BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2008 by Tony Day

It was late Saturday evening. Katy had just finished cleaning up the kitchen. Earlier she had entertained her friend Nancy, her roommate from college, and her husband Albert. The cook out had been a whopping success. About 6 PM Nancy and Albert left to visit a few of Albert's friends from school. Since Katy didn't know Albert's friends she decided to stay home and watch a movie.

Before watching the movie Katy decided to take a shower and wash the sweat and smell from the barbecue off of her. Looking into the mirror on the back of the bathroom door Katy decided that she wasn't bad looking. She stands about 5'2" tall, with shoulder length curly blonde hair, very slim, (she attends aerobics 4 times a week) a firm well rounded ass and nice cantaloupe size breasts that fill out a sweater in the best way.

Katy's boyfriend was away for a week at a national physics conference, so it had been a week since she last had sex. This, along with Nancy and Albert's flirting with each other during dinner had her hot and bothered in the worst way. She began to play with her little clit as the warm water caressed her skin. To say the least she was really getting into it. Katy was on the verge of her first orgasm when all of a sudden she was startled by a loud howl and then a ferocious bark. It was at this point that she was reminded of Ranger, Nancy and Albert's dog.

Ranger was a mix between a Dalmatian and a Great Dane. He stood 3 feet tall and was almost completely grey except for two black patches that surrounded his eyes like a mask. Thus came his name, Ranger, short for The Lone Ranger.

Katy had forgotten about Ranger since she hadn't seen him since before dinner. Ranger kept barking away at something. Katy lived in a good neighborhood so she didn't think it could be a prowler. Plus Ranger had interrupted her fun and she couldn't concentrate as long as he continued to bark. So she decided to check out the situation. She got out of the shower and wrapped her hair in a towel and slipped into a very short silk robe.

When she turned the corner she saw Ranger standing against the window pushing the curtains to the side with his large paws. When Katy looked out the window to see what Ranger was barking about, she noticed the neighbor's dog rolling in her front yard. Ranger, who must have become excited due to his lack of animal companionship, was standing upright against the large picture window that looked out onto the front yard. Katy was afraid that if he continued pressing against the window he would surely break right through it.

Katy said in a very stern voice, "GET DOWN!" But Ranger seemed to be paying more attention to the bitch in the front yard than to Katy. Her next move was to grab him by the collar and see if she could pull him away. But this was also to no avail. Ranger just kept barking and pressing against the window.

By this time Katy was just plain pissed off. She had never had any pets as a child, and for the most part she was used to having her way in most any situation. So now she was going to have to be a little slyer than ol' Ranger. She quickly ran to the kitchen and got one of the uncooked steaks that were left over from this afternoon's cookout.

Upon returning to the front window she taunted Ranger by dangling the piece of meat in front of his face. Now a piece of ass is one of the items in a dog's hierarchy of needs but at the top of the list is food. And a raw steak, well that only adds drive and determination to the situation.

Upon smelling the steak, Ranger jerked sideways letting the curtains fall back into place and at the same time pushing Katy to the floor. Ranger straddled Katy trying to bite the steak she held in her hand. But even in this predicament Katy was not about to let Ranger have the steak. After all she was the boss, right?

Katy held the steak over her head out of Ranger's grasp. But Ranger wanted the steak. He moved forward to try to bite at it again. To counter Katy scooted her ass along the floor and out from under Ranger. This only annoyed Ranger. He took a couple of steps forward and proceeded to lay on top of Katy, pinning her to the floor. Ranger was much too large for Katy to get out from under. Ranger sensed this and dragged his body across Katy's.

It was at this point that Katy felt something smooth and warm pressing against the entrance to her pussy. And the fact that she had been masturbating only moments before allowed Ranger undaunted access to her cunt. The sensation was pleasing even though the thought of the situation turned her stomach. But Katy's anger soon turned curiosity and she conceded the steak to keep Ranger occupied while she enjoyed the new sensations that she was experiencing.

Ranger's enthusiasm in finishing off the steak only added to Katy's excitement. As he tore at the steak will pinning it to the floor he sent thrusting waves of pleasure rippling through Katy dripping cunt. Ranger quickly finished devouring the steak and it was at this point that his thoughts turned to the warmth that surrounded his penis.

Startled, he withdrew from Katy's cunt with the quickness of a gazelle. This dropped Katy down from her higher plane of ecstasy just as she was again approaching orgasm. Ranger moved to the side and began to clean his genitals. What he tasted wasn't as good as the steak he had just finished but it was worth looking for the source from where it came. Ranger began sniffing the air. Katy's pussy gave off this wonderful scent and this time it was Ranger's tongue that wound up in Katy.

Katy not wanting to miss out on another orgasm spread her legs wide to give Ranger even more access to her swollen pussy. As Ranger's tongue moved from under her ass to the top of her clit in one fell swoop Katy moaned in pleasure. Never had Katy even considered have sex with a dog. And now she was giving herself in any way that might please the beast.

Time after time Ranger lashed his tongue across Katy's clit. Her juices were flowing and she was once again on the verge of orgasm. Instead of concentrating on the matter at hand, or should I say at tongue, she wondered if she would again be brought to the edge and then be abruptly let down. She was wondering so much about this that she let her legs fall to the floor. One of which hit Ranger in the side making him yelp and move quickly away. Katy had contributed to her own defeat this time and had it in her mind that she was going to have an orgasm tonight, and Ranger was going to be a part of it.

Katy looked at Ranger, who was again tending to his swollen penis. Katy decided that she was going to have this animal fuck her to orgasm and that this time there was nothing that was going to stop it. She called to Ranger, who at first ignored her. So she patted the sofa as she called his name. This time he came over to her and stood to her side. She was still sitting on the floor at about eye level with Ranger's throbbing prong. She reached out and began to massage its length, which had a slight upward curve.

All in all she thought, it really does seem to be larger than the dick on my boyfriend. As she began moving her hand up and down its length Ranger began to respond by thrusting forward on each of Katy's advances. Pretty soon Ranger took over and Katy was left holding the bag and the pole. Both of which Ranger seemed to enjoy.

Since Ranger was in a humping motion Katy slowly got up and bent over the edge of the couch, never releasing Ranger from her desperate grip. Slowly she brought Ranger around behind her with one hand as she patted the top of the couch with the other. Ranger instantly took to the command and mounted Katy from behind. Katy guided Ranger into her steaming pussy in one long motion.

As Ranger thrust deeper and deeper Katy moaned more and more. It was a better feeling than before. Now Ranger was moving more and their orientation allow for deeper penetration. After a while Katy felt a large bulge pressing against her cunt every time Ranger pressed inward.

At first she thought that he might be thrusting so hard that his balls were working their way into her pussy. As she moved her hand back to feel his sack she found both of his full ball hanging free. Katy gently massaged them knowing that they held one of the components that would aide her in reaching orgasm. She slowly moved her hand up to the base of his cock. It was there that she encountered a large knot of muscle. Katy not being familiar with the genitalia of canines let it go and just enjoyed the sensation.

Ranger's thrust became more powerful and the knot slowly pushed its way into Katy's pussy. The feeling of the bulge popping in and out of her cunt was very enjoyable. She was nearing another orgasm, but this time the only thing on her mind was enjoyment. Ranger was also nearing his orgasm.

To Katy's surprise, Ranger's movements turned to short thrusts with the bulge remaining inside her pussy. Then all of a sudden her pussy felt fuller than it had ever felt. The bulge was increasing in size. This full feeling sent Katy over the edge and her body was racked with orgasm after orgasm. To top it all off she felt Ranger's warm cum splashing the walls of her cunt. This was all she needed. She was again in the midst of multiple orgasms.

As Katy came down she decided she had better get cleaned up before Nancy and Albert got back. As she moved to the side trying to get Ranger to dismount she felt a tugging inside of her pussy. Katy could not imagine the bulge she had felt while exploring Ranger's balls was large enough to keep Ranger's prick from sliding out of her pussy.

It was at this point that Katy's logical mind took over. She put the filling feeling that she encountered just before Ranger shot his load to the swelling of the knot that he had, only a few minutes before, forced into her. She became worried. Katy did not want to be found out. For the majority of her life he had been a straight lace executive type, one that would never become involved with animal sex.

The more Katy tried to pull away from Ranger the more futile it seemed to become. She tried again and again to pull free from Ranger but it was no use. She then rationalized that if the knot were lubricated it might slip out. But since no lubricant was around she came to the conclusion that the animal cum might serve the same purpose. She began by moving further up the couch. This brought Ranger to a position where he was standing on his hind legs. Katy then began to contract and relax the muscles of her cunt hoping the motion and the angle would work enough cum out off their union to lubricate her escape.

The feeling of her cunt contracting revived Ranger, who most likely had intended to wait for the knot to go down and then go on about his business. Ranger enjoyed the feeling and began to thrust against the contractions as he had done earlier as Katy was masturbating him. Katy could only thin you stupid dog what is your problem. Here I am trying to get you to get off of me so that we don't get caught and all you want to do is keep on banging.

All of a sudden Katy sees the reflection of car lights through the curtains and hears a car pull into the driveway. Now desperation has set in. What will happen next? Who has pulled into the driveway?

Since this was a desperate situation it called for her to carry out desperate measures no matter what the circumstances. Katy began by crawling off of the couch onto the floor, with Ranger still locked in a tie on her back. She mustered all her strength and proceeded to crawl to her bedroom with Ranger following so, so very close behind.

As she reached the hallway she heard the car in the driveway backing out and driving away. To say the least Katy was relieved. But she was still expecting Nancy and Albert any time so she had better remedy the situation or suffer the consequences. She continued to crawl down the hallway and into her bedroom. Once inside she slowly turned around to close the bedroom door, so if nothing else she would be out of sight if her company arrived home.

As she twisted around to face the door Katy felt Ranger still very much inside her. His erection as well as the knot at its base was still ridged as steel. She couldn't imagine any of her previous boyfriends having this amazing staying power. The more she thought about it the more she decided that the perfect sexual partner for her had to be a dog. After all a dog seemed to have an inexhaustible sex drive, it wasn't able to get her pregnant (at least that what she hoped), and a dog would always be there when she need a bit of release. And if she didn't want to do anything she would not have to deal with the guilt as she does with her boyfriend.

Since Katy was now in the safety of her room she figured she would just get comfortable and wait for Ranger's knot to subside. Katy pulled the cushion off of the chair next to the bed along with a couple of pillows and piled them in the middle of the floor. She crawled on top of them and relaxed. Her ass was still high enough to accommodate Ranger and she wasn't experiencing any pain. Quite the contrary, she loved the feeling of being so full and Ranger's soft warm coat felt wonderful as he covered her back. As Katy laid there her mind began to wonder.

It was about an hour later when Katy was awakened by the slamming of her front door and Ranger's barking. She rolled over got up and walked to the bathroom to get her robe as she turned on the light she looked down at her sore pussy. To her surprise she was very clean, apparently Ranger had licked her clean during her short slumber. She couldn't find her robe after all it was laying somewhere in the living room so she put on her boyfriend's robe and walked to the bedroom door where Ranger was eagerly digging at the carpet.

As Katy and Ranger proceeded into her living room she was greeted by Nancy and Albert. The three talked for a little while and then turned in for the night. As Katy tried to fall asleep her mind was constantly filled with the images of being taken by Ranger. Try as she might she could not get to sleep. So she decided to get up and get a snack and watch a bit of TV. As she walked down the hall she heard muffled moans coming from the guest room. Katy envied the fact that Nancy had companionship tonight. But her boyfriend would only be away for a few more days and then her needs would be met.

Katy went to the kitchen and got a piece of cake and a glass of milk and went into the living room to watch the TV. It was late and the only thing on was a David Letterman rerun. Katy finished off her snack and was flipping channels when she heard a yelp come from the guest room.

To say the least Katy was curious about this noise. Katy tiptoed down the hallway to the guest bedroom and placed an ear to the door. For the next few moments she heard nothing but silence, until there came a low female moan and a male voice chanting, "That's it! Take that bitch! Go on boy! Give it to her!" Now Katy had to know what was going on inside the guest room.

Since the hall light was off and she saw light creeping under the door she got down on her knees and peered under the crack. It was to Katy's surprise, or should I say her deepest wish, that she saw Nancy leaning against the bed as Ranger rained thrust after thrust into his human sex toy. As Katy looked around the room she saw Albert stroking his cock while seated in a chair to the side of the bed.

Katy eased a finger into her mouth pretending it was Ranger's prick. Sucked on it and then began to finger her juicy little cunt. As Katy watched in wonderment, Nancy continued to moan, having orgasm after orgasm. Each thrust of Ranger's turgid cock moved Nancy's ass a little closer to the bed, and increased the pace at which Katy fingered her clit.

It was at this point that Katy gave herself away as she lost her balance and made a loud thump against the wall. The noise didn't even phase Nancy who just kept thrusting back against Ranger increasing advances. Albert however, quickly got up, slipped on his robe, and opened the door to check the hallway. There lay Katy with her fingers in cunt and her robe crunched under her hip.

Even though both Katy and Albert were embarrassed they were also very worked up. Katy broke the silence by asking Albert, "Well are you going to help me up and invite me in or are you just going to stand there trying to poke my eye out with your dick while your wife has all the fun?"

Albert smiled, reached down and pulled Katy to her feet, then proceeded back into the guest room. Katy reached down to stroke Albert's fading erection, and Albert return the favor by turning Katy around and examining her tonsils with his tongue.

Nancy was out of the throws of her orgasm and playfully asked Albert just what was he doing. He responded by telling Nancy that she seemed a little preoccupied so he was letting Katy take matters into her hands. Ranger was again experiencing a tie, this time with Nancy. When Katy saw this she asked the couple, "Just exactly what do you do when a Nancy gets in a tie with Ranger?"

Nancy responded by saying that she just enjoyed the filling feeling. When Katy voiced her agreement by saying, "I know. Isn't it a wonderful feeling. He is so large and warm and the feeling of his coat is simply exquisite."

She knew that she had let the cat out of the bag. Now Albert and Nancy knew that she had helped herself to their dog. Albert said that sometimes he would let Nancy suck his cock while Ranger's prick subsided, but the best thing he could do was... Albert stopped in mid sentence, then said, "No, I think I'll have to show you."

As Albert got up Katy had to release his now semi-rigid cock. Albert walked over to the bed where Nancy was still leaning with Ranger on her back. Albert stepped up on the bed. Ranger barked and started to wag his tail. This movement of Ranger's haunches enticed an enthusiastic moan from Nancy. Albert knelt across the back of Nancy's head. Ranger proceeded to nose around in Albert's crotch until he was able to take hold of Albert's cock.

Katy was amazed. She had never even considered a dog being of use to a male. The scene that was unfolding before her was more than she had ever hoped. Albert explained that even though Ranger had large sharp teeth he never did more than suck on his cock. Albert explained that he thought Ranger's actions were a memory from when he was a puppy nursing from his mother.

Albert explained in detail how good Ranger's actions felt. Ranger would suck for a while then pull back releasing Albert's cock, lick the sides of his now very stiff member, then proceed to deep throat Albert again. Because Albert's cock had become so hard, he had to lean forward so Ranger would continue to deep throat him. This position gave a perfect arrangement for Albert to explore the union of Ranger and Nancy.

Albert told Katy that as he would begin to massage Ranger's ball, Ranger would increase the suction on his prick. Quickly the situation became too much for Albert to handle. He was on the brink of coming and there was no way to hold back. As Albert voiced his excitement, it startled Ranger who quickly pulled back leaving Albert's cock shooting its load all over Nancy's back.

Feeling left out Katy moved to milk the last spurts of cum from Albert's cock. She deep throated him a couple of times. The head of his cock was just too sensitive at this moment so he pulled away from Katy and lay down on the bed. Ranger began to lick the cum from Nancy's back.

Katy joined in. Both Katy and Ranger licked Nancy's back clean. Then Katy slid her tongue over to make contact with Ranger's tongue, which she proceeded to suck into her mouth. The four-some slowly began to regain their composure.

Then Katy asked, "What about me? I have an aching pussy and it just won't go away." Nancy began to ask Katy when she had had animal sex, referring to the answer Katy gave when commenting on Nancy and Ranger being in a tie.

Katy begins to explain. But that's another story.
