BEASTIALITY STORIES

Anna had been very short on money for weeks, when she applied for the photo shoot. She was a short girl of 19 years old, about 160 cm in height. She had long blonde hair, light brown eyes, A-cups and a petite figure. When she approached the studio, she felt her nervousness increase drastically. The woman at the reception gave her a very nice smile when she nervously stated, her appointment time.

"Who is your Manager?" Asked the woman at the reception.

"Uhhm, its Edgar." Anna replied quietly.

"Uhh!" The woman let out with a knowing smile. "right to the big leagues!"

Anna gave a puzzled look. She had never considered herself very beautiful and apparently now she had been selected for a seemingly prestigious shoot.

"Please have a seat." The Woman asked. "I'm going to give him a call. He'll be here momentarily."

Anna complied and sat on the expensive looking couch, her anxiety still increasing.

5 minutes later the elevator to the right of the reception desk gave a soft chime. A man in a pristine white business shirt exited and immediately fixed Anna with his gaze as he approached her.

"Good afternoon!" He greeted, as Anna stood up to shake his outstretched hand.

"I take it, you are Anna?"

"Yes." She replied.

Her nervousness began to dissipate. He was quite good looking and about 180 cm tall. His calm and kind demeanor calmed her down.

"Please!" He gestured to the elevator. "Let's have a chat at my office."

As they stepped into the elevator, she noticed that there were no buttons to select a floor.

"Executive offices!" Edgar stated in a firm voice. The elevator chirped as if it was very happy with his request, as the doors closed and the elevator began to smoothly ascend. A big screen on the back wall of the elevator displayed a graphic of the whole building, from ground level up and their location in it. When the elevator came to a stop, they were at the highest floor.

"There is also a pool at the rooftop and multiple amenities spread throughout the building, for your use, if you decide to work for us." He stated, as the doors silently slid open.

He led her through a pleasant looking hallway to a large door with a golden nameplate on it. His office was very spacious with a huge walnut desk sitting in front of a window, that stretched the entire length of the room. Opposite of the desk sat two very comfortable looking chairs and behind them on the opposite wall sat a massive leather couch. The floor was laid with a dark and soft carpet, which looked as clean, as if it had been installed yesterday.

"Please, have a seat!" He requested, as he gestured towards the two chairs in front of his desk. The desk was set with two large monitors, sat to his left, when he sat down behind the desk. There were also more expensive looking electronic devices spread in an orderly manner on top of the desk.

"Soooo." He began, after sitting down across the desk.

"You applied for a position as one of our models?"

"Yes." She replied, her nervousness starting to creep back, now that the interview had apparently began.

"You have read the brochure?" He asked with his eyebrow raised.

"Yes." She replied, not entirely honest. She had skimmed it, having only read, about photo shoots, possible videos, and a very relaxed work schedule. She had been too occupied by the mentioned benefits like the very handsome pay of 10,000 to 50,000 international credits per shooting, which equated to approximately 15,000€ to 75,000€ or $17,000 to $85,000. This and the fact, that she would get to keep all clothes and accessories from the shootings.

"Excellent!" He exclaimed with a wide smile.

"Do you want to go through it again?" He followed up.

When Anna didn't reply right away, he continued.

"There are a few more things we didn't mention in the brochure. I'm just going to quickly lay them out for you."

Anna tensed up a bit. Maybe there were additional duties in the contract.

"I already mentioned the pool at the rooftop. Additionally, there is a spa, a massage room with world class masseurs, and for your contract we would also provide housing in one of our suites." He paused. "Since you stated, that you have no close relatives and because you live quite a distance away from here, we must include housing here in the contract. But you don't have to worry about moving your stuff. If you decide to sign, we will take care of that for you."

"Any additional duties in the contract, that I should know?" Anna asked quietly

"Only that you have to stay in shape" He replied. "only what is stated in the brochure, that you used to apply." He reached for a small drawer underneath his desk and pulled up a data pad. "The contract is already set up for you. I don't want to pressure you, but this is a once in a lifetime chance! We have several promising applicants but you were first in line. And since we are on a tight schedule, we unfortunately have to ask for your decision right now. Otherwise we will be forced to consider the next applicant right after this meeting is over. We will also provide traveling expenses for any shoots in other locations. We have multiple locations on this planet and also off world. Your partners for shootings will be chosen by the directors, due to image, appearance and creative decision making. For vacations off world, we will provide the travel expenses, but hotels etcetera must be paid for by yourself. Vacation on world can be fully covered by us." He stated, as he scrolled through the text on the data pad, facing her.

Anna did not pay much attention to the text on the pad. Her mind was too occupied by the benefits of the contract.

"There is also the option to gain higher positions, as you continue to work for us." He continued, as the text came to an end. "So." He raised an eyebrow. "Are you in or out?"

"I'll do it" Anna stated firmly

"Marvelous!" Edgar exclaimed "press your thumb right here, and we will arrange everything else for you.”

He handed her the data pad and Anna pressed her finger on the designated spot. The pad gave a happy chirp and a congratulations text filled the screen. She handed him back the pad and he set it atop a data transfer port.

“A good decision!” He said. “An employee will show you the free Suites. You can choose, which ever you like. Your first session will be in three days. It is for a very prestigious customer of ours. You are very lucky! He always pays very handsomely. But there will also be shoots for the company, which will be paid mostly according to how well it sells.”

A chime came from the door and a man in an expensive looking suit entered.

“Please follow me.” He said in a soft and indifferent voice.

Anna stood up, shook Edgars hand and let herself be led to the elevator.

Just hours later, when she was about to get ready to go to bed, she had already received her belongings and had set most of them set up.

The next few days, she indulged in the absolute luxury, her new home had to offer. She almost didn't realize, that the day of the shooting had already arrived, when she got the notification on her hand terminal.

An employee picked her up at her suite and led her to the elevator.

“Studio Floor 3!” The employee ordered the elevator, which was located in a entirely different location, than the one, which had first brought her up to Edgars office. Anna noted from the location screen, that this one was connected to multiple levels underneath the main building. When they had arrived, she was lead to a dressing room, where there was already a set of clothes laid out for her. A pink belly less top and a black skirt, which she noted, was quite short. There was also underwear, which appeared to be lingerie. After dressing, she felt exposed, as she studied herself in the large mirror.

When she exited the dressing room, she was led to a very typical looking photo studio. The photographer used multiple floating camera probes and, oddly, a very primitive looking camera, that actually had replaceable lenses. Anna went through the requested poses and began to feel a bit more comfortable.

When the photographer was finished, A man who introduced himself as her producer entered the room.

“Excellent photos!” he congratulated her. “This is going to make for very nice cover art!”

“Am I to be on the cover for a Magazine?” Anna asked excitedly

“Well, sort of.” The producer replied vaguely. “Follow me please.”

Before Anna could enquire further, He was already leading the way, out of the studio.

Anna was led into another room. It contained only a queen sized bed with white and pink sheets. Before she could ask, what all of this was about, the producer instructed her to wait for her briefing and left, closing the door behind him. Anna looked around and noticed, that there were a bunch of recording probes floating in the room, which she recognized as being for holographic recordings. With nothing to do, she sat on the bed and waited. After sitting down, she also spotted a door on the opposite side of the room, from where she had entered. This door was a lot bigger than the one, she had come through.

When she almost had started to become bored, a woman in clothing, that resembled that of a nurse or doctor entered the room through the same door, she had come in herself.

"Hello Anna. I'm Charlotte" The Woman introduced herself with a smile.

"Uhh, Hi." Anna replied.

"You are so pretty!" Charlotte exclaimed.

"Thank you!" Anna said with a blush

"Well, let's get to business, shall we?! Charlotte continued. "Please stand up."

Anna complied and Charlotte began to scan her.

"You're in excellent condition." Charlotte stated. "have you ever done this before?"

"Done what?" asked Anna.

"Oh!" Charlotte giggled. "Don't mind me, I'm just babbling nonsense."

Annas confusion rose.

"Anyway." Charlotte continued. "My scan is complete." She looked at her data pad and took in the results. Then she produced a small pill from one of her pockets. "From what I can see here, you should swallow this."

"What is it for?" Anna asked

"Oh, it's just to help you relax a little. From what I can see, you are a bit uneasy right now. Trust me, it will help you a great deal!"

Anna nodded and took the pill from her.

"Can I get some water?" Anna asked.

"No need!" Charlotte replied. "You can chew it. It has a sweet flavor and chewing will help getting it into your system via your mucus membranes."

"OK." Anna said and started chewing the pill. It was indeed very tasteful. It tasted like orange candy.

"See you later!" Charlotte cheerfully exclaimed, as she exited the room.

Just half a minute later, Anna started to feel the pills effect. It was not at all, what she had anticipated. Her vagina started to feel hot, even though she did not feel aroused at all. She sat down on the bed again and tried to, very subtilty feel, If she was also wet. To her surprise she could actually feel wetness building in her vagina. It was a strange feeling. Never had she even considered, that she could get wet without being aroused. As she wondered, what and why Charlotte had given her, a soft, yet firm and demanding voice spoke into the room.

"Hello Anna!" It started.

Anna looked around, but there was no one there. It had to come from hidden speakers.

"H-Hello." She nervously replied, while subtilty retreating her hand from her crotch.

"I'm pleased, to see, that you have come here today. Charlotte told me, that you are a bit... unexperienced but that does not matter. You'll see."

"Uhh OK?" Anna got out

"Now," The voice started again. "please take off your clothes. Your partner will be here shortly"

"P-Partner?" Anna asked, confusion and a hint of dread in her voice.

"Of course!" the voice replied. "You cannot have sex all on your own, can you?"

"What!?" Anna gasped. "No! I didn't agree to this! Let me out of here!"

"But of cours you did!" The voice calmly stated. "Your manager has informed me, that you have a full contract, with all rights and duties."

Annas dread rose dramatically, as she heard that. She was too shocked to reply.

"You have the perfect body for this!" The voice continued. "If you won't take off your clothes, Zeus is going to tear them off you, I'm sure. Don't you want to keep them?"

Anna didn't reply. She had rushed to the Door, trying to open it in order to get out of there and as far away as possible, from this voice and this company. To her utter horror, she had to find, that the door was locked. Now she also noticed, that there was no handle on her side of it.

"That won't get you anywhere." The voice stated calmly. "Oh, Zeus seems to be ready for you. He hasn't had a girl in almost half a year and will be very happy to see you. I would recommend, not to try and fight him."

As Anna realized, that her kicking and pushing at the door did indeed got her nowhere, she turned around.

"Please!" she begged with tears in her eyes. "Please let me out! I'll do anything! Just don't do this!"

"There is nothing I would want from property like you!" The voice said. "Except seeing you get bred by dear Zeus."

Then, the larger door started to slide up. Behind it, Anna could see only darkness. She pressed herself in a corner, as far from that door, as possible. Her horror rose to a previously unknown level, as she saw, what was now slowly entering the room. It was a big ape. A gorilla. But there seemed to be something off about him.

"This is Zeus!" The voice explained. "He is no ordinary gorilla. He was genetically modified in order to have lots of fun with human girls. Normal gorillas have quite small penises, you see. Of course we can't have that for your love session with him. We gave him a above human average sized rod for this exact purpose. He is also way more intelligent than a normal gorilla, has a great sense of smell and we programmed a preference for human girls into him. His intelligence won't stop him taking you against your will though."

Anna started to sob as the gorilla started to slowly approach her, while the voice explained all of this.

“Well, I’m now going to leave you two to your business. Have fun Zeus!”

When Zeus was only about two meters away from her, Anna tried to make a run for it. She had no idea, where to run, or what to do after dodging Zeus, but she had to do something. When Zeus saw this, he moved with blinding speed. Anna had barely taken two steps, when Zeus’ big strong hands seized her by her arms. Zeus turned her around and took a good look at her, grunting in approval. Anna was frozen by fear, until Zeus started to skillfully and delicately lifting her top, in order to strip it off her. Anna crossed her arms to not get stripped of her clothes. Zeus did not approve of that. One hand seized her wrists and pulled them up above her head. Then, with one swift motion, he tore off her top and bra, ripping both apart in one pull. Then, he directed his attention towards her skirt. He slid his fingers between her skin and panties and pulled them down with seemingly routine practice. Anna whimpered, as he manhandled her towards and then onto the bed. He forced her on her back and spread her legs with ease. When he had positioned himself between them, he again grasped her by the wrists and pulled her arms back up above her head, since Anna had used the time when he was spreading her legs to put her hands over her pussy. Now Anna got a good look at his manhood. It was about 18 cm in length, very veiny and she also realized, that it had little fleshy ribbons or maybe warts all over it. Anna had frozen in disgust and horror, when she saw that the ribbons were leaking a viscous and foul smelling fluid. As Zeus moved one hand, to grip his cock, she unfroze and started to wiggle and struggle against his firm grip. There was no way, this disgusting thing was going inside of her. When Zeus started to slide his cock over Annas pussy lips, he pleasantly noticed, that his female was already wet and apparently ready to be bred. He altered his grip on his cock and moved back his hips, to allow him to point it directly towards her entrance. Annas wiggling did nothing to throw off Zeus’s aim. When she felt his tip pushing against her wet hole, she started to cry again. Tears started to stream down her face, when she felt his head slowly parting her pussy lips and then sliding into her, aided by both their sex fluids. Zeus savored every moment of it. Slowly pushing his head beyond her pussy lips, then sliding his whole shaft into her, only stopping after he had sank the whole length into her, with his crotch now touching hers. He grunted in pleasure and then grasped her hip with one hand, while still holding hers above her head. Then he started to slowly begin his rhythmic thrusts. Anna had already felt his heat, when he first entered her. His cock radiated a lot of heat, that started to stimulate the nerve endings inside her pussy much faster and more effective, than any human ever could. When Zeus began his thrusting, she began to build up an orgasm at an alarming pace. Anna clenched her teeth. She may have lost her purity to this monster, but she was not about to lose her dignity. Zeus didn’t notice her struggle and continued to enjoy her tight hole around his member. Slowly pumping in and out of her, savoring every second. The steady pace, the little ribbons and the heat started to win the battle against Annas will, not to orgasm, very quickly. Zeus, on the other hand, decided, that his female had become obedient enough to begin his next move. He released her hands and slit his arm under her, gripping her shoulder from behind and below her. He moved closer and started to thrust more intensely, but at the same pace. The additional friction pushed Anna over the edge. Her pussy clamped down on Zeus’s cock tight, as her unwanted orgasm washed over her. When Zeus felt her gripping his cock like that, he got a lot closer to his own climax. As Annas first multiple orgasm continued for 7 waves of pleasure and clamping Zeus, he grunted in absolute bliss, gripped her tightly and pushed as deep, as he could, finally releasing his hot and sticky load into her. Anna despaired, as she felt she felt him gripping her tight and stuffing all of him inside her. She didn’t have to wait a second longer to feel his hot gushes rushing into her, that were somehow even warmer than his cock. The extra stimulation extended her orgasm another 5 waves. When she got herself back together, she realized, that Zeus was still cumming inside of her. Her insides were already filled and the semen had started to escape through the limited space it could find between her pussy and his cock and Zeus still kept pumping more into her. A puddle of cum was already expanding from the point of their connection and had already reached half way up her butt. He was holding her firmly in place and all she could do was to clench her fists and teeth and wait for it to be over.

When the puddle had reached all the way to her lower back, Zeus finally relaxed again. Unceremoniously, he released his grip on her shoulder and hip, brought himself up and pulled out his already slackening cock. More cum rushed out of Annas violated pussy and the puddle she lay in, expanded even more. Zeus didn't care. He had satisfied his needs. He climbed off the bed and leisurely returned to his den.

Anna lay in the cum puddle which had started to soak the bed, she was laying in and tried to come to grips with her situation. The voice had called her property. She realized, that she had made a grave mistake and was in an even worse situation. She had to escape! Somehow she had to get out of all this.

"Outstanding!" the voice called out. "This is probably the best piece I ever got! Your performance, his eagerness, him taking you as his breeding slave without you being able to resist! Something like this cannot be planned. I will probably set up the recorded hologram of you two right on my desk. Oh, don't worry about pregnancy! He is shooting blanks unfortunately. A side effect of the genetic modifications to make him able to put out this amount of semen. Maybe someday, we can correct that and I will book you for a full year. I would be curious to see, what he could put in your womb."

Anna cursed silently. She had forgotten all about the recording probes, hovering around the room.

"Oh yeah!" the voice continued "You laying in that absolutely cum soaked bed is just the perfect picture. I just wish the whole bed would be covered and not just a third."

As Anna heard this, rage flooded her. She brought herself up, climbed down from the bed and collected her panties. She slipped them on and covered her breasts with one arm, when Charlotte entered the room.

"Did you enjoy yourself?" She asked with a wide smile, as she began to scan her.

Anna was about to slap her, when Charlotte quickly continued. "If you want to get back to your suite, you should hold off on making a scene. Otherwise you are going to stay with Zeus for the night." Anna glanced at the huge door. It had already closed behind Zeus.

"From what I've gathered," Charlotte began again. "Zeus can be ready with a full new load in just an hour. That would be about 17 breeding sessions for you, If we decide to leave you here until tomorrow."

Anna bit her tongue and waited for Charlotte to finish. She had absolutely not desire of a repeat for what she just went through and was under no illusion that Charlotte wouldn't follow through with her threat.

"You are in perfect shape." Charlotte finally stated. "The wetness will subside in about an hour. An employee will show you to the showers, if you wish. I have more girls to attend."

Even though Anna had showered more than an hour and tried to squeeze out all of Zeus's semen, she was still leaking his cum, when she lay down in her bed to sleep. She had downed a whole glass of Rum from her minibar and drank several more slowly. When the alcohol had sufficiently hammered her, she finally drifted off to sleep, not noticing at all, that her hand terminal had received the schedule for her next shoot.

To be continued?
