BEASTIALITY STORIES

Yes I had the most exciting friend at home, it was our dog Rex. A real bossy sort of mutt that let my wife know that as partners we were the business. She loved but hated him. That mutt of yours thinks he's the boss when you're not here. He constantly plagues me for whatever food takes his fancy or keeping on until he takes me for a walk of his desire. The mutt can pull me in whatever direction he please's, we should have had one more suited to my small stature. Fucking mutt.

That was the parting I got as I left for work on this bright sunny morning. I thought about this over the working period and had concluded she hadn't been all wrong, but then again she like myself never dreamed that that cuddly faced ball of fluffy kissing pup would grow to be a dog not far short of my petite wife's weight. This petite small breasted narrow waisted, smooth assed sex machine that fucked my brains out most days and was always willing to gobble the sperm from my aching blood engorged hardon. Fuck I loved that woman!

Now approaching my front door. Home with a bunch of roses in hand, I looked forward to my next ravishing with expectations of a really hard 'head job' before a good fucking. How wrong can a man be! I keyed the door and in split seconds entered the lounge. My wife scrambling back up onto the settee, - looking guilty as hell, windswept hair, a hot looking flushed face and lacking any form of footwear. "Where the hell did you come from? Its too early for you already!" - She looked at the clock. - It was, I'd headed off to get flowers for a surprise, I uttered, placing the bunch of roses on the table. - "You certainly achieved that then" - "No problem, what's been going on, you look all hot and flustered" - Then came the usual reply when speaking of our mutt.

"Its that dog of yours look at me, I look like he's just dragged me through a hedge backwards, and he damn nearly did, all because he saw a she dog he fancied, my shoes are ruined, just look outside they're all muddy, blinking mutt, he ought to be nutured, damn thing" - I smiled. - "Its alright for you to stand there grinning, that fucker can do no wrong in your eyes, can he?" - "No wrong? From where I'm standing he could do a lot of right I reckon" - "What're you talking about, you idiot, there you go protecting your damn dog again" - "No, don't you see what I see? There's just no damn justice in this world. Why the hell couldn't men be given one like that, now that's what you call a cock, just look at it size and that colour. Just look at all those thick veins along it, like wrestlers forearm and to top it all not only has it got a bone up the inside, but the end looks like a lopsided volcano with clear lava pouring from it"

"You filthy pig, made a big study have we? When did you see that so close up?" - "NO WOMAN. I'm talking right now, - Rex was stood with a massive hardon hanging from his loins as precum dripped from the said volcano shaped end. - He never brought that all the way back from the field, that's become him far nearer home I'd say" - "You filthy pig, you can't say things like that about me, - Bending forward and taking in the site under Rex's belly, clearly to hide the look of guilt on her still flushed face. - I never even noticed that huge thing hanging there like a big drooping flagpole. Anyway, why is his balls out of the furry part, has his walk ruptured him or something?" - "No, that's his knot" - "Knot, yeah, I 'spose it does look like a knot in a rope in a way. Why've he got a knot then?" - "He uses it like a butt plug" - "What's that?" - "OH! Never mind, its a way of making it stay inside the bitch to give his semen the best chance of impregnation" - "Oh it helps him fuck her! I see!"

"Like I said, dogs have all the luck, there's us meer mortals got a piece of flesh the same colour as the rest of our skin while dumb mutts rush about making our women all horny when they see a huge dogs cock all coloured up ready for them" - "I can't believe you just said that, that's really filthy. You said that just now as well,do you think like that all the time?" - "Come on admit it,I bet that over long look you just had, - Oh look! He's put it away now,missed your chance then then! - made your knickers all wet" - "Ah see,you're so wrong,see, - she flipped her skirt,a naked belly came in view, - see,none is there,that idiot made me all muddy right up to there,its a wonder I didn't fall completely over and would have if I hadn't let go the lead" - Now glaring at Rex. "Idiot! Idiot you are" - Rex true to form took absolutely no notice what so ever as he licked precum from the end of his three inches of protruding pink cock.

"See,just like you,takes absolutely no notice of what I say" - I pick up the roses, "See that's so unfair,I've been thinking all day about what you said this morning and this proves it" - I offered her them and offered my mouth up to a kiss, a very sensuous kiss. Was that tangy flavour Rex's? - About to mention this,I got interrupted by a hand squeezing my cock, "Come on you,up stairs before you say something you'll regret" - I clung close as I smoothed her ass cheeks while following her to my sexual doom. Ha! Ha!

That pussy? It was wet but only tasted of her love juice that I knew so well. I concluded Rex hadn't beaten me to this pussy. This thought had my hardon rampant as I quickly poked up inside of my wife's quim. "No sucking for poor little wifey you rampant beast?" All was lost in seconds as our orgasms mingled in an explosive surge of bodily fluids. - I lay on top of her with my cock soaking up the luscious mess. - "Pull the curtains,I want it to be darker" - Pulling out from her sexy body,I made to pull the curtains with my penis half hard and sticky. She quietly murmured, "It is rather plain looking when you compare them I suppose,but god it didn't half make me cum just then"

I climbed back on the bed and lay alongside her as she in turn pulled just a sheet over us. We lay quietly for awhile then snuggling into me she murmured, "You awake?" - "Yeah,all too early for bed,its still light out there" - "Yeah,I know,that's why I wanted the curtains pulled. Its embarrassing me" - I said nothing waiting for a confession. I knew one was coming because I'd had the same curtain thing on a few other confessions of what she'd been up too.

"That thing just now,you know when you came in on me" - "Yeah" - I knew she needed no contribution from me,just an occasional prompt. - "Well,I wasn't doing anything really. Well that is,not anything bad,well not really bad that is" - I wait, - "Its,well just a little thing really" - By now my heart is in overdrive and my cocks throbbing again fit to pop. - A hand tracks across to this hardon of mine and grips it, squeezing and releasing the pressure. - "I didn't intend to,but that Rex made me" - A pause, - "He lay there looking at me having showed me that great pink thing of his when we were out the field and he made me feel all embarrassed when it hung out as I came across from the brook as though I'd been hiding there and you know playing with it. I told him he was a bastard trying to make people think I'd been playing with it"

The squeezing increased in intensity,I had the feeling it was getting her hot all this talk about dog play,so put my hand between her legs and sure enough she responded by pressing her pussy at my hand. - "He's such a bastard,that dog. When we came back,like I say he lay looking at me and watched as I took my pants off because of the mud,he even watched as I wiped mud from my thighs with a damp towel. I ignored him mind but after I sat a while I found I kept being drawn to his,you know! His sheath and then I touched it with my foot,you know,only smoothing it with my big toe until he poked a pink bit out a bit and made me press it more between my big toe and the next one"

"Know what he did then? He made more of it come out and made it go all fat between my toe's so fat that it made my toe's pop away from it because it was all hot and slippery" - I felt my cock getting near to an orgasm, - "Only feel me slowly,or you'll make my pussy cum again and I want to finish telling you before that or I'll be all embarrassed again and wont be able too" - I eased up, - "So as I was saying,know what he did then,he stood up and put his head up my skirt and touched me with his hot tongue,the dirty dog,I told him no! I pushed his nose away even,but he pushed back until I put my hand under his tummy and found it again and started doing what I'm doing to yours" - I shot off all over her hand, - "Yeah,that's what he done! That's when you caught me clambering back up from looking under him to see all his sperm spurting out. I'd just had a touch with my finger and tasted it and put my mouth by it like I do yours and in you came"

She remained quiet,then jerked her ass as she orgasmed, Mumbling, "God his cock was so hot and his spunk shot at my face still as I tried to touch it with my tongue but he was jerking so much I couldn't suck it like yours,stupid dog. That's when I scrambled up when you came in" - Her head disappeared under the sheet and her mouth wrapped around my cock and started using it as an ice cream. "Like it?" - "Of course,you know I do,but its driving me mad my knobs so touchy" - "NO! I meant,did you like it,that I admitted how filthy I'd got with your mate down there?"

Warily I sounded her out. - "If I hadn't come in when I did,would you have?" - "You mean, would I have let him? No course not,he's not a man!" - "Christ,are you saying that if he had been you would have?" - "Don't be daft,course not,what I mean is, I never got that in my mind,I was just experimenting" - "Do you think you might experiment again with me watching you?" - "OH! Course not,you're my husband,I'd be embarrassed doing it in front of you" - "Damn,I'd love to see his cock getting what I've just had and I'd even like to see you do it with him" - "That's revolting,I only told you because I was afraid you wouldn't love me if you found out some way" - "No,don't be like that I found it a real turn on" - "What me and the dog. I can't believe you,you dirty fucker"

"No,I'm not its just that we have a like feeling,if you hadn't you wouldn't have done it to him and anyway,its not like another bloke doing you,he can't sort of say he loves you and both of you getting all lovey dovey and involved,its a form of sex tool,you know like a dildo. But hot alive and capable of shooting sperm like my own is" - "Putting it like that makes it sound alright,you mean you'd let me do it with Rex because there's no threat to our love just lust so I can if I want,but I'm not sure about you seeing me do any of it" - We left it there and I climbed back on to a very sticky quim and fucked it to a further orgasm,then we slept. The night had gone anyway and our escapade had taken us into darkness.

I left her with a cheerful. "Happy dog fucking" - To which I received a kiss and a reprimand. "Don't you dare say that in the daylight,you know I said it makes me all embarrassed and makes me feel guilty as well" Also a squeezed ass cheek, "Hurry home mind" - I parted with the comment, - "You wouldn't feel guilty doing it,if I was there when you do it" - "Bastard,fuck off you"
