BEASTIALITY STORIES

Part One - Surprised by Dillan

Hi there, I'm Wendy, a married 36yo redhead woman with a large sexual appetite. I have quite big breasts with nipples that grow and protrude over an inch when I'm aroused. I'm curvy but not as slim as I'd like and my best feature (according to hubby) is my neat ginger lady garden on my pussy.

Our dog Dillan has always had a need to hump something and both my husband's legs and my own have been the subject of some serious humping in the past. When he is going for it you just have to let him finish. With being a big heavy dog he has a really big cock when it comes out of its sheath - my hubby has measured it at 11 inches. I must admit to having an orgasm once when he was humping my stockinged leg - when he came, many spurts of his spunk shot up under my skirt, onto my bare inner thigh. It felt so hot and so close to my pussy that I succumbed to a mini climax. Of course, he completely ruined my stocking as a result of the vigorous humping, laddering and even tearing it with his cock not to mention the messy cum stains.

So we had to be careful when having sex ourselves, especially downstairs. He was usually restricted to the kitchen and never allowed upstairs. One evening after I arrived home from work, my hubby seduced me after dinner. Dillan was duly banished to the kitchen. I had stopped taking the pill as we were trying to get pregnant. Hubby was on a night shift but for the few hours before he had to leave, we had great sex on the sofa and he managed to deposit two loads of his sperm into my unprotected pussy.

I was quite exhausted and just lay on the sofa naked with my legs up, wallowing in post-coital bliss with my vagina full of hubby's cum, trying to keep it inside me and ensure none leaked out over the fabric. I must have dozed off for a while but was abruptly awoken on feeling my pussy being flicked - Dillan had somehow got out of the kitchen (later I found he could pull down the handle). His nose was between my legs and his tongue was lapping my slit. His tongue delved deeper into my crack no doubt enjoying to taste of my sex fluids and maybe even my husband's cum. I tried to push him away but within seconds I actually succumbed to a massive climax which had me jerking uncontrollably. I lost complete control of my legs which wobbled between open and closed.

I managed to sit up and push him back but he wasn't taking no for an answer. He jumped on me, his weight pushing me back into the sofa. I could see his huge, stiff cock, fully released from his sheath and got very worried. His front legs were on the arm of the sofa as he pressed me down into the corner. I reached up to his head and neck to try and push him away again but he was too heavy. So I raised my legs in an attempt to kick him off me - this wasn't a good idea as it lifted my bum and exposed both my vagina and anus. Instantly, he pushed forward and the pointed end of his cock hit my anus. I gasped and shouted "No Dillan, no". But his cock slipped forward along my slit and he expertly found my vagina opening. I squealed when I felt him push his cock inside and he immediately began fucking me.

As the seconds passed his cock seemed to grow inside me and soon it was hitting my cervix hard, the pointed bit even penetrating the narrow opening and slipping inside. Initially it was sore but soon I succumbed to a shattering orgasm and for the first time in my life, my pussy exploded, shooting my sex juices all over the floor. All I could do was hold onto him until he'd finished mating me. He was fucking me so hard, thrusting so fast that my tits wobbled uncontrollably and my body was pushed back and forth into the sofa. I knew I had to try and relax otherwise it would have been so painful. So I clasped my legs around his body in order to raise my vagina so his angle of thrust could easily penetrate me. His knot had begun to form and he was ploughing it in and out of my stretched vagina. It was almost unbearable and once again I climaxed hard, screaming in ecstasy as Dillan began to growl. He'd only been fucking me for a minute or so but it was clear he was reaching his end goal. His humping became harder but slowed as he pushed his knot into me for the final time.

The hard thrusts at the end did hurt, especially as they forced the tip of his cock deeper into my cervix than before. He was truly locked inside me and like it or not, I knew he was about to release his sperm into me. I screamed again and again as his pulsating penis released his semen. Many spurts of hot cum flooded my cervix and vagina but nothing escaped as his knot ensured my insides were fully saturated and flooded beyond capacity with his doggy cum. He kept cumming in me for a good 10 minutes before his knot reduced sufficiently for him to pull out of me. I felt so full, overly full like when you've eaten too much but when he pulled out, a huge torrent of semen poured out of me, over the sofa and onto the floor. It was such a hot cloudy mess but all I could do was lie there rubbing his excess cum over my body and gasping for air.

I watched him lie on the floor lapping his still hard and visible cock and the pools of sex fluids on the floor. I couldn't believe that I'd just been fucked by my dog and even more amazing was the fact I'd managed to take his full 11 inches of thick shaft inside me. Amazingly, I fell pregnant as a result of the sex I'd initially had with hubby that evening but of course I also had Dillan's sperm inside me along with my husband's seed so in a sense, Dillan had also mated me.

Part Two - Mating with Dillan

In my previous story, my sex crazed Great Dane, Dillan, had somehow managed to escape from the kitchen. His urge to mate after sniffing my naked pussy, which had earlier been filled with my husband's cum during sex, was overpowering and I ended up getting fucked by him and taking a huge load of doggy semen deep inside me. That happened 3 years ago.

I had become pregnant to hubby as a result of sex we had had earlier that night. Dillan was constantly trying to sniff my crotch even when I was fully clothed and I regularly watched him walk around with his big 11 inch penis extended from his sheath. A couple of months had passed and I still couldn't get what had happened out of my head. I'd reached some pretty violent orgasms when Dillan was humping my pussy and I'd even felt the pointed tip of his wonderful penis penetrate my cervix and push into my womb. Yes it had been sore at times but it had also been amazing, especially when his knot penetrated me and he began to spray his cum into me for a good 10 mins or so before pulling out, leaving me spent, drenched and very, very satisfied.

I knew this wasn't right but I couldn't stop thinking about it. After a further 3 months, my baby bump was clear to see but again I couldn't get Dillan out of my head. My husband never knew what happened that night after he'd left for work. I never told him how I'd been fucked by our dog. He was away with work quite a lot and had started a new job which required a lot of travel. He had bought me an ejaculating dildo toy for me to play with while he was away I did enjoy feeling the fake cum shoot into me. But I was missing real sex while pregnant. I really needed fucking and so I nervously turned to Dillan.

I brought him upstairs for once to our bedroom. I stripped naked and began to pleasure myself on the bed with the dildo, sliding it in and out of my vagina before eventually pressing the little button and watching it spray fake cum all over my tits. Dillan began panting and I could see his big penis extend out of his sheath. He was not allowed on the bed but did keep coming over in an attempt to sniff my sexy parts. I must have been quite a tease for him but eventually I invited him to jump up onto the bed. I laid down and opened my legs for him and he went straight for my pussy, pushing his nose into my ginger pubes and lapping my already wet slit with his long tongue. After only a few minutes I cried out in ecstasy as I reached my first orgasm of the night. I could see Dillan becoming more agitated and knew he was getting the urge to mate and that meant fucking me. But I tried to control him by taking his big cock in my hands and massaging it. Precum was coming out of the tip and I decided to take his cock in my mouth. Dillan lay down and I began licking the tip of his penis with feathery strokes of my tongue before taking it all in my mouth. I could only manage about 5 inches of his thick shaft but he seemed to be enjoying it. I was rubbing my pussy and shoving fingers up my wet sex hole as my climax began to build. Eventually I cried out again when I came. As the orgasm subsided, Dillan jumped up and began licking my pussy again.

I felt so aroused I just needed to feel his big cock inside me once more. I got up on all fours and guided Dillan towards my bum. He sniffed my ass and licked my wet crack before attempting to mount me from behind. The first few times he failed to connect. I placed several pillows under my groin so my bum was raised up and my head much lower. This was what he needed. Dillan again mounted me from behind placing his front paws on my shoulders so pushing me down into the bed. I could now feel his pulsating cock and short sprays of warm precum hitting my slit. He expertly found my aching wet hole and pushed every inch of his wonderful cock inside me. He began to hump vigorously, pounding me hard so that his cock penetrated deeper into my sex tunnel. I was screaming in ecstasy and even crying out for him to fuck me. His panting was growing and I could feel his hot breath on my neck. I succumbed to several shattering orgasms and my pussy squirted twice during the 2 or 3 minutes of intense fucking he was giving me. He was fucking me so hard that his balls were bashing my clit and making loud slapping noises. My ass was wobbling with every firm thrust and I was gripping hard on the bed clothes as he took me completely. I could feel his throbbing knot push inside me then pull out again as he humped. I could feel it getting bigger very quickly and it increasingly stretched my vagina to the limit. It was a bit sore near the end but eventually he couldn't pull it out and it was firmly entrenched in my vagina.

I screamed with anticipation, knowing that a torrent of sperm and semen was about to be released into my womb. He growled loudly enjoying the feeling of his pulsating cock exploding inside me, flooding me with his seed. He collapsed on top of me, his head and panting face resting on my head as he continued to fill me. He finally finished about 10 minutes later and his knot had reduced sufficiently to pull out. A huge river of cloudy cum leaked from my sex hole and formed a short-lived pool on the bed clothes before seeping into them leaving a massive wet patch on my duvet. Other equally large wet patches were visible - the result of my own sex fluids squirting uncontrollably out of my vagina. I wearily got up and gently rubbed his cock as he lay on the bed.

About 10 maybe 15 minutes later he was up again and trying to mount me. I moved to the end of the bed then let him jump on me to push me back. I lifted my legs and clasped them around his body raising my bum and pussy so he could fuck me again. Dillan knew exactly where my sex hole was and what to do with it as he fucked and filled me for a second time. He ejaculation deep inside me was just as strong and messy as the first, leaving me so laden with dog sperm. During the fuck my baby bump wobbled vigorously in sync with Dillan's powerful thrusts.

When he'd finally mated and impregnated me for the second time I climbed into bed and fell asleep. Dillan lay on top of the bed all night until he woke me up next morning needing out to pee. I also needed a big pee unsurprisingly. The bed clothes were drenched and stained with his cum and still wet when I awoke. There was much clearing up and showering to be done after all that messy mating.

That was my last encounter with Dillan and in fact dogs. A few months later, Dillan was hit by a car and did not survive. I was devastated at losing a loyal friend and one who had fully satisfied my sexual needs and desires. However, my high sex drive has resulted in other encounters both pre- Dillan and more recently. I still need to have lots of sex in my life and I'm getting it.
