BEASTIALITY STORIES

Getting ready one morning to apply for a position that had just opened up ... had me making sure my pussy was shaved, skin as soft as possible, leather straps outlining my D-cup breasts and a black lace holding up the full length stockings I had just put on.

It felt funny to be nervous, especially applying for an escort position at one of the largest sex for hire agencies in the country. I've been in the profession since I was fifteen - starting out working on weekends while in high school - now I am with a group making me better than six-figures... however if I landed this one, I'd be flying on jets to clients, spending weeks to months - the money would be more than ten times what I was currently making. A couple of years and I'd be able to retire financially free for the rest of my life.

Once a final look told me I was ready for the interview - a car was waiting to drive me to a warehouse, located far outside the city limits. As we drove up, I noticed a small airfield in the back, a private jet - looking like it was fueled and ready to leave at a moments notice. The staff were all dressed in whites, like medical staff would be. Normally I'd have been concerned, but all I could think about was doing well, making a good impression with the interviewers.

The receptionists with a stunning a body - dressed exactly like someone in this position for this type of company should be dressed like - almost nude but not quite.

Greeting me with a smile, walking with me through a door at the end of the hall - An extremely good looking gentleman was setting behind a desk, to the side was a girl who could have been sisters to the receptionist - "This is Miss Nikki".

Taking a seat opposite the gentleman, the young lady who brought me in, took a seat next to her look alike - that is also when I noticed the guy was sporting a huge tent in his slacks ... something that made my mouth water ... now really glad I'd chosen not to wear any panties. Just looking at the three of them, was making the area between my legs moist and becoming excited.

After introducing me to the three, the questions started out strange - Tell us about your family, do you live alone, did you tell anyone you were coming for this interview if so did you disclose this location?

When I answered that I lived alone, no family and no one had been told I was applying for this job - he reached forward, pressing a button on the top of his desk - from the walls, the ceiling, under the desk - seemed everywhere a blast of some kind of gas or chemical filled the room - it was a pleasant smelling aroma - making me close my eyes after inhaling the first amount - slowly opening them, the two girls were making out ... really making out, hands on boobs, boobs coming into full display - kissing lips, necks and ears ... looking back at him, his head rested on the back of his chair, one hand stroking that massive tent he had sprouted - my eyes felt heavy ... not realizing what I was doing, started to rub my tits ... massaging them, squeezing - making my nipples harder then I can ever remember them feeling ...

For a short time, I was so lost that I didn't look at the others ... when I slowly looked around - the two girls were nude, hands now between legs, pumping fingers in and out of their pussies - his pants were down, both hands stroking what had to be a cock close to ten inches or maybe pushing a foot ... The thing looked yummy, I was just about to move to him, when the girls moved in behind me ... hands slipping down my blouse, tits being massaged, they were kissing my neck, lightly biting my ear lobes - hands between my legs, squeezing the insides of my thighs ... moving to my bare pussy ...making me whimper when the area was rubbed.

Somehow my blouse and skirt were removed - being helped to a massage/exam table ... he moved between my legs - no preparation, just pushing that big tool all the way inside me ... bottoming out in with the initial entrance.

My profession has made me a so called 'expert' with guys who fuck - this one was a master - his pounding was hard and fast, feeling like the head was angling so all areas of my inside were being touched and excited ...

I had no idea I'd been secured to the table - my hips were writhing from side to side, up and down .... It felt like instead of one massive climax, small little waves of orgasms were hitting me one following the next - giving me pleasure but not the long needed satisfaction I had been building up to ...

I was so deep in that erotic rabbit hole, I had no idea what was happening ... but it seemed one guy pulled out, replaced by another - same with the girls playing - more than two may have been enjoying my body - it seems the fucking went on and on and on until I was so thirsty I begged them to give me some water - a drink that was given to me, must have been drugged - as soon as I swallowed it ... the lost hazy feeling covered me with more intensity.

I remember seeing an IV bag hanging by my bed, it felt like a 'PIC' line was put in my arm and the liquid started flowing ... someone whispered to me, "Don'y worry Nikki, this will open your conscious and subconscious mind so we can prepare you for your new job".

The drug relaxed me immediately .... Being wheeled to the plane, once on board, a helmet with a screen was placed on my head - flashing images of all kinds of penis' were being shown - some dogs, horses, curly pig ones, big elephants and tigers - small monkeys and so many more - a soothing voice - a woman's voice kept saying, "You love cocks, love cocks of all kinds, love having them in you, love exploding all over them - you live for the next cock - everyone you see has to be enjoyed in you".

"You love cocks, love cocks of all kinds, love having them in you, love exploding all over them - you live for the next cock - everyone you see has to be enjoyed in you".

"You love cocks, love cocks of all kinds, love having them in you, love exploding all over them - you live for the next cock - everyone you see has to be enjoyed in you".

"You love cocks, love cocks of all kinds, love having them in you, love exploding all over them - you live for the next cock - everyone you see has to be enjoyed in you".

My eyes rolled up on my head, drifting me off into a lazy sleep, where the images and instructions continued to fill my mind.

We were in the air for several hours - landing at a private air strip ... somewhere in South America .... I was so brain washed I had no idea what my name was or anything about me.

Still on my cart, taken into a small room, all heavily padded ... with a large ottoman setting in the center .... Helped to stand on my own, eyes so heavy they were barely open, when three large dogs were let in. These weren't any breed I'd ever seen, large very close to a shetland pony size ... but unlike any hound I'd ever seen, these had a good foot long or longer penis hanging down under them. When they sat on their hind legs, it laid out on the floor.

It was more like a horse cock when they smell a mare in heat .... Knowing how much I love cocks of any kinds, crawling on all fours to the nearest one, lifting the heavy shaft, stroking it, leaning over to kiss it - then taking as much of it as I could in my mouth ...the drops of pre-cum tasted soooo soooogood ..... I didn't notice one of the others had moved in behind me.

I hadn't noticed all the cameras circling the area .... All focused on me .... The hound behind me licked my soaked pussy once - then in a single motion, jumped up on my back ... his aim perfect ... he was in me all the way ... it felt so good, I stopped giving the blowjob to enjoy the waves of pleasure. His pumping was becoming a rhythmic effort, I tried to match it with the shaft in my mouth ... this didn't take long, I felt the warm seed flood my insides- at the same time my mouth was filled with the best tasting cum I've ever swallowed.

I knew immediately doggie seed had become one of my favorites ... a habit I was looking forward to.

These dogs didn't have knots, so when they emptied all the liquid they had, the one in my pussy pulled out, the one I'd been giving a blow job to, moved behind me - but instead of slipping in my pussy, that had just starting to empty that warm marvelous seed, he licked then pushed deep in my ass.

I've never played back there before ... so it should have been sore, but for some reason it wasn't - the thrill of having something this big deep in the back door, made my head come up, mouth wide open ... but no sound --- only a new excitement I'd never felt before.

The third dog that had been waiting, moved in front but when my mouth opened from the rear entry, he took advantage pushing that tool all the way down my throat. His balls slapped my chin, desperately trying to breathe through my nose ....his pumping in and out deep down way past any gag-reflex I may have had ...his pumping was matching the one breaking in my ass ...

Eyes had gone shut, breathing was becoming difficult - all I could do was grip the over stuffed ottoman allowing my body to shake, explode, shiver, heavier explosions .... My empty pussy dripping the warm seed that had been left there - but still shaking from what had just happened,

I have no idea how long they used me, eventually both emptied their loads, pulled out as my muscles gave way, body collapsed and sleep over took my quickly.

The cameras had captured every angle of my new found profession ... the job application was now complete.

A Porn video was released, "Nikki finds true love South of the Border".

Someone helped my sore body into a warm soothing bath ... a nice meal of fruits, cut slices of various meats and glasses of fine wine had been set out for me.

Eating and drinking, so totally relaxed, but never in my life have I ever felt better, even though it felt like every muscle in my body ached ... it took a few minutes to realize I had no idea who I was, where I came from .... Nothing, just dreams of the different cocks I could enjoy deep in me.

Sleep came easy, waking to a perfect breakfast, I was back in the room by mid-morning ...this time four dogs joined me ..... my pussy was used twice, back door twice and two or three loads of warm liquid sloshed in my tummy. The video I made, "Nikki fucks four dogs - a new slut is born".

Thankfully they loved my body, the way I responded to the dogs ... I heard them talking about introducing me to horses next ... thinking of a horse cock pounding in me ... heaven - just pure heaven.
