BEASTIALITY STORIES

My name is Sara and I live out of town on a small farm. There is just my husband and I, along with a young black man who works in the stable areas. I am a little on the heavy side at 220 pounds but am big boned. Despite my weight problem, I am very sexual. I have a very plump pussy which I keep well trimmed. I have a wide ass and like anal sex every once in a while. I love sex in any form and masturbate quite a lot. Usually when my husband is out working.

My husband works on the farm all day and I am alone most every day except when the stable boy is around. I have been fucking Jim, our stable boy, for several years and really love his big black cock. He knows what I like and he likes to please me. A good fucking is what I get from him whenever I want it.

We had gotten a big Lab for a watch dog to have around the farm. Like I said before, I love to masturbate and it was during one of my sessions that I discovered his doggie cock. I was laying there playing with my wet pussy as he came into the room. He must have smelled my scent because he hopped up onto my bed and put his head between my thighs.

I was surprised as he started to lick me! I felt his hot tongue on my wet pussy as I lay back and enjoyed him. He lapped at my fountain for a few minutes until I started to cum. I guess the noise I was making frightened him off me.

From then on, I would call him into the bedroom with me as I masturbated. He would lick me and make me cum. I loved to feel his rough tongue on my slit and went wild as it lapped around my clit. I would hold my lips apart for him as he licked on me. Then one day I noticed his big red cock was growing larger as he licked me. He was pretty big and I knew then that I would have to try letting him fuck me with that doggie cock.

Sure enough, one day I was hot enough to try it. I rolled over onto my hands and knees and helped him as he mounted me from behind. I felt under me and took his slimy cock as I guided it to my hot pussy. He took a minute before he thrust it to me, but when he did, he slammed it home! I had all of that big doggie cock in me at once, his hips hunching it deeper with each stroke. It felt so good!

Bear was his name and he made me cum so hard. I felt that big doggie dick as he pounded my smooth pussy. He was driving it so deep! I felt the big head as it touched the entrance to my womb as I came again. He was fucking me faster and faster as my climax continued. His cock was bigger than my husbands and I could feel every inch of it as I came.

I learned to take his knot as he started to like my hot pussy even more. Sometimes I would be hung up on his cock, him locking my pussy to his knot for an hour. It was driving me wild as I loved his big knot in me.

Then I started to fucking him on a regular basis, about three times a week. I also still had Jim, the stable boy who satisfied me about three times a week also. Of course, my husband and I would make love and he would try to satisfy me, but I did not really get satisfied with his smaller cock. I needed something big in me.

One day I was at the stables and saw one of our male horses as his cock got hard. It was huge! It must have been 2 feet long and as big around as my arm! My pussy started to throb at the sight of his enormous cock. It made me want to cum standing right there. I reached my hand to my pussy and started to rub myself as Jim came into the stable. He saw me watching the horse as I masturbated.

He eased up behind me and took his big, black cock out as he slid my pants down from my hips. I felt his cock as he shoved it in, my hand still playing with my pussy as he fucked it to me.

"Would you like some of that horse cock?" he asked as he pumped that cock to me.

"Yes! Yes! I would love to have that huge cock in me." I replied, "Do you think I could take something that big?"

"You could take some of him. I don't know if you could get all that meat in you or not." He answered, "We can find out real quick if you want to."

He was pumping that black cock to me as I nodded my head.

"I would love to try it! Would you help me with him?" I asked as he slid that big black dick to my aching pussy.

He seemed to be fucking me a little extra harder as his dick pumped so far into me, the big head touching my sweet spot as I came. Jim had his hands on my hips as he pounded that black cock to me, filling me with his hot cum as my pussy quivered inside. I felt his juices as he flooded me with his cum, some running out around his cock as it pumped faster to me. I felt his cock inside me as it started to soften a little.

"You still want that big horse cock?" he asked.

"Yes, I do! Help me with it." I said as he withdrew from my wet cunt. "I want that huge cock in me!"

There were several bales of hay laying around as he started to make a bed for me and piled a couple up on each side of the others. I knew he was making a fuck table for me and the horse.

When he had everything as he wanted, Jim motioned for me to lay down on the bales of hay. I did as he said as he led the horse into the stall. His big horse cock was still sticking out as I watched him coming my way. My eyes were glued to his long cock as he came closer to me.

"Lay still and I will guide him to you," he said, "I have done this before with another horse and I know what to do."

I lay there under the horse as Jim had him put his front legs up onto the bales of hay at my sides. I watched Jim as he took that cock into his hands, as his monster cock touched my hot pussy. I saw the huge head as he guided it to my aching pussy, it feeling so big as it started to enter me. I felt the head as it slipped into me, the big horse cock was going in me! I was being horse fucked!

I felt his long dick as it slide so far up my parted pussy, as it spread me wider with each inch I took. I watched it disappear as it sank deeper into me, the long shaft pushing its way as the horse started to hump me. The position I was in was sort of uncomfortable but I was enjoying his horse cock as he fucked it to me.

"Oh, God! He is so big! His cock is filling my pussy so full!" I cried out, "Oh, yes! Yes! It is so good!"

I could feel his long cock as it hit bottom each time he thrust into me, causing me to gasp for air as it struck my inner womb. I was full of horse cock! And I was loving it. My wet pussy was hurting a little from the huge cock as he slammed it to me, going faster as with each hunch the horse made.

I started to cum as he plunged into my aching pussy. I was so full of cock as my climax sent waves of joy through out my entire body. I had never cum so hard and so much as I was doing now. I was getting the fucking of a life time!

"Oh! Oh! Oh, yes! I'm cumming!" I screamed as I continued to cum, "His cock is so hot in me. Fuck me! Fuck me you big stud! Fuck my pussy with that big horse cock!"

I felt the horse as his cock began to swell deep inside my stretched pussy. I could feel every inch of that big cock as I continued to cum. I started to feel his cock as it throbbed in me, knowing he was ready to shoot me full of his cum as I tried to fuck back against his cock. He started to erupt, his big horse cock pumping me full of good hot horse cum as he filled me full of it.

His cum was so hot inside my caverns as I felt the heat from it as he pumped more and more of it to me. He must have came a gallon of cum as he filled me! I was being flooded with his hot cum as my climax slowed.

I had been well fucked! My poor little pussy was sore for two days after that first time. I swore I did not want to do it again, but I did change my mind. Isn't that what a woman is suppose to do?

Jim had made me a special bench as he put it in the stall. He also made a soft top that went on top of it. He had put more bales of hay on each side of the fuck bench. I too, helped a little as I brought a blanket from the house and a few towels, along with a jar of KY jelly. I would be ready for him next time.

The next time was about a week after he had fucked me. Jim, the stable boy had told me to come see what he had done for me. I went to the stables and met Jim there as he showed me the new horse fucking bench he had made just for me.

I lay down on it to see if I liked it or not as Jim came over to me. I could tell by the bulge in his pants what he wanted. He wanted to slide that black monster to me! My pussy was wet as I had been thinking of the horse fucking me again as I lowered my pants and exposed my hot pussy to him.

"If you want some of this before I take that horse cock, you better come on," I said, "I want you to fuck me first. I want that black cock! I will not be able to feel it after that huge horse finishes with me."

Jim dropped his pants, exposing is huge black cock as I lay there, my legs spread wide as he got between my thighs. I took his black cock into my hands as I saw the difference in the contrasting color of his cock and my white hands. I pulled on it as I guided him to my waiting pussy. I wanted him to fuck me first, to give me a good old fashion fucking before I fucked that massive horse cock.

Jim took my hips into his hands and brought my legs over his shoulders as he started to slide that dick to me. It felt so good! I watched as his black cock slid past my smooth pussy lips. I could see that black dick against my white pussy as he slid so deep in me. I almost came at the sight of his cock in me as I raised my thighs to meet his thrusts.

If people knew I was fucking a black man they would disown me, least of all if they knew I was fucking a horse too! What would my husband say if he saw me with this black cock buried in me? Would he go crazy to see the horse fucking me?

All these things did not matter as I took that big black cock of Jim's, fucking him back with my cock hungry pussy as I felt my climax building deep down. He started to pound me with that dick as I started to cum all over his fucking dick. He was fucking me so hard as I came, time after time until I felt his cock began to throb. I was ready for his hot cum as he shot it to me, his dick hitting the right spots as I continued to cum.

After we had stopped, my pussy was dripping his cum as I lay there, me waiting for him to bring the horse in. I was not to be disappointed as he led the horse into the love stall we had made.

I was on the bench as he started to play with the horse's cock, getting it ready for me once again. This time the bench was comfortable and I was at the right angle to take his cock as I watched Jim bringing it to my wet pussy lips.

I felt it as it plunged into me, his long horse cock sliding so deep as he slammed it to me. I could feel it as it pushed its way so far up my tight passages as he fucked me with that big horse cock.

There I was, laying on a bench specially made for my pleasure, with a horse cock deep within my stretched pussy. I was in awe of his cock as he fucked that huge dick to my tight pussy. I started to cum from just watching it slide in and out as he pumped that cock to me. I was loving every inch of it as it fucked me!
