BEASTIALITY STORIES

My name is Belle. I am barely 18. I am writing this story because people's stories have helped me finely explore my fantasies. To describe myself, i am pretty small 5 foot,I have blonde hair and have a nice body. I wish i was pretty. I just don't seem to have the looks of my friends. Boys don't seem to mind. I get plenty of attention from them, but I am not interested in boys or girls. Well I kind of interested in boys, but I dunno, something just isn't there when i come to think of them. That's not to say I don't think about sex because i definitely do all the time. I wake up I'm thinking about it, in class, at hockey practise, watching t.v with my parents, shopping, in the shower all day everywhere. I pretty sure I am a bit different. Nearly all of my daydreams/ fantasies are about dogs. I also have fantasies about being forced or blackmailed. So I like watching girls with dogs on the Internet. When ever I'm alone it's what I watch. I masturbate nearly everyday. Someday I like to force myself not to touch myself. I don't have a dog it's so frustrating. My neighbours do but our family's don't get on. I offered to walk it for them once but they said the wasn't interested. So I came up with a plan. I had been watching porn nearly all day I was so wet almost dizzy. I had written in permanent marker on the inside on my thighs ,that i was a dog slut with a arrow to my freshly shaven pussy saying dogs only. I stood naked in the mirror admiring it I could see how wet I was without touching. I pulled a summer dress over my head pulled some lace panties I was to wet not to, and headed out to the garden. At the back of the garden there was lots of Hedges and trees it was sort of the same as the nextdoor. My plan was to make a small hole in the fence. This was the dog could stick his tounge through. I got the idea from a glory hole. But it needed to be secluded from both side, using the bushes to hide both of us. The neighbours never went out much nether did my mom.

I made my way to the back of the garden there was a perfect big bush right against the fence at the back. I spent a while cutting a opening. And cleared a bit in side. After a few hours it was complete. I made sure my mum wasn't around she though I was just gardening. I then got to my knees and crawled in the space there was nearly no room I realised that i would have to go in backward. After doing this I shuffled back until my ass was pushing against the wooden fence. I felt so dirty on my hands and knees lifted my dress up and felt the cool wood pushing against my ass. I crawled out and went to grab the clippers. Then ducked down and crawled back in facing forward. There was a small gap already. I pushed the clippers in a started sort of chipping away a quietly as I could until the hole was about the size of two fists. I peered through and was greeted by thick bushes. Perfect!. I was so excited i went back in grabbed some peanut butter then went back to smother the hole in it. Then feeling rather pleased with myself I went back up to my room, to watch and see if the big black lab would go to it. I sat watching for hours for a long time it was nearly dark when I saw him coming out of the bush licking his lips. I felt sick with excitement I quickly went downstairs, grabbed the peanut butter and darted down the garden I crawled in, and could see he had cleaned it all.

I smothered it all again and went back to the house. I was pretty sure he was in the house, so I closed the blinds and went to touch myself. I had been aching to all day but i stopped my self. I didn't want to be able to control myself in the morning when i knew he would be let out at 6 am. I didn't sleep much that night. I woke up about 4, I was abit disappointed that it was raining. But I was determined to see this through . I needed to feel it. I waited an hour then got dressed i i want to feel slutty in a dress but it was raining. Who cares? I thought I slipped my blue summer dress on and put a large coat over the top. I crept down the garden it was still dark. I crawled into the hedge to see it he had eaten the he had it was all licked clean I felt my stomach clenching. I put my hands between my legs and felt my own wetness. I got out then looked around all was quiet. I got back to my knees and backed in. I shuffled back and lifted my skirt. I had made the hole slightly lower than i though I had to arch my back more. To push my pussy against the hole. I must have looked so desperate muddy knees and elbows, skirt up over my back and pussy pushed against the fence waiting for the dog to lick me. I waited for ages. Then I heard the door open in the distance. I felt excitement surge through me. Nothing happened I waited with my pussy pushing hard against the hole.

I began to feel a bit ridiculous but then a long tongue licked me from my clit all the way to my ass. The breath was completely taken from me. I wanted to scream. Then he licked me again faster like he was assaulting it. I was in heaven I was rubbing my pussy up and down the hole. Every so often i feel his teeth nip me or graze it I wasn't sure and didn't care. After only a few moments i exploded. I had never had a orgasm like it, I couldn't stop cumming. The build-up from years of dreaming about it was erupting from me. He was licking ever where he could. I was still cumming when his owner shouted for him. He turned and ran off. Leaving still cumming shaking and my head on the floor. After a while I managed to slowly crawl out of the bush. I had mud in my mouth hair and all over my face. My dress was filthy I put my coat on. It was drenched and made my way back to the house. And slipped up stairs how my parents was still asleep was a miracle. I stripped off and got in the shower. I was carefully not to wash my groin and ass. I wanted to walk around with my cum and his spit on my pussy and ass.

I had walked around all day my pussy in a complete mess. Omg I was so wound up I couldn't really concentrate. I needed more but I needed to think make a better plan. I wasn't sure what to do next. I knew what I wanted. It was just how. Evening came I had just got home from a meal out with the family. I went straight up stairs. From my room I searched the neighbours garden, and there he was lying down on the grass. I was wearing one of my best outfits from the meal, but no time to change. I quickly went downstairs and went out into the garden. I was almost running, I had to tell myself to slow down it would look suspicious. Quick look around in then ducked under and backed in to my whore den. I pulled my dress up and left in haggling around my waist. With one hand supporting me I reached back tugged my wet panties down. Here I was again looking like a complete desperate slut on all fours ass pushing against the fence. I waited for a while, I tapped few times not too loud, to get his attention.

I heard the rustling behind. Then awwwww yesss perfect he was licking me so good. I had my hand back parting my lips. His tongue was going soooo deep. I came so hard omg just so hard. When I got my breath back, I quickly crawled out panties around my knees. Then went back in face first I need to see him up close and say thank you. I could see his nose and most of his face sticking through the hole. It was bigger then I made it I guess it was more rotten than i thought. I was face to face with him he licked my face. My whole body was burning with just. I opened my mouth and he soon licking inside it. Seeing lots of porn like this i had always wanted to kiss like this I felt so dirty. In that moment I knew i needed more . The hole needed to be bigger in desperation I started trying to pull the horizontal plank off. I wiggled and tugged until eventually it gave way. The lab tried to push through but he was too big. I decided to try and get to him it wasn't an ideal hole, to climb through. I put both arms through the gap and wiggled my shoulders through. The lab was licking my face while i tried this.

Then i realised I was stuck my dress had bunched up and I couldn't get my waste through. Shit shit I thought luckily no one could see me in the bushes was dense in their garden. I knew i would be able to get out backwards so i calmed down abit. Then excitement rushing through I reached out and stroked the dog. Then slowly running my hands under him to feel his cock. This was incredible, smiling I stroked back and forth then he started to show himself. His excitement made me ever wetter. I started to jerk him off.

I hadn't thought it through much because a few moments later he mounted me his cock was thrusting everywhere banging all over my face. I knew my place, I opened my mouth and few moments later he hit his mark. I couldn't believe I had a dog cock in my mouth! I felt his paw tighten around my armpits and he drove home fucking my mouth so hard. At first I could manage his cock but it just got bigger and bigger. I was soon gagging he was slamming into me like a jackhammer. I thought I was going to pass out his knot was banging at my lips now. All I could see was fur when I opened my eyes.

Forcing my lips wider his knot slipped in. Then he erupted down my throat it came out my nose and I could feel it feeling me up. After he finished cumming down his bitch's throat. I relaxed and managed to breathe through my nose but it was hard. Locked to him, I knew I was a bitch nothing more and deserved this. After what felt like a long time knot popped out my mouth. Then slowly he pulled his cock from my throat. I gasped and could feel his cum running down my chin. Then he simply wandered off leaving me there half in the fence dog cum pouring from my nose and mouth, like I was nothing but a hole to use. I was in bliss it took me a while to shuffle out but I managed it. I snuck back to my room and looked at myself my best dress ruined my face covered in drying dog cum I lifted my dress to see the faded for dog only writing. I was a whore a desperate stupid whore and right there I fingered myself in front of the mirror.

My parents were going away from the week. It'd been a few days since I left the dog fuck me in the face. I cannot stop thinking about it. My throat was so sore every time. Every time I swallows food, it remind me and what a whore I was. I was so excited about my parents leaving for a week. Because I planned to take out more of the fence so he could come over to my side and use me. I wanted to be used in every single way. It was time for me to become a complete dog slut. I wanted him to break me like he could break my throat.

Bye mum bye dad, I said as they drive off the drive. And disappear down the road. I hurried round to the Garden shed. Grabbing some tools. I went to the back of the garden. Ducked into my bush crawled forward And very quietly started hacking away at the fence. Because I have to do so quietly did take a long time. But soon enough I had a hole big enough for me and him to get through. The familiar butterfly started building in my tummy. Couldn't help but crawl through just to see if he was there. But to my disappointment, he was still in the house. The thought that he could come out any time and find his bitch waiting for him. I slipped my hand down my shorts to feel how wet I was. My pussy was Aching waiting for him. I backed out to the hole and put the make shift ply wood across the gap. So we couldn't run in whenever everyone wanted. Make my way back to the house. I went upstairs to take a shower to get myself ready for my lover. I spent extra time making sure I was really smooth. Standing in front of my phone mirror I admired myself the first time my life. This Body was for him to use in anyway he wanted. If he mounted me from the front tonight, he would get my mouth it wasn't my choice. If he mouted from the back he would get my virgin pussy. Making my way downstairs into the garden It was pretty dark now. I was going to walk in the garden naked. The feeling was exhilarating I really like the idea of being seen, but it's complete scary as well. I remember that I'm only seventeen It is really big step.

Taking a deep breath I quickly ran down the garden And ducked down into the bushes. Omg that was so exciting. Is it definitely a side, I didn't realize existed. I was waiting for so long. I didn't know how much more I could take my pussy lips was swollen. It was ready for him to take. I waited for the 2 hours on my hands knees then the door finally opened. I had studied the garden for a while. I Realised that this is when he was out for longest. it wasn't long till I felt that familiar tongue lapping against My wet cunt. How he made me burn inside

I couldn't let him mount me It was too small, with him behind me I began to crawl forward to lead him to where he could fuck me. I could feel his excitement behind me, he tried to jump up me. Twice before I left the bush. When I left the bush I stood up I walked behind the garden shed. As I walked he was jumping up and scratching me everywhere. It was really dark now . When I got to the shed I turned my back to the shed and leaned up it with lab between my legs licking me. This was it when I got on my hands and knees.He was going to mount me He was going to fuck me.I was going to be his bitch. The feeling of humiliation excitement and desire Flooded through me. I slowly got onto my hands and knees. With him constant jumping up me. As soon as my ass was in the right position , he jumped on me and wraped his paws aroind my lillte waste . I felt like a bitch straight away underneath this big dog. He was humping like mad.I was so desperate to get it me I reach back to try and guide him.Before I got back there , He rammed it in my cunt. I whimpered as he fucked me so hard. Scratching on the side of my body. He Was stretching me like a never been stretched. Fuck me.I whispered under my breath im your bitch. I could feel his knot growing and tried to force his way into me. I opened my legs more.Knowing that this is what I should do to make sure you could get in me. He's knot banging against my pussy. He was fucking so hard i could barly keep my self from collapsing. Faster and faster he fucked and then it slipped i screamed out . It really hurt me feeling I was going to rip open. I didnt expepect to be this painful. But I knew my place under him.i could Feel him filling me up.

His cum.was pumping in to me i could feel myself swelling with doggy cum. He jumped off me and turned around now ass to ass. I moved back and forwards so desperate to cum. rubbing my Clit furiously. Then I came on his big cock. I was a bitch in heat. A loud moon escaped my lips. Then my shoulders slumped to the ground. I was out of breath but the happiest I ever been. Then another jolt of pleasure Surged through me. As he's knot and big cock slipped out. I spun round to see A big red cock Throbbing in front of my face. I instinctively Put it in my whore mouth And slowly ran my lips up and down its length. Tasting his cum and my cum mixed together I sucked him for a few minutes before he walked away. Leaving his cum drenched bitch on her hands and knees Where she belonged.

It had been a few weeks of sneaking down to my hide out and letting the neighbours dog use me. It was early. I had woken up at 4 am and sat by my window, waited for the neighbour to let the dog out. I only had to wait for 30 minutes and I there he was bounding around the garden. I sneaked down stairs with just my dressing gown on. Out in to the garden and across the wet grass. A quick look around then I ducked in to the hedge. And crawled to the fence. He wasn't there so I moved the board covering our hole and slipped through the gap. Still on my hands and knees I awkwardly removed my robe and waited. It wasn't long before the dog found me, his submissive little bitch. He wanted one thing and wasn't prepared to wait for it. Mounting me straight away. Normally he would take a few minutes to find the right place, but not today. He rammed his cock far into me I let out a small squeal I had never done that before.

Dizzy with excitement I pushed hard back. And his knott slid in. A eruption of pleasure inside me I came on his pulsating cock. Panting myself I kept still, waiting for the plop that came when he pulled out. It didn't come I felt a small tug but he was still in me. We was locked together. A sence of panic took over, I felt myself blush. Stay calm I told myself stay calm he will release soon I've seen it on the videos. 10 minutes past and still locked tight together. Then a shudder past through me as I heard my neighbour was shouting his dog. Fuck fuck fuck I hissed to myself I pulled forward to try and get away. But still I was locked to the dog. He called again and the dog barked in response. No no no I was really panicking now. WHAT'S GOING ON I heard my neighbour say. I looked up with tears in my eyes at the man standing looking down at me.

I'm sorry I'm sorry please I begged. But he just stood in shock. After a few minutes he seemed to draw composure. I will wait for my dog not to be in you before we talk about this he said. I nodded and looked back at the floor. after what felt like forever he felt the cock ease out of me. A flood of cum came out of me and on the floor. How long have you been doing this he asked. I mumbled weeks still looking at the floor. I went to get off my hands and knees. In a stern voice he told me to stay there. I froze and didn't move. I asked in a small voice will you tell my family. He didn't reply just said what's your phone number.

Why I asked. Just tell it to me he said in a aggressive voice. I told him my number and I watched him type it in his phone. Your name is now bitch like you so want to be. I nodded I was crying alot now. You say yes sir to me. Yes sir I said in a small voice. Now go and clean your self up your a fucking mess bitch. He watched as I crawled back through the fence. Then I heard him walk off. I sneaked back up to my room in a one morning everything had changed I showered straight away. How could I be so stupid the whole thing was idiotic. I checked my phone every ten minutes but nothing happened. I spent the day on edge jumping a mile anytime someone spoke to me. Night came and still nothing it wasn't until 11pm that my phone lit up.

I looked at my phone.

Sir

Good girl you look stupid doing that are you ashamed to be so excited? I have a job for you in the morning. I'm sure you will enjoy it. When your stepdad gets up for work I want you to be lying on your bed your door partly open with light on. You will cover your face with a pillow or blanket so you can't see. It will make it easier for him to watch you play with your self. You will position the phone so i can see you and the door. You will have your headphones on so I can talk in your ear and give instruction. Do you understand all of this bitch

Belle

Really? Please I don't want to

Sir

Did you understand?

Belle

Yes sir

I stepped down from the window and closed the curtain I walked over to the mirror. I looked a mess I could see just how wet I was. I didn't really know how I felt anymore mostly numb I guess.

Sir

What time does he start getting up for work?

Belle

6:30

Sir

Video call me at 6

I walked from the mirror and got straight in bed. I couldn't see much point in dressing. I put my phone on charge and set a alarm for 5:45. I pretty much fell straight to sleep. I was emotionally exhausted.

My alarm woke me the next morning. I wanted to be sick. In no time it was 6 I called Sir.

Sir-morning bitch are you excited?

Belle-no Sir I'm not

Sir- ha you will be, can you out your earphones in let's get ready for this.

Belle-ok

Sir that's good you can hear me clearly your phone is set up perfect. Let's do this bitch. Put your pillow on your chest that way he can't see your face... good girl that's it. Now put your hand between your legs. Make sure they are open nice and wide. I will tell you when he is there make sure you do everything I tell you. I might let the dog have you I know how much you like it. That is if you are good.

I lay there trembling I felt so naked and exposed I knew any minute he could walk past. I was so wet but more afraid. I was slowly rubbing myself my pussy was swollen with excitement it felt like my body was betraying me. I continued to play with myself not trying too hard. I was more nervous than anything than in my ear Sir voice made me jump he is there by your door looking in. Be a good girl and move those hips show him how horny you are. I started moving I was completely burning up I felt so ashamed. Sir -moan louder let him hear you bitch. I let out a deep breath and moan quietly. Sir- louder!! I did as he said letting a louder moan. My pussy was so wet I could feel an orgasm building deep in me. Sir- that's it he's watching everything he even has his phone out filming you. Say how much you want old man cock to use you say it loud.

I can't I whispered. Sir- do it now say it!!! I felt the orgasm starting and I blurted out I want cock old man cock daddy's to use me. The orgasm was so intense I convulsed on the bed. Squirmed with pleasure. I opened my eyes to look at the door no one was there I could hear him walking down the hall. My legs soaking my body aching I heard the words stupid bitch and the phone hand up. I got dressed but avoided going down stairs. Eventually I got called down for breakfast. There he was sitting at the table. Like nothing had happened but occasionally looking at me and his eyes would linger on me. My phone lit up on my lap.

Sir

enjoy this video of you coming to an audience better get used to that.

I turned my volume down and watched it in my lap. There I was playing with myself and my fat horrible stepdad watching from the door with his phone out. He was on his phone now holding it close to his chest as he watched it. I blushed and left the room heart beating I closed my eyes I was deep I thought.

2 days have passed. Nothing from my neighbour I was starting to relax and feel like it would all go away. I thought over what had happened, it still made me feel ashamed and turned on it was all so confusing. I lay in bed rolling over I looked at my bedside table. My phone lit up, my tummy turned. With shaking hands I reach over.

Sir

Fancy being a bitch right now my dog needs relief. Come through the hole in the fence be naked wait on your knees in pain site middle of the lawn.

I gasped and shuddered. I hadn't thought very much about the dog since the incident. Like I slave I got up walked to bedroom door and grabbed my dressing gown. Slipping off my pyjamas. I was now naked I slipped on the gown. As I opened the door I could feel the wetness between my legs. Slipping down stairs and out side. I sneaked to the fence, ducked down and crawled through.

Emerging in my neighbours garden I looked around no one was there. I walked to the centre on the garden. My legs was shaking I lowered myself to my knees. I looked up at my house praying no one would see me it was pretty dark.i don't know how much time passed it felt like forever. Lights flickered on in my neighbours house. I looked and could see more than one person my heart sank. The door opened my neighbour and another man walking over to me. They said nothing his friend came close to me and stroked my head. I was so close to him he had stood directly in front of me. With me being on my knees. My eyeline was his crotch it was bulging. He was fat and looked old maybe late 50s. He unbuttoned his jeans and pulled his boxers down a bit. Taking out his cock.

Stranger- suck it

I kneeled there just staring at it I didn't want to. I turned my head to see. A phone light pointing at my face. It blinded me in the daze I leaned back. I felt two hands grab each side of my head. His cock bumped in to my face. I could smell musky excited cock. He was pushing against my lips. Then I could feel myself giving in. I opened my mouth a small amount, his cock was pressing against my opening lips. The first taste of salty precum touched my tongue. I began to let him in, I started to gag from the idea of his unwanted cock. I could vaguely hear laughing behind me. I closed my eyes tighter and sucked. I could feel him moaning in my mouth, his cock twitching and moving in and out. Faster and faster his pubes was now touching my face i was gagging and spitting up but his cock was relentless in and out in and out.

His cock seem to grow and with out warning my neighbour was stood behind me holding my head from the back. The stranger grabbed harder on the sides of my face. He erupted down my throat he pushed with all his force his belly pushing my forehead his pubes up my nose and his cock so far in my throat. His balls pushing hard in my chin. I tried to breath. I couldn't I was truing to be sick but couldn't. I could feel him emptying himself in to my tummy. My eyes was streaming I was grabbing at the stranger but still he held it in me. Eventually he pulled it out with such force I threw up everywhere. I tried to stand and I was pushed down.so that my head was on the floor. Then I felt the familiar paws and weight on my back. The dog was humping all around my pussy. I must be wet i thought the cock slid straight in me. He was fucking me already so hard. I moaned load I had missed this. I might be all over the place right now but this felt right. This dog had never failed to make me cum and I felt it again rising in me I felt the knot pushing against the entrance to what felt like my soul. He was in it felt amazing. I was vaguely aware of the phone light circling me. It felt worth it to have the dog again.

Stranger- she is a slut for dogs look at her

Sir- I know I have plans for her she will do anything

Stranger- what next then

Sir- probably just use her for a few weeks

Stranger- can I fuck her

Sir- if you want she is dirty though full of dog cum but do what you want

Stranger- thanks

I was perfectly still as they spoke. It was like they spoke of someone else like I wasn't real. The dog was still joined to me

I heard one of them walking off I looked around it was Sir he was leaving me with this man.

The stranger walked over to me and crouched down your coming with me. I watched as he waited for the dog to release me when he did I felt him hoist me up. Follow me bitch. He led me the garden gate I resisted do as your told bitch out on to the drive I was completely naked.

Stranger- get in the car

I said nothing and opened the door and hesitated before getting in.
