to prove him wrong was greater, and I ended up accepting the bet. My cousin then made the dog stand up, and it didn't take much to get him excited. As soon as I grabbed his cock, that little head of intense red started to come out, and as he wagged his tail, his cock grew even more, coming all the way out.

As I bent down and stuck out my tongue, just to taste it, the strange taste filled my mouth, but in one movement of the animal I had already swallowed it. And when I started sucking it, the animal got so excited and I got horny, sliding my tongue along its entire length, until I took it in again and felt it in my throat.

I then wiped my lips with the back of my hand and when I looked, they both had hard-ons, just like Spark, I was kind of in disbelief. But my satisfaction at their faces didn't last long, because they both suddenly seemed to have had the same idea and looked at me in a challenging way, to see if I still had enough courage.

Funny, that never occurred to me, and at the time I didn't know that even among couples it could be more common than I imagined. But I still wasn't willing to give in to the two of them, and I ended up accepting that challenge. And, like the other time, it didn't even take much, with Spark already having a hard-on, and I was already out of lime anyway.

So, when I got on all fours and pulled up my skirt, exposing my already wet pussy, the dog put his cold nose to it and sniffed it, giving me goosebumps. Then he started licking me, making me sigh with his tongue on my clit. But as soon as he mounted me, and I felt his weight resting on my back, it was like a shock to suddenly be penetrated.

The animal still stuck it in a couple of times, until it finally hit the spot. And when he started to fuck me I lost my breath, feeling his cock reach the bottom of my pussy with each thrust he gave. Until little by little I got the hang of how he put it in and I started to like it, putting my hand between my legs and feeling my pussy wet.

While I was jerking off, being fucked by Spark, I moaned and I think I had already had two orgasms, wanting it not to stop. But my brother, who seemed as excited as I was, couldn't contain himself any longer and, with his dick in my face, offered it to me to suck, and I didn't think twice.

I was now being fucked from both sides, from behind by Spark, and from the front by my brother. At the same time, Ben moved to the side to touch my clit, making me cum again. And speaking of which, at the same time the dog came inside me, I felt my mouth full of my brother's cum, who continued thrusting, sighing and moaning, until his cock was all soft in my mouth.

Then he fell to his knees in front of me and came to kiss me, while Spark licked the rest of his cum that was dripping from my pussy. With that look of admiration, my cousin smiled at me and then we shared a three-way kiss, with him jerking off my brother and fucking me with his finger at the same time. That night, in his room, we continued to fuck each other, and I still wanting to taste the dog's cock. While my cousin fucked me, I grabbed my brother's ass, who fucked him from behind, and he kissed me, then turned around to kiss my brother. Then the two of them reversed and I watched everything, with two fingers stuck in my pussy. In the end, I turned around and we did a sixty-nine. And while my brother came in my mouth, I got really horny watching my cousin fill his ass with cum. Then, we went to sleep cuddled together, and I was already anxious for the next day.
