BEASTIALITY STORIES

When I turned 18, I had a friend who lived down the road with the biggest black lab I had ever seen and still is. One night, I put on some dark-colored sweatpants with no underwear, rubbed a little Lube in and around my eager hole, threw on a black sweatshirt, and snuck out.. when I arrived, everyone was asleep. My lover was up by the house, so I coaxed him over to a small 10×10 ft area behind their garage but between a shed and Ivy-covered fence, so I was pretty well secluded. I began rubbing his back and chest and dropped to my knees, but this dog is easily 160 lb, and I was maybe 130 lb at the time, so I felt like I was rubbing down a small horse.

I slowly worked my way to his enormous sheath and began to rub it, and I could tell he was already getting excited by the way it filled up my whole hand. I slowly worked the tip out and the rest inch by inch until I had about 6 in of fat red doggie dick sticking out and could feel that knot starting to form, so I squeezed it out also. I could tell it was only about medium stiffness, so I got him to put his front paws up onto a step about a foot high. Well, I maneuvered myself between his back legs with my back against the same step.

Absolute perfect position for taking that delicious doggie dick straight through my mouth and landing in my throat as my lips bounce off his ever-swelling knot.. as I'm throating this massive member, I begin playing with my cock as it grows along with his. I sucked that dick for a good 10 to 15 minutes while swallowing every shot of precum that came out. I only stopped when he would occasionally start humping and face fucking me, which, don't get me wrong, I loved. Still, I knew that was when he was working up to busting a nut, and I wanted to keep sucking his amazing cock, which was now about 9 into the knot, and about could barely get my hand around it.

But finally, I couldn't take it anymore and buried his whole cock in my throat and let him loose to just fuck his bitches throat how he wanted to, and boy did he ever.. once he got to where he was about to come, he was around 12 in and way too hard to get all that in my throat so I repositioned myself so I could keep my throat straight and right when I tasted and filled the first big blast then I sucked it all the way down until I had just about every inch buried while he emptied his enormous sack.

I tightened my fingers around the base of his knot while I kept his pulsing cock locked in my throat while he kept blasting, but I couldn't taste it any longer. I just kept swallowing so that my throat was massaging one half of his cock while my tongue massaged the other half. I would stay this way as long as I could, only occasionally releasing him for a quick breath and a quick shot of cum in my mouth before swallowing him again over and over until he eventually started to go limp.. but I wasn't done, and neither was he.
