BEASTIALITY STORIES

Echos of Adona's heels could be heard on the pavement as her steps took her closer to the condo's street.

It was a calm night, filled with many out about the city streets on walks, dates, and the nightlife.

Sky was a color of navy blue, a sign of midnight coming on to the cityscape.

Adonas' eyes wandered over the passersby of the crowd, landing on a few handsome men in business attire briefcases in hand and a beverage in the other.

Many women in fitted suits like hers walked the streets, some with the handsome man her eyes landed on.

Neon lights of local businesses lit the sidewalks, making everyone have a following shadow behind them.

Smells like steak, ribs, BBQ, alcohol, and smoke were present in the rowdy sports bars.

Adona's passersby byes without her knowledge, were also landing their eyes on her.

Noticing first her raven blue hair, followed by her chocolate brown eyes, which stood out from her pallid complexion.

The girl was as thin as a stick, some would say, with medium-sized assets in front and back, not too much, not too little, just quite enough for an enjoyable view. Thoughts of her day kept Adona's mind busy as she reached the heavy silver-lined doorway of her condo.

After hearing a click, she put her body into open the heavy door, which creaked along, letting anyone who came through know it was a Victorian piece of art on hinges.

Inside was spacious, with red vintage couches and seats filling the living room quarters.

A wooden glass table stood in front of the couch, holding a silver, delicate tea set that Adona didn't use just for decoration, unlike the relatives who gave it as a gift. A plasma TV hung on the wall, and surround sound was placed in every corner of the room.

Curtains of maroon blood velvet hung in front of the windows, drawn close for privacy.

The rest of the rooms had the same basic reds, silvers, and Victorian art to give the whole condo a dreamy, romantic wonderland feel.

As Adona opened her refrigerator, her hands landed on watermelon cream soda. Then, she reached for a bag of dark red cherries.

Going to her sink, she washed them under a flowing stream of water falling from her faucet.

Popping open the bottle, she poured the cream soda into a tall glass, stooping before the soda overflowed.

Sitting down, she nudged off one of her white platform heels, letting it fall to the carpeted floor with a cushioned sound.

It was nice to be able to sit down for once to have everything in place without a bother.

Vacation? Vacation? I cannot believe I'm on vacation. Looking down at her Akita rescue dog, she made remarks to him, causing a reaction of a raised head and wagging puffy white tail.

The poor puppy was so small in size a year ago, a runt, the pet shop owner said to her, but there was no sign of those characteristics anymore. Now, Domino was a strong, playful dog who loved to play catch or tug of war with his new owner, eager to learn new tricks, so much so that a blue ribbon on the wall was proof of his abilities. By the side of Adonna was where he would usually lie, waiting for his next command or treat.

Adonas, setting down her glass, opened her suit, unbuttoning a button at a time until reaching the last button and taking off the tight garments. Rubbing her breasts, Adona could feel her nipples stiffening from the cooler air of the room goose bumps began to rise on her body. Going down with her other hand she reached for her vagina going up and down between the lips of her semi wet pussy.

A growl from Domino's throat was audible as soon as he could sniff his owner's scent.

Adona slipped a finger into her canal, arousing her G-spot, stroking the sponge-like ridges.

Domino now standing on his fours came forward eager to lick Adona's pussy wagging his tail to display his eagerness.

Not wanting to use her hand anymore, Adona moved it aside, laying it on the couch, spreading her legs for the dog, knowing she wouldn't regret her decision to spread them. Immediate stimulation was felt by her pussy as tiny buds went deep between her slit one lick after another till she could feel he cum beginning to build up. Wanting to feel penetration, Adona went down on the floor, kneeling on her knees, then her hands shuffling a few steps forward to entice Domino into mounting her.

Domino seeing Adona's ass in air knew he had permission to fuck his bitch how how he very much enjoyed.

Not ever fixed or neutered Domino had the pleasure of mating with bitches whose owners hoped for championship pups.

Adona could not but help to notice the huge dog dick domino had between his legs making the female dogs yelp as he was doing his business.

Being a hardworking woman had its drawbacks, including no time for a man or woman to please her as she wanted. Being with Domino gave her a dirty idea after remembering his mating sessions.

This dirty thought became a reality as she tapped her behind a few times, letting her dog know she was ready for what he had to offer. Domino ran up onto Adona's back, grasping her with his front legs while positioning his hind legs in place.

His penis erect he came forward reaching between the folds of his owners legs.

Adona braced for the first thrust trying to stay in position as the dog halfway pushed in his cock in to her backing up and fully ramming it in. The tight fit made Adona whine as her titties jiggled back and forth her knees becoming a bit pink from the friction of the rug and skin. She tried going forward to loosen up the dick inside her pussy only to be fucked harder and harder.

Her voice going hoarse from screaming now was a low moan sounds of dog cock could be heard well in the entire condo.

Her now knotted pussy was buzzing with pain and unimaginable pleasure as she let his hot semen shoot in to her filling her up with dog cum that could not leak past the knot.

As Domino pulled out a squeal was heard from his girl and cum ran down her legs splashing on the floor as she crawled back on to the couch.
