BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2012 by JMS

I had moved to a new area to start a new job and did not know anyone the property was larger than I wanted and difficult to protect.

A couple I met from work called John and Marion his second wife and younger than himself he was 40's and she a twenty three year old suggested I get a dog for safety and protection, I decided I would go to the pound to see what they had that might be suitable.

I met a keeper who told me they had the very dog for me SKIP a 2 year old boxer with loads of energy, I liked him at once and he seemed to like me also so I took him home.

Skip settled in well and soon learned what was required of him he obviously had been trained at some point but he was also very curious and affectionate and sometimes got very excited and his cock would become erect and very swollen, he would go to his bed and lie there licking at it until he climaxed. John asked me how I was getting along with skip and was he ok I informed him that things were great and as a thank you invited John and his wife Marion over for food and to see how well skip was doing.

On the Friday that week I made food and bought wine and beer and at eight o' clock John and Marion arrived. John attired in blue jeans and a shirt, Marion in tee shirt and shorts I noticed straight away that skip was even more friendly than usual and it was obvious he liked all the extra attention he was getting as they both petted and stroked him and threw his favorite ball between them with him chasing back and forth.

I told skip to lie down on his bed while I served the food and drink, we all ate and drank a little too much and began to relax when the conversation turned towards skip as John asked if I knew if skip had been bred from, I told him I wasn't sure but judging by his size then he should be, with this Marion became more interested into what I meant so I told her about skip's game when he got aroused.

Marion and John seemed to want to know more and asked if they could see for themselves just what Skip could do, I called Skip over and began to stroke and tickle his chest and underbelly and within a minute his cock emerged from the sheath getting longer and fatter with each tickle. I could see the looks on both their faces John almost in disbelief and Marion remarking that Skip's cock was larger than John's cock even though Skip was only semi erect.

I told Marion that if she wanted to see all of his cock then she would have to stroke him herself to get the full affect, Marion looked at John but John just shrugged and said Go for it but don't be surprised if Skip gets very aroused and shoots his load over you.

Marion began stroking slowly at first as both John and I had more to drink, Skip was now beginning to engorge and was trying to mount Marion's leg and in moments he was shooting pre come all over her as she continued to pump him.

John and I cheered her on until suddenly Skip exploded time after time over her hand at first and then her legs and shorts which had now become soaked due to the come he was expressing.

John reached down and removed her shorts saying that he had better get them cleaned up for her thus also exposing Marion in just a pair of white briefs and sending Skip into a frenzy as he could now get a scent of Marion's pussy Marion was enjoying what was happening so much that she overbalanced giving Skip the chance to straddle her whilst thrusting his snout nearer and nearer to what was exciting him even more.

His semen was so thick and creamy it covered every inch of her lower half and Skip began to lick like never before. John and I were amazed at the amount of come Skip produced and John tugged off Marion's briefs in a single movement as we watched as Skip searched out his prize.

Marion was now also in full flood as her juices began to run onto her legs, her eyes almost glazed over as she could see and feel Skip's raging cock, she looked at John and then to me almost begging for us to sanction what was about to happen and then submitting to the inevitable as Skip lunged forward his penis seeking and then finding the opening to Marion's pussy.

Skip had entered and was now fucking Marion like no man had ever done, she climaxed almost at every thrust and did not want it to stop, John and I watched and admired as Skip drove his cock longer and deeper until ultimately he climaxed fully knotted inside Marion's beautiful pussy.

John and I helped both Skip and Marion to clean themselves up after the conclusion of this mammoth event and eventually we sat at the table discussing what had happened and why, I asked John if he had enjoyed watching Marion being fucked by Skip and then we both asked Marion what she truly thought by the experience she had with Skip.

Marion said that she would do it again and again as she had realized that we were encouraging her and Skip to hidden depths of depravity but wanted to be allowed even more men to see her perform with Skip as she not only climaxed bodily but mentally as well.

John and I work in a department of mainly men and have assured her that when she wants Skip fucking her again we will invite the guys for a poker night.

That obviously will be another story.
