BEASTIALITY STORIES

Looking at my daughter's cell phone, I discovered something I shouldn't have, but it made me hard right away...

As a father, I know that children, at some point in their lives, will have their own experiences. Some you will end up discovering, hopefully by themselves, and others will be lost in unspoken secrets that no father will ever know. And my daughter Jenny was no different from most girls her age. After all, at eighteen, as soon as she started going out with her friends, I had already lost that place I had when she was little and would come sit on my lap to tell me some little girl's secret.

I think that, as the father of a girl, I would soon start to learn things that I had never imagined before. Like, for example, looking, even quickly, at her cell phone. I know I shouldn't do that, but I confess that I couldn't resist. And it didn't take more than a few minutes, looking at the messages she exchanged with a friend, to discover that there was something there that I doubt she would ever tell me. But it was between the recorded videos that things got really serious.

In addition to some harmless videos, mostly conversations and jokes between the two, I soon come across a video where the two girls kiss passionately. Until the videos recorded at her friend's house appear. The two appear, almost always, in a girl's room, at times with a long-haired orange Labrador sitting next to them.

At one point, in the middle of jokes, the two are surprised by the dog, who, excited, starts to rub against them, revealing his little reddish cock. Jenny then starts to focus the camera very close to the animal, and can't resist touching the animal's dick.

The two laugh at the dog's erection and, after whispering in her friend's ear, my daughter leaves the cell phone filming the scene, while she continues to masturbate him. Until she turns to her friend smiling and, bending down between the animal's paws, opens her mouth and sticks out her tongue, touching the little head. The two laugh again and, in a second attempt, she starts to suck the animal's dick.

I watched the scene and was surprised by what girls do when there are no adults around. My daughter then looks at her friend and, as in a dare game, says the other to do the same. Her friend switches places with her and now she holds the dog's dick, and then starts to suck it too. Jenny then takes her cell phone and films her friend up close with her tongue out, licking her little animal, and then opens her mouth again and swallows the little red head.

Then, the two exchange giggles and my daughter, not satisfied, pulls down her shorts and now it is the dog who licks her pussy. The other decides to do the same and the dog then takes turns, licking one, then the other. As if his senses were heightened by the taste and aroma of their sex, the animal still has the head of his cock exposed and, judging by the expressions on their faces, the game seems very exciting.

They sigh and, turning to each other, start kissing and laughing softly, probably so as not to wake the girl's parents. But Jenny pulls down her shorts and decides to try another game. Next to the animal, she gets on all fours, sticking her ass up and letting him mount her.

After one or two attempts, still a little clumsy, the animal finally manages to penetrate her and then begins a frenetic penetration. I could hardly believe what I was seeing, my daughter, sighing breathlessly while the dog fucked her pussy like a little dog. Until, somewhat tired, he gets off her and goes back to licking between her legs. The two sit down and, not satisfied, Jenny challenges her friend to do the same. The girl giggles and, still a little indecisive, pulls up her shorts. Then, on all fours, like Jenny did, she waits until the animal gives her pussy one last lick, then mounts her and starts to fuck her.

My daughter has to cover her friend's mouth and, to muffle her moans, starts to kiss her. Now, in an unbelievable threesome, she opens her legs and offers her pussy for her friend to lick, with the animal still mounted behind her.

I don't know where these girls today learn these things, but it was a scene that I couldn't get out of my head for a long time after. And after their night of fun, the two went to bed and they licked each other's pussies, in a beautiful sixty-nine.

I wonder if the dog's sperm, still in their wet pussies, wasn't like some kind of aphrodisiac, making the two girls crazy to suck each other, tasting the animal's cum in their mouths. Then, as in the other video, the two girls kiss passionately, and slept like little angels, as if nothing had happened.

After transferring all the videos and photos to a pen drive and wiping the phone of any evidence, I gave them to my daughter and, after a serious conversation, I told her to be careful not to leave any photos or videos on her phone, as they could be dangerous for her and her friend in the hands of anyone. But what I didn't tell her is that I kept a copy of the video with me.

And whenever I watch it again, I don't know how many times, I always end up with a rock hard dick and I can't resist masturbating, in front of the beautiful image of my daughter on all fours, moaning and being fucked by her friend's dog. And from then on, I confess that I was very tempted to have a dog at home.
