BEASTIALITY STORIES

Jackie was one of those girls that just kept winding up in a bad situation. She was 17 and had already spent 6 months in a juvenile correctional facility. Being a decent looking girl with a nice body, her time in the "kiddie joint" had sparked a love for girl- girl sex, but she still loved to take a dominant role and make a guy fuck her hard and long.

After dropping out of school Jackie found jobs here and there, so she had enough money to keep her car going and living at home (with no rules) she was actually able to save money.

On this particular day Jackie was driving home from work at the convenience store, when her car seemed to die half way home. She was pissed, it was 1:00 in the morning and no-one was near this industrial area to flag down.

She looked around her and noticed that there was a used car lot about a block away and figured she could "borrow" a car for the night and maybe come back the next morning and make an offer on the car if she liked it. She figured out, in her warped mind, that the owner of the dealership would have no problem with this.

As Jackie neared the lot she noticed that there was a fence all around the lot and a couple signs of "beware of guard dog." She looked around and didn't see one. As she neared the gate that a car fit through, she saw the typical unlocked pad lock turned to make it look like it was locked. "Idiots" she thought to herself.

She opened the doors and closed them, figuring she better hotwire a car before opening the gates fully in case someone drove by.

She was looking for an older car, that would be easier to break into, as she walked around the lot.

She finally found a Ford, that had a price sticker that she could afford, and probably break into. But her nerves had gotten to her, and she really needed to pee, before she tried to open the door with a rusted old hanger she had found on the ground. She went over to the next aisle of cars, as she didn't want to pee on what could be her new car.

She was wearing a tight pair of jeans, so she thought the easiest way not to pee on them was to take them and her panties off, which she did. She squatted and then let herself go.

She was almost done with what seemed to be her longest pee ever, when she heard a growl, a deep growl. She shifted to see where it had come from and did a great job peeing on her thigh and ankle, before her stream stopped.

Jackie looked to her right and there was a mean looking German Shepard, standing about 3 feet from her. In her fear her legs gave way and she was sitting on her bare ass with legs open and facing the beast. She watched as his nose sniffed the stream of urine that had made its way towards where he was standing.

He kept his nose to the stream as he stepped toward her, his eyes never leaving her face. She had been bitten by a dog when she was a kid and was scared ever since, that fear was gripping her now and she couldn't move.

She finally started saying out loud what was going over and over in her mind "Please don't hurt me, please don't hurt me. "

The Shepard was still stiffing, and his head had past the point where her open knees were. She was shaking as the dog's snout was inches from her. She suddenly realized he was heading right from the place that the pee had left her. She realized that her period had ended that morning and he might be smelling her blood in her pee, did he think she was in heat?

The answer came quickly as the dog's snout was suddenly touching her vaginal lips. He was sniffing and she was shaking even more. "Please don't bite me there, you can lick it, do you want to lick it, I won't mind, just please don't bite me?" she asked in a pleading voice.

She felt the wet nose make contact and then he did it, he licked her. She was not aroused, but relieved and let out a moan of relief not pleasure. After a few licks however, the rough tongue was having its effect on her. As much as she was disgusted in what was happening it was far better than being bitten.

Her body continued to get aroused and the dog continued to lick her pussy like it was water in his dish.

This time when she moaned it was from pleasure. She put her hands on the ground behind her and leaned back a little. And that is when it happened. Another dog barked twice from behind her and before she could turn the new dog bit down hard on the collar of her blouse.

He then pulled her backward. She tried to keep up with the pulling by doing like a crab walk, but the dog was pulling too hard and too fast. She felt the dog must be huge the way he was handling her. Soon she was being dragged on her bare ass across the pavement. Her butt started to hurt from what she could tell was her ass becoming raw.

While this was going on the other dog was barking like crazy and when Jackie looked at him, she could see he wasn't happy and was actually trying to catch her foot and play tug of war, she feared. The dog who had her collar finally stopped pulling for some reason.

Jackie was able to roll over onto all fours and her head was now under the bigger dog's mouth as he still had her collar.

The other dog jumped onto her back and Jackie felt the dog was trying to pull her away as he had his legs wrapped around her and she felt as if he were trying to rock her back.

A moment later she felt something hard hitting her leg as the dog was trying to free her from the other. She didn't know what she was hitting up against.

But a few moments later she physically and mentally realized what was going on. The thing hitting her suddenly penetrated her pussy and filled it in the next lunge. It was the dog's cock inside her, and the dog wasn't pulling her away from the other dog, he was humping her.

"Get off me you ass hole" she started to yell. But she was basically locked with one dog pulling at her shirt and the other wrapped tight around her. She realized she was getting rapped by a fucking dog.

The dog by the collar pulled one more time and this time the stitching gave way and he fell back with the cloth in his mouth. Jackie could finally move her head and tried to turn to see the dog on her back. As mad and scared as she was her body started to betray her and her insides started to feel good with the pounding her pussy was getting. "No Jackie, No" she actually said out loud as she began to pant in pleasure.

She felt a new feeling and the dog's cock or balls was banging up against her clit. This almost pushed her over the top, but a moment later, whatever was hitting her clit slid inside her wet pussy. That was it, she started to scream in a climax. She started to buck back against the cock and whatever was now inside her filling her hole and her body wanted more. Suddenly she felt her pussy filling with the hot sperm of the animal and his cock seemed to get larger. The extra size and extra lubrication brought her to an even higher climax and she screamed like had never done so before her in pleasure.

The dog pulled out of her with a popping sound. She turned her head and saw the ugly looking dog cock, with this big growth about half way up that she assumed was some kind of plug that had sealed her pussy, or meant for a female bitch dog to keep them together. The thought of that gross thing being inside her, now dripping with doggie sperm, almost made her vomit.

Jackie saw something out of the corner of her eye, and before she could react; the other dog jumped on her back. This dog was heavier and her arms bent and she was now on her knees and forearms. It only took the bigger dog a few attempts and his cock found the wet pussy just vacated by the other dog.

By the fourth or fifth thrust Jackie could tell that the bigger dog was in fact bigger in the size of his cock as well. He was actually hurting her as his cock was hitting her cervix wall. The dog was moving in and out of her in a rapid motion and even though it hurt she started to feel good as well.

This went on for a good 5 minutes and she had minor climaxes twice, but the pain stopped her from really exploding. Then she felt that same large thing on his cock that entered her before from the smaller dog. This time it was hitting up against her clit and her labia. It also seemed to not let the rest of his cock go in as deep. The effect of this was another explosive orgasm. She was screaming in pleasure again and even though she was thinking "no, no, not from a dog" what came out of her mouth was "yes, yes, fuck me, fuck me you beast."

The pounding and the wetness of her girl goo finally allowed his knot to slip into her, and when it was inside the pleasure turned back to pain, but this time the pain was worse than just hitting her cervix. The knot was thicker than the inside of her vagina and the pressure was intense. She was screaming now, but now the words were "get out of me, get the fuck out of me." But the dog kept pumping. Luckily for Jackie the dog was on the edge and with one deep thrust he exploded his cum inside her. She actually could feel the hot fluid travel up inside her tubes. She was thinking that the amount and force was like the big animal pissing inside her.

The cum lubed her insides and for a few moments the pumping felt great again. Jackie had a few moments to relax, before the next pain began. The big dog started to pull out of her, but somehow the knot thing had swelled, or her opening had closed a bit. But the combination, however it was happening, was preventing the cock from escaping. What wasn't being prevented was the dog's attempt to get free. He was pulling hard on her vagina and pain again was being generated from inside her.

The dog had had enough of trying the way he was and somehow moved over her and was now aligned butt to butt. He started to pull on her again and pain was unreal. Without warning the dog started to walk away from Jackie, while still connected. "Stop, wait, stop you dumb fuck" she yelled. But the dog kept walk. Jackie was trying to keep up with him, but was being dragged more than she was crawling.

Jackie could feel more pain in her knees now than in her pussy. The thought that brain can only feel one pain point at a time, was coming true, and her knees across the pavement was worse.

The dog came up to an obstacle and stopped for a moment. Jackie tried to get him to calm down and to stop, but she couldn't reach him she could just use her voice. She thought the dog was listening to her, but then lowered himself slightly and then jumped over some boards. The pain seared through her as the dog performed his own episiotomy and the skin at the anal end of her pussy tore open to allow the knot to escape.

Jackie collapsed in a heap and was soon in the fetal position and passed out from the pain and exhaustion.

She woke up at first light. She looked around and it took a few moments to remember where she was and what had happened to her. She reached between her legs and felt her pussy and the tare. She felt something else as well. She moved her fingers back to her ass and felt a lot of wet there too. Her finger slid in way too easy and she felt cum in as far as her finger would go. "Son of a bitch" she thought; then she realized one of the dogs must have fucked her ass when she was passed out. Seeing as her ass was not cut up she assumed it was the smaller dog, but then she figured neither of them would have gotten that bulge inside her, so she wasn't sure.

She got herself up to her feet and could hardly walk. When she did, she did so slowly with her legs wider apart than usual. She looked around and found her jeans. It was a bitch to get them on, but she did. Her top was a joke. But it covered her tits.

She found the car that she liked and the price on the windshield in grease pen was in her price range. She used the hanger and unlocked the car. She started thinking about dogs, she didn't see them anywhere. She guessed they must be sleeping, but didn't want to take the chance, so she didn't start the car right up—she did find the wires she need and the knife she had on her car keys.

Jackie went over to the office door and grabbed a piece of paper that that was in a box near the door. She wrote "I took the mustang; I will be back with money before noon. My car broke down and is up the street, here are the keys, you can have it as a down payment. Please don't call the cops, I will be back I promise. Jackie." She figured if they saw it was a girl, that maybe they wouldn't call the cops.

Jackie got back into the car and hotwired it. She took off and the two dogs came out barking at her. When she got to the gate she was able to keep them away and got out, closing the gate behind her. She stopped at her unlocked car and got out her personal stuff and then locked it. She went home.

After taking a long bath and getting a few hours' sleep she went back to the dealer. There was only one man there and he was about 50 and had that salesman smile on then she walked in. "Hello, I see you did come back as promised, and I haven't called the cops yet." He said.

Jackie caught the "yet" that ended his sentence. She explained everything and then negotiated a price for the car. She was actually surprised that the man actual cut her a break and gave her more for her old car than she expected. She was about to leave when the man said:

"So Jackie, we have taken care of the cars, but now we need to discuss what went on her last night." She froze.

"You mean you are still going to call the cops?" she asked.

"Well, that depends on you...come over here for a moment I want to show you something." He said.

Jackie walked over by the man's desk; he motioned for her to look at his monitor. "I am not sure you remember this part as it appears you were totally passed out" he said and clicked his mouse.

To her shock the smaller dog was on top of her and although you couldn't tell that he was in her ass, you could tell he was fucking her, and that her face was toward the camera. The man said "actually I have watched the entire hour of the digital movie. Its not great quality as it was taken from the roof, but it was enough to get me very horny."

Jackie was still staring at the monitor and felt a little sick.

"Here is what we are going to do. You come by once a month and give me a payment in sex and I will keep this to myself. If you want you can let one of the dogs fuck you and let me watch, I have a feeling after feeling Brandy's huge cock, you might want it again... oh there is no option here, so just say you agree." He commanded.

Jackie just nodded her head, what else could she do. The man smiled and said "I have a feeling your holes are pretty sore right now, so for today, a blow job will be fine." He proceeded to unzip his pants and pull out his cock. He was already hard, probably from the movie or knowing what he was going to ask her to do.

She knew she had no option and she got on her knees and took the man into her mouth. Luckily he wasn't that big as he was one of those guys that pushed her head down every time she came up his shaft. The guy must have been hot all morning as it didn't take long and he suddenly just held her head down as far he could and then she felt him start squirting in her mouth. The way he was holding her head she had no choice but to swallow his load and she had to swallow twice to take it all.

He finally release her head and said "very nice, it's going to be hard to decide if I want to fuck you next month or get another blow job." She didn't know what to say and just said "thanks."

As she headed to the door the man said "Here, I made you a copy, figured it might turn you on like it did me, if you want to come back sooner, stop in." He threw her a thumb drive, with the dealership name imprinted on it.

Jackie walked out of the office feeling totally used, till she saw her new car... and smiled.
