BEASTIALITY STORIES

I am a full time crossdresser living and working as a woman for many years permanently hairless except for my eyebrows and eyelashes and long hair on my head.

I decided to get away from the house for a couple days so I went rented a small cabin in quite mountains. On the way I stopped and got my nails done and painted and toes painted and eyebrows waxed. I was about halfway there and I stopped along the road due to I had to get a drink out of the cooler in the trunk of my car. When out of know where's a big great Dane mix came out of the woods very friendly he was hungry so I gave him some food and drink. I was got back in my car and started to drive he started chasing me so I figured somebody dumped him. So I stop and let him in. He was kind of stinky so I rolled down the window till we got to the cabin.

When I got to the cabin I noticed that he did have a collar on and a note, saying his name was Axle and why they dropped him also his rabies shot and other vet stuff he was only two. Well after I got my stuff in the cabin I gave him a good bath he didn't have a flea or tick on him. I was drying him off with a towel and he got very excited about it. I just ignored it. It was a long drive so I wanted for a while to get a shower. I got out of the shower and he was right there. I was drying off when I bent over he licked my man pussy which made me jump. I told him no and go lay down . I finished drying off and put on a long night gown was going to take a nap. I laid down on the bed slept couple of hours and woke up and barely had any signal on my phone but enough to watch a couple of videos. He was very good and I let him on the bed with me after I was done. I was petting him and he kept licking me. A couple of times his tongue went in my mouth. I was petting his stomach and he got excited again so I actually rubbed his cock a couple of times it had to be a good 2" around and 7" or more.

I thought about it and telling myself that I shouldn't. It was a few minutes later he was licking my neck and I said to him you want mommy to get dressed sexy for you one kiss no three yes he licked me three times. So I got up and went in the bathroom and changed into a corset and stockings and heels and did my makeup and lipstick and hair I did have breast implants so I had half corset on with garter straps. My cock and balls are very very very small from hormones I took. I looked at myself in the mirror and thought again about it opened the bathroom door and he was laying there. He looked up at me and his tail wagging. So I kneeled down he sat up and licked my lipstick lips and my nipples. I stood up and told him to stay when I turned he licked my pussy again.

I went and laid down on the bed and called him he jumped on the bed and immediately started licking my face and lipstick lips he really must have liked my red lipstick lips he kept licking them. I closed my eyes and opened my mouth letting his big tongue in after a few minutes I was extremely horny from it since he was standing up I reached up and started to rub his cock which was out about half way. I told him to lay down and he did. I moved so I was on my knees and he was laying on his side. I bent down and started licking the sheath all over and his balls. Then I licked what cock was out a few times realizing it was bigger than 2" around more 3.5 and longer than 7" . I done went this far so I laid down with him my head on him licking around the end of his pink doggy cock and then took it in my mouth. With my red lips wrapped around it I started sucking him . The more I sucked the more his cock came out and more his juice ran down my throat. I loved how his cock felt and tasted. Well he got restless and started licking his self as I was sucking him then got up.

He jumped down on the floor I was laying on the bed feeling a bit disappointed on my belly. He started to wine so maybe he wanted out so I got up but I didn't even get to the door before he licked my bussy . So I leaned over a table let him go at it for a while moaning and loving it . My legs got weak so I grabbed a pillow off the bed and got down on the floor on my knees and almost flat on my chest with my ass up . At first he just came up licking my face and lipstick . I patted my ass cheeks he went back and licked me couple of times . Well he got over top of me but didn't mount me but I could feel his cock hanging out on my crack. I reach back rubbing the end of against my hole. I pushed it inside of me some and that was all it took. He wrapped his paws and legs around me and started to fuck me. He was fucking the hell out of his juice ran down my thighs I was moaning wildly. After a few minutes of him trying he knott finally was in me. He fucked me steady for a good hour. The back of my corset soaked from his drooling and stockings soaked from his doggy cum. I was so weak in my legs and my bussy gapping and extremely satisfied as well.

My legs so weak I just laid there for a while on my stomach he laid down above my head. His cock completely out of the sheath still. He was licking so I moved positioning my so I could help him lick it to.
