BEASTIALITY STORIES

Part 1

Cindy has a special kind of love for dogs, everyone sees how much dogs like her even the meanest dogs of the neighborhood, though they have no idea that their dogs claimed her as their bitch. That's right, she's the neighborhood dog slut, they all have their shot at her and she loves it. Perhaps it's the different sizes, or the tabooess of it but she has taken many of the neighborhood dogs, sometimes one after another and sometimes just one throughout the day whenever he'd want more and people do suspect she sleeps around but if they only knew who with....they most likely wouldn't let her around their pets.

It all started a few months back when the ring leader walked into her yard one night, she sensed something behind undressing her with the piercing eyes, she turned her head and seen the dog known to be the meanest and she knew no one could ever tame him, not even his owners so, there she is standing at the back door noticing him in the center of the yard staring her down as he pants. She began to slowly walk towards him not knowing what he has in mind for her, nervous as can be she approaches him to try to make friends with this well known bad ass of a dog and she put in effect the lessons that was taught to her about greeting a strange dog for the first time though she knew him through his owners. Her hand out with palm open for him to sniff her and when she seen his tail wag she petted him for the first time. Of course she didn't know this was his way of getting her to warm up to what he planned for her.

Cindy turned around, walked towards the house putting stuff away just outside her porch and when Mr bad ass was finished scoping the yard, she felt something cold and wet slip up under her nighty and between her ass cheeks then felt something soft and wet touch her pussy. It didn't matter that she wasn't horny, mr bad ass had a plan, a plan to make her the neighborhood bitch for him and his buddies so, he gave her pussy a few more licks and sure enough Cindy was breathing deeper as she was enjoying the sensations of his tongue. Still standing, gripping the handle on her grill with the dog behind her giving her pussy one hell of a tongue job, she couldn't believe she was allowing this to happen but at the same time she didn't want it to stop either. She lowered her ass, hiked up her nighty to give him better access he really gave his tongue to her causing her to explode.

Eventually Cindy was on her hands and knees not realizing it as mr bad ass continued to lick her pussy but then paused for a moment and in a daze Cindy slowly opened her eyes wondering why he stopped then in shock suddently realized why. She was being mounted by this beast of a dog, she couldn't react in time because she just came down from cuming three times and then she felt it, the head of his cock slid between her lips and into her pussy. Realizing what's happening she went to free herself somehow but moaned when she felt more of his cock slide up in her pussy about half an inch sliding against the pussy walls how could she do anything else but moan? Soon she felt him all the way in her pussy, all resistance went away as she moaned in a soft breathless voice "Yes Take me...take me now..make me your bitch!" Mr bad ass had what appeared to be somewhat of smile because he succeeded in the first part of his plan and pounded her pussy like no man has ever done before while she rocked fast from the hardcore fucking she was recieving. His knot made it's way inside and after a few more thrusts, she felt him cumming inside her pussy which made her cum as well.

Mr bad ass's owners noticed a change in his behavior around Cindy and couldn't figure out why he's so tamed around her so quick when it took them years to get him tamed. She'd just smile especially knowing she just fucked their dog an hour ago and here they're asking what her secret is and though most of his cum leaked out earlier she still feels some of it in her pussy. "I guess he can tell I love dogs" Cindy told them and they responded with "yeah guess so."

Since that day, cindy and bad ass were sneaking around to fuck whenever they could and one day bad ass brought a buddy with him to cindy's backyard though she hasn't noticed yet due to doing yard work. It wasn't until she felt bad ass greet her the way he usually does, trying to get access to his bitch's pussy with his tongue and almost succeeded as Cindy was very loose fitted shorts just incase he'd want to fuck when he came around. She felt him, moved her shorts to the side giving him access to her pussy and she turned around to look at him, her eyes widened as she noticed they were being watch by a black lab so, she stood up for a moment taking it all in that she might be having a doggy threesome and the idea excited her as she felt wetness between her legs. She smiled at bad ass saying "gonna share me aren't ya?" and both dogs wagged their tails.

"alright, alright, you win" as she felt bad ass trying to get to her pussy from the front, and his buddy behind trying to get to her pussy as well. She stripped off her shorts, stroked both dogs until they were hard enough then asked "who's first?" and bad ass jumped up onto her back trying to find his mark as she sucked the black lab's cock and finally she feels bad ass enter her pussy as she removes the cock from her mouth long enough to gasp. Bad ass waisted no time in pounding her pussy like he always does making Cindy cum over and over then tells bad ass "Cum in your lover's pussy, come on give it to me!" a few hard thrusts rocks Cindy then a gush of hot doggy cum floods her pussy and she moans "fuck, that's it, give your bitch your cum, yesssss!" As they tie the other dog walks around her whimpering as he wants his shot at her and she tells him to be patient.

Bad ass finally pulls out with his cum following him, goes and cleans himself while the black lab comes over cleaning Cindy's pussy sending her over the edge with lust. He soon mounts her, missing his mark many times and just as she was about to reach back to guide him, she felt his cock poking another hole. She's never had a cock up her ass but always wondered it would be like but she knew she needed lube there so she guided him into her pussy at first to get his cock soaked good with her juices and then gently pushed him away. "consider yourself lucky, no cock has been up my ass and yours is about to be." she said to him as she lowered her ass some to give easy access to it. A few jabs and "Oh fuck, you're in my ass!" she feels him fucking her asshole medium speed and she's getting wetter by the minute "stop teasing and fuck that ass good!" she tells him and as if he understood, he no longer takes it easy in her ass and Cindy's loving every minute of this new found pleasure. She felt his hot breath near her neck when she did something she never thought of doing before, her tongue actually touched his while he pounded the hell out of her ass and that's when she felt the sensation of him emptying his load deep in her ass.

With both of holes freshly fucked she filled with cum she feels satisfied but bad ass wanted more of her and she doesn't refuse him. He fucked her hard cumming in her and they tied again. After bad ass dismounted her, Cindy petted both of them and they walked off proudly and Cindy smiled at that knowing their strut was of a male satisfied with getting what they wanted. Just as Cindy was pulling up her shorts her cell phone rang and on the other end was bad ass's owners looking for him. "I just seen him, and think he's heading home." she told his owners.

Part 2

Cindy's neighbors took noticed in how well she is with dogs and needed a dog sitter for when they couldn't be home thus offering to pay her to watch them. Cindy would accept watching the dogs just have their cocks inside her but couldn't tell her neighbors that so, instead she told them they'll be taken good care of.

The pay was good, the fucking was awesome and Cindy wasn't complaining, why would she with results like that? She'd take on the job usually on her days off which are on the weekend and there's been a few times she'd take on the job during the week after getting home from work, depending on how tired she was. The most she'd "dog sit" were two at a time, and sometimes they'd stay overnight.

Friday morning Cindy woke up moaning from feeling a tongue on her pussy lapping away, she rode his tongue until she came then pushed him away so she could get up and get into position for her lover to mount her. He was a black/brown, strong, full size rot that had a seven inch cock starting out and Cindy could feel her pussy craving his cock so once in position, she turned to look at him and patted her ass. All he'd do though was lick her pussy which Cindy came but she also was getting frustrated that he wasn't fucking her with his cock yet.

It wasn't until Cindy was in the livingroom by the door to check mail when she felt the weight of the rot on her back pushing her forward and she didn't resist afterall she's been wanting this all morning so she lowered herself into position as she pulled up her robe to give him easy access and the rot finally mounted her. A couple of hit and miss jabs then into her pussy he went somewhat rough but Cindy didn't care how rough he was, she wanted his cock and she wanted his cum deep inside her. Her pussy would often contract onto his cock in reaction to the hardcore doggy fuck she was receiving as she'd cum over and over. She could feel him growing inside her as she felt his cock sliding in and out and then felt his knot hitting the outter lips of her pussy "yes, tie with me baby, please" she managed to say between the deep breaths. A few more thrusts and one extra hard push with his knot slipping inside her pussy she let out a long deep moan as she screamed "FUCK YES!" and came again. Few more thrusts and she heard him yelp as she felt his hot cum flooding her pussy and she praised him saying "Good boy, good....boy!" A couple minutes that seamed like eternity had passed, his knot shrunk and he pulled out with some of his cum following him. Just in time too because Cindy then heard the door bell rang, it was the rot's owners come to pick him up.

The rot's owners asked if he was any trouble for her, she smiled saying "no, he was very good" as she felt some more of his cum oozing out of her pussy and took the money from the rot's owners. Later on in the day she thought about how she almost got caught with the rot in her pussy and played solo until she came.

Saturday morning she was shedual to dog sit two and she answered the door with a smile when she seen both. The two seperate owners told her they're going out of town for the day and will be back late. Cindy didn't mind as she had plans for the two dogs. Cindy was wearing a mini skirt with a halter top when she closed the door behind, imediately the two dogs slid their nose up her slirt, one touching her pussy and the other touching her asshole. She stood there not in shock but with a feeling pleasure run through her body as she felt both tongues working her holes over she removed the skirt throwing it across the room and squated some so the one tonguing her asshole could easier access. She wanted both at the same time so she helped the one in front lay down and she straddled him. His cock slid in with ease, she looked behind patting her ass and spreaded her cheeks so the lab could get in her asshole which he did so now she has both holes full of dog cock.

After a few weeks of the dog sitting business, it was picking up and the neighbors noticed their pets being much calmer, if their owners got laid much as they did with Cindy, they would be as well. So, a neighbor down the street named Todd thought he'd go sneak to see what Cindy's trick was to tame them so well and as he came to the edge of the backyard, nothing prepared him for what he was about to see. Cindy's on top of one dog with his cock burried deep in her pussy and has the other dog burried deep in her ass while breathing hard, moaning somewhat loud and encouraging the dogs as she talks dirty to them. Todd froze behind the fence, felt his cock stiffening and enjoyed the show before his eyes. As he watched he then seen the action stopped but neither dog leaving her holes and he knew they were cumming inside her which almost caused him to explode in his jeans. He quietly left with these images on his mind all night and Cindy had no idea since she was enjoying the DP she was receiving.

A few days passed since then but Todd was still trying to get sneak peeks into Cindy's backyard though she wasn't there until his dog start walking towards her yard into a small opening of the fence just the right size for any dog to climb through. When he Cindy's door opening, Todd ducked behind a bush that gave him a good enough into her yard without him being noticed and as he seen his dog wagging his tail while Cindy greeted him he heard her say "Back for more lover?" and it dawned on him why his dog has been easier to handle at home, his neighbor has been fucking his dog. One by one Cindy's clothing came off, Todd's cock starting to stir in his jeans when seeing her forty double d boobs spring out for freedom, then her full bare ass as she turned around to lower into position and whitness his own dog burry his snout into her pussy working his tongue. Todd being the owner of the dog felt a sence of pride whispering to his dog "that's my boy, you get her good" though neither Cindy or the dog could hear him.

Whitnessing his dog eating her pussy out, then Cindy sucking the dog to hardness, and then on her knees with her ass facing Todd he seen her look back patting her ass and seen his husky mount her. He couldn't ignore his raging hard on so he pulled it out stroking at the speed his husky was fucking Cindy and at this point Todd didn't care that he was out in the open behind the bush for anyone to see him being a peeping tom, he wanted his boy to have the best fuck ever and he did. Then Cindy would crawl around once in awhile with the husky still inside her pumping her with all his might and as they both stopped Todd lost it too as he knew his husky was spewing his cum deep inside of Cindy, Todd's hand was covered with his own cum. Cindy was cumming also and todd slipped his cock back into jeans and left. Thirty minutes Cindy showed up at Todd's door with his husky and the images of her fucking his husky just thirty minutes ago are still strong in his head as he answered his door. Cindy said "Hi Todd, I'm pretty sure this husky is yours, he was in my yard, not to worry though I enjoyed his company" and todd smiled himself thinking "I know you did and I enjoyed watching" but kept it to himself. She told him she dog sits for her neighbors if he was interested in letting her when he's not around, he eagerly agreed and Cindy went on her way.

Todd was good with electronics so he put up some hidden cams, called Cindy asking her if she'd mind watching the husky in his home, made up some lame excuse on why and she agreed too. Cindy came over. he showed her where everything is, and went out for a couple of hours. Once he left, Cindy couldn't wait to feel the husky inside her again so didn't waist anytime in getting him ready for her and she wasn't disappointed as they fucked many times that evening in every room possible and sometimes inbetween rooms as the husky would take her whenever he wanted and she'd let him. Finally four hours later Todd comes home, askes how his husky has been and she smiled to herself saying "He's been a very good doggie Todd." Todd paid her what he owed her and before Cindy left she gave the husky a good night hug and left. When Todd was sure Cindy was gone, he let his husky know he was proud of him and played the tapes that had the events of the evening in his home while he was gone. He never knew a man could cum so many times as he watched each tape that night.

At the same time, Cindy's at home recapturing the hot sex she just had for 4 hours with her new lover she'll be enjoying more of soon but she was about to get fucked again as bad ass came through the opening of the door Cindy has just had installed recently. Laying on her stomach in middle of the bed, she felt something get in bed with her and as she turned around she felt the familuar tongue all over her ass cheeks. Seeing it was bad ass (the first dog she ever fucked) she spread her legs for him, he licked her pussy, asshole, pussy and asshole again. As his tongue touched her asshole, she without thinking about it raised her ass up in the air giving him full access while she moaned with pleasure getting her asshole tongued like a pro, she hasn't had cock in her asshole for a few days now and his tongue was making her want a good stiff cock in her ass. Bad ass paused for a moment as if deciding if he should take her asshole now or tease her longer. Cindy rose up enough to line his cock with her asshole and in a husky voice told bad ass "Please give my ass your cock."

Bad ass didn't need to be told twice, after a couple missed thrusts, Cindy felt the head of his cock slip past her tight anal ring then could feel rest of cock sliding the rest of the way slowly til he was burried deep in her ass. They both thrust slow at first but then Bad ass speeded up and Cindy didn't move as she let him have his way with her ass while enjoying the ass fucking she could hear the wet sounds from his tongue lubricating her asshole earlier so, she reached for her clit and rubbed it with passion. Her asshole sucking his cock as he pounded for a good 20 mins then stopped with a howl as he shot his load in her ass and she moaned loud as she was cumming all over fingers. Bad ass didn't go home that night and in the morning he was in her ass again giving it a good fuck, Cindy's cell phone rings, it's bad ass's owners looking for him. Bad ass is fucking her up the ass while she's trying to talk to his owners which she tries to muffle her moans and bad ass's owners say "sorry to bother you I can tell you're busy" then hung up. Not too long afterward, bad ass flooded her ass with his cum again.

Part 3

Cindy has been loving the role she took on in her neighborhood for the town pets, to be their slut that will allow them to fuck her anytime they want to in whichever hole their cock's enter and just recently discovered how hot it is to be fucked by one of them as their owner is the phone asking Cindy where he might be. Sometimes she's tempted to say "Oh he's cumming in me now, he'll be a few minutes late getting home" but she doesn't let her secret out. It's to the point that wherever she goes in the small town she gets wet when she sees her lovers walking with their owner finding it hard to control herself because she wants to fuck them right then and there. Little did she know that she'd be in luck soon.

Cindy was later walking by an abandoned house, no one around and following her was a Dalmation that managed to escape the grasp of it's owner whom lost track of where he was running. Cindy heard panting behind her, not of a human, she knew the difference by now and immediately felt the wetness come back in her pussy. She turned around to see the Dalmation, she smiled and asked him if he was gonna take care of her and he came up to her without second thought shoved his snout into her pussy and Cindy felt that was his way of saying yes. Hard as it was Cindy managed to pull away, looked at the abandon house and with a grin told him to follow her.

Once inside the house Cindy closes the door behind them, the dalmation goes after her pussy again managing this time to get his tongue inside as Cindy holds the her skirt up from the bottom hem but his tongue is feeling so good she looks around around for something to lean on and finds an old couch. Knees on floor, upper body resting on the cushions with the dalmation lapping away at her pussy she's starting to breath harder and she turns her head far as she could to watch as her arms are outstretched across the couch with her boobs smashed into the cushions and her ass out. Her breathing becomes more rapid and she's quenching the dog's thirst with her cum as she heard his owner calling for him.

Cindy realized the dog could hear his owner since he stopped but she reached a hand back and patted her ass telling the dog "come on lover give me your cock" it took a few minutes to get his attention but then she felt his weight on her back and a few missed jabs. Both frustrated, Cindy reached back grabbing a hold of his cock bringing it to her pussy and then she let out a long moan as she felt the head slip into her pussy. The dog's owner still outside wandring the block calling out to him as he fucks Cindy faster than any man could while cindy bounces hard between the couch and the dog. She's really into the fucking she's recieving "oh you bad boy, fucking me while your owner is calling for you” her pussy gripping his cock trying to keep it in each time he pulls back “Fuck yes, that’s it, make me yours lover!” as he hammers her pussy even harder trying to get his knot inside her. “Ohhhhhhhh yes I’m yours, all yours now!” she says as she felt her pussy close behind his knot with a few more hard deep thrusts and then filling her pussy with so much cum it was running out of her pussy over his cock “YES, I’M YOUR BITCH WHENEVER YOU WANT!” They still hear his owner calling for him, he tries to pull free but can’t since they are tied and she calms him down until his knot softens enough to pull out with a popping sound and a gush of cum following. The dalmation found his way out and left with his owner.

Still in position to be fucked, she’s trying to catch her breath with her upper sprawled out on the couch but wasn’t expecting what was to come as she was shocked back to reality when she felt another tongue lick her pussy. Three more dogs were in the abandoned house and they all took turns fucking her until they had enough and left. It was now dark out, she finally got up, and she was getting dressed she realized she was just gang banged by three dogs and a wicked smile came across her face as she left the abandoned house. Worn out from the doggie gang bang once she made it home, she had no trouble falling asleep.
