BEASTIALITY STORIES

I am a very happily married, attractive woman in my early forties. I am a 5'7" brunette with red highlights. I am height weight proportioned, 36B breasts with cocoa brown nipples that get very hard when aroused, a nice shapely ass and a pussy that gets very, very wet when aroused. My pussy lips are probably somewhat longer than most women's. They hang down lower (2 1/2") below my labia majora. I used to think that I was some type of freak of nature because of this, but my loving husband absolutely loves my long labia. He loves to suck and nibble on them allowing them to swell and lubricate my vagina very nicely. When my pussy gets this kind of attention my clit begins to swell also and peak out from behind her hood also looking for some attention.

My hubby like to spend long periods going down on me arousing my sensitive labia and clitoris, allowing them to swell to great proportions this allows me to get well lubricated for what is cumming next! My husband is a wonderful guy, good-looking, has a good job and all, but to tell you the truth, I think I married him for what he has hanging between his legs! He has this beautiful thick 9" cock that curves up to the left when fully aroused. The head of his cock is nice and thick when engorged with blood I love to feel it parting my labia over and over when he enters my wet pussy. He loves to fuck me doggy style(Ooooo did I say doggy style?) so he can watch my long labia gliding along his thick rigid shaft. Sometimes, he reaches down and pulls my lips back and stretches them to hold onto me. I haven't found anything he does that I don't like!

We have a 200-acre farm nestled in the mountains in NW PA. We have some black Angus cattle, a couple of black cats, and a 90-lb. black lab. Since we live so far out in the country, my husband got him for me as a companion for my birthday, so I named him Bow. Living in the country has its rewards! I often tan in the nude because the road is a quarter mile away, and I can see anyone approaching far before they arrive at the house.

Now, don't get me wrong, the sex with my husband is always fantastic. I guess he's a bit of a perv 'cause we are always trying different things and experimenting. That's probably why the sex is soooooo good! Well, one day, he comes home with this video and says Let's check this new video out I got. It was a woman having sex with a dog. Oh, how disgusting, I thought, and the dog was a Great Dane! As we watched the movie, I watched the woman reach under the beast and begin to stroke and massage his furry sheath gently. A pink tip began to emerge, growing longer and larger. As he began to swell and become more excited I noticed this clear liquid squirting out all the while she manipulated the Danes cock. There seemed to be a never ending supply of this fluid, I guessed it was probably his pre cum. I then watched as the woman expertly took the Danes cock into her mouth.

I couldn't believe the size the dogs cock was becoming! It appeared to be 8-9" with a knot beginning to form at the base of it. His cock was now completely swollen and purple with pre cum still squirting out the tip. The dog began to hump her mouth with animal like instincts. She was holding onto the knot the size of a baseball as he fucked her mouth. I was in awe and couldn't believe the size of the dogs cock. Most of all, I couldn't believe the effects it was having on me! My pussy was absolutely soaking wet! I could feel my juices flowing like a river out of my vagina, down my swelling labia to saturate the liner in my panties. I could feel my labia swelling and my clit hardening.

WOW! The Dane also had other thoughts. The woman got on all fours and the Dane came up behind her sniffed and licked her pussy. He immediately tried to mount her. With his huge throbbing purple 9"cock swinging between her legs she reached back and guided the beasts swollen member into her pussy. He began to hump her, instinctively driving his cock deeper into her with each thrust. As he drove his cock into her she lowered her head down and raised her ass. The knot...I thought, what about the knot? At this moment, the knot was now banging away at her labia, trying to gain entry! Stretching her hole with each thrust, he drove deeper. And then it was in! She moaned with pleasure as the Dane tightened his grip and fucked her harder.

It was a blur watching the beast thrust his cock deep into her pussy. I couldn't believe what was happening to me! My pussy was soaking wet now! I was beginning to get a little nervous that I would leave a wet spot on the couch, my honey was flowing from my vaginal canal. I tried not to make eye contact with my husband for fear he would think that I was beginning to like this disgusting sort of depraved thing. My mind whirled with all kinds of thoughts. The Dane then stopped humping her and just laid across her back, unable to dismount her. I excused myself to go to the bathroom.

Whew, just in time. The crotch seam in my jeans was wet not damp, but soaking wet! I slid my jeans and my panties all the way off. I looked at myself in the full-length mirror and spread my legs apart. My labia were completely swollen and engorged with blood and my clit was now fully exposed sticking out from her hood. I sat up on the bathroom counter and spread my legs wide apart. My labia fell apart easily like a beautiful flower in full bloom. I looked down to examine myself more closely. My lips were glistening with droplets of my juices running down my labia. Oh was I ever fucking hot! My cunt was actually dripping pussy juice off of my engorged swollen labia hanging down. My cunt was on fire! Oh was I ever hot, I slowly brought two fingers up between my swollen wet labia to my erect clit.

Oh fuck I needed sex and I needed it bad. I wiped my pussy with a damp cool washcloth being ever so gentle around my erect clitoris. (She wanted attention real bad.) I changed clothing and put my soiled panties in the hamper on the bottom. My husband can smell my sex when I'm aroused. I then returned to the couch with a couple cold beers.

Just as I sat down, the woman and the beast were back to back. The Danes knot pulled out and his cock just came free from the womans pussy and copious amounts of doggy cum literally ran out of the womans pussy. I was mesmerized at the amount of cum the dog had injected into her pussy. They showed a close up of the womans pussy and she was stretched a bit but I could tell she had done this before and she liked it. My husband asked me how I liked the movie, and I had said that it was nothing that I had expected and left it go at that. But I'll tell you this: the sex that night was absolutely incredible, and yes, it was a marathon of pure raw animal sex!

I never quite did recover from the effects the movie had on me. I was now curious and watched it many times by myself, learning more each time and masturbating each time I watched it. I did some research on the internet and got hotter than hell looking at the pics, but I also found some very useful information which I applied. I began walking around the house nude when hubby was away and let Bow smell my womanhood. I could feel myself responding each time his cold, eager nose brushed against my labia. I got braver and would place a towel on a nice reclining chair and let him have at my pussy while my legs were spread wide. He brought me many satisfying orgasms. Each time I noticed his cock beginning to emerge from it's sheath while licking my pussy. One lap with his tongue between my labia and they were spread apart and my honey was flowing.

I then began to reciprocate the favors massaging his cock to full length and thickness and examine the size of his knot.

His cock was about 8 1/2" and his knot was the size of a baseball. I'd let him lick my pussy and then jack him off and watch him squirt his cum out. I knew I could handle him but just weren't quite sure yet.

Well, one day, hubby was away for the weekend. I was out tanning nude with my cell phone, a glass of wine, and sunscreen. It was a scorcher out. After several glasses of wine and some serious sun, I dozed briefly; my legs must have drifted apart. I felt this cold wet nose between my thighs and suddenly awoke to see Bow sniffing at my well fucked pussy from this morning before hubby left. I said bad dog because we don't do anything outside the house and he looked at me puzzled I looked down to see Bows cock already sticking out of it's furry sheath and I thought why not?

I got up, went to the house, and called him. He jumped up and came running to me. Once in the house, I locked the door and drew the blinds so no one could see in. I then put on him the boots that I got from a sports outfitter magazine for this special occasion. I then got some pillows, a mirror, and some towels. I wanted to see his swollen knot go into me, for I had been waiting for this moment for a long time—too long!

I spread a towel out on the chair we have that reclines, sat down, and spread my legs as wide as I could. I then leaned back to enjoy what was coming next! A nice long tongue that would easily spread my labia apart and allow my clit to stand out proudly from her hood. Bow approached and sniffed my sex carefully. This time, somehow, he knew that another had been there earlier today! He then began to lick my pussy the anticipation was now being tended to. I reached down and pulled my lips fully apart to give him full access to my womanhood. The place where many men had longed to be, the very center of my being. My labia were swelling and my clit was beginning to make her entrance by peeking out from her protective folds.

I looked down and watched intently as I stretched my labia as far as I could to let Bow have at my beautiful pussy. Here I was, enjoying sex to the very fullest with my dog! And I loved every second of it! He was licking my sex and tasting my delicious pussy juice mingled with my husbands big load of cum he deposited in my now spasming pussy. I was now on the verge of cumming and cumming hard. Aaaaauuuuggggggg! I was now pulling my pussy lips apart hard and stretching them upward to expose my 1" fully erect clit. Orgasm was fast approaching. I began to shudder and thrust my hips as my pussy began to spasm in uncontrollable spasm. Yeeeeesssssss I was cumming from my dogs tongue and it was wonderful I wouldn't be denied this wonderful sweet orgasm. When I finally came back to earth I looked down to see Bows doggy cock half out of it's sheath.

Yes, boy, it's now your turn. I got off the chair, walked to the couch, and sat on the floor in front of it. Bow approached me, I reached out and grasped his cock and started to stroke him gently, he stood very still. More of his cock began to emerge from it's sheath and he began to swell. I reached down with my other hand and slid two fingers into my sopping pussy. I then brought them up to his nose and then to mine. I pulled him closer to me. His cock was now squirting his pre cum. I lowered my head to his swelling cock and took him into my mouth. He immediately began to hump my mouth squirting his pre cum on my face and in my hair. It was kinda watery but didn't taste too bad. His knot was swelling larger; it was much bigger now than I had originally thought. It was slightly larger than a baseball and his cock was at least 9".

After letting him fuck my mouth for a few minutes I could tell he wanted more and so did I! My pussy was aching with anticipation now. I managed to stand up and walk to the end of the couch, place a towel over the cushioned arm, and then bend over the arm. I already had the mirror in position so I could watch. Bow immediately came over, sniffed my dripping pussy a couple of times then lunged up on his rear haunches. He began thrusting his huge cock between my legs instinctively looking for it's target. His pre cum was squirting all over my pussy and ass, lubricating his bitch. I looked down between my legs to see this huge thick doggy cock swinging around. I couldn't take it anymore; I had to have him! I reached down between my legs and gripped his hot pulsating cock. My knees were shaking in anticipation. I guided him to where he wanted to be and where I needed him.

I slid his red hot cock back and forth between my hanging lips and brushed it against my throbbing clit. Oh my, was this ever wonderful. I then guided him to my needy hole. The excitement was so intense that I was shaking. I needed to feel this wonderful dog cock in my aching cunt! I guided his cock between my hanging lips into my vagina a few inches then let go. Bow knew immediately what to do. He drove his doggy cock into me and it felt like a red hot poker. I came immediately. He was fucking my pussy with lightning speed, raising higher on his rear legs I came a second time. I looked into the mirror to see him pistoning into me. I could feel his knot and see it trying to gain entry into my now well fucked cunt.

I lowered my head some more, and now Bow could bury his knot! Yes. I wanted to feel that baseball sized knot swelled up in my pussy, I wasn't going to be denied any pleasure. His knot was rubbing my erect clit and would progress further into me with each thrust against my wet swollen labia. Aaahhh, another climax. My juice was flowing out of my pussy. I relaxed my pussy muscles and looked in the mirror just in time to see and feel his knot enter me! I was now his bitch and I was loving it. He raised himself as high as he could to bury his knot and his seed. There was no turning back now. This felt too damn good and I was liking it. My pussy was being well satisfied; fucked like never before!

I couldn't believe the speed at which he fucked me with. I had never been this well fucked before! Ohhh...Unnggghhh...did this ever feel good. He was pounding my pussy the way I like to be fucked. He began to tighten his grip on me and pull me closer. I knew what was cumming! As he injected his hot seed into my claspig greedy cunt, I had another orgasm that racked my body. My cunt muscles were clenching around his knot, holding him tighter in me as he deposited his seed deep in my womb.

I could feel jet after jet of his hot cum and it was hot! He was filling me up with his hot cum. Yes, I was cumming again too. I was lightheaded and delirious with pleasure; my pussy was tingling from all the pleasure it was receiving. Bow then stopped moving and tried to dismount me, but his knot still had us locked together. I found that if I slowly rotated my hips, it would stimulate my clitoris. I actually lost count of the orgasms I had, but each was better than the one before. Whew, it was amazing sex.

His knot finally did pull out after 20 minutes. And I hated to feel it go. The amount of cum that ran out of me was unbelievable. I watched as gob after gob of doggy cum, mixed with my sweet pussy juice ran down my hanging labia and dripped off my hanging cunt lips. It was really hot to watch. I sat on the edge of the couch with a towel under me and watched Bow lick and clean off his spent cock. He then approached me and proceeded to clean off my well fucked pussy loaded with cum. I obliged by pulling my heavy lips back and letting him bring me to yet another shuddering orgasm. I looked down at my red swollen cunt lips and smiled, for this without a doubt was the absolute best sex ever! I was now a canine lover and loved it!

Bow and I curled up on the floor together and slept till morning. I don't think I moved all night. When I awoke the next am there was a pool of cum that had drained out of my pussy during the night and there was still a considerable amount of cum. I went to the bathroom and spread myself so I could see in the mirror and there was still some droplets of cum running down my swollen lips. I started to get hot all over again.

We fucked four more times while my hubby was away trying different things like me letting him get his cock into my pussy before his knot swelled up. I am a bonafied animal lover and love to get fucked by my dog.

When hubby returned, he asked me if everything was okay, and I said yes, I had some nice, peaceful time on the farm.

I always try to have Bow get his beautiful knot in me. This brings me to many orgasms. Ladies, you don't know what you're missing. The sex is always fantastic, and the oral sex is incredible. He can't get enough of my pussy and I oblige by supplying the sweet pussy juice he loves to lick. He always cleans me good after he fucks me and he doesn't talk! Our little secret. I may ask hubby to get me a Great Dane for my next birthday. I'm already getting wet thinking about that!

The End
