BEASTIALITY STORIES

Julie was an animal lover through and through. Ever since she was a child, she liked animals more than humans so when their school asked them to do social work in their summer break, she knew she would be volunteering at the animal shelter near her home. She was so excited to start that she got a permission from as school as well as her guardian on the very first day of the break and went to the shelter. The shelter had all kinds of animals but she had applied to work in the canine section because dogs were definitely her favorite. Since a lot of schools were making their students do volunteer work this time, she met quite a few of her classmates. They were all allocated in different sections so she would be alone working with the dogs. The owner of the facility showed her the dog section and left while she started cooing and petting the dogs. Most of them were not friendly at all, in fact quite ferocious.

They were all very huge, hunter dogs with scary builds and even scarier eyes. She decided that they did not want to be petted and she should just stick to the formalities. Julie made sure they were all fed, bathed, and hydrated and after working the entire day, she left for home. She loved working with the dogs, though they were unfriendly they still did not cause any ruckus. She had been working at the shelter for a week when she saw a dog cock. At first she did not understand what it was but then she understood that the red thing poking out of the dog must be his cock. It looked curious, definitely not like a human male's cock which she had seen so many times in porn videos. She blushed and ignored the sight.

But the next day, she saw that more of the dogs cocks had started poking out. She was getting uncomfortable but also a little curious. How did it feel to have a dog cock inside a pussy? She thought. She promptly scolded herself for thinking such things and focused on bathing a puppy. But at night under her covers, she found herself touching her pussy, pushing a finger and curling it, making herself moan thinking about the red dog cock. She felt guilty but she could not help it. She started noticing the cocks more and more. She went home and started searching up dog porn, watching women getting fucked by dogs, getting knotted and creamed while she fucked herself with her fingers. Oh how she craved a dog's cock in her pussy! She wasn't sure if she could fit one though, those things seemed huge and thick and she was a 17 year old virgin who only has put 2 of her own thin fingers.

One day, she saw that some of the dogs had started humping the furniture, upon close inspection she saw that their cocks were out. She asked a worker what was happening when she said that, "oh it's mating season for them, but we have kept the female dogs separate. This shelter is quite small you see, we cannot afford to have pregnant bitches and their pups. Don't worry, they won't harm you." She smiled and left Julie to her own devices. She kept glancing towards the humping dogs, panting and drooling as their cocks jutted out of their bodies. Julie felt sorry for them. They only wanted to mate and relieve their balls! And she was a volunteer wasn't she? It was her duty to help them.

She made up her mind and touched the cock of one of the dogs. The dog suddenly stopped humping the sofa and started moving his hips, his cock moving forwards and backwards in Julie's hand. It was warm and pulsing. Julie tightened her grip while the dog thrust faster and faster, the base of the cock swelling and then he started sending ropes of cum from his cock. Julie was aroused, feeling her panties drenching as the dog emptied his balls. The other horny dogs had noticed that she helped him and started coming to her, their cocks thick and hard, pointing towards her viciously. Julie made sure the door was locked and put her hands on two other cocks and started relieving them. There was a pressure building in her belly, she craved touch but she put the dog's pleasure first.

The dogs started moving their hips and cummed in her hands. The dogs, impatient and carnal had started sniffing her body and licking her, clearly thinking she would relieve them. She was trying her level best to help them but there were too many, and even she was aroused. She badly wanted to smear that dog cum on her pussy and push it in with her fingers but she had to control herself. She was trying to help them, not masturbate herself. One of the dogs started nudging her legs apart and she was so aroused that she let her legs fall apart without any restraint, her short skirt riding up her thighs, exposing a white lace pantie. A dog dove down and started nudging his nose on her clit. Julie let out an involuntary moan. Oh! It was so pleasurable. The dog kept nudging her while she debated removing her underwear. How much more pleasurable would that feel compared to this? She quietly removed her panties, and found to her embarrassment that her crotch was glistening in wetness.

She was still helping two other dogs to cum with her hands when the dog that was nudging her started nudging her again, this time, her naked throbbing, young virgin pussy. Julie shrieked in pleasure. She hoped the other people did not listen. The dog then started licking her, and Julie mesmerized in the throws of passion fell on the floor, dogs surrounded her vulnerable body while her pussy was getting licked by a dog. She had no shame. She pushed her legs farther apart, and pulled the dog closer, his tongue almost inserted in her pussy. She was moaning, shrieking, gasping in pleasure while other dogs were licking her entire body. She removed her top and her bra, prompting the dogs to lick her nipples. She had small boobs, which most of the guys in her class made fun of but the dogs did not mind. They pleased her despite her size. This is why she liked animals so much! The dogs kept pleasuring her for a long time, orgasms washing over her multiple times. Then a thought came to her mind. What if she took this further?

The dogs still had hardened cocks, what if she allowed them to pleasure her with their cocks? She had already broken a lot of rules, might as well break another one. Her pussy was already throbbing, and she wanted more. She softly guided the dog that was licking her pussy above her, putting his forelegs beside her face while she touched his cock. The dog started panting heavily, drooling and getting excited. She guided the cock towards her pussy, trying to insert it slowly, because it was her first time and she did not want to hurt herself. But the dog had already understood what was happening and the minute she lined his cock to her entrance, he gave a jerky thrust and his cock got completely lodged inside her virgin tight pussy. Julie made a painful noise but the dog did not mind, he started moving his hips harder and faster, not caring about Julie and gave in to his animalistic nature. Julie was moaning uncontrollably, in both pain and pleasure as the dog cock ravished her pussy, pushing in and out, stretching her with his girth and jerking inside of her.

Julie lost all control of her body as she also moved with the dog's thrusts. The dog gave a more forcefully thrust, completely pushing his cock inside her canal while she felt something swelling inside of her. Oh my god, he was knotting her! The dog was whining in pleasure while she felt impossibly plugged by his knot, and then warm liquid started filling her. She could do nothing but wait, for his balls to empty and the knot to subside. It felt like hours, lying on the floor with a huge knot inside her pussy which leaked cum into her like a tap before it got smaller and the dog pulled out and left. Loads of cum gushed out from her used pussy while she was too exhausted to even move. If dogs could impregnate humans, she was pretty sure she would be giving birth to puppies after just this encounter. The other dogs had seen what he did so they quickly took his place.

Before Julie could even comprehend what was happening, another dog cock, bigger and thicker entered her pussy with an even more forcefully thrust, and started fucking her with even more violence. The cock abused her pussy, her womb, her entire body as Julie moaned helplessly in pain, but she did not want to stop it. She wanted all of the dogs to fuck her. She lied down and took all the dog cocks in her pussy one by one. At one point she had even started blowing the dog cocks and drinking all their cum. Her belly was so full of cum it was distended. She got on her knees and let the dogs fuck her continuously. She even skipped dinner just so she could become a cum whore for the dogs.

The sun had started to set, but the dogs were still fucking Julie's pussy and her mouth and Julie had no complains. She was fulfilling her duty, taking as many dog cocks as she could, in her pussy that was no more virginal, in a mouth no longer pure. She was a whore, whore for dogs. She completely gave into her own and the dogs pleasure but what she did not know what that there was a cctv in this room and the owner of this facility had been watching the events of the day unfold whole fisting his own cock, smirking to himself.
