BEASTIALITY STORIES

It was a hot June day and Kelly had just got in from school, she was welcomed by her pet dog max who jumped up at her as she came through the door.

Kelly fussed with him before she let him out into the garden, he came running back inside after a minute and followed Kelly into the kitchen.

Helping herself to a coke and a biscuit she threw a piece to Max and then went upstairs to her room.

Kelly opened the windows and pulled the curtains closed, she wanted to cool the room but she wanted privacy from across the road, she had the idea that her neighbor was always looking at her and it had a strange effect on her, she felt it was pervy but it still excited her that he was looking at her. Kelly pulled off her school uniform and threw them on the chair removing her bra she looked at herself in the mirror, lifting her boobs she looked at her side profile and thought she would soon need a 34B bra.

She slid her knickers off and admired herself, her bottom a little large but her stomach was flat she thought she was curvy in the right places.

Kelly laid flat on her bed and let the breeze blow across her naked body. Without thinking she let her right hand drift down to her pubes she was totally smooth she shaved herself every day and loved the silky soft feel of her outer lips, her other hand was cupping her right breast, she was not really masturbating she was just enjoying the feeling of nakedness. She often did this in the summer in the two hours before her older brother and parents would get back from work.

Kelly could not decide if she should get her shower now and shave herself or do it later, the cool air through her window decided for her. Her mind wandered to her neighbor, she bet he would be watching her now if she had not pulled the curtains, she went to the window and pulling them open she looked into his garden, sure enough he was sat in a chair looking straight at her window. Kelly did not know why she did, but she faked a yawn lifting her hands above her head as she showed her naked body to him then just as quickly she pulled the curtains closed and got back on her bed.

Giggling she cupped her breast again and put her other hand between her legs rolling over onto one side she pulled her knees up to her chest and gently rubbed herself as she thought of what she had just done. She did not know who would be the most embarrassed when they saw each other again.

Her fingers were moving quicker and her mind was on one of her older brother's friends who she fancied but he did not appear interested in her.

Kelly did not hear Max pad into the room and the first thing she knew of his presence was when he licked the side of her bottom. Instantly she was back to reality max licked her again this time his tongue went across her bottom and touched the fingers she still had between her legs. "Get down Max" she scolded, but Max licked her again his long tongue running the length of her fingers and onto her thighs, Kelly pulled her hand away and was about to move when Max's tongue licked her again this time from the crack of her bottom right across her lips and over her now sensitive clitoris.

Kelly trembled as she told him to get down again, moving she had given him more access and his next lick was stronger than before and his tongue parted her already wet pussy lips and as it touched her clitoris she had to bite her own lip to prevent herself from moaning.

Now totally taken over by her own pleasure she let Max lick her as she now was close to cumming.

The thought of how wrong this was never entered her head she wanted the feelings to continue. She rolled onto front with her bottom in the air hoping Max would continue to lick her.

Max's instincts had taken hold of him and his cock was emerging from its sheath, max was now licking her from her clit to her pussy and she started to rub her clit as max seemed more interested on licking her pussy, Kelly was surprised when she felt max's paws on her sides as he gripped her with his legs.

Max's cock was now pushing at Kelly's hand which she had put over her pussy, she never thought this would happen and she was frightened Max was pushing harder his cock seeking out her entrance only her fingers prevented him from finding his goal. All this movement between her legs suddenly took hold and Kelly started to cum. Her body shook and as her orgasm started she relaxed her hand and pinched her clitoris. Max now had free access and slid his hot doggy cock straight into Kelly's drenched pussy.

Max knew nothing only to hump her as fast as he could and gripping her side tightly with his legs he roughly pounded Kelly as hard as he could. Kelly could not believe this was happening but after one orgasm she was getting close to another, she knew nothing about a dogs cock and had only seen Max's on one or two occasions she knew nothing about his knot until on one particularly powerful thrust he pushed his knot into Kelly locking them together.

Speeding up his humping Kelly suddenly felt her pussy being flooded with hot doggie cum as Max erupted into her. Kelly's body went into spasm her orgasm went on and on but as she tried to pull herself off Max she found she was well and truly stuck, Max growled the next time she tried to move.

Kelly was suddenly terrified. Her parents would be home in less than half an hour. Max relaxed his grip on her sides and she felt the pain as his knot slipped free from her stretched pussy the doggie cum running down her legs as Max got onto the floor and started to lick himself clean it was then that she saw the size of the cock and knot that had been so deep inside her 15 year old pussy.

Kelly grabbed her gown and keeping her legs together to prevent the cum dripping on the floor made it to the shower where she got cleaned up sprayed the warm water into her still stretched open pussy, she let the water play on her clit as she brought herself off again. Shaving would have to wait till tomorrow she thought as she dried her body she looked at the small scratches on her back where Max had gripped her.

Wrapping her gown round herself she went into her brother's room and took a pair of his thick socks to put on Max's feet for the next time.

Back in her room before she dressed she could not resist the urge to open her curtains, her neighbor was still there and she moved about the room dressing nowing that he was watching her, What would he of thought of her if he had seen her with Max.

Max was laid on the hall floor and took no unusual notice of Kelly as she strode over him to go downstairs.

Tomorrow could not come soon enough, neither could Kelly.
