BEASTIALITY STORIES

A few days had passed since Mimi first arrived at the Breeding farm, and she was beginning to feel settled in. Her new quarters were spacious and suited her needs. She had a small suite of rooms in the stable hands' quarters, just like every other stable hand. The suite had three rooms: the living room, bedroom, and bathroom; this morning, she had a lesson with Viktoria about the history of the stables; she left her quarters and made her way to the office building where Viktoria was waiting for her.

Mimi left her quarters and made her way to the office. She passed through the cloister, where the stable hands took their meals. The sun shone down and warmed the pink stone of the cloister, and the pillars glowed a soft red in the morning sun. She took a second to enjoy the warmth and then continued to Viktoria's office.

She knocked on the door and entered. "Viktoria, I am here for my lesson." she walked in and sat at a small desk where Viktoria had laid some books for her to study. She started reading the first book and was a few pages in when Viktoria dressed in simple training robes that exposed the side of her breasts and the curve of her hips and waist. The robes shimmered in the light coming through the window, and she beckoned for Mimi to follow as she headed out of the office; as they walked, Viktoria began telling Mimi the history of the stables and why they had been established.

"These stables were founded by my great-grandmother, Meesa Venic, to help bring the race of dragons back from extinction. The first dragons were Nadir and BlutFang, but she found more eggs in the DragonKeep mountains and brought them here and proceeded to hatch them, giving her a mix of male and female dragons with which she could begin breeding" Mimi nodded in understanding and followed as Viktoria led her to the main stables once more, "you will be working closely with four of the stable hands, today I will introduce you and begin outlining your basic roles and responsibilities."

They were nowhere to be seen as they entered the stable where the stable boys should have been working. They went from stall to stall; many were clean, but some still had the old used straw and hay that had yet to be cleared and replaced. Viktoria began to increase her pace as she looked for the stable boys, calling their names but getting no answer. She was getting increasingly frustrated and annoyed at the boy's absence. To distract herself from her anger, she begins telling Mimi about her last encounter with the stable boys, "Well....." her eyes went glassy as she remembered the details.

Viktoria had been doing a quarter check and found the stable boys in Titas' quarters, they had been drinking and were in the middle of playing with each other as she came in. Eric was on his knees between Titas' legs, slowly and gently sucking on his rapidly growing cock. He kneaded his balls and took as much of his cock deep into his throat as he could manage. Naith and Dane were locked in a slow but hard sixty-nine; she watched from the door as Titas pushed Eric away and bent him over the sofa. He gently licked Eric's ass and slid a finger in, and then a second, Eric moaned in pleasure before saying, "Stop teasing me and fuck me" Titas grinned and took his fingers out of Eric's ass and lined his cock up, he pressed gently against Eric's hole before pushing the head in, Eric gasped in pleasure and gently pushed back taking Titas' nine-inch cock to the balls in his ass.

Titas began to gently thrust into Eric's ass, making him moan and buck in pleasure. Dane and Naith stopped sucking each other and moved in front of Eric so he could suck them both in turn. Titas increased his pace until he was pounding Eric's and making him scream in pleasure. Viktoria continued to watch, slid her hand between her legs, and began to play with herself. As she watched Naith moved behind Dane and bent him over Eric so Eric could still suck him, Naith then thrust hard and deep into Dane's ass and making him cry out and cum at the same time filling Eric's mouth and throat with his seed, Eric's ass tightened on Titas' cock, he could feel it is throbbing in his ass, with a final thrust Titas' came hard in Eric's ass filling him with his cum, followed a minute later by Naith cumming in Dane, the four boys collapsed to the ground. Viktoria stepped in and said, "Room for another?"

Viktoria helped the boys clean themselves up and then began to suck and wank them off. She knew the boys could fill her every hole and told them as much. Once they were all hard again, she had Eric lie on the floor. Once he was settled, she lowered herself onto him, her dripping pussy taking his cock easily. She began to ride him slowly. She took hold of Titas' cock and wanked him gently while Dane moved round behind her and licked her pussy and ass. She looked back over her shoulder and said between gasps, "fuck it or make way for Naith" Dane nodded and pressed his cock against her ass, and slowly pushed in. Viktoria screamed and moaned in pure pleasure as she felt her pussy and ass filled with thick young cock; she let the boys pound her as she began sucking and wanking Naith and Titas.

The boys began to pound her pussy and ass hard, wanting to hear her scream. In a wash of pleasure, she came so hard her pussy erupted, and she squirted all over Eric. She gripped her round pert breasts and sucked on the nipples as he continued to ram his cock into her pussy. He could feel Dane doing the same and saw the look of delight on his face as he screamed, "I'm gonna cum" After a couple more thrusts, they both buried their cocks to the balls in her pussy and ass and came at the same time filling her with cum, she told them to go and clean themselves up while she straddled Titas and sank her ass onto his cock and pulled Naith into her pussy.

She moaned, "fuck me, my boys" They both began to pound her and within minutes, she came again. The boys fucked hard and fast, each trying to do the other out. Naith was the first to cum. He buried his cock in her pussy while his face was buried in her breasts; Titas came a second later and screamed in pure ecstasy as he filled her ass with cum; she sent them to get cleaned up and got dressed, and left to finish the quarter check.

Viktoria finished telling Mimi the last time she had played with the boys and saw her cheeks were flushed and her lip trembled; Viktoria kissed her gently. "What is wrong, little one?" Mimi blushed and whispered, "You have made me horny with that story" Viktoria pushed Mimi into a clean stall and pushed her down to her knees before pulling aside her robe, exposing her moist pussy, "It made me horny too. Now lick me" without a seconds hesitation Mimi began to lick Viktoria's clit, Mimi licked from her clit back to Viktoria's ass hole and back, drawing gasps of pleasure from her until Viktoria stepped away and pulled off her robe completely "strip and lay on your back little one" Mimi did as she was told and removed her riding leathers and lay down, Viktoria stood over her and smiled before kneeling beside her and kissed her, after she broke the kiss she straddled Mimi's face and began to tease her clit, gently squeezing it between her finger and thumb.

Mimi started to lick again, driving her tongue as deep as she could into Viktoria's pussy and ass. Every probe of her tongue was met with a gasp of pleasure; soon, it was too much for Viktoria, and she buried her face between Mimi's legs, her tongue exploring every little fold of flesh. She worked her tongue around Mimi's clit as she gently slid two fingers into her pussy and one into her ass. Mimi moaned in pleasure and returned the gesture, sliding two fingers from each hand into Viktoria's dripping pussy.

Viktoria screamed in pleasure and came so hard she squirted over Mimi's face. Mimi swallowed what she could as Viktoria climbed off and replaced her robe. She pulled a towel off the stall wall and helped Mimi get back into her leathers. They were a little tight, but once broken in, they would fit her perfectly. They were about to leave the stable when Viktoria heard a voice she recognized as one of the stable boys. She set off towards the voice but stopped short when she heard a dragon purr of pleasure.

She stormed off toward the purr with Mimi, trying to keep up, but her leathers rubbed, and she had to keep stopping. Viktoria went into the next building, the female holding pen from the breeding pens; she saw the boys and watched for a moment to see what they were doing. Mimi came up behind and watched what was happening. She went to speak, but Viktoria gently put the finger on her hips and shook her head.

The four boys are in the middle of the holding pen with two female dragons. She instantly recognizes them as Ebony and Ivory; the two dragons are on their backs, their tails twitching slightly in pleasure. Two boys were with each dragon. They were stripped down to their leather riding shorts, their backs were covered with scratches from the dragons, and they bled gently, not too deep, scratches given in lust, not malice. One of each pair of boys had their fists buried in the dragon pussy's up to the elbow, and they thrust them in deep and slow, pulling out one fist before sliding in the other. The second boy, pleasing ebony, was bent over her licking her clit; Viktoria couldn't make out the boys from behind as they all looked similar, with broad muscly backs and shoulder-length dirty blond hair, while the other pair took turns fisting Ivory.

Viktoria moves around for a better look. The dragons see her, but she signals them to stay. The boys are so caught up in their pleasure that they don't see her. Mimi follows behind, a little fascinated with what the boys are doing. She knew some breeds of dragons gave birth to live young and were very human in their genitalia.

As Viktoria watched the two boys with Ebony pull off their riding shorts to reveal their stiff throbbing cocks, straight away, she recognized them, Titas and Naith, the two biggest cocks out of the four. They got as close as they could and slid their cocks into Ebony's pussy. They groaned in pleasure as they began to fuck her, they gently gripped each other's ass cheeks as they thrust in, and they began to speed up, each thrust punctuated with a wet slap as they pounded Ebony's pussy. After a minute of pounding, they slid a finger into each other's assholes and began to finger each other as they fucked the dragon.

Dane and Eric were taking turns to fist Ivory. They watched what Titas and Naith were doing and tried to copy them. As Dane fisted Ivory, Eric licked around the cloaca and every few minutes, they would swap around. After Dane's third turn of fisting, they removed their shorts and tried to copy the others. They both slid into Ivory's cloaca; it was painful at first because of her scales, but after a couple of seconds, her cloaca was moist with dragon cum, and they were able to fuck easier; they saw the others begin to finger each other, and did the same.

All four boys were pounding into the dragons, and Viktoria could see they were getting close to coming. She stepped out of hiding and yelled, "What the fuck are you doing" The boys jumped and pulled out of the dragons, covering their pussy and cloaca in cum. They scrambled to grab their clothes as Viktoria stormed towards them, her robe flapping in the breeze and exposing her shaved pussy to them, they tried to cover their cocks, but she yelled, "Stand up straight and arms at your sides" They obeyed instantly dropping their cloths and standing straight, Mimi came out of hiding and walked up behind Viktoria her eyes drawn to the boys cocks.

Ebony and Ivory moaned as the pleasure ended abruptly and moved off to the other corner and began to lick each other clean, their tongues exploring each other and tasting the cum dripping off them. Once they were clean, they turned to watch what was happening, not fully understanding what was said but inquisitive about what would happen.

Viktoria demanded to know what was going on and why the boys weren't working when none could give her an answer that was a good enough reason. She had them turn and lean against the pen wall. She went over to an equipment chest, pulled out four sets of riding cuffs, and handed two sets to Mimi, "put them around Dane and Eric's wrists and over the hooks on the wall. I'll do the same with Naith and Titas." Mimi nodded and did as she was told; she didn't say a word to the boys as she bound their wrists and put them over the hooks; the boys whimpered, not knowing what was going to happen, but knew they were about to be severely punished.

Viktoria went back to the chest and pulled out a large strap-on. The cock was ten inches long and three inches wide; Mimi helped her secure it in place with a leather harness; Mimi went to each boy and rubbed lube onto each of their ass holes before stepping back silently to watch. Viktoria took a riding crop from the pen wall and walked behind the boys running the crop over the scratches on their backs, she continued doing this for ten minutes, and when she could see that the boys were beginning to relax, she struck them with the crop, not using her full strength but enough to leave red welts across each of their ass cheeks, she used the crop on each boy for a minute until their arses were red and raw shouting "you do not fuck the dragons when you are meant to be working and when you do not have permission."

Viktoria cast the crop aside, went up behind Titas, and gripped his shoulder before saying, "You will all take your punishment like men. If not, you will be fired." Titas nodded but didn't say a word. Viktoria pressed the head of the strap-on against his ass and thrust in. In one motion, she buried the entire cock in his ass before fucking him hard and fast for a minute before pulling out and sending him back to his quarters, she did the same with Naith and Eric, fucking them both hard, but they took the punishment and left the pen gathering their cloths on the way out.

She came to Dane, and as she pressed the cock against his ass, he bucked and pulled away, pleading and begging. Viktoria growled at him, low and furious. She took off the strap-on and cast it aside. She pulled the cuffs off the hook and took them off him before saying in a low, monotone voice, "Get your clothes, clear out your quarters, and get out of my stables. You are fired and not welcome back." he sobbed and cried and begged Viktoria to change her mind, she pulled him up by his hair and slapped him hard across the face "GET OUT" he grabbed his cloths and ran, by nightfall he had left the stables and began to make his way home to his parents in Imp.

After Dane had run Viktoria collapsed to the floor and began crying. Mimi came over and held her tight. Viktoria sobbed because she hated punishing her staff but knew that she had to, she called a couple of the off-duty stable hands to get Ebony and Ivory into clean pens and retired to her quarters. Mimi stayed with her for the entire night to comfort her; they went to bed and cuddled gently as they both fell to sleep; Mimi now knew never to piss Viktoria off.
